In memory of our friend Bill Shannon (1941-2010)

Official Scorer of approximately 800 Yankees games from 1979-2010

"Personally, I cannot attend a baseball game without keeping a scorecard. In my experience, doing so makes the game more meaningful, because you can observe events within the framework of knowledge."

–Bill Shannon from his book Official Scoring in the Big Leagues

September 11, 2001

10th Anniversary

A monument in memory of the victims and heroes of the 9/11 tragedy was erected and dedicated on September 11, 2002 in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park.

It was 10 years ago that the worst terrorist attacks in our nation's history took place on September 11, 2001. The New York Yankees remember all of the men, women and children who lost their lives or had their lives changed forever by that tragic Tuesday morning.

That evening the Yankees were scheduled to host the Chicago White Sox at 7:05 pm with Roger Clemens going for his 20th win of the season. However the original Yankee Stadium would remain silent after a morning of destruction and terrible loss in New York City, Arlington County, Va., and Shanksville, Penn.

Heroes from all walks of life pulled together that day, with many giving the ultimate sacrifice.

At the urging of President George W. Bush, Americans tried as best they could to return to the normal fabric of their everyday lives. Baseball, the most American of institutions, played a major role. One week after the attacks, the Major Leagues resumed its schedule with the Yankees on the road in Chicago vs. the White Sox.

Yankee Stadium reopened for baseball on September 25 with the Yankees hosting the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. In front of a packed Stadium, the Yankees held a "Tribute to America" prior to first pitch, including a rendition of "Taps," followed by the Harlem Boys Choir performance of "We Shall Overcome." Michael Bolton then sang "Lean on Me," before "God Bless America" was performed. Police, firefighters and emergency workers lined the field with Yankees players as Challenger, the bald eagle, was walked to the mound and Max Von Essen, the son of Fire Commissioner Thomas Von Essen, sang the national anthem. Wearing caps from the NYPD and FDNY, the Yankees lost an emotional game, 4-0, but still managed to clinch the AL East division title that evening thanks to a Boston loss.

"We play because this is what we do. We play because of the higher purpose that we try to accomplish as a part of society, and we play also because we're grateful that we're alive."

– Bernie Williams

A flag from the World Trade Center flew over Yankee Stadium during the 2001 World Series.

A service in honor of the missing and dead was held at Yankee Stadium on September 23, 2001. Hosted by Oprah Winfrey and James Earl Jones, A Prayer for America included performances by Placido Domingo ("Ave Maria"), Bette Midler ("The Wind Beneath My Wings"), Lee Greenwood ("God Bless the U.S.A.") and the Harlem Boys Choir ("We Shall Overcome"), as well as remarks from New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani.

The drama of the 2001 postseason provided a welcome distraction from the heartache. Though the Yankees would eventually fall in Game 7 of the World Series to Arizona, the club took pride in its role in the nation's healing process.

"This massive attack was intended to break our spirit. It has not done that. It's made us stronger, more determined and more resolved. The bravery of our firefighters, our police officers, our emergency workers and civilians we may never learn of, in saving over 25,000 lives that day, and carrying out the most effective rescue operation in our history, inspires all of us.

"New Yorkers are strong and they are resilient. We are unified, and we will not yield to terror. We do not let fear make our decisions for us. We choose to live in freedom."

– Rudolph Giuliani, New York City Mayor, 1994-2001

Harold Z. (Hal) Steinbrenner

Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson

Hal Steinbrenner begins his 21st season with the New York Yankees organization in 2011 and his third as Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson. On November 20, 2008, Major League Baseball formalized Mr. Steinbrenner's role as the New York Yankees' managing partner.

Under Mr. Steinbrenner's leadership, the Yankees have retained and enhanced their global popularity while continuing to field championship-caliber teams. In 2010, the franchise led Baseball in home and road attendance, combining to draw 6,595,941 fans while reaching the postseason for the 15th time in the last 16 seasons (1995-07, '09-10). In his first full year as Managing General Partner in 2009, the Yankees capped their historic inaugural season in Yankee Stadium with their 27th World Championship.

The 42-year-old son of George Steinbrenner was elected General Partner by the New York Yankees Partnership in 1996, and he held that title for 13 seasons. In 2007, Mr. Steinbrenner was also named Chairman of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC.

Along with General Partner / Co-Chairperson Hank Steinbrenner, his responsibilities include overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations, and directing financial aspects of the New York Yankees, Yankee Global Enterprises and affiliates. In addition, he serves on the Board of Directors for Legends Hospitality, LLC, a concession and merchandising company developed with the Dallas Cowboys, which operates at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums.

Mr. Steinbrenner is also Chairman and CEO of Steinbrenner Hotel Properties and holds a seat on both the Board of Directors of the Boys & Girls Club of Tampa Bay and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and graduated from Williams College in 1991 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He earned a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida in 1994. Mr. Steinbrenner and his wife, Christina, currently reside in Tampa, Fla.

Henry G. (Hank) Steinbrenner

General Partner / Co-Chairperson

Hank Steinbrenner begins his fourth season as General Partner and third season as Co-Chairperson of the New York Yankees. Along with Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson Hal Steinbrenner, the 53-year-old son of George Steinbrenner is responsible for overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations.

Prior to the 2008 season, Mr. Steinbrenner was directly involved in the delicate negotiations and eventual re-signings of Yankees All-Stars Jorge Posada, Mariano Rivera and Alex Rodriguez, while guiding the managerial search that concluded with the hiring of former Yankees catcher and bench coach Joe Girardi, who led the club to the 2009 World Series title. Mr. Steinbrenner was also part of the collaborative front office effort of the 2008-09 offseason, which led to the signings of free agent first baseman Mark Teixeira and pitchers CC Sabathia and A.J. Burnett, who helped propel the club to the 27th championship in franchise history.

Mr. Steinbrenner has served as Chairman and Director of Minch Transit Company, Vice President and Director of Bay Farms Corporation, Vice President and Director of Mid-Florida Hotels Corporation, and has been a member of the board of the Ocala Breeders Sales Company. In the Tampa Bay community, he has been involved in a number of children's charities.

In 2010, Mr. Steinbrenner sponsored and supervised "Hank's Yanks," an 18-and-under summer league baseball team comprised of teenagers from a variety of socioeconomic backgrounds in the New York community. The team—in their first season—captured the championship of Yaphank, Long Island's "Baseball Heaven" league and also won the inaugural "Boss' Cup" game played at Yankee Stadium.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and Central Methodist College. He is the father of four children and resides in Tampa, Fla.

Hot Ticket

The Yankees drew 3,765,803 fans in their second season of play in Yankee Stadium in 2010, marking the highest home attendance for any Major League team in 2010...the Yankees also led the Majors averaging 46,491 per game, surpassing their home attendance figures for the 2009 regular season (3,719,358 total/45,918 per game)...marked the eighth consecutive season the Yankees led the AL in attendance (2003-10)...the organization also led the Majors in road attendance (2,830,138)...the Yankees' combined draw of 6,595,941 fans topped the American League for the 12th consecutive season. The Yankees currently own five of the six largest single-season attendance totals in professional sports history, including the all-time mark of 7,325,051 fans in 2006. In addition, the Yankees are the only Major League franchise to reach the four-million mark in home attendance in four straight seasons, accomplishing the feat from 2005-08.

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal

General Partner / Vice Chairperson

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal begins her third full season in the role of General Partner / Vice Chairperson of the New York Yankees. In 2008, Ms. Steinbrenner held the title of Senior Vice President of New Stadium Public Affairs. The elder daughter of George Steinbrenner previously served in the Yankees Public Affairs Department in 1984-85 prior to spending 23 years actively participating in the philanthropic community.

Her present responsibilities include the implementation and integration of various community programs relating to Yankee Stadium. In addition, she serves in a supervisory role for the New York Yankees and Tampa Yankees Foundations, overseeing numerous local, regional and national outreach efforts.

Ms. Steinbrenner has a distinguished record of contributing to community projects and initiatives, including current commitments on the Florida State Fair Authority (Executive Committee, Agricultural Committee, and Chairwoman of the Marketing Committee), Board of Directors of Mary Lee's House (a child protection and advocacy center in Tampa), Board of Directors and Executive Committee of the H.B. Plant Museum, Board of Directors of the New York Pops, and Advisory Committee for the Tampa Salvation Army. She has also held prior board positions with the Children's Cancer Center of Tampa, Boys & Girls Clubs of Tampa Bay, Florida Orchestra, Red Cross of Tampa and Culver Academies.

A Morehead Scholar and 1981 graduate of the University of North Carolina with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration, Ms. Steinbrenner continues her commitment to the university, serving on the UNC Board of Visitors and the Parents Council. Her daughter, Haley, received her undergraduate degree from UNC in 2008, and her son, Stephen, is currently a senior there.

Ms. Steinbrenner was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and makes her home in Tampa, Fla.

Jessica Steinbrenner

General Partner / Vice Chairperson

Jessica Steinbrenner begins her third full season as General Partner / Vice Chairperson for the New York Yankees. The younger daughter of George M. Steinbrenner previously served in the role of Senior Vice President for the team in 2008.

In addition, Mrs. Steinbrenner serves as the Chief Executive Officer of Bay Farms Corporation and serves on the board of the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association. She has also authored two children's books: My Sleepy Room and My Messy Room.

She attended Culver Girls Academy and graduated from Sweet Briar College in Virginia. Mrs. Steinbrenner currently resides in Tampa, Fla., with her husband, Felix, and her four children.

Joan Z. Steinbrenner

Vice Chairperson

Joan Steinbrenner holds the position of Vice Chairperson of the New York Yankees. Mrs. Steinbrenner was married to Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner from 1956 until his passing in 2010.

Mrs. Steinbrenner has participated in many community projects and supported numerous philanthropic organizations. Among her many dignified community roles, she was named State Chairperson for the Florida Special Olympics in 1981 and 1982, and for two years was on the Board of Directors of the National Society to Prevent Blindness. She was also a charter member of Town and Gown, established in 1977 in an effort to form a bond between community supporters in the downtown Tampa area and the University of South Florida.

In addition, Mrs. Steinbrenner was a longtime board member for Children's Home, Inc., and was one of the original members of the H.B. Plant Museum Society. From 1991 to 2000 she served on the Development Council of St. Joseph's Hospital Foundation Board. She currently is a member of the Junior League of Tampa, the Chiselers, and sits on the Board of Directors for the Florida Orchestra.

A graduate of Upper Arlington High School in Columbus, Ohio, and Ohio State University, Mrs. Steinbrenner earned a degree in dental hygiene. She currently resides in Tampa, Fla., with her four children and 13 grandchildren.

Randy Levine

President

Randy Levine begins his 12th season as President of the New York Yankees in 2011. He was named to his position in January 2000, becoming the first person to hold the post with the club since 1986.

Under his supervision and guidance, the franchise constructed the state-of-the art Yankee Stadium, completing the facility on time for the beginning of the 2009 season, which culminated in the franchise's 27th World Championship. Mr. Levine was a principal founder of the YES Network, which was recently named the most-watched regional sports network in the United States for the eighth consecutive year (2003-10). In 2008, he was instrumental in creating Legends Hospitality, LLC, a new concession and merchandising company with the Dallas Cowboys which currently operates at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums. In 2004, he helped organize Yankees-Steiner, a leading sports memorabilia company.

Mr. Levine has also played a prominent role in the Yankees' international brand expansion, including the 2007 establishment of a first-of-its-kind working relationship with the Chinese Baseball Association. More recently, he led a 2010 Yankees delegation that visited Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong with the 2009 World Series Trophy, marking the first-ever time that the Yankees have brought one of their World Series trophies to Asia. In addition, Mr. Levine helped develop the joint venture agreement in Japan between the Yankees and Yomiuri Shimbun, which is the parent company of the Yomiuri Giants.

In 2007, the Yankees became the first Major League organization to sign players from the Israel Baseball League and also embarked on their first-ever large-scale outreach into Taiwan by holding a clinic for high school players and coaches in Taipei, Taiwan. Mr. Levine is also the Yankees' principal liaison to Major League Baseball and contributes to player negotiations and contract issues.

Mr. Levine has been at the forefront of bringing exciting year-round entertainment and special events to Yankee Stadium. In 2010, he was a driving force that led to a world championship boxing match between Miguel Cotto and Yuri Foreman, a pair of historic concerts featuring JAY-Z and Eminem, a renewed gridiron rivalry between Army and Notre Dame, and college football's newest postseason game—the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

Mr. Levine's baseball and business vision has also led to record numbers at Yankee Stadium turnstiles. In 2010, the Yankees led Baseball in home attendance for the seventh time in the last eight seasons (2003-08, '10) and have now topped the American League in home attendance in each of the past eight seasons (2003-10). In 2008, his direction helped the club establish the all-time AL single-season attendance record of 4,298,543 to become the only Major League franchise to exceed the 4 million mark at home in four consecutive seasons (2005-08).

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Levine served as New York City's Deputy Mayor for Economic Development, Planning and Administration. He also served as New York City's Labor Commissioner.

From 1995 through 1997, Mr. Levine was Chief Negotiator for Major League Baseball. In 1996, he negotiated the labor agreement that for the first time included revenue sharing, luxury taxes and Interleague play. Prior to that, Mr. Levine served as Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General and Principal Deputy Attorney General at the United States Department of Justice. He has also served as a special delegate to the United States Department of Labor and was a board member for Hudson River Park. Mr. Levine presently serves on the boards of George Washington University, the ASCPA and the Yogi Berra Museum.

Mr. Levine has served on the Board of Directors of the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network and Legends Hospitality, LLC. He is also an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC. Mr. Levine serves on the International, Diversity and Labor Policy Committees of Major League Baseball.

Mr. Levine has been a partner in the New York law firm of Proskauer Rose Goetz & Mendelson and is presently Senior Counsel at the law firm of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld.

Born on February 22, 1955, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Mr. Levine received a Bachelor of Arts degree from George Washington University in 1977, and in 2011 was named as Chair of the school's athletic committee. He received his J.D. from Hofstra University School of Law in 1980. Mr. Levine and his wife, Mindy, reside in Manhattan.

Felix M. Lopez, Jr.

Executive Vice President/Chief International Officer

Felix M. Lopez, Jr. begins his second season as Executive Vice President/Chief International Officer in 2011. From 2005-09, he served as Yankees Senior Vice President. His current responsibilities include overseeing the daily operations of George M. Steinbrenner Field, the Himes Player Development Complex and the Single-A Tampa Yankees. He is also involved with the Yankees' Latin Baseball Academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, as well as player development in Latin America.

Under Mr. Lopez's supervision, the Yankees spring training home in Tampa, Fla., has undergone several structural enhancements and renovations in recent years, including the expansion of field box seating and the redesign of the Yankees' clubhouse facilities.

Fan-friendly amenities have been at the forefront of Mr. Lopez's operational strategy, including the design of the Brighthouse Networks Dugout Club, located underneath the field box seats behind home plate. In addition, Mr. Lopez was instrumental in developing the new Tampa Tribune Deck, which was unveiled in 2008. Located beyond the right field wall, the unique and intimate structure features picnic-style seating for 500 people, private concessions and a full bar.

In January 2010, Mr. Lopez headed a Yankees delegation that took the club's 2009 World Series trophy to the Dominican Republic. The visit included stops at the Presidential Palace, U.S. Embassy, National Police Headquarters and Santo Domingo's Quisqueya Stadium for a Dominican Winter League playoff game.

Mr. Lopez also serves on the boards of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC, and Legends Hospitality, LLC.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Lopez was the president and owner of Architecture Design Construction, Inc., a company specializing in commercial construction in the southeastern United States. Born on April 1, 1954, in Havana, Cuba, Mr. Lopez moved to Tampa, Fla., in 1969 and later graduated from Cam Tech School of Construction. He is a member of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Florida and Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North America. He also serves on the board of the Gold Shield Foundation and contributes to the efforts of the Police Athletic League (PAL).

Mr. Lopez and his wife, Jessica, reside in Tampa, Fla.

Lonn A. Trost

Chief Operating Officer

Lonn A. Trost begins his 12th season as Chief Operating Officer of the New York Yankees in 2011. He was named to the position on January 10, 2000, after serving as the club's Executive Vice President and General Counsel from 1997-99.

Mr. Trost is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Yankees' operations. Under his direction, the Yankees have seen tremendous growth in brand recognition and sponsorship opportunities, while also establishing single-season home attendance records nine times (1998-99; 2002-08). In 2010, the club led Major League Baseball in home attendance, drawing in excess of 16,000 more fans per game than the combined average of the 29 other Major League teams. It also marked the seventh time in the last eight seasons (2003-08,'10) that the Yankees led the Majors in home attendance and the club's eighth straight season topping the American League.

Additionally, Mr. Trost, along with Hal Steinbrenner and Randy Levine, spearheaded the most complex undertaking in New York Yankees history—construction and development of Yankee Stadium, which is the largest privately funded building project in the history of the Bronx. While remaining true to the architectural grandeur of the 1923 original, the current facility is the most technologically advanced stadium in baseball.

Mr. Trost has played a significant role in Yankee Stadium becoming a year-round multi-purpose home to special events. In 2010, his vision and planning came to fruition with a world championship boxing match between Miguel Cotto and Yuri Foreman, a pair of historic concerts featuring JAY-Z and Eminem, a renewed gridiron rivalry between Army and Notre Dame, and college football's newest postseason game—the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Trost was a partner and member of the Executive Committee of the law firm of Shea and Gould from 1972 to 1994. He was also a partner at the New York law firm of Herrick, Feinstein from 1994 through 1997. While with these firms, he served as outside general counsel for numerous sports franchises, institutions and agents. Among his clients were the New York Yankees and Mets, the New Jersey Nets and Devils, the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Little League Baseball and TCI Cable.

Mr. Trost was instrumental in the creation of the YES Network and is a member of its Board of Directors. He also serves as an officer for Yankee Global Enterprises and Legends Hospitality, LLC, both of which he participated in founding. While he maintains his responsibilities with the New York Yankees Partnership and the Yankees' other affiliates, he is also actively involved with the Tourette Syndrome Association, with whom he is a member of the Corporate and Professional Council.

Born on May 8, 1945, Mr. Trost began his legal career in 1971 with the United States Justice Department, Office of Chief Counsel (Treasury Department). A 1968 graduate of Hunter College in the Bronx, Mr. Trost received his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School in 1971. It's interesting to note that Mr. Trost's initial employment with the Yankees was as a grandstand vendor in the mid-1960s in the original Yankee Stadium. He resides in Monroe Township, N.J., with his wife, Carol. They have two children, Evan and Audra, and one grandchild, Ariella.

Brian Cashman

Senior Vice President, General Manager

Brian McGuire Cashman has literally grown up in the Yankees family. He joined the organization in 1986 as a 19-year-old intern in the Minor League and Scouting Department and now commands one of the most demanding jobs in sports as Yankees Senior Vice President and General Manager.

Over the course of his 24 seasons with the team, he has earned five World Series rings, including four as General Manager, becoming the first GM to win four World Series titles since the Dodgers' Buzzie Bavasi in the 1950s and '60s. Notably, he has won his titles with two different managers — Joe Torre in 1998, 1999 and 2000, and Joe Girardi in 2009.

Mr. Cashman assumed his current post on February 3, 1998. At age 31, he became the second-youngest General Manager in baseball history. In his first season, he became the youngest-ever GM to win a World Series, and with championships in 1999 and 2000, he became the only GM in baseball history to win world titles in each of his first three seasons. A pennant in 2001 gave him four straight League Championships, placing him alongside Hall of Fame Yankees General Managers Ed Barrow (1936-39, four) and George Weiss (1949-53, five) as the only GMs in Baseball history to win four-or-more straight league titles at any point in their careers.

Among his peers, Mr. Cashman has achieved unparalleled success while carrying on the winning tradition of the Yankees. His lifetime winning percentage of .605 (1,272-830-2) is the highest of any General Manager with five seasons of experience since 1950 and marks the best team winning percentage in the Major Leagues during that same stretch. Now in his 14th season, Mr. Cashman has the third-longest tenure among all general managers in baseball and is the longest-serving Yankees GM since Barrow led the team from October 28, 1920 to February 20, 1945.

In all, his clubs have claimed 10 Division titles and six American League championships to go along with four World Series titles. His feat of reaching the playoffs in each of his first 10 seasons (1998-2007) remains unmatched in Baseball history.

In his present role, Mr. Cashman has been involved in dozens of high-profile Major League free-agent signings, including those of A.J. Burnett, Johnny Damon, Orlando Hernandez, Hideki Matsui, Mike Mussina, CC Sabathia, Alfonso Soriano and Mark Teixeira. Mr. Cashman has also executed more than 70 trades involving over 200 players, bringing the talents of Bobby Abreu, Aaron Boone, Curtis Granderson, David Justice, Alex Rodriguez and Nick Swisher to the Bronx.

Recently, Mr. Cashman has focused on rebuilding the Yankees farm system, while still maintaining World Championship talent at the Major League level. The emphasis he and his baseball operations staff have placed on the First-Year Player Draft and international scouting is demonstrated by the organization's homegrown talent, including Manny Banuelos, Dellin Betances, Andrew Brackman, Robinson Cano, Joba Chamberlain, Brett Gardner, Phil Hughes, Jesus Montero, David Robertson and Austin Romine.

There have been three women in Major League history to hold the position of Assistant General Manager, and Mr. Cashman has hired two of them: Jean Afterman, the Yankees' current Vice President and Assistant General Manager; and Kim Ng, who is currently Vice President and Assistant General Manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Yankees and Mr. Cashman. With the club's recent World Series title, the Yankees were named "2009 Male Team of the Year" by the United States Sports Academy and were nominated as "Team of the Year" in the Laureus World Sports Awards competition. In both 1998 and 2000, the Yankees earned ESPY Awards — presented by ESPN — as "Outstanding Team of the Year," and were named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and by USA Today in 1999.

Mr. Cashman has been honored as "Executive of the Year" four times: by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA in 2000 and 2009; and in 1999 and 2003 by the New Jersey Sportswriters' Association. In 2001, he received his third consecutive "40 Under 40" Award presented by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal to recognize the top 40 people under the age of 40 who have made the greatest impact in the sports business industry. He has since been inducted into the publication's "40 Under 40" Hall of Fame. In 2003, Mr. Cashman was honored by the Latino Sports Writers and Broadcasters Association with their annual "Latino Achievement Award" for his contributions to the Latino media. He was also honored with the 2005 "Ossie Davis Award for Inspirational Leadership," given each year to a key leader in an organization that works to promote opportunity in diversity.

On February 11, 2004, Mr. Cashman was given the honor of ringing the opening bell at the New York Stock Exchange. The market closed at 10,737.70 that day, its highest close since June 13, 2001.

Mr. Cashman remains committed to growing the Yankees brand and increasing the number of people who play and enjoy baseball worldwide. In February 2010, he was part of the Yankees delegation that brought the 2009 World Series trophy to Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong. While on the Chinese mainland, the group met with the Chinese Baseball Association to discuss ways the game can be promoted in China. He was also heavily involved in bringing the Yankees to Tokyo for "Opening Series 2004" to honor the 70th anniversary of Major League Baseball's historic tour of Japan, which included Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig.

His career as a full-time Yankees employee began following his graduation from Catholic University in 1989, when Mr. Cashman became a full-time Assistant in Baseball Operations. He was later promoted and transferred to Tampa, Fla., where he served as Assistant Farm Director from 1990 to 1992. He returned to New York and became Assistant General Manager, Baseball Administration in November 1992 .

Born on July 3, 1967, in Rockville Center, N.Y., Mr. Cashman grew up in Lexington, Ky. He attended Georgetown Prep in Rockville, Md., before attending Catholic University in Washington, D.C., where he majored in history and played intercollegiate baseball. His love for baseball developed when former Brooklyn Dodger Ralph Branca and his wife, Ann, arranged for him to serve as a bat boy for the Los Angeles Dodgers in spring training in 1982.

Mr. Cashman and his wife, Mary, have a daughter, Grace Eva, and a son, Theodore John.

Mark Newman

Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations

Mark Newman begins his 12th season as the Yankees' Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and his 23rd season with the Yankees. Prior to being named to his current position in 2000, Mr. Newman served as the club's Vice President of Player Development and Scouting from 1997-99.

During his tenure, the Yankees player development system has been recognized for producing homegrown talent including All-Stars Robinson Cano, Phil Hughes, Derek Jeter, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera. Under Mr. Newman's supervision over the last decade, the Yankees have drafted and stockpiled talented prospects to evolve into what has been lauded as one of the best player development systems in baseball.

In December 2010, Mr. Newman received the Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award, recognizing his distinguished service to player development.

Over the last five seasons (2006-10), the Yankees' minor league affiliates (from the Dominican Summer League through Triple-A) have produced the most wins and the best winning percentage among all Major League franchises with a combined record of 2,339-1,815 (.563). Over the same stretch, Yankees farm teams captured nine league championships, and in 2008 became the first organization since Houston in 1993 to have its Triple-A and Double-A clubs both win titles in the same season.

In addition to stringing together 15 seasons of Major League postseason play over the last 16 years (1995-2007, '09-10) and winning five World Championships over the stretch, the Yankees are one of only two teams, along with the Cleveland Indians, whose minor league affiliates have combined to post winning records in each of the last 21 seasons since 1990. The Yankees were selected as the "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and earned the same honor from USA Today in 1999.

Mr. Newman began his career in the Yankees organization in 1989 as Coordinator of Instruction and served in that position until his promotion to Director of Player Development and Scouting in 1996. He was named Vice President of Player Development and Scouting in 1997. In his first role with the club, he oversaw all managers and coaches in the farm system and planned both Major and Minor League spring training.

In 1972, Mr. Newman began his baseball coaching career at 22 years old as the pitching coach for Southern Illinois University. After spending nine successful seasons there—during which he earned his law degree with honors—he was named Head Baseball Coach at Old Dominion University in 1981. Mr. Newman's impressive 321-167-3 record in nine seasons was recognized with his induction into the ODU Hall of Fame in 1997. He was inducted into the SIU Hall of Fame in 2000.

Jean Afterman

Vice President, Assistant General Manager

Jean Afterman enters her 10th season as the Yankees' Assistant General Manager in 2011 (ninth as Vice President). She became only the third female to hold such a position in Major League Baseball history.

Ms. Afterman has been an integral part of the Yankees' efforts to spearhead operations in Asia. In her first year with the Yankees, she was instrumental in developing the club's relationship with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japan Central League and the signing of three-time MVP Hideki Matsui. In 2007, she joined team President Randy Levine and General Manager Brian Cashman on a week-long trip to Asia that concluded with a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association. She once again joined Levine and Cashman in 2010, when the Yankees brought the 2009 World Series trophy to Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong. While in Hong Kong, Ms. Afterman was given the honor of throwing out one of the ceremonial first pitches at the 2010 Phoenix Cup Tournament, an annual international women's baseball tournament.

Ms. Afterman's contributions and leadership were recognized in 2010, when she was named by WISE (Women in Sports and Events) as one of the "Women of the Year," and was tabbed by New York Moves Magazine as a "2010 Power Woman." In 2004, Ms. Afterman was named one of the "Power 100" by the Sporting News and was selected as one of the "50 Most Powerful Women in New York" by the New York Post in 2003 and 2007. Also in 2007, Ms. Afterman was profiled as one of Crain's New York Business' "100 Most Influential Women in New York Business." In 2008, she was profiled by Forbes Magazine as one of the top female executives in baseball.

Ms. Afterman joined the Yankees with a diverse business and legal background, focusing on international sports and licensing with an emphasis on US-Japan matters. In 1996, Ms. Afterman was appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture to a federal advisory committee, the National Organic Standards Board. Prior to joining the Yankees, Ms. Afterman managed her own practice, providing athletic representation and management with a specialization in arbitration proceedings.

From 1994-99, she was General Counsel at KDN Sports, Inc. and handled business and legal affairs for international baseball clients, including Hideo Nomo, Hideki Irabu, Masato Yoshii, Alfonso Soriano and more than 30 other Major and Minor League players.

Ms. Afterman graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1979 and was the recipient of the Rosalynn Schneider Eisner Prize and the Mark Goodson Scholarship Grant. She received her J.D. from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1991. In 2009, she was named the Katherine Delmar Burke School in San Francisco "Alumni of the Year."

Ms. Afterman maintains an active role in the Bronx community, working closely with P.S. 35, an elementary school in walking distance from Yankee Stadium. Over the last three years, she has organized Yankees-sponsored Read-A-Thons and directed a mentoring program that matches Yankees employees with fourth and fifth grade students. Additionally, she has reached out to high school-aged students through New York City's Explorers program, which engages young people through career-orientation programs. Her work with the group was publicly recognized as she was honored with the 2009 "Exploring Leadership Award."

Commitment to Community

The New York Yankees organization takes as much pride in the championship baseball played on the field as it does in its charitable endeavors throughout the community. The Yankees' community efforts reach far beyond the Bronx and the tri-state area, encompassing programs and donations throughout the United States and even spanning into Latin America and Asia.

The Yankees strive to create partnerships with programs that support children's initiatives, education enhancement and health awareness. The club's donations, grants, tickets, promotional items and countless other contributions to such programs exceeded $5.5 million in 2010. Throughout the season, Yankees players and front office personnel make countless visits to various local hospitals, schools and youth groups, and the club makes every effort to recognize community excellence through outreach and during pregame ceremonies.

YANKEES TURN TRIPLE PLAY AGAINST CANCER

The New York Yankees care about their fans' safety and health away from the diamond, and are committed to raising awareness to take the proper steps in cancer awareness, prevention and detection. In September 2010, the Yankees held three cancer awareness events at Yankee Stadium, offering free cancer screenings and a marrow drive to those in attendance at each of three games at Yankee Stadium.

CC Sabathia gave free haircuts for neighborhood kids at Jordan's Barber Shop in the Bronx on June 1, 2010.

On September 5, prior to the Yankees-Blue Jays game, Dr. Darrell Rigel, M.D., and his team of dermatologists and medical assistants conducted skin cancer screenings. On September 7, the Yankees and Ed Randall's Bat For The Cure charity provided free prostate cancer screenings for adult men age 40 and over attending that evening's game vs. Baltimore. Doctors and medical technicians from St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital Center assisted with the safe and simple screenings. On September 22, the Yankees, New York Blood Center and NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital teamed up for a bone marrow drive at Yankee Stadium while the Yankees played the Tampa Bay Rays. With a simple swab from the inner cheek, participants were added to the Be The Match Registry, which allows for patients to find a needed marrow match.

WOMEN OF YANKEE STADIUM SUPPORT SAME SKY

The women of Yankee Stadium joined forces with Same Sky (www.SameSky.com) for a special event in the H&R Block Lounge on June 2, 2010, to honor the survivors of the 1994 Rwandan genocide, and in particular, HIV positive women artisans who have handcrafted bracelets through the organization's trade-not-aid initiative to effect change in the country.

Asst. GM Jean Afterman (L), Mindy Levine and Nancy Newman supported the Same Sky event at Yankee Stadium.

The bracelets, made of hand-blown glass beads, allow the wearer to become a part of the movement empowering women everywhere under the same sky. All proceeds from the sales of Same Sky bracelets during the exclusive showing went directly toward training and employing more women artisans in Rwanda.

SHARPENING THEIR PENCILS

Beginning in 2009, Yankees front office staff members began a mentoring program with students at P.S. 35 in the Bronx. Under the leadership of Yankees Assistant GM Jean Afterman, mentors from various Yankees front office departments have worked in small groups with students on career awareness and job-readiness projects, such as designing mock advertisements, proposing new product ideas, and evaluating players' statistics. In establishing a "Read-A-Thon" aimed at engaging students in reading and improving their language arts skills, all of the school's 30 classes, comprising more than 700 elementary school students, are participating in a monthly reading competition for Yankees prizes.

YANKEES GO BOWLING IN THE COMMUNITY

The New York Yankees partnered with New York City's Public Schools Athletic League (PSAL) on a series of community initiatives to commemorate the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl in 2010.

In support of the PSAL, the Yankees installed a new all-grass football field at Harry S. Truman High School in the Bronx. The sod was donated by DeLea Sod Farms, which plants the same type of grass at Yankee Stadium. Yankee Stadium also hosted the PSAL Football Championship Game on December 7, marking the first high school football contest in the current Yankee Stadium in which Fort Hamilton H.S defeated Abraham Lincoln H.S., 8-6.

Additionally, the Yankees honored the best scholar-athletes in New York City on December 20 at Yankee Stadium during their first annual "MVP Dinner." The occasion brought together a group of 55 male and female student athletes — 11 from each borough — who have led by example in the community, classroom and in their respective sports. The top graduating high school scholar-athlete from each borough was designated as a "Borough Captain" and also recognized during the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

The Yankees continued their community outreach during bowl week, as the participating schools (Syracuse and Kansas State) took part in community events, including hosting youth football clinics at the Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club and visiting children at the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center.

Robinson Cano and the Yankees players once again greeted fans entering the Great Hall on various days throughout the 2010 season.

WALKING IN A WINTER WONDERLAND

Yankee Stadium resembled the North Pole during the 2010 Winter Wonderland.

On December 17, 2010, Yankee Stadium's Great Hall transformed into the North Pole for the 2010 Bronx Winter Wonderland event. Approximately 5,000 children from the Bronx were treated to a holiday extravaganza, complete with Christmas decorations and festive holiday music, including caroling from the Bronx-based Renaissance EMS (Education through Music and Sports) program. Complimentary food and beverages were provided by Legends Hospitality and the Hard Rock Cafe.

Additionally, Santa and his helpers set up their workshop in the Great Hall, handing out a toy to each child in attendance, courtesy of the Yankees, who purchased $25,000 in toys, and Mattel, who donated 2,000 toys.

ANNUAL FOOD DRIVES

The Yankees held their 17th Annual Holiday Food Drive at Yankee Stadium on December 16, 2010, presented by White Rose Foods. In conjunction with Bronx clergy, the Yankees distributed the donated food throughout the Bronx to those in need during the holiday season. Fans donating 30 pounds of nonperishable goods received a voucher valid for two tickets to one of 22 designated Yankees games in 2011 (restrictions apply) and a voucher valid for discounted ticket pricing for the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

With Yankees Manager Joe Girardi, pitcher Mariano Rivera and Yankees alum Bernie Williams on hand to greet donors, a record-breaking 105,859 lbs. of food and nearly $1,000 was collected. To help kick off the Yankees Food Drive, White Rose Foods – along with their Good Neighbor Brands Kraft, Unilever, Snapple, Masterfoods, Domino, Conagra, New World Pasta, Carolina Rice, Clorox, Campbell's, Nestle, Smuckers and General Mills –donated over 40 pallets of food (approximately 60,000 lbs.).

On November 18, the Yankees and White Rose held their annual Pre-Thanksgiving Food Voucher Giveaway, distributing 750 vouchers to Bronx residents for redemption at a local Met Food market or Pioneer Supermarket.

Manager Joe Girardi was on hand to accept donations at the Yankees' annual Holiday Food Drive on December 16, 2010 at Yankee Stadium.

YANKEES PLAYERS HIT COMMUNITY HOME RUNS

Teixeira Steps Up for Harlem RBI

In May 2010, first baseman Mark Teixeira and his wife, Leigh, donated $100,000 to the Harlem RBI Future's Fund for programs supporting programs that guide Harlem RBI's college-bound seniors toward and through higher education. Mark also enlisted as a member of the Harlem RBI Board of Directors and served as a chairperson at the organization's 2010 Bids for Kids Gala.

Additionally, as the Honorary Chair of Harlem RBI's Capital Campaign Committee, Mark will participate in various events to support the organization, including activities with Harlem RBI youth. He will also serve as one of the 2011 Bids for Kids Gala honorees as Harlem RBI celebrates its 20th Anniversary.

Alex Rodriguez played the role of doctor-for-the-day in June with the opening of the pediatric outpatient center in his name at Bronx Lebanon Hospital Center.

A-Rod Donates to Local Hospital

Yankees third baseman Alex Rodriguez saw his dream come to fruition in June 2010, when the Alex Rodriguez Pediatric Outpatient Center was opened at Bronx-Lebanon Hospital Center in the Bronx. Rodriguez contributed $250,000 to help fund construction and completion of the outpatient center, which offers a child-friendly environment ideal for young patients and their families. The state-of-the-art outpatient center offers treatment in a number of specialties, including cardiac illnesses, asthma, diabetes and neurological disorders, among other health problems. Bronx-Lebanon's pediatric-asthma program, part of its outpatient center, is widely recognized as a model program.

Granderson Joins White House Initiative

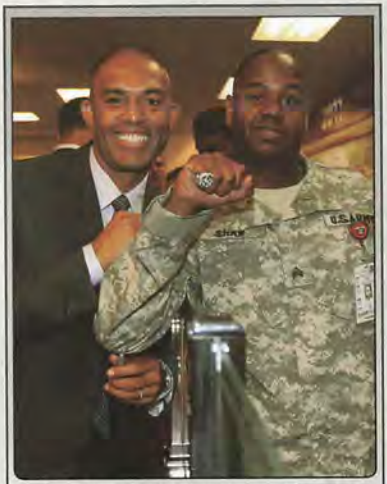
Yankees outfielder Curtis Granderson teamed up with First Lady Michelle Obama in 2010 as a national spokesman for the anti-obesity campaign Let's Move! The nationwide campaign, which addresses the serious epidemic of childhood obesity, has set a national goal of solving the obesity challenge within a generation, so that America's youngest children reach adulthood at a healthy weight.

CC HONORED FOR COMMUNITY EXCELLENCE

As an active member of the community in the New York metropolitan area as well as in his hometown of Vallejo, Calif., Yankees pitcher CC Sabathia was awarded two special community service awards, recognizing his cross-country charitable endeavors in 2010.

At the January 2011 Baseball Assistance Team Dinner, Sabathia and his wife, Amber, received the Bart Giamatti Award for their many contributions to children, families and communities on both coasts.

In addition, Sabathia was named one of 10 "Dream Team For Public Service" finalists selected for the Jefferson Awards for Public Service. The awards, established in 1972 by Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, U.S. Senator Robert Taft, Jr. and Sam Beard as a Nobel Prize for public service, seek to honor athletes who display an exemplary commitment to service in their community.



Mariano Rivera and the Yankees paid a visit to wounded warriors at Walter Reed Medical Center during their visit to Washington, D.C. in April 2010.

HONORING MILITARY EXCELLENCE

In support of the nation's armed services, the Yankees held their annual "Military Appreciation Day" on June 12, 2010, prior to their game vs. Houston. Paying tribute to the members of the United States Special Operations Command, the Yankees showed an inspirational video dedicated to those helped by the Special Operations Warrior Foundation followed by an on-field recognition of military heroes wounded while in service. The ceremony also featured a donation of $25,000 from Mattel/Fisher-Price to the Warrior Foundation.

In what has become an annual tradition, the U.S. Army Golden Knights parachuted into Yankee Stadium, landing in the outfield. Former U.S. Army Elite Task Force Ranger Keni Thomas, a member of the Army unit that fought in Somalia in 1993 at the Battle of Mogadishu (later depicted in the film Black Hawk Down), sang the national anthem, while the West Point Honor Guard presented the colors. Following the anthem, Lt. General Frank Kearney, Deputy Commander of the United States Special Operations Command, threw out the game's ceremonial first pitch.

2010 Yankees HOPE Week

The New York Yankees participated in their second annual HOPE Week (Helping Others Persevere & Excel) in 2010, a unique week-long community program bringing to light five remarkable stories intended to inspire individuals into action in their own communities.

Each day from Monday, August 16, through Friday, August 20, the Yankees reached out to an individual, family or organization worthy of recognition and support. Though each day's celebration culminated at Yankee Stadium, outreach often took place away from the Stadium, allowing the Yankees to personally connect with individuals and highlight their success.

Initiated in 2009, HOPE Week is rooted in the fundamental belief that acts of goodwill provide hope and encouragement to more than just the recipient of the gesture.

A unique aspect of HOPE Week is that every player on the roster, Manager Joe Girardi and his coaching staff, General Manager Brian Cashman along with many front office employees, participated in the outreach during the week.

Equally significant during HOPE Week is gaining publicity for the highlighted causes and organizations. The greatest challenge facing many not-for-profits is generating interest, awareness and funding for their missions.

Additionally, the Yankees Foundation made $10,000 donations to non-profit organizations associated with each day's participants.

The Yankees will once again celebrate HOPE Week from July 25-29, 2011. If you know an individual, family or organization that embodies the spirit of HOPE Week, please let the Yankees Media Relations Department know by visiting www.yankees.com, going to the Community dropdown menu, clicking on "HOPE Week," and telling their story in the nomination form.

The Yankees encourage all their fans to get involved…Give HOPE!

During an April 26 White House ceremony honoring the team's 2009 World Series championship, President Barack Obama officially announced the return of HOPE Week in 2010. In conjunction with HOPE Week, the White House's Corporation for National and Community Service awarded honorees "President's Volunteer Service Awards," bestowed by the President to salute volunteers who strengthen the nation's culture of service. At the conclusion of the week, the Yankees were honored with the President's Volunteer Service Award, given "in recognition and appreciation of commitment to strengthening the Nation and for making a difference through volunteer service."

MONDAY, AUGUST 16

The Yankees kicked off HOPE Week by surprising 13-year-old quadruple amputee Jorge Grajales of Ridgewood N.J., with a pool party and barbecue, which included generous donations from Stop & Shop and Party City. Mariano Rivera, Nick Swisher and Brett Gardner, along with Yankees coaches Kevin Long and Mike Harkey enjoyed an afternoon with Jorge, his foster parents John and Faye Dyksen, and his family and friends.

Nick Swisher and the Yankees kicked off HOPE Week with a pool party for Jorge Grajales.

Originally born in Panama, Jorge had his hands and feet amputated as an infant due to an infection. Since age 3, the Dyksen family has taken him into their home for three-quarters of the year through a program called Healing the Children. At that evening's Yankees game, Jorge and the Dyksens were honored during pregame ceremonies and Jorge threw out the first pitch.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 17

The Yankees reached out to Morris Plains, N.J., resident Jane Lang, who has been blind since birth. Manager Joe Girardi, players Joba Chamberlain, Chad Gaudin and David Robertson, along with former Yankee Tino Martinez surprised

Joba Chamberlain [R] escorts Jane and Clipper through Herald Square and down to the D train.

Lang at her house and joined her on her normal trek to Yankee Stadium, using public transportation. Once at the Stadium, Jane received a private tour of Monument Park, with former Yankee Paul O'Neill, where she felt some of the monuments and plaques for the first time. She then went on a private tour of the Yankees Museum and felt the 2009 World Championship Trophy as well as one of Babe Ruth's bats. Prior to the game, Jane and her Seeing Eye dog, Clipper, delivered the lineup card to home plate with Joe Girardi, who also escorted Jane around the base paths following the game.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18

The Yankees reached out to Sierra Leone-native, civil war survivor and recent high school graduate Mohamed Kamara. CC Sabathia, General Manager Brian Cashman and Hall of Famer Reggie Jackson took Mohamed on a surprise tour of the New York Stock Exchange during the morning bell ringing. The Yankees then escorted Mohamed to City Hall, where the group was joined by Derek Jeter, Marcus Thames and Curtis Granderson before meeting with Mayor Michael Bloomberg. Following their trip to City Hall, the Yankees and Mohamed visited the United Nations where His Excellency Mr. Shekou M. Touray, Permanent Representative of Sierra Leone to the United Nations, spoke with Mohamed and the Yankees in a private meeting and accompanied the group on a tour of the General Assembly Hall.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 19

The Yankees reached out to children and supporters of "Beautiful People." The organization was founded by Peter Ladka of Warwick, N.Y., who – though he had two perfectly healthy children of his own – wanted to reach out to children and families with special needs to make them feel more a part of the community. Yankees players and coaches were paired with special-needs children from the Beautiful People organization in a baseball game on the field at Yankee Stadium following the club's game vs. Detroit. The Yankees, the children and their families also enjoyed an on-field barbecue catered by Hard Rock Cafe and dessert from Dylan's Candy Bar and Turkey Hill.

Jorge Posada and the Yankees buddied up with members of Beautiful People for a baseball game on the Yankee Stadium field.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 20

The Yankees reached out to Johanna and Melida Arias, sisters who have overcome hardships and homelessness and made their lives better through education and hard work. Two years ago, with their family struggling, Johanna chose to pass up college at Syracuse University in order to work so she could provide for her sister and mother. In the fall of 2010, Melida began her freshman year at Baruch College in Manhattan and hopes to become the first member of her family to graduate college. Yankees players Alex Rodriguez, Robinson Cano, Ramiro Pena, Francisco Cervelli, Sergio Mitre, David Robertson and Bench Coach Tony Pena surprised Melida at her job at Wendy's in the Bronx, and then took both sisters on a surprise shopping spree at DKNY in Manhattan to outfit Melida for her freshman year of college and Johanna for future professional opportunities.

Melida (L) and Johanna (R) pose in items from their new wardrobe at DKNY in Manhattan.

At that evening's game vs. Seattle, Brian Cashman presented paid internship offers to both girls – Melida with the Yankees and Johanna with Lincoln Hospital in the Bronx. Melida also received a laptop computer courtesy of TekServe and both sisters received gift bags with items donated by Dooney & Bourke, Helen Ficalora and Nike. The girls' mother, Maria, was presented with $1,000 in gift cards from White Rose.

- 2006

N.L. All-Star Team
- 2000

STATUS

- Re-signed to a three-year contract on October 29, 2010, extending through the 2013 season…was named the 32nd manager in club history on October 30, 2007, becoming the 17th Yankees manager to have played for the club and fourth former Yankees catcher to skipper the team (also Bill Dickey, Ralph Houk and Yogi Berra).

AT THE HELM IN 2010

- The 2010 season marked his third as Manager of the New York Yankees, guiding the club to a 95-67 record, their second consecutive postseason appearance and 15th playoff berth in the last 16 years…was the second-best record in the AL behind Tampa Bay (96-66) and the third-best in the Majors, also trailing Philadelphia (97-65)…spent the final 69 days of the season (from 7/18 on) within 2.5 games (either ahead, tied or behind) of Tampa Bay.

FANTASTIC FOUR

With a 365-283 (.563) career managerial record, only Ken Macha (368-280, .568 with Oakland from 2003-06) recorded a higher winning percentage in the first four years of his managerial career over the past 20 seasons (since 1991).

- Led the Yankees to a Major League-high 48 come-from-behind wins, their second straight season leading the category (51 in 2009)…collected six wins when trailing after the end of the eighth inning, one more than their total from 2009.
- Did not lose more than four straight games, piloting one of just two Major League teams (also Minnesota) to not record a losing streak of at least five games in 2010…the Yankees were the last team in the Majors to be swept in a series of at least three games (9/10-12 at Texas).
- Won 30 series, tied with Tampa Bay for second-most in the AL, behind Minnesota (31).
- The Yankees were 52-29 (.642) at home, tying Detroit for the second-highest home winning percentage in the AL behind Minnesota (53-28, .654)…his 109-53 (.673) record in the current Yankee Stadium (2009-10) marks the Majors' most home wins and highest home winning percentage over the stretch.
- The Yankees led the Majors with a .988 fielding percentage and committed only 69 errors, setting a franchise record for highest fielding percentage and fewest errors in any season…since taking over in 2008, the Yankees lead the Majors with a .987 fielding percentage.
- Earned his 200th win as Yankees Manager on 4/17 vs. Texas…recorded his 300th career managerial win on 5/31 vs. Cleveland.
- Was ejected three times in 2010…has been ejected 14 times in his career, 11 times as a Manager (nine as Yankees manager) and 10 times as a Yankee (also 8/6/99 as a player).
- At 46 years old, is the third-youngest manager in the Majors, behind Cleveland's Manny Acta (42) and Seattle's Eric Wedge (43).

MANAGING/COACHING CAREER

- Led the Yankees to their 27th World Championship in 2009 in his second season, becoming the ninth Yankees manager to win a World Series…in his postseason managerial debut, joined Ralph Houk and Billy Martin as the only three Yankees to play for and manage a Yankees World Championship team…also joined Houk, Bob Lemon and Casey Stengel as the only four Yankees managers to win a World Series in their first postseason as a manager.
- Led the club to a Major League-best 103-59 regular season record in 2009, marking the Yankees' most wins since 2002 (103-58)…became the eighth Yankees manager to collect at least 100 wins in a full season, joining Miller Huggins, Joe McCarthy, Casey Stengel, Ralph Houk, Billy Martin, Dick Howser and Joe Torre…joined McCarthy, Houk, Martin and Howser as the only five Yankees skippers to accomplish the feat within their first two full seasons with the team...finished third in AL Manager of the Year voting with 34 total points, including four first-place votes.

World Series Winner* Wild Card*

- The Yankees' 114 total wins in 2009 (including postseason) tied their second-most ever in a single year behind the 125 victories of the 1998 squad (also 114W in 1927)...a member of the 1998 Yankees (114-48), became the only active Major League manager at the time to both play for and manage teams that won at least 100 games in a season and won a World Series, according to the Elias Sports Bureau...became the only Major League manager in the 2000s to lead a team to 100-or-more regular season wins and a World Series title.
- Earned his 200th career managerial win on 6/7/09 vs. Tampa Bay...earned his 100th win as Yankees manager on 4/29/09 at Detroit.
- Led the Yankees to a 89-73 record in 2008 in his first season as the club's skipper...was one of only two managers (also the Angels' Mike Scioscia) whose team did not lose more than four consecutive games during the 2008 season...won his Yankees managerial debut on 4/1/08 vs. Toronto (lost his only previous Opening Day as Manager in 2006 with Florida).
- Earned his 100th career managerial win on 5/22/08 vs. Baltimore...was ejected by HP umpire Chris Guccione in the bottom of the ninth inning in the game.
- Was named the 2006 National League "Manager of the Year" by the Baseball Writers Association of America and the Sporting News...guided the Florida Marlins to a 78-84 record in his first season as a Major League manager...with the award, joined the Houston Astros' Hal Lanier (1986) and the San Francisco Giants' Dusty Baker (1993) as the only managers to win the honor in their managerial debuts...at the age of 41, became the youngest manager in Marlins history (previously 47-year-old John Boles in 1996)...was named Marlins manager just two seasons after retiring as a player prior to the 2004 campaign, marking the shortest time between being an active player (2003) and making a managerial debut (2006) since 1987, when both John Wathan (Kansas City) and Larry Bowa (San Diego) became managers after last playing during the 1985 season.
- Became the first manager to improve his club's record above .500 after falling at least 20 games below the .500 mark during the same season...the Marlins were a season-low 20 games under .500 on 5/21 (11-31), but then went 62-41 through 9/12 to improve to 73-72...the only other Major League team to return to the .500 mark after falling 20 or more games below was the 1899 Louisville Colonels (managed by Fred Clarke), who were 22 games under at 16-38 and improved to 72-72-3 before finishing with a record of 75-77-3.
- Managed Anibal Sanchez's no-hitter on 9/6/06 vs. Arizona...was the fourth no-hitter in Marlins history and the fourth no-hitter that Girardi has been a part of, having caught two (Dwight Gooden's on 5/14/96 and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99) and been a teammate in one (David Wells' perfect game on 5/17/98)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Girardi became the first person since Jeff Torborg to both catch and manage a no-hitter...Torborg managed Wilson Alvarez's no-hitter on 9/11/91 with the White Sox after catching no-hitters by Sandy Koufax (perfect game, 9/9/65), Bill Singer (7/20/70) and Nolan Ryan (5/15/73).
- Made his coaching debut in 2005, serving as bench coach and catching instructor on Joe Torre's New York Yankees staff...assisted in guiding the Yankees to a 95-67 (.586) record and the American League East title.
- Appeared in 39 career postseason games as a player, most among all current American League managers...among active Major League managers, only Cincinnati's Dusty Baker (40) appeared in more postseason games as a player.

WISE BEYOND HIS YEARS

In 2009, Joe Girardi became the youngest manager in Yankees history to win a World Series. He remains the fourth-youngest World Series-winning manager over the last 34 years (1977-2010) behind Minnesota's Tom Kelly (1987 and '91), the White Sox's Ozzie Guillen (2005) and the Mets' Davey Johnson (1986).

PLAYING CAREER

- Played parts of 15 seasons as a catcher in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs (1989-92 and 2000-02), Colorado Rockies (1993-95), New York Yankees (1996-99) and St. Louis Cardinals (2003)...was a member of three World Series Championship teams in New York (1996, 1998-99) and played in a total of six postseasons with the Cubs (1989), Rockies (1995) and Yankees (1996-99).
- In 1,277 career Major League games, batted .267 (1,100-for-4,127) with 454 runs, 186 doubles, 36HR and 422RBI, finishing with a .991 career fielding percentage while throwing out 27.6% of potential base stealers...batted .184 (21-for-114) with 2 triples and 1RBI in 39 career postseason games.
- Saw his first Major League action in 1989 as the Cubs' Opening Day catcher...was the first rookie catcher to start a season opener for the Cubs since Randy Hundley in 1966...was selected to Baseball Digest's All-Rookie Team...played in four games of the 1989 NL Championship Series against San Francisco, recording one hit.
- Played his first full big league season in 1990...stole eight bases, the most by a Cubs catcher since Gabby Hartnett's 10 in 1924...ranked second among NL catchers in assists (61) and threw out 33.3% of baserunners attempting to steal (38-of-114).
- On 8/7/91, in his first game back after missing nearly four months with a strained lower back, suffered a broken nose in a home plate collision with the Phillies' John Kruk.
- Was selected by the Rockies with the 19th pick in the Expansion Draft from the Cubs...established career highs with 8HR, 55RBI and 63R in 1995 with the Colorado Rockies.
- Acquired by the Yankees on 11/3/95 from the Rockies in exchange for LHP Mike DeJean...hit a career-high .294 with 2HR and 45RBI for the World Series Champions...stole 13 bases, marking the highest total among big league catchers and a record for a Yankees catcher...stole home on the front end of a double steal on 4/11 vs. Kansas City, becoming the first Yankees catcher to steal home since Jake Gibbs on 7/13/1968...had two triples during the 1996 postseason, including a run-scoring three-base hit off Greg Maddux in Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium.
- Was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle...in his final season as a player with the Yankees, caught David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal...had a career-high 7RBI on 8/23/99 in a 21-3 victory at Texas, going 4-for-6 with 2 doubles and 1 triple.
- Rejoined the Cubs organization in 2000 and earned his first and only trip to an All-Star Game that season in Atlanta as a replacement for the injured Mike Piazza (did not play)...when he homered on 5/2/00 vs. Houston off Jose Lima, it was his first Cubs home run since 5/8/92...only one player, Billy Jurges (nine years, 1938-47), had a longer span between homers with the Cubs.
- Recorded his 1,000th Major League hit on 5/27/01 vs. Milwaukee off Jimmy Haynes – a seventh-inning, game-winning, two-run double.
- Was one of the Cubs' co-captains in 2001 and 2002.
- Played his final career regular season game on 9/28/03 at Arizona with the St. Louis Cardinals...his single in the ninth inning off the Diamondbacks' Edgar Gonzalez gave him 1,100 career hits.

DID YOU KNOW??? Joe Girardi and Yogi Berra are the only Yankees catchers to be behind the plate for two regular season no-hitters. Girardi was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal. Berra caught both of Allie Reynolds' no-hitters in 1951.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

- Enters his third season as Yankees bench coach in 2011…is his sixth season on the Yankees' Major League coaching staff, serving as first base coach from 2006-08 and catching instructor over the entire span…since joining the staff, Yankees catchers have caught a Major League-best 185 potential base stealers.
- Previously spent parts of four seasons as manager of the Kansas City Royals from 2002-05.
- In his first full season as manager in 2003, led the Royals to an 83-79 record, the sixth-best turnaround in Major League history following a 100-loss season…the 2003 season marked Kansas City's first winning season since 1993, when they went 84-78.
- Was selected as the 2003 American League "Manager of the Year" by the Baseball Writers' Association of America, becoming the fourth manager since 1983 to win the award in his first full season as a Major League skipper (also Houston's Hal Lanier, 1986; San Francisco's Dusty Baker, 1993; and San Diego's Bruce Bochy, 1996)… also named the 2003 AL "Manager of the Year" by both Sporting News and Sports Illustrated.
- Became only the third Dominican-born manager in Major League history, joining Felipe Alou and Luis Pujols.
- Began his Major League coaching career in 2002 as the bench coach for the Houston Astros…was named Royals manager on 5/15/02.
- Also served as manager of Triple-A New Orleans from 1999-2001…began his coaching career as White Sox' Coordinator of Dominican Operations in 1998 and led the Aguilas Dominican team to the Caribbean Series title.

PLAYING CAREER

- A five-time National League All-Star catcher, Pena posted a .260 career batting average over an 18-year Major League career, appearing in 1,988 games for the Pittsburgh Pirates (1980-86), St. Louis Cardinals (1987-88), Boston Red Sox (1990-93), Cleveland Indians (1994-96), Chicago White Sox (1997) and Houston Astros (1997).
- Ranks fifth all-time among Major League catchers with 1,950 games behind the plate, trailing only Ivan Rodriguez (2,390), Carlton Fisk (2,226), Bob Boone (2,225) and Gary Carter (2,056).
- Won four Gold Glove Awards (1983-85, 1991) and recorded a .338 career postseason batting average…was named Topps' Rookie All-Star catcher in 1981 and was selected to the UPI Rookie All-Star Team…originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Pittsburgh Pirates on 7/22/75 and made his Major League debut on 9/1/80.

PERSONAL

- Married (Amaris) with two sons: Tony, Jr. (who pitched last season in the San Francisco system) and Francisco Antonio (a catcher in the New York Mets system)…also has a daughter, Jennifer Amaris, who won the Miss Dominican Republic-U.S.A. beauty pageant in 2007…his brother, Ramon, pitched with the Detroit Tigers organization.
- Tony did not play high school baseball…credits his mother, who was an outstanding softball player, with teaching him how to play the game.
- Took part in the Yankees' hurricane relief donation of $35,000 in cash and food to the Dominican Republic in October 2007.
- Joined the Yankees delegation and the 2009 World Series trophy on 1/7/10 to meet Dominican Republic President Dr. Leonel Fernandez at the National Palace in Santo Domingo.

Baseball Glossary

HOW TO FIGURE...

Batting Average: (H/AB) Hits divided by at-bats.

ERA: (ERx9/IP) Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: (TB/AB) Total bases (1B=1, 2B=2, 3B=3, HR=4) divided by at-bats.

On-Base Percentage: (H+BB+HBP)/(H+BB+HBP+SF) Add hits, walks, hit by pitch and divide by the total of hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Fielding Percentage: (PO+A)/(PO+A+E) Total putouts plus assists divided by total chances.

Winning Percentage: The number of games won divided by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFYING RULES

Batting Championship: To qualify for a batting title, a player must make 502 or more plate appearances or 3.1 plate appearances per team game.

Pitching Championship: To qualify for the lowest ERA, a pitcher must throw at least 162.0 innings.

Fielding Championship: To qualify as the top fielder:
(a) a catcher must have played in at least 81 games.
(b) an infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games.
(c) a pitcher must have 162.0 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
b. He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings
No more than one save may be credited each game.

- Was 10-15 with a 5.26 ERA (186.2IP, 109ER) in 33 starts with the Yankees…set career highs in losses, runs allowed (118), earned runs, ERA and hit batsmen (19), and tied a career high with 25HR allowed…set the franchise mark for highest single-season ERA among pitchers with at least 30 starts or 180.0IP…opponents batted .285 (204-for-785, 25HR); LH .286 (110-for-385, 11HR) and RH .285 (94-for-330, 14HR)…the Yankees were 13-20 in his starts.
- Became one of four Yankees to lose 15-or-more games in a single season in the last 34 years (since 1977), joining Tim Leary (9-19 in 1990), Melido Perez (13-16 in 1992) and Andy Hawkins (15-15 in 1989)…became the first pitcher in franchise history to lose 15-or-more games with an ERA above 5.00 and just the fifth player in Baseball history to post such numbers for a team that made the postseason, joining Tampa Bay's James Shields (13-15, 5.18 ERA in 2010), St. Louis's Jason Marquis (14-16, 6.02 in 2006), Minnesota's Carlos Silva (11-15, 5.94 in 2006) and Baltimore's Dennis Martinez (7-16, 5.53 in 1983), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- Held opponents scoreless six times, tying for the fourth-most such games in the AL…also held opponents without an earned run seven times this season, tying for the sixth-most such starts in the AL in 2010.
- Allowed six-or-more runs in a game a Major League-leading 10 times (going 0-10 with a 13.70 ERA in those starts)…marked the most such games by a Yankee since David Cone had 12 in 2000.
- Surrendered the first run of the game in 21 of his 33 starts…allowed opponents to bat .345 (48-for-139) with 27 runs scored in the first inning…opponents had a .272 BA (156-for- 576) and scored 91 runs from the second inning on.
- Threw 16 wild pitches, tied for third in the Majors and second in the AL…owns two of the four highest single-season wild pitch totals in Yankees franchise history (also Tim Leary-23 in 1990; Burnett-17 in 2009; and Jason Grimsley-16 in 2000).

- Led the Major Leagues with 19HP, setting a single-season career high (previous was 12HP in 2007 w/ Toronto)...according to baseball-reference.com, marked the Yankees' second-highest single-season total since the franchise was established in New York in 1903 behind Jack Warhop's 26 in 1909.
- Allowed a Major League-leading 37SB...was the highest total allowed by a Yankee since at least 1950, according to baseball-reference.com.
- Started the season 4-0 with a 1.99 ERA over his first six starts, marking the first time he won his first four decisions of a season...his 1.99 ERA was his lowest mark after six starts since 2001, when he posted a 1.71 ERA through his first six starts.

Home Sweet Home

The Yankees were 52-29 (.642) at Yankee Stadium in 2010, tying Detroit for the second-highest home winning percentage in the AL behind Minnesota (53-28, .654). It marked their 19th consecutive winning season at home (since 1992)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it is the longest current streak of any team in the Majors and the longest such streak by any team since a 21-year streak for the Yankees from 1969–89, which included two seasons (1974-75) at Shea Stadium.

The Yankees completed their first two seasons at Yankee Stadium with a 109-53 (.673) record, marking the most wins and highest home winning percentage over the stretch…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, their 109 victories were the most by a Major League team in its first two seasons at a particular venue, surpassing the previous mark of 106 shared by the 1909-10 Philadelphia Athletics (Shibe Park) and the 1997-98 Atlanta Braves (Turner Field).

The Yankees own the top two highest single-season home winning percentages all time: .805 (62-15) in 1932 and .802 (65-16) in 1961.

CAREER NOTES

- Has 1,060 hits as a second baseman since his debut on 5/3/05, most among all Major League second basemen over that span (Philadelphia's Chase Utley ranks second with 962)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Recorded 911 hits in the first five years of his Major League career (5/3/05-5/2/10), second-most in franchise history through a player's first five years in the Majors, trailing only Joe DiMaggio (995)—credit: Elias.
- Recorded his 1,000th career hit with his eighth-inning, two-run double in 7/25/10 win vs. Kansas City…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two "homegrown" Yankees in the expansion era collected 1,000H in fewer at-bats than Cano (3,232): Derek Jeter (3,112) and Don Mattingly (3,042)…became the sixth second baseman to collect 1,000H with the Yankees, first since Willie Randolph…Elias also notes that only six active players reached 1,000H in fewer at-bats than Cano (Ichiro Suzuki, Todd Helton, Albert Pujols, Derek Jeter, Vladimir Guerrero and Matt Holliday)…collected his 500th career hit in 9/25/07 loss at Tampa Bay (came in his 1,600th AB)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since Joe DiMaggio reached that milestone in 1938 (1,503AB), the only "homegrown" Yankee to collect 500 hits in fewer AB was Mattingly in 1986 (1,549AB).
- Owns a .489 career slugging percentage, fifth-highest all-time among Major League second basemen (min. 3,000PA) – credit: Stats, LLC.
- Is one of just three Yankees second basemen to hit 100HR for the club, joining Tony Lazzeri-169 and Joe Gordon-153 (min. 50.0% of games played at 2B).
- In his career, is a .296 (552-for-1,866) batter prior to the All-Star break with 267R, 123 doubles, 11 triples, 51HR and 238RBI in 479 games…in the second half, owns a .324 (523-for-1,615) career average with 242R, 117 doubles, 9 triples, 65HR and 265RBI in 415 games…since 1950, Cano's .337 (221-for-656) career average in September/October regular season games ranks sixth in the Majors (min. 300PA).
- Over the last five seasons (2006-10), has posted a .987 fielding percentage, handling a Major League-high 3,722 chances at second base over the span.
- Has played in 755 games at second base over the last five seasons (2006-10), most in the AL and second-most in the Majors over the span behind Florida's Dan Uggla (769)…has played more games at second base (886) than any other left-handed batter in franchise history…his 637 games played since the start of the 2007 season are tied for the highest total in the Majors over the span for any one position (also Adrian Gonzalez and Nick Markakis).
- Has reached 40 doubles in each of the last two seasons and four times in his career…ties Don Mattingly for the third-most 40-double seasons by a Yankee, behind Lou Gehrig (seven) and Bob Meusel (five).

- Received his first career Gold Glove Award, second Silver Slugger Award (also 2006) and placed third in AL MVP voting...named to the Sporting News' 2010 All-Star team...became the seventh second baseman to win the Gold Glove and Silver Slugger in the same season, joining Dustin Pedroia (2008), Placido Polanco (2007), Bret Boone (2003), Roberto Alomar (1992, '96, '99-2000), Chuck Knoblauch (1997), Frank White (1986) and Lou Whitaker (1983-85).
- Established single-season career highs with 29HR and 109RBI and tied his career high with 103R...the Yankees were 25-2 in games in which he homered...marked the most RBI by a Yankees second baseman since Joe Gordon (111) in 1939...drew a career-high 57BB (previous high was 39 in 2007).
- Finished the season with 200H, reaching the plateau in his final at-bat of the season...became the first-ever Yankees second baseman to record back-to-back 200H seasons, and the first 2B in the Majors to accomplish the feat since Cleveland's Carlos Baerga in 1992-93 (205H and 200H, respectively).
- Hit .611 (11-for-18) with 26RBI with the bases loaded, the second-highest such average in the Majors and third-most RBI...batted .322 (55-for-171) with 77RBI with runners in scoring position.
- Hit .324 (33-for-102) with 4 doubles, 7HR and 28RBI in 26 games as the No. 4 hitter in the lineup (Yankees went 20-6)...in 28 career games without three-time MVP 3B Alex Rodriguez, has hit .321 (35-for-109) with 28R, 5 doubles, 8HR, 31RBI as the Yankees have gone 21-7.
- Hit .285 (61-for-214) with 13HR off left-handed pitching, and .337 (139-for-412) with 16HR against righties...his 13HR and 43RBI off LH pitchers ranked third and first, respectively in the Majors...according to Elias, became the first Yankees left-handed batter with at least 10HR off left-handed pitching in two straight seasons since Reggie Jackson in 1979 (10) and '80 (19).
- Led AL second basemen in fielding percentage (.996), committing just 3E in 776 total chances (most TC among all Major League second basemen)...was involved in 114 double plays, most for any Major League second baseman...played in 1,393.0 innings, fifth-most among all Major Leaguers...with teammate Derek Jeter's Major League-leading .989 fielding percentage at SS, became the first teammates to finish a season as the fielding leaders at shortstop and second base (in either league) since Omar Vizquel and Roberto Alomar for the 2001 Cleveland Indians and the first Yankees since Phil Rizzuto and Jerry Coleman in 1949.
- Established a franchise-record with 81 consecutive errorless games at second base from 4/23-7/26...his error on 7/27 snapped a streak of 37 consecutive errorless games by Yankees middle infielders, the longest such streak in franchise history (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent on March 1, 2003…signed through the 2011 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Was named the organization's "Best Defensive Catcher" by Baseball America in four straight seasons from 2006-09.

- Hit .271 (72-for-266) with 11 doubles, 3 triples and 38RBI in 93 games (80 starts at C) with the Yankees…the Yankees were 44-36 in his starts at catcher…marked the most hits and RBI by a Yankees catcher other than Jorge Posada since Joe Girardi in 1997 (105H and 50RBI)…his 3 triples were the most by a Yankees catcher since Girardi in 1998 (4)…caught 8-of-63 (12.7%) runners attempting to steal.
- Hit .545 (6-for-11) with 17RBI with the bases loaded…batted .381 (16-for-42) with 24RBI and a .435 OBP with RISP and two outs, ranking third in the Majors in average in such circumstances (min. 40PA).
- Made his first career Opening Day roster…hit safely in each of his first four starts, six of his first seven and 10 of his first 12, batting .360 (9-for-25) in April.
- Made his first start—and appearance—of the season, in 4/10 win at Tampa Bay, when CC Sabathia held the Rays hitless through the first 7.2 innings.
- Appeared at 3B as eighth-inning defensive replacement in 5/2 win vs. Chicago-AL, marking his first career appearance at a position other than C.
- Hit his first career triple, going 3-for-3 with 2R in 5/4 win vs. Baltimore…became the third Yankee in the last 15 years with a triple and bunt single in the same game (also Derek Jeter-1996 and 2009; and Alfonso Soriano-2002)—credit: Elias.
- Established a career high with 5RBI in 5/8 win at Boston, going 3-for-4 with 1BB…the 5RBI were the most by a Yankees catcher since Jorge Posada on 9/6/06 at Kansas City (6RBI)…were also the most RBI by a Yankees catcher in a game vs. Boston since Yogi Berra had 8RBI on 7/3/57 at Yankee Stadium and the most RBI by a Yankees catcher at Fenway Park since Berra on 5/29/54 (6RBI).
- Started 10-of-15 games between 5/20-6/1 when Jorge Posada was on the disabled list, including four straight games from 5/20-23, as the Yankees went 7-5 and starters posted a 3.82 ERA over the stretch.
- Went 23 consecutive games without an extra-base hit from 5/20-6/17…snapped the stretch with a seventh-inning double in 6/18 loss vs. the Mets.
- Established a career high in hits in 8/29 win at Chicago-AL, going 4-for-4 with 1R and 1 double.
- Reached base safely in eight straight plate appearances (two singles, 6BB) over two games from 9/10-11 at Texas…established a career high with 3BB on 9/10 and tied the mark on 9/11.
- Appeared in one game during the postseason, starting Game 4 loss of the ALCS vs. Texas (0-for-2).

- Was 3-4 with three saves and a 4.40 ERA in a team-leading 73 relief appearances with the Yankees, working exclusively out of the bullpen for the entire season…opponents batted .253 (71-for-281, 6HR); LH .246 (31-for-126, 3HR), RH .258 (40-for-155, 3HR)…retired 48-of-73 first batters faced (65.8%)…prevented 28-of-37 inherited runners from scoring (75.7%)…appeared in consecutive games 18 times…the Yankees were 48-25 in games he appeared in.
- Had 56 relief outings of at least 1.0IP (76.7%)…held opponents scoreless in 52 of his appearances.
- Made his third consecutive Opening Day roster…held opponents scoreless in 14 of his first 17 outings of the season.
- Earned the save in back-to-back games on 5/3 vs. Baltimore and on 5/4 vs. Baltimore—his first save since 9/23/07 vs. Toronto…according to Elias, is one of just three Yankees to earn a save in consecutive games since Mariano Rivera became the team's closer in 1997 (also Mike Stanton-4/11-12/98 and Juan Acevedo-4/25-26/03).
- Struck out the side in a perfect eighth inning on 5/14 vs. Minnesota (1.0IP, 3K)…was credited with the win despite not being the pitcher of record when the Yankees took the lead.
- Allowed a relief-appearance career-high-tying 4ER in 0.1IP on 5/29 vs. Cleveland, recording his first blown save and third loss of the season (4H, 1BB, 1K)…also allowed 4ER in 1.0IP in 7/10 loss at Seattle.
- Beginning 7/28, just prior to the acquisition of Kerry Wood on 7/31, through the end of the season, went 2-0 with a 2.15 ERA in 30 relief appearances (29.1IP, 20H, 5BB, 30K)…allowed no more than 2H in any of his outings…three of the seven runs allowed came via solo HRs.

- Went nine consecutive appearances without allowing a run from 7/28-8/14 (8.2IP, 2H, 3BB, 6K)...was the second-longest such streak in his career, trailing only an 11-game stretch from 8/7-9/7/07 to begin his Major League career.
- Tossed a season-high 2.0 perfect innings in 7/30 loss at Tampa Bay, striking out three.
- Allowed 1ER in 3.1IP over three relief appearance in the postseason (4H, 2BB, 3K).
- Posted one save and a 10.45 ERA without recording a decision in seven spring training appearances (one start), allowing 13H and 12ER in 10.1IP (8BB, 9K, 1HR)...was selected as a member of the Yankees bullpen on 3/25 when Phil Hughes was named the Yankees' fifth starter.

- Was 9-6 with a 4.75 ERA in 32 appearances (31 starts) with the Yankees...the Yankees were 20-11 in his starts, including 15 come-from-behind victories...were 15-4 in his 19 starts at home...opponents batted .274 (167-for-610, 21HR); LH .266 (85-for-319, 11HR), RH .282 (82-for-291, 10HR)...hit an American League-high 12 batters, matching the most HBP by a Yankees pitcher in the 2000s (Randy Johnson, 2005).
- Allowed a total of 21R (19ER) in the first inning of games (30.2IP, 5.58 first-inning ERA)...combined to allow 73R (64ER) over his other 126.2IP (for a 4.55 ERA in the second inning of the game and beyond).
- Was 5-3 with a 4.03 ERA in 13 games (12 starts) on the road...went undefeated in his first nine road starts of the season, going 5-0 with a 2.78 ERA (55.0IP, 17ER)...went 4-3 with a 5.28 ERA (90.1IP, 53ER) in 19 starts at Yankee Stadium...was the second-highest home ERA in the AL behind Scott Kazmir (5.95).

- Did not record a decision in his first three starts of the year and 11 of his first 17 starts of 2009...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Chamberlain's 10 decisions (7-3) through his first 29 career starts were the fewest in Major League history.
- Struck out a career-high 12 batters in 5/5 loss vs. Boston, including nine on called third strikes...were the most strikeouts in a game by a Yankees pitcher since Mike Mussina on 5/7/03 at Seattle (12K)...marked the most by a Yankee in a home game since Mussina on 9/24/02 vs. Tampa Bay (12K)...became the youngest Yankee to strike out 12-or-more batters since Al Downing on 6/21/64 (Game 2) at Chicago-AL (13K)...allowed the first four batters of the game to score and first five to reach, after which he permitted just one infield single, 2BB and 1HP with all 12K...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two other pitchers since 1900 struck out 12-or-more batters in a game in which they allowed four-or-more first inning runs (Herb Score in 1959 and Nolan Ryan in 1973).
- Elias also noted that Chamberlain became one of five pitchers to strike out 12-or-more batters while pitching less than 6.0 innings in a game (also Cole Hamels in 2006, Curt Schilling in 1997, Kevin Appier in 1994 and J.R. Richard in 1978).
- Hit a batter in four consecutive starts from 4/24-5/10, matching the longest such streak for a Yankees pitcher in the last 50 years...also Rick Rhoden (1988), David Cone (1998), Orlando Hernandez (2002) and Randy Johnson (2005)-credit: Elias.
- Lost just once over a 17-start stretch from 5/10-8/11...following his defeat on 6/18 vs. Washington, compiled a career-high nine-start undefeated streak from 6/24- 8/11, going 5-0 with a 3.78 ERA (52.1IP, 22ER) over the stretch.
- Won his first four starts immediately following the All-Star break, posting a 2.03 ERA (26.2IP, 6ER) and a .156 (14-for-90) opponent's average from 7/19-8/6...was 3-0 with a 0.83 ERA over three starts from 7/19-29, allowing just 8H and 2ER in 21.2IP (8BB, 2HP, 1WP, 1BK, 1HR)...became the first Yankees pitcher to limit his opposition to 3H or fewer in three straight starts since Randy Johnson in April 2005.
- Recorded his first win at Yankee Stadium on 7/19 vs. Detroit, snapping a nine-start winless stretch at Yankee Stadium to begin the season (0-2, 5.36 ERA)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it marked the most winless starts at home to begin a season for a Yankees pitcher since 1990 when Andy Hawkins was 0-7 in his first 10 home starts and Tim Leary was 0-6 in his first nine home starts at the original Yankee Stadium.
- Recorded the win on 8/6 vs. Boston despite issuing a career-high 7BB...was the most walks allowed by a Yankees pitcher who also recorded a victory since David Cone walked seven in a 12-3 Yankees win on 4/9/99 vs. Detroit, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- Lost his first road start of the season on 8/16 at Seattle and had his career-high nine-start undefeated streak snapped, recording the loss (5.0IP, 7H, 4ER, 3BB, 2K)...prior to the loss, had been 8-0 and tied with Pat Darcy (1974-76) as having the most career post-All Star break wins without a defeat since the Midsummer Classic was first played in 1933.
- Set a franchise record by pitching 4.0 innings or less in six consecutive starts from 8/25-9/20, according to the Elias Sports Bureau...made his lone relief appearance of the season in the final team game of 2009 on 10/4 at Tampa Bay, tossing 1.0 perfect inning (1K).

- Made 10 relief appearances in the 2009 postseason, going 1-0 with a 2.84 ERA (6.1IP, 9H, 2ER, 1BB, 7K)...earned the win in Game 4 of the World Series, allowing the game-tying run on a solo homer and striking out the side in 1.0IP of relief.

- Was 4-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 42 appearances (12 starts) with the Yankees...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first Yankee since Roy Sherid in 1929 to start his rookie season with at least 10 relief appearances before a mid-season switch resulting in at least 10 starts.
- Opponents batted .233 (87-for-373, 5HR); LH .247 (46-for-186, 2HR), RH .219 (41-for-187, 3HR)...was 3-1 with a 2.76 ERA as a starter...the Yankees were 8-4 in his starts...in 30 relief appearances, was 1-2 with a 2.31 ERA...as a reliever, retired 25-of-30 first batters faced (83.3%) and prevented 8-of-10 (80%) inherited runners from scoring.
- Began the season in the Yankees bullpen before making the transition to a starter in late May.
- Among AL rookies, ranked first in ERA (2.60), second in strikeouts (118), fourth in opponents batting average (.233) and seventh in innings pitched (100.1)...allowed just 5HR, an average of 0.45HR/9.0IP, the second-lowest among all rookie Major Leaguers with at least 75.0IP (behind the Marlins' Chris Volstad, 0.32HR/9.0IP).
- His strikeout total marked the most by a Yankees rookie in a single season since Orlando Hernandez recorded 131K in 1998...were the third-most in a season by a Yankees pitcher under the age of 23, behind Al Downing's 171 in 1963 and Lefty Gomez's 150 in 1931.
- Made his first appearance of the season in 4/1 Opening Day win vs. Toronto, tossing a scoreless eighth inning (1.0IP, 1BB, 2K)...made his first Opening Day roster...was placed on the bereavement list from 4/14-19 to be with his hospitalized father, Harlan, in Nebraska (missed five team games).
- Allowed a "walk-off" single to Joe Crede to suffer his first Major League loss on 4/23 at Chicago-AL...was his fourth appearance in five games.
- Began the transition from relief pitcher to starter on 5/21 vs. Baltimore, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (1H, 2BB, 3K)...Manager Joe Girardi announced the move following the game...tossed a relief-appearance career-high 40 pitches on 5/24 vs. Seattle (2.0IP, 1H, 1BB, 2K)...in three "transition" relief appearances, did not allow a run over 5.1IP, holding opponents to 3H and 4BB while striking out eight batters...Girardi announced on 5/30 that Chamberlain would make his first start on 6/3 vs. the Toronto Blue Jays.
- Allowed 1ER in 2.1IP (1H, 2R, 4BB, 3K, 1BK) without recording a decision in his first Major League start on 6/3 vs. Toronto...threw 62 pitches overall, facing 12 total batters and marking the first time he faced more than nine batters in a single game...opposed Roy Halladay and, according to Elias, joined Greg Cadaret as the only Yankee to make his first Major League start against a former Cy Young Award winner...Cadaret recorded the loss against Roger Clemens on 7/7/89 at Fenway Park after making over 100 relief appearances for the A's and Yankees.
- At 22 years old, joined Yankees pitchers Phil Hughes (21) and Ian Kennedy (23), as the first trio all age 23 or younger, to start a game in the same season for the Yankees prior to September callups since 1993 (Sterling Hitchcock, Mark Hutton and Sam Militello)...the last Yankees trio to do it as early in the season (prior to 6/4) was Gil Blanco, Al Downing and Mel Stottlemyre in 1965.
- Held opponents to 3ER or less in each of his first 11 Major League starts from 6/3-7/30, becoming the first pitcher to do so since the Marlins' Josh Johnson in 13 straight starts from 2005-06 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...was the only Yankees pitcher in 2008 to have at least 11 straight starts and allow no more than 3ER in any of them...was the first Yankee to accomplish the feat since Mike Mussina from 4/4-5/31/06 (12 straight starts)...his 2.23 ERA was the lowest for any Yankees pitcher over his first 11 Major League starts since Mel Stottlemyre in 1964 (1.97 ERA).

No Hits For You

DID YOU KNOW??? Former Yankee and Hall of Famer Allie Reynolds (pictured) is one of only four pitchers to record two regular-season no-hitters in the same season, accomplishing the feat in 1951…prior to Reynolds, Cincinnati's Johnny Vander Meer was the only pitcher to hurl two no-hitters in the same season, doing so in back-to-back starts in June 1938…Detroit's Virgil Trucks (1952) and California's Nolan Ryan (1973) are the only other pitchers to match the record.

Reynolds' first no-hitter of the 1951 season came on July 12 vs. Cleveland…his second no-hitter, an 8-0 Yankees victory on September 28 vs. Boston, clinched the American League title for the Yankees.

a – Selected by the Yankees with the 28th overall pick in the 2010 Rule 5 Draft on December 9, 2010.

On a Roll

The Yankees have finished with a winning record in each of the last 18 seasons (1993-2010), becoming the only current Major League team to accomplish the feat...it is the longest streak of consecutive seasons with a record above .500 since the Baltimore Orioles reeled off 18 straight winning seasons from 1968-1985...the only team with more than 18 consecutive seasons above .500 is the Yankees, who recorded such a streak was an unprecedented run of 39 straight winning seasons from 1926-1964.

STATUS

- Acquired by the Yankees from the Texas Rangers in exchange for minor league infielder Mitch Hilligoss on January 26, 2010…is signed through the 2011 season.

- Hit .261 (6-for-23) with 3R, 2 doubles and 2RBI in 24 games (four starts in RF, one in CF and one in LF) over three stints with the Yankees (also 5/4-7, 5/12-18, 9/1-10/3).
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 5/4 and made his Yankees debut in that night's win vs. Baltimore, entering the game defensively in the eighth in CF (did not bat)…did not appear in another game before being optioned back to Scranton/WB on 5/7.
- Recalled for a second time on 5/12, appearing in five games (one start in RF in 5/13 loss at Detroit).
- Collected his first Major League hit in 5/12 Game 2 win at Detroit, entering game in the seventh in CF and singling off Phil Coke in the ninth.
- Joined the Yankees a third time as a September callup on 9/1…played in 18 games over the final month of the season, batting .222 (4-for-18) with 3R, 2 doubles and 2RBI.
- Entered 9/14 win at Tampa Bay defensively in the ninth in RF…threw out Carl Crawford at third base on a fly ball out to complete a double play and end the game…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, marked the Yankees first extra-inning win to end on an outfield assist since 8/16/03 when Karim Garcia started a 9-4-5-2-5 putout of Baltimore's Jack Cust in the 12th inning to preserve a 5-4 win.
- Began the season with Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, batting .263 (109-for-415) with 51R, 23 doubles, 5 triples, 10HR and 40RBI in 116 games…hit safely in each of his last nine games with Scranton/WB, batting .382 (13-for-34) with 7R, 5 doubles, 1 triple, 1HR and 2RBI over the stretch.
- Hit an inside-the-park home run in the third inning of 4/30 win vs. Louisville off the Bats' Matt Maloney.

- Participated in the Triple-A All-Star Game on 7/11 at Isotopes Park in Albuquerque, pitching in relief and allowing 2H and 3ER in 0.2IP (1BB, 1K, 1HR) in a 7-5 International League win...was named International League "Pitcher of the Week" for the period from 7/23-29 (2-0, 0.00 ERA, 12.2IP, 5H, 4BB, 11K, .122 opp. avg.).
- Was returned from rehab and reinstated from the 60-day D.L. on 8/4 and started that day vs. Kansas City, recording a no-decision (4.2IP, 6ER)...surrendered his first Major League home run to David DeJesus in the fifth inning...was the first home run he allowed in either the Majors or minors in 2007, snapping a streak of 52.2 homerless innings (15.0IP Major Leagues, 37.2IP minor leagues).
- Recorded the win on 8/10 at Cleveland, allowing 4H and 1ER in 6.0IP...at 21 years, 48 days old, combined with RHP Joba Chamberlain (21 years, 322 days old) to become the youngest pair of Yankees pitchers to appear in the same game since 19-year-old Mike Jurewicz and 19-year-old Gil Blanco pitched in relief on 9/7/65 vs. Baltimore (Game 2).
- Was 3-0 in September and led Yankees starters with a 2.73 ERA (29.2IP, 9ER) for the month (ninth-best in the AL)...the Yankees won each of his final five starts (9/5-27) as he held opponents to 3ER or less in each outing.
- Appeared in two Division Series games vs. Cleveland, allowing only 1ER in 5.2IP of relief (1.59 ERA, 3H, 0BB, 6K)...tossed 2.0 innings in Game 1 loss at Jacobs Field, allowing a Ryan Garko solo-HR...at 21 years, 102 days old, became the youngest Yankees pitcher to appear in a postseason game since Bill Stafford (21 years, 58 days) in Game 5 of the 1960 World Series vs. Pittsburgh.

- Tossed 3.2 scoreless innings to earn the win in ALDS Game 3...at 21 years, 105 days old, surpassed Whitey Ford (21 years, 351 days old in 1950 World Series Game 4) as the youngest pitcher in franchise history to earn a postseason victory.
- Entered the 2007 season ranked as the top right-handed pitching prospect throughout all of Baseball by Baseball America...also ranked as the Yankees' No. 1 prospect for the second straight year and was rated as having the "Best Curveball" and "Best Control" among all Yankees farmhands.

- Earned the 2006 "Kevin Lawn Minor League Pitcher of the Year" Award, given annually to the top pitching prospect in the Yankees organization, after posting a combined record of 12-6 with a 2.16 ERA in 26 starts with Class-A Tampa and Double-A Trenton...led all Eastern League pitchers with a 2.25 ERA and ranked fourth in the league with 138 strikeouts.
- Began the season in Tampa and went 2-3 with a 1.80 ERA, holding opponents to a .178 batting average and recording 30 strikeouts in 30.0IP...was promoted to Trenton on 4/30...in 21 starts with Trenton, went 10-3 with a Thunder franchise-record 2.25 ERA and 138 strikeouts in 116.0 innings...limited opposing batters to a .179 batting average and held left-handed hitters to just .161 (27-for-168)...was selected to participate in the Eastern League All-Star Game and was named to the U.S. team for the All-Star Futures Game at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.
- Did not allow a run in four consecutive starts from 6/23-7/17 (22.2IP, 7H, 6BB, 31K)...was named the Eastern League "Pitcher of the Week" from 8/7-13 after going 2-0 with a 0.90 ERA and 15K in 10.0IP...set a record for most strikeouts by a Thunder pitcher in a postseason game when he recorded 13K in 6.0IP on 9/6 vs. Portland in Game 1 of the Division Series.
- Following the season was named by Baseball America to the 2006 Minor League All-Star team as well as the Double-A All-Star squad.

- In his sophomore campaign, fought through two stints on the disabled list with right shoulder inflammation to go 9-1 with a 2.19 ERA and 93 strikeouts in 17 combined appearances (16 starts) with Single-A Charleston and Single-A Tampa.
- Went 7-1 with a 1.97 ERA in 12 starts for Charleston, striking out 72 batters in 68.2IP with only 16 walks...opponents batted just .192 and right-handed hitters were held to a .172 average...struck out eight batters and allowed only two hits in 5.0 shutout innings on 4/26 at Augusta...was credited with his first career complete game in a 6/1 win vs. Greensboro (game 1), limiting the Grasshoppers to 1ER on 2H in 7.0IP for the win...was scheduled to start the South Atlantic League All-Star Game on 6/28 but was scratched after being placed on the D.L. with mild inflammation in his shoulder...went 2-0 with a 3.06 ERA in five games (four starts) for the Tampa Yankees.

- Made only three starts for the Yankees' Gulf Coast League squad in his first professional season, holding opponents scoreless over 5.1IP without recording a decision (4H, 0BB, 8K)...missed most of the season with a fractured toe on his left foot.

PERSONAL

CAREER NOTES

- Leads all active Major Leaguers with 2,926 career hits...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is the first Yankee to hold that distinction since Johnny Mize in 1952.
- Is one of just 10 players in Baseball history with at least 1,500R, 2,500H, 200HR and 300SB (also teammate Alex Rodriguez, Roberto Alomar, Craig Biggio, Barry Bonds, Johnny Damon, Rickey Henderson, Willie Mays, Paul Molitor and Joe Morgan).
- Over the last 10 seasons, (2001-10), ranks second in the Majors in hits (1,918), third in runs scored (1,080), fourth in at-bats (6,192) and ninth in games played (1,509).
- His 1,602 runs and 2,807 hits from 5/29/95-5/28/10 were the most for any player in Major League history through his first 15 years in the Majors...is one of four players since 1920 with at least 2,600H, 200HR and 1,000RBI within his first 15 seasons (also Hank Aaron, Stan Musial and Al Simmons)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Has reached the 200-hit plateau seven times in his career, one shy of Lou Gehrig's club record, marking the most 200H seasons by a shortstop...also owns 10 seasons with at least 190 hits, tying Stan Musial for third-most 190H seasons behind Pete Rose (13) and Ty Cobb (12)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Has 15 consecutive seasons with at least 150 hits (since 1996), extending both the longest such streak among active players and the longest in franchise history.
- Has at least 150 hits against 11 Major League teams (every American League opponent except the White Sox and Twins)...among players who have debuted over the last 25 years, joins only Craig Biggio (12), Barry Bonds (11), Rafael Palmeiro (11) and Mark Grace (11) as the only players to have 150-or-more hits against at least 11 franchises—credit: Elias.
- Has recorded 11 seasons with at least a .300 average, the third-most such seasons in club history behind Lou Gehrig (12 seasons) and Babe Ruth (13 seasons), according to the Elias Sports Bureau.
- Has 42 career hitting streaks of at least 10 games, the most among active players and most ever by a Yankee in franchise history...according to Elias, is tied for the fifth-highest total in Baseball since 1903, trailing Ty Cobb (66), Hank Aaron (48), Tris Speaker (47) and Al Simmons (44)...his 13 career 40-hit months are the most in club history since Joe DiMaggio (17).
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, has 11 single-season hitting streaks of at least 15 games during his career, trailing Ichiro Suzuki (14) for the most among active Major League players...has hitting streaks of more than 15 games in seven different seasons (1996, '99, 2002, '04, '06, '07 and '09), most among active players...has six career single-season hitting streaks of at least 17 games (17, 19 and 20 games in 2007, 25 in 2006 and 17-game streaks in 1996 and 2004), matching Suzuki for the most such single-season hitting streaks among active players.

- Has reached the 100-run plateau 13 times in his career, tied with Lou Gehrig for most 100R seasons in franchise history…according to Elias, is tied with Gehrig, Rickey Henderson and teammate Alex Rodriguez for the second-most 100-run seasons in Major League history behind Hank Aaron (15).
- Has reached double digits in home runs in 15 consecutive seasons (since 1996)…is one of only five active players to record double-digit home run totals over 15 consecutive seasons at some point in their career, joining teammate Alex Rodriguez, Chipper Jones, Manny Ramirez and Ivan Rodriguez (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)…has collected at least 10HR and 10SB in each of his last 15 seasons (since 1996), the second-longest streak all time behind only Barry Bonds (16 straight from 1986-2001)—credit: Elias.

DID YOU KNOW??? Of the 2,295 career regular season games Derek Jeter has played in, there has been just one in which the Yankees had already been mathematically eliminated from postseason play (9/26/08).

- Owns 24 career leadoff home runs (17 at home, seven on the road), tied with Rickey Henderson (24) for most in franchise history…11 have come in the month of August.
- Owns the most hits in Major League history from the shortstop position, surpassing Luis Aparicio (2,673) on 8/16/09 at Seattle…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is one of four players all time to record 1,500R and 1,500 games played at shortstop (also Bill Dahlen, Honus Wagner and Cal Ripken, Jr.).
- Has played 2,275 games at shortstop for the Yankees…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is second on Baseball's all-time list in games at shortstop for one club, trailing the Orioles' Cal Ripken (2,302)…marks the third-most among players who never played a game at any other fielding position, trailing only Luis Aparicio (2,583) and Ozzie Smith (2,511)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Among the Yankees' all-time leaders, ranks first in hits (2,926) and at-bats (9,322), second in games played (2,295), doubles (468) and stolen bases (323), third in runs (1,685), fifth in batting average (.314), sixth in walks (948) and extra-base hits (763), ninth in RBI (1,135) and 10th in home runs (234)…is the franchise leader in singles (2,163) and hit by pitches (152)…is one of three players who hold their current franchise's all-time hits record (also Colorado's Todd Helton and Texas' Michael Young).
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, at 1,379-914-2, has the highest personal winning percentage (.601) among active players (min. 1,000G)…Elias also notes he has played in 1,379 regular season victories, surpassing Mickey Mantle (1,376) for the most in franchise history…the only active player who has played in as many wins as Jeter is Omar Vizquel (1,482)…Elias also notes that only five players who made their Major League debuts since 1929 played in more winning games than Jeter (1,197) before reaching the 2000-game mark: Yogi Berra (1,221), Pee Wee Reese (1,221), Paul Blair (1,207), Mickey Mantle (1,206) and Gil Hodges (1,200).
- Leads all active players with 252 career games of three-or-more hits (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)…posted at least a dozen games with three-or-more hits in 14 consecutive seasons from 1996-2009, matching Tony Gwynn (1984-97) for the second-longest streak of its kind for any player during the expansion era (since 1961) behind Pete Rose's 19 consecutive seasons from 1963-81 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)…since the start of the 1996 season, has a Major League-best 860 multi-hit games.
- Along with Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera, have become the first trio of teammates in MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL history to appear in a game together in each of 16 straight seasons (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Finished with 1,274 career hits at the original Yankee Stadium…surpassed Lou Gehrig (1,269) for the most hits all-time at the Stadium in 9/16/08 loss vs. Chicago-AL…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, recorded 120 career games of three-or-more hits at Yankee Stadium, most all-time ahead of second-place Gehrig (109)…his 18 career four-hit games at Yankee Stadium rank second all-time to Gehrig's 19.
- Is one of five players to play in at least 1,000 games at the original Yankee Stadium (also Mantle, Gehrig, Berra and B. Williams)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only the Angels' Garrett Anderson (1,021 at Angel Stadium) appeared in more games in any one stadium among active players.
- Earned his 11th trip to the All-Star Game in 2010, including his sixth fan-selected start (fifth consecutive start)…went 1-for-2 with 1BB before being removed for PR (Elvis Andrus) in the sixth in the 3-1 National League win on 7/13…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Jeter and 2B Robinson Cano joined Bucky Dent and Willie Randolph as the only Yankees SS/2B combos to start an All-Star game together…also joined Cano, Joe Mauer and Albert Pujols as the only Major League players to top four million fan votes, finishing second behind Mauer…his 11 All-Star Game selections are tied with Bill Dickey and Mariano Rivera for the fifth-most in club history, trailing Mickey Mantle (20), Yogi Berra (19), Joe DiMaggio (13) and Elston Howard (12)…joins teammate Mariano Rivera as the only players to be named to the All-Star team with their current team at least 11 times, according to Elias.
- Ranks first on Major League Baseball's all-time postseason lists with 185 career hits, 101 runs, 147 games played, 54 extra-base hits…also ranks third in home runs (20), with 12 of the homers tying the game or giving the Yankees the lead…owns three career leadoff home runs in postseason play (2009 ALCS Game 3 at Los Angeles-AL, 2004 ALDS Game 2 vs. Minnesota and 2000 World Series Game 4 at the Mets)…is the only player ever with a leadoff homer in each the three rounds of the playoffs…owns a .397 (58-for-146) career average against LH pitching in postseason play.
- Is the all-time Division Series leader in hits (78), runs (37), singles (56) and games played (56)…ranks first all time with 53 Championship Series games played, is tied for first in doubles (10), ranks second in hits (57), is fifth in RBI (24) and tied for sixth in home runs (seven)…has scored 32 runs in the World Series, fourth-most all time, while ranking fifth with 50 World Series hits…has carried at least a .300 average in five World Series (1998-2000, '03 and '09), matching Babe Ruth and Yogi Berra for the most such Series all-time.

- Hit .270 (179-for-663) with 111R, 30 doubles, 3 triples, 10HR and 67RBI in 157 games (150 starts at SS, five at DH) with the Yankees...his 111R were his most since 2006 (118)...six of his 10HR tied the game or gave the Yankees the lead.
- Ranked second among Major League leadoff hitters with 104R and 60RBI when batting first in the lineup...ranked fifth with 167H as the leadoff batter.
- With 2B Robinson Cano (103R), and 1B Mark Teixeira (113R), became the fourth trio of infield teammates to each score at least 100R in consecutive seasons – also 1999-2000 Cleveland Indians (R. Alomar, J. Thome, O. Vizquel), 1936-38 Yankees (F. Crosetti, L. Gehrig, R. Rolfe) and 1929-30 Philadelphia A's (M. Bishop, M. Cochrane, J. Foxx).
- Earned his fifth career Gold Glove Award...became the sixth shortstop since 1958 (when Gold Glove Awards were first awarded in each league) to win the honor at least five times, and joined Don Mattingly (nine-time winner), Dave Winfield (five), Ron Guidry (five) and Bobby Richardson (five) as the only Yankees to win the award at least five times...recorded a career-best .989 fielding percentage at SS and made just six errors, the lowest full-season total of his career and the fewest among all Major League shortstops in 2010 (min. 110G at SS)...compiled a career-long 52-game errorless stretch from 6/12-8/15.
- Led the Majors in fielding percentage at SS...with teammate Robinson Cano leading the American League with a .996 fielding percentage at second base, became the first teammates to finish a season as the fielding leaders at shortstop and second base (in either league) since Omar Vizquel and Roberto Alomar for the 2001 Cleveland Indians and the first Yankees to accomplish the feat since Phil Rizzuto and Jerry Coleman in 1949 (credit: Elias).
- Made his 14th Opening Day start at SS for the Yankees on 4/4 at Boston, the most Opening Day starts by a Yankee at shortstop in franchise history...became the oldest shortstop (35 years, 282 days) to start for the Yankees in a season opener since Phil Rizzuto in 1955 (37 years, 200 days)—credit: Elias.
- According to Elias, is the only active player to make 14 Opening Day starts, all for the same team, at any single position...is the first shortstop to do so since Barry Larkin started 17 Opening Day games for the Reds (1987-2004)...was his sixth Opening Day start at SS with Alex Rodriguez at 3B, matching Bucky Dent/Graig Nettles (six) and Frank Crosetti/Red Rolfe (six) for most such starts in franchise history.
- Batted .330 (31-for-94) with 18RBI in April...marked his most RBI in a calendar month since May 2007 (20RBI)...recorded at least 30H in April for the seventh time in his career, one shy of Tony Gwynn's Major League record (credit: Elias)...hit 4HR in April for the second straight year after going homerless in April 2008.
- Hit safely in each of his first 11 games (4/4-17), the longest hitting streak to start a season of his career...according to Elias, with Robinson Cano, became the first 2B-SS duo in the Modern Era (since 1900) to each hit safely in nine-or-more of their club's first games of the season...became the first Yankees tandem at any position to each hit safely in each of the team's first 10 games of a season.
- Hit solo-HR and was 2-for-5 with 2RBI in 4/13 home opening win vs. Los Angeles-AL...has hit safely in nine straight home openers (since 2002), marking the second-longest streak in franchise history, trailing Lou Gehrig (12 straight from 1926-37)—credit: Elias.
- Appeared in his 2,165th game on 5/7 at Boston, surpassing Lou Gehrig (2,164) for sole possession of second place on the Yankees' all-time list.

"[You are] Major League Baseball's foremost champion and ambassador. You embody all the best of Major League Baseball...you have represented the sport magnificently throughout your Hall of Fame career. On and off the field, you are a man of great integrity, and you have my admiration."

-Commissioner Bud Selig, in a letter to Derek Jeter on March 3, 2009

- Surpassed Babe Ruth (2,873) for sole possession of 39th place on Baseball's all-time hits list with a second-inning single in 8/8 win vs. Boston.
- Collected his 2,877th career hit with a first-inning single in 8/11 win at Texas, surpassing Mel Ott for 38th place on Baseball's all-time list...also surpassed Ott—who played his entire career with the New York Giants—for the most hits by a player while playing for a New York team (credit: Elias).
- Over his final 20 games of the season (9/10-10/3), batted .326 (28-for-86) with 15R and a .416OBP, hitting safely in 19 of those contests.
- Scored his 1,678th career run in the sixth inning of 9/22 loss vs. Tampa Bay, surpassing Mickey Mantle (1,677) for sole possession of third place on the Yankees' all-time list...tied Mantle in 9/20 win vs. Tampa Bay.
- Played in his 1,377th regular season victory on 9/26 vs. Boston, surpassing Mickey Mantle (1,376) for the most in franchise history.
- Hit .250 (10-for-40) with 3 doubles, 1 triple and 2RBI in nine postseason games, hitting safely in seven of the contests...had his 11-game postseason hitting streak snapped in ALCS Game 3 loss vs. Texas on 10/18/10.

- Hit .334 (212-for-634) with 107R, 27 doubles, 1 triple, 18HR, 66RBI and 30SB in 153 games with the Yankees (147 starts at SS, five starts at DH)...was named the "Sportsman of the Year" by Sports Illustrated, becoming the first Yankee to win the honor in its 56-year history...also earned his fourth Silver Slugger Award, fourth Gold Glove Award (led all SS with a .986 fielding pct.) and second Hank Aaron Award (as the AL's top offensive player voted on by fans)...named to the Sporting News AL All-Star team and finished third in AL MVP voting (193 points)...played in a total of 193 games in 2009, including spring training, World Baseball Classic, regular season, All-Star Game and postseason.

- Ranked second in the Majors in hits and fourth in batting average…ranked third in the AL in on-base percentage (.406) and tied with teammate Johnny Damon for fourth in the AL in runs scored…ranked third in the Majors with 66 multi-hit games. and third in the AL in road average (.337)…his 107R were the most among regular shortstop in the Majors…ranked third in the Majors with a .395 (70-for-177) average vs. left-handed pitchers in 2009…led the Majors with a .409 OBP as the No. 1 batter in the lineup, while his .336 average (205-for-611) ranked third among Major League leadoff men…recorded 21 three-hit games, the highest such total of his career and third-most in the Majors behind Florida's Hanley Ramirez (24) and Minnesota's Joe Mauer (23)…were the most home runs by an AL shortstop.
- According to Elias, became the oldest player to post a 200-hit season for the Yankees and became the oldest regular shortstop to ever record 200H in a season (previous was Honus Wagner-201H at age 34 in 1908)…became the seventh player in Major League history to collect 200 hits in a season both before age 25 and after turning 34, joining Nap Lajoie, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Paul Waner, Pete Rose and Tony Gwynn…marked the second-highest batting average by a shortstop at age 35 or older in the last 100 years behind Honus Wagner who hit .339 at age 35.
- Became the oldest player in the last 84 years and one of three players in the modern era (since 1900) to bat .334 and steal 30 bases at age 35-or-older, joining Hall-of-Famers Max Carey (1925), Eddie Collins (1923-24) and Honus Wagner (1909).
- Surpassed Lou Gehrig (2,721) for most hits in franchise history with his third-inning single to right-field off Orioles starter Chris Tillman in 9/11 loss vs. Baltimore…according to Elias, became the sixth different player to hold the Yankees hit record at the conclusion of a season, joining Willie Keeler (1903-11), Hal Chase (1911-22), Wally Pipp (1922-29), Babe Ruth (1929-37) and Gehrig (1937-2009)…was voted as the MLB.com "Moment of the Year"…tied Gehrig with a seventh-inning single to right field off Rays starter Jeff Niemann in 9/9 win vs. Tampa Bay, going 3-for-4 with 1 double, 1BB and 1SB.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, prior to Jeter setting the all-time franchise hits record on 9/11/09, Lou Gehrig had held the mark since 9/6/37, when he surpassed Babe Ruth (2,518H)…Willie Keeler led the Highlanders in hits in 1903, their first season in New York, and he remained the all-time leader for New York until Hal Chase passed him in August 1911…Chase led the franchise until September 1922, when he was followed by Wally Pipp (1922–1929), then Ruth (1929–1937).

DID YOU KNOW??? Derek Jeter hit safely in 92 of 100 games from 7/21/06-5/16/07 (G1), becoming the first player in modern Major League history (since 1900) to accomplish the feat…according to the Society for American Baseball Research, the last player prior to Jeter to accomplish the feat was Wee Willie Keeler, who hit in 93 of 100 games over a stretch from 1898 to 1899.

- Along with Robinson Cano (204H), became just the fifth pair of Yankees teammates (sixth time) to each collect at least 200 hits in the same season…also Lou Gehrig and Earle Combs (1927), Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio (1936, '37), Bernie Williams and Jeter (1999) and Alfonso Soriano and Williams (2002)…also joined Cano as the first pair of teammates in Baseball history to reach 200 hits in a season at the shortstop and second base position (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Stole 30 bases in 35 attempts (85.7%), more SB than his totals from '07 and '08 combined (26)…marked his third season with at least 200H and 30SB, the most such seasons for any shortstop.
- Was the AL's top overall All-Star vote-getter for the first time in his career, garnering 4,851,889 fan votes to earn his 10th career All-Star selection and sixth as the AL's starting shortstop…went 0-for-2 with 2R and 1HBP in the 4-3 American League win in St. Louis on 7/14, playing five innings as the AL's starting SS.
- Recorded the first unofficial hit by a Yankee at Yankee Stadium with a first-inning double on 4/3 vs. the Cubs in an exhibition game…played for Team USA in the World Baseball Classic, batting .276 (8-for-29) with 2 doubles in eight games (four starts at SS, three at DH).
- Made his 13th Opening Day start at SS for the Yankees, going 3-for-5 in 4/6 Opening Day loss at Baltimore…were his most hits on Opening Day since 1999 (3-for-3)…are the most Opening Day starts by a Yankees shortstop in franchise history.

- Recorded the first at-bat by a Yankee in Yankee Stadium in 4/16 loss vs. Cleveland...prior to his first-inning plate appearance, the bat used by Babe Ruth to hit the first home run in the first game at the original Yankee Stadium on 4/18/1923 was placed across the plate in a symbolic nod to the original Stadium.
- Played in his 2,000th career game and hit a solo-HR, in 4/22 win vs. Oakland...struck out in his 8,103rd career at-bat in 4/27 loss at Detroit, surpassing Mickey Mantle for sole possession of first place on the Yankees' all-time at-bats list.
- Committed his first error of the year in 5/2 loss vs. Los Angeles-AL (sixth-inning throwing error)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 23-game errorless stretch was his longest to start a season of his career.
- Scored the 1,500th run of his career in the fourth inning of 6/2 win vs. Texas...became the fourth Yankee (also Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Mickey Mantle) to reach the 1,500R plateau...reached the milestone in his 2,035th career game...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only Rickey Henderson (1,891), Alex Rodriguez (1,903), Mickey Mantle (1,949) and Willie Mays (2,009) did so in fewer games than Jeter in the expansion era (since 1961).
- Batted at a .358 (122-for-341) clip from 7/1 through the end of the season, leading the Majors in hits and batting average over the stretch.
- His third-inning RBI double on 8/16 at Seattle was his 2,674th career hit as a shortstop (also has 13 hits as a DH), surpassing Luis Aparicio (2,673) for the most hits in Major League history from the shortstop position (credit: Elias).
- Was 2-for-3 with 1 double and 2BB in 8/25 loss vs. Texas...his first-inning walk snapped a career-long 113 plate appearance stretch (7/28-8/23) without a base-on-balls (previous long was 68 PA in 2000).

- Struck out 85 times, the fewest for any full season in his Major League career (previous low was 88K in 2003).
- Committed 12 errors, marking his fewest miscues since 1998 (nine) while his .979 fielding percentage was his highest since 2005 (also .979)...was the second-fewest errors among AL shortstops with at least 100 games played at the position, trailing only Texas' Michael Young (10)...went 31 consecutive games without an error from 7/8-8/15.
- Was selected to his ninth All-Star Game...finished second in the AL with 3,737,437 votes (behind teammate Alex Rodriguez)...was 1-for-3 (first-inning infield single) with 1SB in the All-Star Game on 7/15 at Yankee Stadium...following the season, was named to the 2008 Sporting News AL All-Star team, which was selected by a panel of 41 general managers and assistant general managers from both leagues...also earned his third consecutive Silver Slugger Award.
- Was 1-for-4 in 4/1 Opening Day win vs. Toronto...was his 12th Opening Day start at SS for the Yankees, surpassing Phil Rizzuto (11) for the most Opening Day starts by a Yankees shortstop in franchise history...started his fifth straight Opening Day at shortstop with Alex Rodriguez at third base, becoming the first pair of Yankees to start on the left side of the infield in five consecutive years since Graig Nettles and Bucky Dent started six consecutive season openers from 1977-82.

- Missed six games from 4/8-13 with a strained left quadriceps…was the longest stretch of consecutive DNPs in his career, not counting times he's been on the D.L. (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)…upon returning, hit in seven straight games from 4/14-20, going 12-for-31 (.387) with 4R, 2 doubles, 1 triple, 10RBI and 2BB…did not score a run in nine straight games from 4/18-27, the longest such stretch of his career (credit: Elias).
- Hit his first home run of the season and was 2-for-5 with 2R in 5/10 win at Detroit, snapping a 128AB homerless stretch, the longest streak to begin a season of his career (credit: Elias).
- Recorded his first stolen base of the season in his 38th game played (5/18 loss vs. the Mets)…his 37-game streak without a steal was his longest in a single season since going 49 straight games without a steal from 6/4-7/26/96 (credit: Elias)…was just his second stolen base attempt of 2008 (also 4/1 vs. Toronto)…the streak of 36 games without a steal attempt was the longest of his career (previous high was 30 games in 1996).
- Went hitless in five straight games (0-for-18), his longest such streak since going hitless in seven straight from 4/21-28/04…was picked off second base in the top of the sixth inning by Dennis Sarfate in 5/27 loss at Baltimore…according to Elias, it was the first time he had been picked off any base since 9/2/98.
- Turned 34 years old on 6/26…his 2,438 career hits were the most by a Yankee before turning 34 years old (17 more than Lou Gehrig when he turned 34)…was the most among all active players prior to their 34th birthday…in AL history, only Ty Cobb and Robin Yount accumulated more hits than Jeter before turning 34.
- In 7/12 win at Toronto, hit his 19th career leadoff homer and first since 9/27/05 at Baltimore…was also his 200th home run as a Yankee…the Elias Sports Bureau notes that with Jason Giambi (8/9) and Alex Rodriguez (8/12) also hitting their 200th Yankees homers in 2008, they became the first teammates on any club to reach the 200HR plateau together in the same season.
- Became the 88th player all time—and the sixth active Major Leaguer—to reach the 2,500-hit plateau with his first-inning single in 8/22 win vs. Baltimore…also became the third player in Yankees franchise history to tally 2,500 hits with the club, joining Lou Gehrig (2,721) and Babe Ruth (2,518)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two players in the last 65 years were younger than Jeter (34 years, 57 days) at the time of their 2,500th hit (Hank Aaron in 1967 and Robin Yount in 1989).
- In 9/7 loss at Seattle, hit solo-HR to mark his 1,000th career RBI…had a third-inning single to tie Babe Ruth (2,518) for second place on the all-time Yankees hit list…collected his 2,519th career hit with a first-inning single off the Angels' Ervin Santana on 9/9 at Los Angeles, surpassing Ruth…marked the first time since 6/22/33 that someone other than Ruth or Gehrig occupied first or second place on the Yankees' all-time hits list (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).

"For all of us up here, it's a huge honor to put this uniform on every day and come out here and play. Every member of this organization, past and present, has been calling this place home for 85 years. There's a lot of tradition, a lot of history, and a lot of memories. Now, the great thing about memories, is you're able to pass [them] along from generation to generation. And although things are going to change next year – we're going to move across the street – there are a few things with the New York Yankees that never change. That's pride, it's tradition, and most of all, we have the greatest fans in the world.

"We're relying on you to take the memories from this Stadium, add them to the new memories that come at the new Yankee Stadium and continue to pass them on from generation to generation. So, on behalf of the entire organization, we just want to take this moment to salute you, the greatest fans in the world."

- Went 6-for-7 in 9/13 doubleheader vs. Tampa Bay, going 3-for-4 in Game 1 loss and 3-for-3 in Game 2 win…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first Yankee to record 3H in each game of a doubleheader in remodeled Yankee Stadium (since 1976) and only the sixth Yankee over the last 40 years to accomplish the feat at any park (Johnny Damon in 2006, Willie Randolph in 1987, Dave Winfield in 1983, Matty Alou in 1973 and Roy White in 1972)…also recorded 3H in the series finale on 9/14, finishing the series 9-for-11 and reaching base in 11 of his 13 plate appearances (1BB, 1HBP)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the fifth player (and second Yankee) to record at least three hits in every game of a series of three games or more at Yankee Stadium joining Boston's Edgar Renteria (2005), the Yankees' Ken Griffey Sr. (1982), Oakland's Reggie Jackson (1973), and Boston's Dom DiMaggio (1949).
- Tied Lou Gehrig's all-time record of 1,269 career hits at the original Yankee Stadium in 9/14 win vs. Tampa Bay with a fifth-inning solo-HR off David Price, going 3-for-4…in 9/15 win vs. Chicago-AL, tied Gehrig (8,001) for second place on the Yankees' all-time at-bats list (according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Gehrig had held sole possession of first place on the franchise's all-time list since 9/6/37).
- With a first-inning single off Gavin Floyd in 9/16 loss vs. Chicago-AL, passed Lou Gehrig (1,269) in all-time hits at the original Yankee Stadium…in the same at-bat, gained sole possession of second place on the Yankees' all-time at-bats list, passing Gehrig (8,001AB)…following the game, his spikes were sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.
- Was 0-for-5 in the final game at the original Yankee Stadium on 9/21 vs. Baltimore, making the last Yankees out on a groundout (third base to first base)…gave a speech to the Stadium crowd following the game…the bat he used during the final homestand was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame…his final game speech was voted by fans as the MLB.com "Moment of the Year."
- Was scratched from the lineup prior to 9/23 win at Toronto (sore left hand)…entered the game at SS in the ninth…originally suffered the injury on 9/20 vs. Baltimore when he was hit by a Jim Miller pitch in his final at-bat of the game…left 9/26 win at Boston in the third inning with a sore wrist…missed final two games of the season.

- Was a member of his fourth World Series championship team, becoming the first player in Major League history to be named MVP of the Fall Classic and All-Star Game in the same season...the only other player to win both awards in his career is Frank Robinson, World Series MVP in 1966 and All-Star MVP in 1971...at 26 years old, only Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle (at 24) and Billy Martin (25) earned four World Championships at a younger age...hit .339 with 15HR and 73RBI in 148 games (148 starts at SS).
- Recorded his third straight 200-hit season, becoming only the third Yankee to compile three consecutive 200-hit seasons (joining Lou Gehrig, 1927-29 and Don Mattingly, 1984-86)...joined Bernie Williams in reaching the 100-run plateau for the fifth straight season...was only the third time since 1900 that teammates have each scored 100 or more runs in at least five consecutive seasons...the Yankees' Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Earle Combs accomplished the feat in seven consecutive seasons (1926-32) and Cincinnati's Joe Morgan and Pete Rose broke the 100-run plateau in five straight seasons (1972-76).
- Reached his 26th birthday on 6/26 with 887 career hits...only two Yankees had more hits at age 26 (Mickey Mantle, 1,080 and Joe DiMaggio, 970)...only three active players at the time had more hits before turning 26 (Roberto Alomar, 1054; Ken Griffey, Jr., 1039 and Ivan Rodriguez, 948)...was selected to his third All-Star Game by Manager Joe Torre...went 3-for-3 with 1R and 2RBI in his first start and was named Most Valuable Player of the 71st All-Star Game in Atlanta...became the first player in Yankees history to be named MVP of the All-Star Game and the fourth shortstop to take home the honor.

- Made fifth straight Opening Day start at SS…reached base safely in 26 of the first 28 games of the season (4/3-5/6)–including 23 straight from 4/7-5/3…scored his 500th career run on 4/23 at Toronto, becoming only the fourth Yankee to reach the 500-run plateau before his 26th birthday (joining Gehrig, DiMaggio and Mantle)…was hitless in four straight games (5/7-9, 5/11) for the first time since 4/26-29/97…left game in third inning on 5/11 vs. Tampa Bay and missed five games (5/12-17) with an abdominal strain…was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 5/19-27.
- Compiled a streak of 10 consecutive games with at least one walk from 8/14-23, (14BB total)…was the longest such streak by a Yankee since Jesse Barfield also walked in 10 straight games from 8/9-19/90…reached the 1,000-hit plateau with a fifth-inning single and was 3-for-4 on 9/25 vs. Detroit…at 26, became the second-youngest Yankee to reach 1,000 hits (behind only Mickey Mantle, who was 25 when he collected his 1,000th hit in 1957).
- Hit .317 (20-for-63) and led the Yankees with 13R and 4HR in the postseason…had his 17-game postseason hitting streak snapped in Game 1 of the Division Series at Oakland, going 0-for-3…was the World Series MVP, hitting .409 (9-for-22) with two doubles, one triple, 2HR and 2RBI in five games…set a five-game World Series record with 19 total bases and tied five-game records with 9H and 6R…also became the eighth player to lead off a World Series game with a home run in Game 4.
- Became the third shortstop to ever win the World Series MVP Award, joining the Yankees' Bucky Dent in 1978 and Detroit's Alan Trammell in 1984…hit safely in all five World Series games, extending his hitting streak in the Series to 14 games.

- Won his third World Championship in his first four full seasons…only two other Yankee players (Mickey Mantle, 21 years old and Joe DiMaggio, 23 years old) won three championships at a younger age than Jeter (25)…hit .349 with 37 doubles, 24HR and 102RBI in 158 games (all at SS)…set career highs in nearly every offensive category, including batting average, runs (134), hits (219), triples (9), home runs, RBI, and walks (91)…was named to his second All-Star team by Yankees manager Joe Torre (was 0-for-1).
- Was among the AL leaders in multi-hit games (first-67), hits (first), batting average (second), runs (second), triples (tied for second), on-base percentage (third-.438) and total bases (tied for fourth-346)…his 102RBI were the second-most ever by a Yankees shortstop in a single season behind only Lyn Lary's 107 in 1931…led the Yankees in hits for the fourth straight season and became the first player since Ernie Banks (1954-57) to lead his team in hits in each of his first four full seasons…his 219 hits were the fourth-highest single-season total by a Yankee and most since 1986 (Don Mattingly, 238)…joined centerfielder Bernie Williams as the first pair of Yankee teammates to record 200 or more hits in the same season since DiMaggio and Lou Gehrig accomplished the feat in 1939…became the first player to score at least 100 runs in four straight seasons starting with his rookie year since Jim Gilliam did it for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1953-56.
- Reached base safely in each of the first 53 games of the season, the longest streak in the Majors in 1999 and the longest by a Yankee in the post-expansion era (since 1961)…the streak ended in a 7-2 loss on 6/6 vs. New York-NL…had six hitting streaks of at least 10 games, including a season-high 16-game streak from 5/4-22.
- Tied his career high with 5RBI in a 10-1 win on 5/7 vs. Seattle…posted seven consecutive multi-hit games from 6/7-14, the most by a Yankee since Dave Winfield in 1988…batted third for the first time in his career on 6/18 vs. Anaheim and went 2-for-3 with 2R, 1RBI and 1HBP…also stole home on the front end of a double steal with Chili Davis…hit in the third position from 6/18-7/1, batting .395 (17-for-43) and hitting safely in each of the 11 games…batted fourth for the first time ever on 7/10 at New York-NL…was 0-for-4 with 1IBB.
- Snapped an 0-for-17 skid with the game-winning two-run home run off David Wells in the eighth inning of a 3-1 victory on 8/2 vs. Toronto…the home run was his 20th of the season, making him the first Yankees shortstop ever to hit 20HR in a season.
- Hit .375 (18-for-48) and led the Yankees with 10R in the postseason…hit safely in all 12 games and 17 consecutive postseason games dating back to 1998, tying Hank Bauer for the all-time record.

- Batted .324 with 19HR and 84RBI in 149 games (148 starts at SS)…finished third in the American League MVP voting behind Juan Gonzalez and Nomar Garciaparra…was among the American League leaders in runs (first-127), multi-hit games (tied for second), hits (third-203), triples (tied for fourth-8), batting average (fifth) and at-bats (sixth-626)…broke the single-season home run record for Yankees shortstops (previously held by Roy Smalley in 1982 with 16)…with 203 hits, joined Phil Rizzuto as the second Yankees shortstop to collect 200 or more hits in a season (Rizzuto had 200 in 1950).
- Set a Major League record for most runs scored by a shortstop in his first three full seasons with 352, surpassing the previous mark of 343 held by Detroit's Donie Bush from 1908-11…joined Frank Crosetti as the only Yankees shortstops to score 100 or more runs in three or more consecutive seasons (Crosetti did it in four straight seasons from 1936-39)…combined with 2B Chuck Knoblauch to become the first pair of Yankees middle infielders to each hit 15 or more home runs in the same season (Knoblauch had 17)…they also became the third pair of middle-infield teammates in AL history to record at least 30 stolen bases each in a single season (also SS Jack Barry and 2B Eddie Collins of the 1911 Philadelphia Athletics and SS Bert Campaneris and 2B Phil Garner of the 1976 Oakland Athletics)…was named to his first All-Star team by Cleveland manager Mike Hargrove and went 0-for-1 in the game.

- Drove in a career-high five runs on 5/6 at Texas…had a season-high 15-game hitting streak from 5/2-20, batting .456 (31-for-68) with 4HR and 19RBI during the streak…was placed on the disabled list for the first time in his career on 6/4 with a strained abdominal muscle sustained on a check swing on 6/3 vs. Tampa Bay (missed 12 team games)…was named the American League's "Player of the Month" for August, batting .382 (50-for-131) with 30R, 9 doubles, 4HR and 22RBI in 32 games.
- With 50 hits in August, he became the first Yankee to collect 50 hits in a month since Joe DiMaggio had 53 in July 1941…joined Alex Rodriguez (54 hits in August 1996) as the only players to reach 50 hits in a month in the 1990s.
- Started every game of the postseason, batting .235 (12-for-51) with 7R and 3RBI…hit .353 (6-for-17) vs. San Diego in the World Series.

Sheppard Honored by Congress

On November 16, 2010, Congresswoman Carolyn McCarthy (NY-04) issued the following statement in support of House Resolution 1529, commending Bob Sheppard – the Voice of Yankee Stadium – for his respected career as the public-address announcer for the New York Yankees and the New York Giants.

The resolution was voice-voted and there was no opposition.

- Hit .303 (199-for-656) with 122R, 36 doubles, 6 triples, 36HR, 104RBI and 21SB in 161 games with the Braves, setting career highs in average, runs, hits and doubles...led the NL in at-bats and ranked third in hits and multi-hit games (59), tied for fourth in games played, and was fifth in runs scored and total bases (355).
- Won his third straight Gold Glove Award and was named to his first career All-Star team...joined Hank Aaron as the only Braves with 20HR and 20SB in at least three straight seasons...had his streak of 301 consecutive games played snapped on 8/27 (sore legs).
- Went 1-for-9 (.111) with 3R and 1HR in the NLDS as the Braves were swept by the Cardinals.

- Played in all 162 games with the Braves, batting .275 (163-for-592) with 97R, 35 doubles, 5 triples, 26HR, 84RBI and 24SB
- Won his second straight Gold Glove Award...tied for sixth in the NL with 13 outfield assists.
- With 26HR and 24SB, joined Chipper Jones (45HR/25SB) as the first-ever Braves teammates with 20-or-more homers and steals in the same season.
- Combined to hit .185 (10-for-54) with 7R, 1 doubles and 3RBI in 14 postseason games...drew bases-loaded "walk-off" walk in NLCS Game 6 vs. the Mets to give Braves 10-9 win in 11 innings and the NL pennant.

- Hit .271 (158-for-582) with 89R, 33 doubles, 8 triples, 31HR, 90RBI and 27SB in 159 games with the Braves...tied for fifth in the NL in triples and tied for sixth in stolen bases...became the sixth-youngest player in Major League history to hit at least 30HR in a season...also became the youngest player in history to record 20HR/20SB in season.
- Won the first of his 10 consecutive Gold Glove Awards as a center fielder...recorded a career-high 20 assists, tying Florida's Mark Kotsay for the NL lead.
- Hit his 50th career home run on 9/6 at the Mets, becoming the third-youngest player in history to reach that milestone (21 years and four months and 14 days) behind Mel Ott and Tony Conigliaro.
- Hit .194 (6-for-31) with 5R, 1HR and 3RBI in nine postseason games...went hitless (0-for-9) in the NLDS vs. Chicago, then rebounded to hit .273 (6-for-22) in the NLCS loss vs. San Diego.

- In his first full Major League season, batted .231 (92-for-399) with 60R, 18 doubles, 18HR and 70RBI in 153 games...tied for third in the NL with 14 outfield assists...recorded three game-winning hits in extra innings.
- Was named to the Topps Rookie All-Star Team and finished fifth in the NL "Rookie of the Year" Award voting.
- Appeared in eight postseason games (three starts in RF), batting .286 (4-for-15) with 1R and 2RBI...went 0-for-5 in the NLDS win vs. Houston.

- The Baseball America, Baseball Weekly, USA Today and TOPPS "Minor League Player of the Year" saw his first Major League action after being recalled on 8/14...hit .217 (23-for-106) with 5HR and 13RBI in 31 games.
- Made his Major League debut in 8/15 win at Philadelphia, and at 19 years, 3 months and 23 days old became the fourth-youngest player in Braves history...went 1-for-5 with a ninth-inning RBI single off Toby Borland for his first hit...homered the following day vs. Pittsburgh off Denny Neagle, becoming the youngest NL player to hit a HR since Houston's Larry Dierker in 1965.
- Recorded his first career multi-homer game in 8/22 loss vs. Cincinnati, homering twice to become the youngest player to accomplish that feat since the Cubs' Danny Murphy in 1961.
- Combined to hit .339 (151-for-445) with 34HR, 92 RBI and 30SB in 116 games with Single-A Durham, Double-A Greenville and Triple-A Richmond prior to recall...with Durham, ranked second in the Carolina League in home runs (17) and RBI (43) when he was promoted to Greenville on 6/19...was named to the Carolina League All-Star Team...played in just 12 games at the Triple-A level, hitting .378 (17-for-45), before joining the Major League squad.
- Hit .345 (10-for-29) with 7R, 1 doubles, 3HR, 9RBI and 7BB in 14 postseason games...appeared in all three NLDS games vs. Los Angeles with no at-bats...went 2-for-9 in NLCS win vs. St. Louis, with both hits coming in Game 7 win...singled in the second inning for his first career playoff hit, and homered in sixth off Mark Petkovsek becoming the youngest player ever to hit a HR in the postseason (surpassing Mickey Mantle)
- Homered in each of his first two World Series at-bats against the Yankees, becoming the second player ever to accomplish the feat (also Gene Tenace w/ Oakland in 1972) and youngest player ever to homer in the WS...his 5RBI in the Game 1 win tied the NL single-game WS record...hit .400 (8-for-20) with 4R, 1 double, 2HR and 6RBI overall in the Series.

- Named the "Minor League Player of the Year" by Baseball America and USA Today after hitting .277 (149-for-537) with 41 doubles, 25HR, 100RBI and 50SB with Single-A Macon...led all minor-leaguers in extra-base hits, ranked third in runs, tied for fourth in doubles and seventh in steals...was the first minor leaguer since Don Zimmer in 1950 with at least 20HR, 100RBI and 50SB...led the South Atlantic League in runs scored (104), extra-base hits (71) and SB and was second in doubles, third in homers and fourth in RBI.

- In his first professional action, combined to hit .290 (69-for-238) with 21SB with the GCL Braves and Single-A Danville.

PERSONAL

Steinbrenner High Opens

Named after the Yankees Principal Owner, George M. Steinbrenner High School opened in August 2009 on Lutz Lake Fern Road just north of Tampa.

"Over the years, Mr. Steinbrenner has been deeply involved in the community, particularly with the schools and the school system," said Steven Ayers, director of community relations for Hillsborough County public schools. "He's been very involved and very philanthropic. He's probably donated in tens of millions over the length of time. He's had a significant amount of money and significant amount of involvement in the community."

In addition to regular classroom curriculum, the school also offers classes for students preparing for a career in sports with sports marketing, sports medicine and the business of sports (BOSS). The school's mascot is the Warriors, featuring navy and gold coloring.

- Hit .248 (95-for-383) with 49R, 23 doubles, 1 triple, 18HR and 57RBI in 120 games (78 starts at C, 28 at DH) with the Yankees...the Yankees were 49-29 in his starts at catcher...caught 10-of-78 (11.4%) potential base stealers.
- Had 3SB, tying his career high (also 3SB in 2006)...all 3SB came in a nine-game stretch from 8/7-17 after having just 1SB in his previous 297G (7/15/07-8/6/10).
- Made his 11th career Opening Day start at catcher (since 2000), surpasing Thurman Munson (10) and trailing only Bill Dickey (14, 1930-43) for most consecutive starts behind the plate for the Yankees on Opening Day in franchise history...became the oldest catcher (38 years, 230 days) to start an opener for the Yankees since Dickey in 1946 (38 years, 314 days).
- Hit solo HR in his first AB of the season in the second inning of 4/4 Opening Day loss at Boston, going 3-for-4 with 2RBI and 1BB...was his fourth career Opening Day home run, tied with Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra for second-most Opening Day home runs in franchise history behind Babe Ruth (five)...was the first of back-to-back homers with Curtis Granderson, becoming the first pair of Yankees to hit back-to-back home runs on Opening Day since Dave Winfield and Steve Kemp on 4/5/83 at Seattle (credit: Elias).
- Hit his 345th career double in the seventh inning of 4/13 home opening win vs. Los Angeles-AL, surpassing Mickey Mantle (344) for sole possession of seventh place in franchise history...is a .444 (16-for-36) hitter in 11 career home openers with 8R, 6 doubles, 4HR, 7RBI and 9BB.
- Recorded his 1,500th career hit in 4/17 win vs. Texas...became the 19th overall Yankee and fourth Yankee whose primary position was catcher to reach the plateau (also Yogi Berra , Bill Dickey and Thurman Munson).
- Left 4/28 win at Baltimore in the bottom of the second inning after being hit by a pitch by Baltimore starter Jeremy Guthrie in the top of the inning...suffered a right knee contusion and missed 4/29 game with the injury...missed four games with a strained right calf from 5/4-8.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/20 (retroactive to 5/17) with a hairline fracture of the bottom of his right foot...was reinstated from the D.L. on 6/2 (missed 15 team games).
- Hit grand slams in consecutive games on 6/12 and 6/13 vs. Houston, becoming the first Yankee to hit a grand slam in back-to-back games since Bill Dickey on 8/3 (G2) and 8/4/37...according to Elias, the only other Yankee to accomplish the feat was Babe Ruth in 1927 and 1929...prior to his grand slam on 6/12, had hit 102HR since his last slam on 7/26/04 at Toronto (off Sean Douglass)...his grand slam on 6/13 was the 251st HR of his career, surpassing Graig Nettles for sole possession of seventh place on the Yankees' all-time list.
- Drove in at least one run in a career-high eight straight games (10RBI total) from 7/11-24...was the longest such streak by a Yankee since Jason Giambi drove in a run in eight straight from 8/27-9/3/08 and tied for the second-longest streak in the Majors in 2010, trailing only Florida's Jorge Cantu (10 straight from 4/5-15).
- In 7/20 loss vs. Los Angeles-AL, caught Bobby Abreu stealing 2B in the fifth and the seventh innings, the first time he caught the same runner stealing twice in the same game since 7/29/04 vs. Baltimore (Jerry Hairston, Jr.).
- Collected his 1,000th career RBI with his run-scoring double in the first inning of 7/23 win vs. Kansas City, going 2-for-3 with 1R, 1 double, 2RBI and 1BB...became the 12th overall

Yankee and 11th player in Major League history whose primary position was catcher to reach the plateau.

- Collected his 10th career triple in the first inning of 8/31 win vs. Oakland...became the oldest Yankee to triple since Chili Davis on 9/1/99 at age 39.
- Was ejected on 9/1 vs. Oakland by HP Umpire Dana DeMuth for arguing balls and strikes...was his sixth career ejection, first since 9/15/09 vs. Toronto.
- Suffered a mild concussion after being hit with foul tip while catching on 9/7 vs. Baltimore and did not start the Yankees' first two games at Texas on 9/10 and 9/11.
- Hit game-winning, pinch-hit HR in the 10th inning on 9/14 at Tampa Bay...was his fifth career pinch-hit home run...had been hitless in his previous 10AB as a pinch-hitter in 2010.
- Played in all nine postseason games, making eight starts at C...hit .267 (8-for-30) with 3R, 2 doubles and 3RBI...Yankees were 3-0 when he scored a run.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on 11/10/10 to correct a small meniscus tear in his left knee...the procedure was performed by Dr. Lee Kaplan in Miami.

DID YOU KNOW??? JORGE POSADA has caught at least one game for 16 straight years. The last man to accomplish that with the same team was Johnny Bench with the Reds from 1967-83 (17 consecutive seasons). Credit: Elias Sports Bureau.

- Hit .285 (109-for-383) with 55R, 25 doubles, 22HR and 81RBI in 111 games (88 starts at C and nine at DH) with the Yankees...batted .290 (36-for-124, 5HR) vs. left-handed pitchers and .282 (73-for-259, 17HR) vs. righties.
- Played in 100 games at catcher in a season in which he turned 38 years old, the most games ever for a Yankees catcher in a season at that age and the most by any catcher since Benito Santiago in 2003 w/ San Francisco...among all-time Major League catchers, only Carlton Fisk (130G, 37HR and 107RBI in 1985 with Chicago-AL) reached Posada's totals in games, home runs and RBI in a season in which they entered at 37 years of age or older.
- Among Major League catchers, ranked fourth in HR, fifth in RBI and tied for seventh in doubles...ranked seventh in the Majors with a 4.73AB/RBI ratio (383AB, 81RBI)...had the most RBI for any player with fewer than 400 at-bats.
- Made his 10th straight Opening Day start at catcher (2000-09)...hit solo-HR and was 1-for-3 with 1BB in 4/6 Opening Day loss at Baltimore, his third career Opening Day homer.
- Hit the first HR in Yankee Stadium history in the fifth inning in the Yankees' 4/16 home opening loss vs. Cleveland.
- Hit go-ahead, two-run, pinch-hit HR in the seventh and was 1-for-2 in 4/19 win vs. Cleveland...was his third career pinch-hit home run and first since 8/29/04 at Toronto...the home run was reviewed via replay, becoming the first HR to go under umpire review in Yankee Stadium.
- Caught all 14 innings in 4/22 win vs. Oakland...marked the seventh time in his career he caught at least 14.0 innings and the first since catching 17.0 innings on 6/1/03 at Detroit.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 5/5-29 with a Grade 2 right hamstring strain (missed 22 team games).
- Hit solo-HR and game-winning "walk-off" single in the 12th inning on 7/4 vs. Toronto, going 2-for-6...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 12th-inning RBI single—in his 1,533rd Major League game—was his first career "walk-off" RBI in extra innings...the last player whose first extra-inning "walk-off" RBI came as far into his career as Posada's was Tony Fernandez, who accomplished the feat in his 2,123rd game in 2001 w/ Toronto.
- Was suspended for three games by MLB for his actions during eighth-inning altercation in 9/15 loss vs. Toronto...served his suspension from 9/16-19.
- Was selected by Joe Girardi to "manage" the Yankees' final regular season game, guiding the team to a 10-2 win on 10/4 at Tampa Bay.
- Appeared in all 15 Yankees postseason games (10 starts), batting .260 (13-for-50) with 5R, 2 doubles, 2HR and 8RBI...reached base in 14 of the contests...hit go-ahead solo home run in the seventh inning in Game 3 clincher of ALDS at Minnesota.

- Hit .268 (45-for-168) with 13 doubles, 3HR and 22RBI in 51 games with the Yankees before being placed on the disabled list from 7/21 through the conclusion of the season with a right shoulder strain...made 28 starts at C, 15 at DH, three at 1B...marked his most starts at 1B since 2000 (8GS).
- Was placed on the 15-day D.L. on 7/21 (retroactive to 7/20)...underwent season-ending arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder on 7/30 at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York...the procedure was performed by Dr. David Altcheck (missed 63 team games).
- Was his second stint on the D.L. in 2008...was also on the 15-day D.L. from 4/28-6/3 with a right shoulder strain that was later diagnosed as right rotator cuff tendinitis (missed 32 team games)...had never spent time on the disabled list prior to the 2008 season...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, at the time of his injury, Posada was one of six current players with at least 10 years of service that had never been placed on the disabled list along with Brad Ausmus, Johnny Damon, Andruw Jones, Derek Lowe and Livan Hernandez...prior to 4/28/08, the Yankees' last game without Posada on the active roster had been 9/1/96 at California (Jim Leyritz started at C).

- Had started at least 120 games behind the plate in each of his previous eight seasons (2000-07), a streak equaled only by Jason Kendall...caught three of 37 potential base stealers (8.1%).
- Made his ninth straight Opening Day start at catcher (2000-2008) in 4/1 win vs. Toronto...was 0-for-2 with 1BB in 4/1 Opening Day win vs. Toronto, allowing three stolen bases...missed the next two games from 4/2-3 with a strained right shoulder.
- Established a career high with three doubles and tied a career best with four hits in 4/23 win at Chicago-AL, going 4-for-5 with 2RBI...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first Yankees catcher to collect three doubles in a game since Buddy Rosar on 4/20/41.
- Made first appearance on the D.L. on 4/28...was returned from rehab and reinstated from the disabled list on 6/4...started at C and was 1-for-3 with 1BB in 6/5 win vs. Toronto in his first game back...hit safely in eight of his first 11 games following his return from D.L.

- Hit a career-high .338 (171-for-506) while establishing career highs in hits, doubles (42) and slugging percentage (.543)...also hit 20HR and drove in 90 runs in 144 games with the Yankees (125 starts at C, five at DH and one at 1B).
- Ranked fourth in the American League in average, becoming the first Yankees catcher to finish a season in the top 10 in the league in batting average since Thurman Munson finished 10th in 1978 with a .297 average...also became the only player in Major League history to bat at least .330 with 40 doubles, 20HR and 90RBI in a year in which he caught in at least half of his games played (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...led the AL with a .344 road average, ranked third with a .426 overall on-base percentage, eighth with a .543 slugging percentage and tied for eighth in doubles.
- Won his fifth career Silver Slugger Award and was named the starting catcher on both the Baseball America and the Sporting News Major League All-Star teams.
- His .338 batting average was 61 points higher than in 2006 (.277), the largest increase for any Major Leaguer who qualified for the batting title in 2006 and 2007...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, from 1939-2008, the only other Yankee to improve his batting average by 60 or more points from one season to the next was Bobby Murcer who hit .331 in 1971 after posting a .251 average in 1970 (an 80 point increase)...from 1940-2007, only four players appearing primarily at catcher recorded a higher single-season batting average: St. Louis' Joe Torre (.363 in 1971), the Dodgers' Mike Piazza (.362 in 1997 and .346 in 1995) and Minnesota's Joe Mauer (.347 in 2006).
- His average never went below .311 (on 4/29) and he never went more than three games without hitting safely...his longest hitless streak of the season was 11AB.
- His 42 doubles established a franchise record for a catcher, surpassing his own record of 40 set in 2002...joined Ivan Rodriguez (47 in 1996 and 40 in 1998) as the only two catchers in Major League history to have two seasons of 40 or more doubles (credit: Elias)...became only the 17th player in Major League history to collect at least 300 career doubles while appearing in at least 1,000 games at catcher.
- Was selected to the 2007 American League All-Star team, his fifth career All-Star selection and first since 2003...went 1-for-3 with 1 double in 7/10 AL win, pinch-hitting for Josh Beckett in the fifth inning and remaining in game at C.
- Combined with Alex Rodriguez for a .325 batting average, 74HR and 246RBI...according to Elias, no Yankees teammates had combined for numbers that high in each of those categories since 1937, when Joe DiMaggio and Lou Gehrig had a .349BA, 83HR and 326RBI between them.
- Hit solo-HR—his second career Opening Day HR and the 199th of his career—and was 2-for-4 with 2R in 4/2 win vs. Tampa Bay...hit his 200th career home run in 4/17 win vs. Cleveland.
- Compiled a career-high 15-game hitting streak from 5/3-20, batting .448 (26-for-58) with 13R, 7 doubles, 3HR and 8RBI...was the longest hitting streak for a Yankees catcher since Bob Geren hit safely in 15 straight games in 1989.
- Hit solo home runs from each side of the plate and tied career highs with 4H and 4R in 9/4 win vs. Seattle, going 4-for-4 with 1BB...was the second time in 2007 (also 8/1 vs. Chicago-AL) and the eighth time in his career he hit homers from both sides of the plate in the same game, tying Bernie Williams for the second most in team history and marking the most single-game switch-hit HR by a catcher all-time.
- Recorded his 300th career double and was 2-for-3 with a solo-HR, 3R and 2BB in 9/11 win at Toronto...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became only the 17th player to reach the 300-double plateau while appearing in at least 1,000 games at catcher.
- Went a career-high 37 plate appearances without a strikeout from 8/31-9/12 (previous high was 33PA in 1997).

- Hit a team-best .395 in September (30-for-76), fifth-highest in the AL for the month...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two players had a higher September average than Posada in a year in which they caught at least 130 games: the Dodgers' Mike Piazza in 1997 (.406) and Pittsburgh's Jason Kendall in 2004 (.400)...named honorary Yankees Manager for the regular season finale on 10/1 at Baltimore.
- Batted .133 (2-for-15) in four Division Series games vs. Cleveland.

- Batted .277 (129-for-465) with 23HR and 93RBI in 143 games (121 starts at C, two at DH)...was the sixth time in a seven-year span (2000-06) he hit at least 20HR and drove in at least 80 runs...ranked 10th in the American League with 1RBI every 5.0AB.
- In 4/3 win at Oakland, made his seventh straight Opening Day start at catcher (2000-06)...hit two-run "walk-off" home run and was 2-for-3 with 2R, 2RBI, 1BB and 2SF in 5/16 win vs. Texas...was his second career "walk-off" HR (also on 5/5/00 vs. Baltimore).
- Missed two games (5/20-21) with tightness in his upper back...suffered tear in his hamstring tendon behind his left knee on 5/23 at Boston and missed four games (5/24-28)...hit two-run HR and was 1-for-3 with 1BB in 6/11 loss vs. Oakland, hitting his first home run of the season as a right-handed batter and first since 9/22/05 vs. Baltimore (a span of 58AB)...was scratched from lineup on 7/19 vs. Seattle with a bruised right index finger...threw out three runners on 8/8 at Chicago for the second time in his career (also 8/6/02 vs. Kansas City).
- Snapped career-high 0-for-25 stretch with a second-inning single in 8/14 win vs. the Angels...hit two three-run HRs in back-to-back at-bats in the sixth and eighth innings and was 2-for-3 with 3R and a season-high 6RBI and 1BB in 9/6 win at Kansas City...was his second multi-home-run game of the season (also 4/9 at Los Angeles-AL) and the 13th of his career (all 2HR games).
- Hit .500 (7-for-14) with 1HR and 2RBI in four Division Series games vs. Detroit.

- Hit .262 (124-for-474) with 19HR and 71RBI in 142 games (122 starts at C, three starts at DH)...threw out 39-of-129 potential base stealers (30.2%)...homered from both sides of the plate in 5/24 win vs. Detroit, hitting solo-HR in the fourth and three-run HR in the fifth.
- Did not strike out in 32 straight plate appearances before fanning in third inning of 6/3 loss at Minnesota...recorded his 1,000th career hit with a seventh-inning double in 8/20 win at Chicago-AL, going 1-for-2 with 2R and 2BB...did not play in 9/10 loss vs. Boston (jammed right shoulder)...hit solo-HR and three-run HR in 9/22 win vs. Baltimore...was his second multi-HR game of the season (also 5/24 vs. Detroit) and the 11th of his career.
- Hit .231 (3-for-13) with 1HR, 2RBI and 6BB in five games vs. the Angels in the Division Series...had his streak of 68 consecutive postseason starts snapped in Game 3 of the ALDS (had started each of the Yankees' postseason games since Game 4 of the 1999 World Series).

- Batted .272 (122-for-449) with 21HR and 81RBI in 137 games (126 starts at C)...led the American League in games caught for the second time in his career, becoming the first Yankee to lead the league in games caught more than once since Thurman Munson in 1970, 1972 and 1973...was tied for third in the AL with 88BB and ranked fourth with a .400 on-base percentage.

- Homered from both sides of the plate (three-run homers in the fifth and seventh innings) and was 2-for-5 with 6RBI in 3/31 win vs. Tampa Bay at Tokyo Dome...accomplished the feat for the fifth time in his career, tying Roy White for third place on the club's all-time list.
- Missed four games after suffering a broken nose in 5/12 game vs. Anaheim (was hit in the nose by a ball thrown by Angels shortstop Alfredo Amezaga in a double-play attempt in bottom of the second inning)...was taken to Columbia Presbyterian Hospital where he was seen by ear, nose and throat specialist, Dr. Hector Rodriguez and surgery was performed to set the fracture.
- Drew at least one walk in a career-high 13 straight games from 5/9-29...hit solo-HR and was 2-for-2 with 2RBI in 7/11 win vs. Tampa Bay before being removed in the third with a sprained right ankle (precautionary X-rays were negative)...hit first-inning grand slam in 7/26 win at Toronto, the seventh of his career to tie Charlie Keller for ninth place on the club's all-time list...missed three games from 8/6-8 with a bruised right thumb...missed two games on 8/14-15, suffering from a low-grade viral infection.
- Hit pinch-hit solo-HR off Jason Frasor in the ninth inning of 8/29 loss at Toronto...was his second career pinch-hit HR (also on 6/16/01 vs. Baltimore off Mike Trombley).
- Hit .244 (11-for-45) with 2RBI in 11 postseason games...caught every inning of the postseason for the Yankees.

2003

- Ranked third in American League Most Valuable Player voting behind Texas' Alex Rodriguez and Toronto's Carlos Delgado...batted .281 (135-for-481) and established career highs with 30HR and 101RBI in 142 games (131 starts at C, two at DH)...his 30HR tied the Yankees' single-season record for home runs by a catcher (Yogi Berra hit 30 in 1952 and 1956).
- Earned his fourth consecutive Silver Slugger Award...ranked fifth in the American League with a .405 on-base percentage and sixth with 93 walks.
- Was elected to start the 2003 All-Star Game at catcher for second straight season, his fourth consecutive All-Star selection (was 0-for-2 at U.S. Cellular Field)...made fourth straight Opening Day start at catcher on 3/31 at Toronto...hit two-run HR in 4/1 win at Toronto, snapping the longest HR drought of his career (140AB/37G since previous HR on 8/17/02)...with seven home runs in April, tied his highest HR total for any single month (also hit 7HR in April 2000 and May 2002)...was ejected in the eighth inning of 5/24 loss vs. Toronto by 2B umpire Fieldin Culbreth for arguing interference call.
- Tied his career high with four walks in 7/9 win at Cleveland, going 0-for-2 with 1R (also 4BB on 5/30/00 vs. Oakland)...missed two games (8/8-9) vs. Seattle with a stiff neck...tied his career high with four hits (ninth time) in 8/12 win at Kansas City, going 4-for-5 with 2R, 1 double and 2RBI...hit two home runs and was 2-for-5 with 2R and 3RBI in 8/30 win at Boston, snapping an 0-for-17 stretch...was the eighth multi-home-run game of his career and first since 6/28/02 vs. New York-NL.
- Hit grand slam and was 3-for-4 with 2R, a career-high 7RBI and 1BB in 9/10 win vs. Detroit...the 7RBI were the most by a Yankee since Bernie Williams also collected 7RBI on 6/17/00 vs. Chicago-AL...was his sixth career slam.
- Batted .222 (14-for-63) with 1HR and 7RBI in 17 postseason games.

- Batted .268 (137-for-511) with 40 doubles, 20HR and 99RBI in 143 games (131 starts at C, five at DH and one at 1B)...the 40 doubles were the most by a catcher since Texas' Ivan Rodriguez had 45 in 1996...his 99RBI were the most by any catcher in the Majors in 2002 and his 266RBI from 2000-02 trailed only Mike Piazza (279) for most RBI by a catcher over that span.
- Earned his third Silver Slugger Award...was elected to his third career All-Star Game on 7/9 at Miller Park in Milwaukee...started at catcher and was 0-for-3...made third straight Opening Day start (and appearance) at catcher on 4/1 at Baltimore...tied a career high with 4R and was 3-for-6 with 1 double and 1RBI in 6/19 win at Colorado.
- Homered from both sides of the plate for fourth time in his career in 6/28 win vs. New York-NL...hit three-run homer from the left side in the third and hit two-run shot in the fifth from the right side...hit grand slam and was 1-for-3 with 1BB in 7/2 win vs. Cleveland...was his first grand slam of the season and fourth of his career...hit two-run HR, the 100th HR of his career, and was 1-for-3 with 1BB in 7/5 win vs. Toronto...hit second grand slam of the season—and fifth of his career—and was 3-for-5 with 2R, 1 double and 6RBI in 7/13 win at Cleveland.
- Missed 7/15 game at Toronto to be with wife, Laura, for birth of their second child, Paulina, born that morning in New York...was 1-for-2 in 7/23 loss at Cleveland before being removed from game in fifth with laceration of the left ear (missed 7/24 game at Cleveland)...did not homer in the season's last 40 regular season games (134AB) after 8/17 at Seattle.

- Batted .277 with 22HR and 95RBI in 138 games (126 starts at C, six at DH, one at 1B)...hit a three-run HR—his first on Opening Day—and was 3-for-4 with 1R, 1 double and 4RBI in 4/2 win vs. Kansas City...was his second straight Opening Day start for the Yankees at catcher...hit first career grand slam in 4/8 win vs. Toronto.

- Homered in career-high three straight games from 4/7-9...did not appear at catcher for seven games (6/4-10) because of a sprained ligament in his left thumb (3-DH; 3-DNP; 1-PH).
- Pinch-hit for Todd Greene in the eighth and hit game-winning grand slam in 6/6 win vs. Baltimore...was his second career grand slam and second of the season (also 4/8 vs. Toronto)...was his first career pinch-hit home run and the first by a Yankee in 2001...was the 21st pinch-hit grand-slam in Yankees history and first since Glenallen Hill on 7/28/00 at Minnesota.
- Was selected to his second All-Star Game, going 1-for-1 in the American League's 4-1 win on 7/10 in Seattle...missed three straight games (7/31-8/2) with a stomach illness...was ejected from 9/3 win by HP Umpire Andy Fletcher in the ninth after being called out on strikes for second time...appealed six-game suspension by MLB and had sentence reduced by one game (served five-game suspension from 9/26-10/1)...hit third grand slam of the season (and career) and tied a season high with 5RBI in 9/18 win at Chicago.
- Struck out in 12 straight games from 8/30-9/19, the longest such streak by a Yankee since Jim Leyritz also fanned in 12 straight games in 1995.
- Batted .273 (15-for-55) with 2HR and 3RBI in 17 postseason games...in Game 3 of the ALDS on 10/13 at Oakland, became only the 10th player in postseason history—and second Yankee—to hit a home run in a 1-0 game (also Tommy Henrich in Game 1 of the 1949 World Series vs. Brooklyn at Yankee Stadium).

- Batted .287 with 28HR and 86RBI in 151 games (136 starts at C, eight at 1B and three at DH)...drew 107BB, including 95 while appearing in games at catcher, breaking the club record for most walks in a single season by a catcher (Wally Schang, 1921 and Bill Dickey, 1939 each drew 77BB at catcher).
- With 26HR as a catcher, fell four shy of tying Yogi Berra for the most home runs in a single season by a Yankees catcher (Berra hit 30 home runs in 1952 and '56)...threw out 34-of-104 potential base stealers (32.7%)...was selected to his first All-Star Game by Manager Joe Torre and went 0-for-2...in 13 games batting from the second spot in the order, hit .364 (20-for-55) with 12R, 3HR and 10RBI.
- Homered from both sides of the plate for the third time in his career on 4/23 at Toronto, going 3-for-5 with 2R and 3RBI...along with OF Bernie Williams, became the first pair of players in Major League history to hit switch-hit home runs in the same game.
- Hit three-run "walk-off" home run in the ninth and was 4-for-5 with 4RBI in 5/5 win vs. Baltimore...set a career high with 4BB on 5/30 vs. Oakland.
- Established a career high with 4R, in 6/19 win at Boston...was ejected on 7/1 at Tampa Bay for fighting and served a one-game suspension on 7/17 vs. Philadelphia...batted second for the first time in his career on 8/4 vs. Seattle and tied a career high with 4H (sixth time), going 4-for-5 with 2R, 2 doubles and 4RBI.

STATUS

- Signed as a non-drafted free agent on February 17, 1990…signed a two-year contract on December 14, 2010 that extends through the 2012 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Owns 559 career saves, the most in AL history and second-most all time behind Trevor Hoffman (601)…has an 89.3% career conversion rate in 626 save opportunities.
- Has a career ERA of 2.23, the second-lowest all time among pitchers with at least 1,000.0IP behind only Eddie Cicotte (2.20) since earned runs became an official statistic in the National League (in 1912) and American League (in 1913) - credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Has recorded at least one save in 15 consecutive seasons (since 1996)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is tied with Tom Burgmeier for the longest streak in AL history and sixth-longest all time.
- Has recorded at least 25 saves in 14 consecutive seasons (since 1997), marking the longest such streak since saves became an official statistic in 1969…has reached the 30-save plateau 13 times in his career, one shy of Trevor Hoffman's record (14)…his eight straight seasons of at least 30 saves (since 2003) matches Hoffman (1995-2002) for the longest streak all time…has saved at least 35 games in a season 10 times in his career, ranking second all time to Hoffman's 12…has reached the 40-save mark seven times in his career, second-most all time behind Hoffman (nine).
- Over the last 10 years (2001-10) leads the Majors with 394 saves and 646 appearances.
- Has made 60 appearances 13 times in his career, tied with Mike Stanton for the most all time…has made at least 60 outings with a sub-2.00 ERA in seven of his last eight seasons, including each of his last three seasons (2008-10), becoming the only pitcher in Baseball history to record three such consecutive seasons after the age of 35.
- His 978 career appearances ranks 17th on Baseball's all-time list, most among active players.
- Has the most saves in Yankees franchise history…his 978 appearances are the most in club history (456 more than second-place Dave Righetti's 522)…ranks ninth in club history with 1,051K…owns eight of the 10 highest single-season save totals in franchise history (1. 53 in 2004; 2. 50 in 2001; 4. 45 in 1999; 5. 44 in 2009; T6. 43 in 1997 and 2005; 9. 40 in 2003; 10. 39 in 2008)…Dave Righetti's 46 saves in 1986 ranks third and John Wetteland's 43 saves in 1996 is tied for sixth.
- Owns 115 career saves when recording more than three outs and 11 saves when tossing at least 2.0 innings.
- Converted 51 straight saves at home from 8/18/07-4/30/10, tied with Eric Gagne (51 straight from 8/28/02-7/1/04) for the longest such streak all time (credit: Elias).
- Is the all-time leader in Interleague saves with 63…since blowing a save on 7/14/01 at Florida, has converted 38 of his last 39 save chances in Interleague play, including each of his last 19 since 6/20/06 (credit: Elias).

- Was 3-3 with 33 saves (in 38 chances) and a 1.80 ERA in 61 relief appearances with the Yankees...opponents batted .183 (39-for-213, 2HR); LH .214 (22-for-103, 2HR), RH .155 (17-for-110, 0HR)...retired 49-of-61 first batters faced (80.3%)...prevented 13-of-16 inherited runners from scoring (81.3%)...appeared in consecutive games 15 times and three straight games once...his five blown saves were his most since 2003 (six).
- Just five of his 61 relief outings—and one of his 33 saves—were more than 1.0IP...51 of his 61 outings were scoreless.
- Named to his 11th All-Star Game in 2010, tying Derek Jeter and Bill Dickey for the fifth-most selections in franchise history...did not attend the game to rest a sore right knee and left side...named to Sporting News' 2010 Top 50 Baseball Players list (No. 11).
- Made his 15th career Opening Day roster in 2010, most among all current Yankees.
- Did not allow a run in his first 11.0IP of the season...according to Elias, matched his second-longest scoreless streak to begin a season (also 11.0IP in 1998 and 16.0 in 2008).
- With his save on 4/6 at Boston, became the second pitcher in franchise history to record a save after turning 40 (40 years, 129 days), joining Jim Kaat, who earned two saves as a 40-year-old in 1979 (40 years, 312 days when he notched the second such save)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Went 11 days between appearances from 4/30-5/11...was the second-longest gap between appearances in his 15 seasons as a reliever (not including D.L. stints)...went 21 days between outings from 8/31-9/22/06.
- In 5/16 loss vs. Minnesota, registered first blown save since 9/18/09 at Seattle after entering the game with the bases loaded and two outs in the eighth inning...walked in a run and allowed a grand slam to his next batter (Kubel) before recording his first and only out...was his fourth career grand slam surrendered and third as a reliever (first since Bill Selby "walk-off" GS on 7/14/02 at Cleveland)...was the fourth bases-loaded walk issued in his career and first since 5/6/05 vs. Oakland (Keith Ginter).
- Recorded two saves in the same day for the sixth time in his career on 5/26 at Minnesota (also 5/3/07 at Texas; 9/16/97 vs. Boston, 7/8/00 in a split-stadium DH vs. the Mets; 9/13/03 vs. Tampa Bay and 9/29/04 vs. Minnesota)...the first of the two saves came in the completion of 5/25 win at Minnesota and was credited to that day.
- Did not allow a run over a 16-appearance stretch from 5/25-7/2, holding opponents to just 5H and 3BB (1IBB) in 18.0IP while converting each of his 10 save opportunities (1HP, 20K)...allowed just 1ER over a 27-appearance stretch (27.2IP) from 5/25-8/8.

- Was voted as the winner of June's "Clutch Performer of the Month Award Presented by Pepsi"...went 2-0 in 11 games, converting each of his seven save chances without allowing a run in 13.0IP (4H, 2BB, 16K).
- Held opponents hitless in 25 straight AB between a Luke Scott single on 6/1 at Baltimore and Stephen Drew's single on 6/23 at Arizona...also held right-handed batters hitless in 21 consecutive AB prior to Justin Upton's double on 6/23 at Arizona (streak started after Jason Bay double on 5/21 at New York-NL).
- Tossed 2.0 scoreless innings to earn his first win on 6/23 at Arizona...pitched out of a bases-loaded, no out situation in the bottom of the 10th...also had his third career at-bat (and fourth plate appearance) in the game, grounding out to first in the 10th inning.

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Rivera's 12.83-to-1 strikeouts-to-walk ratio (77K, 6BB) was the third highest in modern Major League history (min. 50.0IP), behind Dennis Eckersley's 1989 (18.33-to-1) and 1990 (18.25-for-1) campaigns.
- Converted his first 28 save opportunities to start the season, marking a career best (converted first 12 chances in 2004)...was not charged with a run in any of his first 22 save opportunities, becoming the first pitcher since 1975 (when the current save rules came into effect) to accomplish the feat (credit: Elias).

- Was selected to his ninth All-Star Game...tossed 1.2 scoreless innings in the 15.0-inning AL victory on 7/15 at the original Yankee Stadium, entering with one out and one on in the ninth...donated his jersey as well as dirt from the mound to the Baseball Hall of Fame.
- Recorded his second career Opening Day save—the most in franchise history—tossing a perfect ninth inning (1.0IP, 1K) in 4/1 win vs. Toronto...made his 13th career Opening Day roster...did not allow a run or walk in his first 14 appearances (4/1-5/10), recording 10 saves and striking out 12 batters in 15.0IP (6H)...was the longest scoreless streak to begin a season in his career...named the April winner of the "DHL Presents the Major League Baseball Delivery Man of the Month" Award.
- On 5/13 at Tampa Bay, in his 15th appearance of the year, allowed "walk-off" RBI single in the 11th to suffer the loss (1.0IP, 3H, 1ER, 1K)...was his first run allowed of the season, marking the latest into a season he had gone without allowing a run...previous best was in 1998 when he first allowed a run in his 11th appearance on 5/14/98 vs. Texas.
- Was named AL "Player of the Week" for the period ending 6/1, earning his first career weekly award...in 6/7 win vs. Kansas City, recorded his second win of the season despite allowing a home run to David DeJesus, his first batter faced, on his first pitch (1.0IP, 1H, 1ER, 1K, 1HR)...was his first HR allowed since 8/15/07 vs. Baltimore (Aubrey Huff) and marked the first time he had allowed a HR on his first pitch after entering a game since 8/23/97 at Seattle to Roberto Kelly (credit: Elias).
- Allowed his first run of the season in a save opportunity in 7/5 win vs. Boston...allowed 1ER and loaded the bases with no outs (2HP) before retiring the final three batters of the game to earn his 23rd save...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time Rivera escaped a bases-full-none-out jam with the tying run on third in the game's final inning.
- In 7/29 loss vs. Baltimore, pitched the ninth to surpass the 1000.0IP plateau...on 8/1 at Los Angeles-AL, allowed one-out ninth-inning "walk-off" RBI-single to Chone Figgins on his first and only pitch of the game as the Angels won 1-0...was the second time he threw just one pitch (also 8/7/05 at Toronto – earned the save).
- In 8/12 win at Minnesota, allowed game-tying three-run HR to Delmon Young in the eighth for his first and only blown save of the season (1.2IP, 2H, 1ER)...in 8/15 loss vs. Kansas City, allowed the go-ahead run to score on a wild pitch...was just the second time in his career he allowed a run on a wild pitch (also 6/24/00 at Chicago-AL) and his first time allowing the go-ahead run on a WP (credit: Elias).
- Saved all three games of the Yankees' series at Baltimore from 8/22-24, marking the sixth time in his career he has saved all of the games in a series of three or more games (previous 6/1-3/04 vs. Baltimore)...was also the 19th time in his career he recorded a save on three or more consecutive days...the only other Yankees pitchers to earn a save in each game of a series (of at least three games) are Dave Righetti (1986), Steve Howe (1994) and John Wetteland (twice in 1996).
- Recorded his 479th career save in 9/15 win vs. Chicago-AL, surpassing Lee Smith (478) for sole possession of second place on Baseball's all-time saves list.
- Threw 1.0 scoreless inning in the final game at Yankee Stadium on 9/21 vs. Baltimore, inducing a Brian Roberts groundout to 1B Cody Ransom with the game's final pitch to secure the Yankees victory.
- Returned to New York during the season's final road trip to undergo an MRI on his shoulder that revealed calcification in the AC joint in his right shoulder.
- Collected his 39th and final save of the season in 9/28 Game 1 win at Boston...tossed 1.1 scoreless innings to save Mike Mussina's 20th win of the season...was the second time he recorded a save in a pitcher's 20th win (also Roger Clemens in 2001).
- Underwent surgery on the AC Joint in his right shoulder on 10/7...procedure was done by Dr. David Altchek at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York.

- Was selected to the 2005 American League All-Star team, his seventh career All-Star selection...retired the final batter of the All-Star Game at Detroit to record his second career All-Star save.
- Blew his first two save chances of the season on consecutive days, 4/5 and 4/6 vs. Boston, the first time he blew consecutive save opportunities in the regular season since 7/24/04 at Boston and 7/26/04 at Toronto (he had never blown saves on consecutive days)...following the back-to-back setbacks, converted 31 straight save opportunities from 4/9-8/11, the longest such streak of his career, allowing only 1ER in 31.2IP (0.28 ERA) while limiting batters to a .140 batting average (15-for-107, 3BB, 33K)...allowed only 4ER in his 46 overall appearances during that same span (51.2IP, 0.70ERA).
- Did not allow a run in 22 appearances from 5/9-7/4 (23.0IP, 8H, 5BB, 23K)...the longest single-season scoreless innings streak by a Yankees pitcher since Mike Mussina threw 23.0 straight scoreless innings in 2001...was the longest such streak by any Yankees reliever since 1999, when Rivera finished the regular season with 30.2 shutout innings, the longest streak of his career.
- On 8/16 at Tampa Bay, allowed game-tying ninth-inning home run (Eduardo Perez) to record fourth blown save of the season and second in span of three opportunities...prior to blowing the save, had recorded 33 consecutive saves vs. the Devil Rays, the most saves—without a blown save—by a pitcher against one particular opponent in AL history.
- Recorded saves in each of his two appearances versus the Angels in the Division Series (3.0IP, 1H, 1ER, 1BB, 1K)...recorded the 15th Division Series save of his career in Game 4 vs. the Angels, tossing 2.0 perfect innings for his first two-inning postseason save since Game 5 of the 2003 ALCS at Boston...it also was his Major League-leading 34th career postseason save (in 39 opportunities).

- Was 4-2 with a 1.94 ERA and a single-season franchise-record 53 saves in career-high 74 relief appearances...led the Major Leagues in saves and was tied for fourth in the American League in appearances...his 53 saves tied Randy Myers (Chicago Cubs, 1993) and Trevor Hoffman (San Diego Padres, 1998) for fourth place on Baseball's single-season all-time list...joined Eric Gagne as the only relievers in Major League history to record two 50-save seasons...earned his third "Rolaids Relief Man of the Year" Award...converted 53-of-57 save opportunities (93.0%)...saved two consecutive games seven times...saved three consecutive games four times, and saved four straight games once...made appearances in consecutive games 13 times, three straight games seven times, and four straight games once...retired 53-of-74 first batters faced (71.6%)...prevented 11-of-17 inherited runners from scoring (64.7%)...opponents batted .225 (65-for-289, 3HR); LH .234 (36-for-154, 2HR), RH .215 (29-for-135, 1HR)...was selected to the 2004 American League All-Star team, his sixth career All-Star selection...pitched a perfect ninth inning in the American League's 9-4 win on 7/13.
- In 5/11 win vs. Anaheim, allowed 2ER in 1.0IP to suffer his first blown save of the season, snapping a stretch of 28 consecutive save conversions...in 5/19 win at Anaheim, tossed perfect ninth to record league-leading 15th save in the Yankees' 39th game of the season...became the first Yankees reliever to reach 15 saves in fewer than 50 games into any season...became the 17th pitcher in Major League history—and first Yankee—to reach the 300-save plateau in 5/28 win at Tampa Bay...became the fifth-youngest pitcher to reach 300 saves—at 34 years, 181 days—behind Robb Nen (32 years, 251 days), Lee Smith (33/264), John Wetteland (33/265) and Trevor Hoffman (33/306)...with 11 saves in June, tied his career high for any calendar month.
- In 7/8 win vs. Tampa Bay, pitched a perfect 1.2 innings (1K) to earn his 30th save...tied the then-American League record for fewest team games in a season to reach the 30-save plateau, joining Bobby Thigpen of the Chicago White Sox (1990) and Boston's Lee Smith (1993), who also reached 30 saves in their team's 83rd game...record later surpassed by the Angels' Francisco Rodriguez in 2008 (76 games)...established an AL record with 32 saves before the All-Star break (two shy of the mark of 34 set by Atlanta's John Smoltz in 2003)...surrendered "walk-off," two-run home run to Bill Mueller in the bottom of the ninth in 7/24 loss at Boston.
- Recorded save No. 40 in 8/14 win at Seattle (Game 116), becoming the quickest to the 40-save plateau and breaking Bobby Thigpen's record of 118 games set with the Chicago White Sox in 1990...record later broken by the Angels' Francisco Rodriguez in 2008 (98 games)...earned his 45th save of the season in the Yankees' 18-6 win on 8/28 at Toronto, retiring last four batters of the game (entered the game with a 9-6 lead and two runners on base)...became the first Yankee to earn a save in a game in which the Yankees won by at least 12 runs was Ed Figueroa, who earned a save in a 16-3 Yankees win on 5/14/80 vs. Kansas City.
- Was 1-0 with two saves and a 0.71 ERA in nine postseason appearances...earned his 10th career LCS save in Game 2 vs. Boston...recorded back-to-back blown saves for the first time in his postseason career in Games 4 and 5 of the ALCS at Boston.

- Was 5-2 with a 1.66 ERA and 40 saves in 64 relief appearances with the Yankees...ranked third in the American League with 40 saves despite missing the first 25 games of the season and having only four saves through the Yankees' 59th game...had 36 saves in the final 104 games of the season...converted 40-of-46 save opportunities (87.0%)...saved two consecutive games eight times and three consecutive games twice (6/24-26 and 6/28-30)...retired 44-of-64 first batters faced (68.8%)...prevented 18-of-35 inherited runners from scoring (51.4%)...opponents batted .235 (61-for-260, 3HR); LH .197 (29-for-147, 1HR), RH .281 (32-for-113, 2HR)...made appearances in consecutive games 11 times, three straight games five times and four straight games once.

1. Chipper Jones ..... Atlanta 18 (1993-2010)
2. DEREK JETER ..... YANKEES 16 (1995-2010)
   JORGE POSADA ..... YANKEES 16 (1995-2010)
   MARIANO RIVERA ..... YANKEES 16 (1995-2010)

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Jeter, Posada and Rivera have become the first trio of teammates in MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL history to appear in at least one game together in each of 16 consecutive seasons...the second-longest trios in Yankees franchise history played 13 years together (Bill Dickey, Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing from 1930-42; and Whitey Ford, Elston Howard and Mickey Mantle from 1955-67).

The first game in which Derek Jeter, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera appeared together was September 28, 1996 at Boston's Fenway Park. Posada pinch-hit and struck out, Jeter started and went 0-for-4. LHP Andy Pettitte also appeared in his first career game with the trio that day, starting and going two innings. Ramiro Mendoza went the next four and picked up the win. Rivera pitched one inning and earned the hold and John Wetteland earned his 43rd save. The Yankees won 4-2 and the losing pitcher was Roger Clemens.

- Held opposing left-handed batters hitless in 18 consecutive at-bats from 4/25-6/18.
- Struck out three batters in 0.2IP in 8/6 win vs. Boston, becoming the first Yankee to record at least three strikeouts without completing a full inning of work since Ron Davis on 9/17/80 vs. Toronto (0.2IP, 3K).
- Was shut down for three weeks from 9/6-28 with elbow stiffness...had an MRI on 9/7 and was seen by Dr. James Andrews in Pensacola, Fla., on 9/10.
- Did not allow a run in five appearances during the 2009 playoffs, tossing 5.1 scoreless innings (4H, 3BB, 3K)...earned the win in each of his first two postseason appearances (Game 2 of ALDS vs. Minnesota and Game 2 of ALCS vs. Los Angeles-AL), as the Yankees recorded "walk-off" wins in each contest.
- In eight relief appearances with Scranton/WB, went 0-3 with two saves and a 1.84 ERA (14.2IP, 10H, 7R, 3ER, 6BB, 25K).

- Was 4-0 with a 5.34 ERA in 25 relief appearances over two stints with the Yankees (6/28-8/28; 9/13-28)...opponents batted .257 (29-for-113, 3HR); LH .259 (14-for-54, 0HR), RH .254 (15-for-59, 3HR)...retired 16-of-25 first batters faced (64.0%)...prevented 6-of-14 inherited runners from scoring (42.9%)...pitched in three consecutive games twice (7/13-18 and 8/24-27)...tossed a season-high 2.0 innings on six occasions.
- Was signed to a Major League contract and selected to the Yankees' 25-man roster on 6/28...made his ML debut in 6/29 loss at the Mets, allowing 1ER in 2.0IP (4H, 1K)...struck out his first batter faced (Oliver Perez).
- Held left-handed batters hitless over 16AB from 6/29-7/21 (9G) before Luke Scott's leadoff single in the sixth on 7/28 vs. Baltimore.
- Pitched a scoreless 12th inning and recorded his first Major League victory on 7/19 vs. Oakland (1.0IP, 1H, 1BB, 1K) after Jose Molina was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded, bringing in the game-winning run.
- Recorded his second Major League victory (within a four-game span) on 7/22 vs. Minnesota, stranding two inherited runners and getting the final out in the sixth on one pitch.
- In 7/28 loss vs. Baltimore, allowed a grand slam to Adam Jones and set a career high with 5ER...was his first HR allowed as a professional after 148.1 career IP (minors-136.0IP from 2007-08 and Majors-12.1IP).
- Allowed 16ER over 10 outings (13.1IP) from 7/28-8/27 and was optioned to Scranton/WB on 8/28.
- Was recalled from Scranton/WB on 9/13...did not allow a run over four appearances in his second stint (4.2IP, 2H, 3BB, 7K).
- In 53.2 combined minor league innings with Scranton/WB and Double-A Trenton, went 4-0 with three saves and a 1.67 ERA over 30 relief appearances (28H, 13R, 10ER, 23BB, 77K).

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 599HR were the most for any player prior to turning 35 years old (on 7/27/10)...collected the most hits (2,629) and games played (2,259) for any player prior to turning 35 since Robin Yount (2,733H and 2,436G)...recorded the third-most RBI (1,787) for any player prior to turning 35 behind only Lou Gehrig (1,910) and Jimmie Foxx (1,884)–credit: Elias.
- Has hit 21 career grand slams, tying Manny Ramirez (21) for second place all-time behind Lou Gehrig (23)...is one of three players in Major League history to have three career "walk-off" grand slams, joining Vern Stephens (1946 w/ St. Louis-AL, '49 and '50 with Boston-AL) and the Philadelphia Phillies' Cy Williams (one in 1924 and two in 1926)...owns six career "walk-off" homers as a Yankee, the most since Graig Nettles had six from 1973-81.
- Owns 21 career home runs in the ninth inning or later that have tied the game or given his team the lead...has nine "walk-off" home runs in his career, tied with Vladimir Guerrero for third-most among active players behind Jim Thome (12) and David Ortiz (10).
- Since the start of 2009, has been involved in driving in the game-winning or tying run in seven of the Yankees' 20 "walk-off" innings (two game-ending HRs, two game-tying HRs, two game-winning runs scored and hit the pop-up resulting in a two-run "walk-off" error vs. the Mets).
- Has collected 100RBI in 13 consecutive seasons and 14 times in his career...marks the most 100RBI seasons all time...his current streak of 13 straight seasons with at least 100RBI matches Lou Gehrig (1926-38) and Jimmie Foxx (1929-41) for the longest such stretch all time.
- Is one of six players all time to collect at least 600HR and 2,500H (also Hank Aaron, Barry Bonds, Ken Griffey Jr., Willie Mays and Babe Ruth).
- Is one of three players all time with 400 doubles, 600HR and 300SB, joining Barry Bonds (601/762/514) and Willie Mays (523/660/338).
- Over the last 10 seasons (2001-10), leads the Majors in home runs (424) and RBI (1,236).
- Had his streak of consecutive 100R seasons snapped at 13 in 2009, remaining tied with Hank Aaron (13, 1955-67) and Gehrig (13, 1926-38) as the only players in Baseball history to accomplish the feat...reached the 100RBI and 100R plateaus in 11 consecutive seasons from 1998-2008, trailing only Lou Gehrig for the longest such streak all time (13 straight seasons from 1926-38).
- Has hit 268HR with the Yankees after hitting 189HR with Seattle and 156HR with Texas...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, joins Paul Konerko as the only active players with at least 300HR for teams other than the one for which they made their Major League debut...is the only player in Major League history to hit at least 150HR with three different teams.
- Is one of eight players to hit at least 250 HR for his current team, joining teammate Jorge Posada, Chipper Jones, Albert Pujols, Paul Konerko, Todd Helton, David Ortiz and Ryan Howard—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.

- Was selected to his 13th All-Star team in 2010—the most among active Major League players—by American League All-Star Manager Joe Girardi (did not play).
- Owns a .290 (67-for-231) career postseason batting average with 41R, 16 doubles, 13HR and 38RBI in 63 games...is tied for fourth among active Major Leaguers in postseason home runs, ranks sixth in runs scored, and eighth in RBI and on-base percentage (.396).

- Hit .270 (141-for-522) with 74R, 29 doubles, 30HR and 125RBI in 137 games (122 starts at 3B, 12 at DH) with the Yankees...ranked second in the Majors in RBI...had 16 game-winning RBI, tied with Chicago-AL's Paul Konerko and Toronto's Vernon Wells for most such RBI in the AL...led the Majors with 4.18 AB/RBI...13 of his 30HR (43.3%) tied the game or gave the Yankees the lead...58 of his 125RBI (46.4%) either tied the game or gave the Yankees the lead.

Century City

Alex Rodriguez has driven in at least 100 runs while playing fewer than 140 games in each of the last three seasons (2008-10)...the only other players ever to have three such consecutive seasons were Joe DiMaggio (1939-41) and Chick Hafey (1928- 30)...joins DiMaggio as the only players to also have at least 30HR in each of those three seasons—credit: Elias.

- Had a Major League-leading 48RBI in the seventh inning or later, 20 of which tied the game or put the team ahead...hit four go-ahead home runs in the seventh inning or later and has nine such homers since the start of 2009.
- Played in 137 games and drove in 125 runs...since RBI became an official statistic in 1920, only nine players (12 occasions) have recorded more RBI while playing 137G or fewer, including just two Yankees–Babe Ruth in 1929 (154RBI) and '32 (137) and Joe DiMaggio in 1939 (126) and '40 (133).
- Matched his career high with 11 sacrifice flies (also 2000 w/Seattle).
- Was 9-for-20 (.450) with 3HR and a Major League-leading 34RBI with the bases loaded...tied for most grand slams in the Majors in 2010 and marked the fourth time in his career he hit at least three grand slams in a season (also 1996, '99 and 2007)...according to Elias, matches Jimmie Foxx (1932, '34, '38 and '40) as the only players with at least four seasons with three-or-more grand slams...became the third Yankee to hit three grand slams before the All-Star break (also Lou Gehrig – four in 1934; and Don Mattingly – three in 1987).
- Committed just two errors over his final 81 games (80 starts) at 3B beginning on 5/27...made 5E in his first 43 games of the season (4/4-5/26)...went 45 straight games (44 starts) at third base without making an error from 7/17-9/28, marking the third-longest errorless stretch at 3B in his career (46 games from 5/30-7/23/07 and 61 games from 6/23-9/1/05)...ranked fourth among all Major League third basemen with a .976 fielding percentage...only Jhonny Peralta (5E) and Placido Polanco (5E) committed fewer errors than Rodriguez (7E) among Major Leaguers with at least 100G at 3B.

MAN ON

According to STATS Inc., Alex Rodriguez has had the hitter before him intentionally walked to load the bases 17 times in his career and he has hit three home runs in those situations...according to STATS Inc., Rodriguez is 5-for-7 with 1BB, 3HR, 1SF and 18RBI in nine plate appearances after Mark Teixeira has been intentionally walked to load the bases in front of him (including postseason).

- Made his 14th career Opening Day roster...was his sixth Opening Day start at 3B after making eight Opening Day starts at SS...joined Manny Ramirez (seven Opening Day starts in RF and eight in LF) as the only active players to make at least six Opening Day starts at two different positions in their career...the last player to do so at both SS and 3B was Cal Ripken Jr. (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...also made his sixth Opening Day start at 3B with Derek Jeter at SS, matching Bucky Dent and Graig Nettles (six) and Frank Crosetti and Red Rolfe (six) for most such starts in franchise history.
- Hit just 2HR in April, his lowest home run total of his career for a calendar month (min. 70AB).
- Reached the 1,000-hit plateau as a Yankee with his second-inning single off Wade Davis in 4/10 win at Tampa Bay...became the 39th player to reach the plateau with the Yankees and first since Jorge Posada on 8/20/05 at the White Sox...had 966H with Seattle (1994-2000) and 569 with Texas (2001-03), becoming the second player to have 1,000H with other team(s) prior to getting 1,000 with the Yankees, joining Dave Winfield (1,134 w/ San Diego from 1973-80; and 1,300 w/ the Yankees from 1981-88, '90)—credit: Elias.
- Hit his 584th career home run in 4/17 win vs. Texas, surpassing Mark McGwire for sole possession of eighth place on Baseball's all-time list...the home run also snapped a 41AB homerless stretch to begin the season, his longest such stretch to begin a campaign since 1995 when he homered in his 49th at-bat and third-longest of his career (did not homer in 54AB in 1994 rookie season).

- Snapped an 0-for-19 stretch with a first-inning double in 4/30 win vs. Chicago-AL, his longest hitless stretch since a career-high-tying 0-for-21 from 7/25-8/2/07.
- Did not record an RBI over a seven-game stretch from 5/20-27, marking his longest drought without driving in a run since a nine-game span from 5/9-18/07.
- Did not play in four games from 6/11-15 (hip flexor tendinitis).
- Hit game-winning two-run HR in the eighth in 7/1 win vs. Seattle…was his 250th as a Yankee in his 963rd game with the Yankees…according to Elias, the only player to reach the 250-homer plateau with the Yankees in fewer games was Babe Ruth (774th game).
- Had 70RBI prior to the All-Star break for the seventh time in his career, tying Ted Williams for the most such seasons in Major League history…no other player has done it six times (credit: Elias).
- Collected a Major League-best 31RBI in July, marking his most RBI in a calendar month since September 2007 (also 31RBI)…was his fourth 30RBI month as a Yankee (also April and June 2007-both 34RBI), the most such months by a Yankee since Mickey Mantle (July 1952, May 1956, June 1957 and June 1961).
- Hit first-inning, two-run HR—the 600th HR of his career—in 8/4 win vs. Toronto, becoming the seventh player in Major League history to reach the plateau…at 35 years, 8 days old, became the youngest player ever to hit his 600th career HR, surpassing Babe Ruth (36 years, 196 days)…the home run came in his 2,267th career game, trailing only Ruth (2,044) for fewest games needed to reach the mark…joined Ruth (600th HR on 8/21/31 at St. Louis) as the only players to hit his 600th career homer as a Yankee…came exactly three years to the day after he hit his 500th home run (8/4/07 vs. Kansas City, off Kyle Davies)…snapped a 46AB homerless stretch and an 0-for-17 stretch overall with the homer…hit .196 (9-for-46) with 3 doubles and 8RBI between his 599th and 600th home runs (7/22-8/3).
- Stole his 300th career base in the sixth inning of 8/8 win at Boston.
- Hit three home runs (solo-HR and two two-run HRs) in 8/14 win at Kansas City, going 4-for-5…hit the three homers in consecutive plate appearances off three different pitchers (a span of five pitches)…was his fourth career three-homer game and first since 4/26/05 vs. Los Angeles-AL.
- Missed three games from 8/17-19 with tightness in his left calf and was placed on the 15-day disabled from 8/21-9/5 with the injury (missed 14 team games).
- Hit 9HR with 28RBI in 25 games over the remainder of the season after being reinstated from the disabled list on 9/5, ranking third in the Majors in home runs and second in RBI over the stretch.
- Was named the MLB "AL Player of the Month" for September (.309, 25-for-81, 15R, 9HR and 26RBI in 22 games).
- Hit solo HR in the sixth and two-run HR in the seventh and was 2-for-4 with 1BB in 9/24 loss vs. Boston…were his 609th and 610th career home runs, tying and surpassing Sammy Sosa (609) for sole possession of sixth place all-time…was his 58th career multi-HR game (54th two-homer game) and fourth in 2010.
- Appeared in all nine postseason games, reaching base in eight of the contests (.219, 7-for-32, 5R, 2 doubles, 3RBI and 4BB).

- Hit .286 (127-for-444) with 17 doubles, 1 triple, 30HR, 100RBI and 14SB in 124 games (113 starts at 3B, nine at DH) with the Yankees...missed 28 team games at the beginning of the season due to injury...became the 12th player all time to reach 30HR and 100RBI in a season in which he played fewer than 125G, first since Manny Ramirez in 2002.
- The Yankees went 90-44 (.672) following his return from the disabled list on 5/8, marking the best winning percentage in the Majors over the stretch...ranked second in the American League in RBI and tied for second in the AL in home runs after coming off the D.L., trailing only teammate Mark Teixeira.
- Was involved in scoring or driving in the game-winning or tying run in six of the Yankees' 15 "walk-off" innings in 2009 (two game-ending home runs, one game-tying home run, two game-winning runs scored and hit a pop-up resulting in a two-run "walk-off" error vs. the Mets)...batted .310 (18-for-58) with 8HR and 21RBI in "close and late" situations, tying for second-most HR in the Majors in such situations.
- According to Elias, 15 of his 30HR either tied the game or put the team ahead...had 12HR in the seventh inning or later, seven of which tied the game or put the Yankees ahead...51 of his 100RBI tied the game or put the team ahead, tying for second in the AL with 29 go-ahead RBI...had 33RBI in the seventh inning or later, 15 of which tied the game or put the team ahead.
- Became the third Yankee to reach the 100RBI plateau in fewer than 125 games in a season (also Joe DiMaggio in 1939 and Bill Dickey in 1936).
- Was placed on the 15-day D.L. from 4/4–5/8 (retroactive to 3/27)...missed 28 team games...underwent arthroscopic surgery on 3/9 to repair his right hip labrum, remove an impingement in the joint and drain a cyst in the hip...the procedure was performed by Dr. Marc Philippon at the Vail Valley Surgery Center in Vail, Colo...the cyst and tear were discovered during an MRI taken on 2/28...cyst was originally drained on 3/5.
- In 44 plate appearances during rehab assignment from 4/30-5/7, was 7-for-36 (.194) with 3HR, 8BB and 8K...reported to Tampa on 4/13 to continue his rehab program...was selected to participate in the World Baseball Classic with the Dominican Republic, but was unable to play (hip surgery).

- Missed the Opening Day active roster for the first time since 1995, snapping a stretch of 13 straight Opening Day starts.
- Hit three-run HR on his first pitch seen of the season and was 1-for-4 in 5/8 win at Baltimore...became the first Yankee to homer on the first pitch of his first plate appearance of a season since Andy Phillips on 9/26/04 at Boston, in the first PA of his Major League career...was the second time that Rodriguez hit a HR in his first AB of a season (also 2006).
- Seven of his first 10 hits after returning from the disabled list on 5/8 were home runs...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, was the first Yankee in franchise history to collect 7HR within his first 10H of the season.
- Homered on four straight days from 5/16-19, marking the eighth time in his career he homered in at least four consecutive games...according to Elias, his five streaks of four straight games with a HR as a Yankee tie him with Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Yogi Berra for the most in franchise history.
- Hit 6HR on the Yankees' 10-game homestand from 5/15-24, matching his most HR hit during any homestand in his Major League career (third time).
- Reached the 14-year anniversary of his first HR (Tom Gordon on 6/12/95 w/ Seattle vs. Kansas City) with 561 homers...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his career total of within 14 years of hitting his first were most all time...the next-highest home run totals as of the 14th anniversary of their first were Mark McGwire (552) and Sammy Sosa (539).

- Hit two-run HR—the 564th of his career to surpass Reggie Jackson for 11th place on Baseball's all-time list—in 6/26 win at the Mets.
- Hit two-run "walk-off" HR in the 15th inning of 8/7 win vs. Boston, becoming the fifth player in Baseball history to hit a "walk-off" HR in the 15th inning or later to break a scoreless tie, joining Old Hoss Radbourn in 1882 w/ Providence (18th inning), Earl Averill in 1935 w/ Cleveland (15th inning), Willie Mays in 1963 w/ San Francisco (16th inning) and Adrian Garrett in 1975 w/ Chicago-NL (16th inning)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau...was his ninth career extra-inning HR.
- The homer snapped a single-season career-high 72AB homerless stretch dating back to 7/19 (third-longest of career).
- Two games later, hit the go-ahead solo-HR in the seventh in 8/9 win vs. Boston...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player in Major League history to snap scoreless ties by hitting home runs in the seventh inning or later twice in one series.
- Recorded his 2,500th hit with a fifth-inning single in 9/2 win at Baltimore, becoming the 78th player all time to reach the hit total...according to the Elias Sports Bureau - at the age of 34 years, 37 days old – became the third-youngest player to reach the 2,500H plateau in the Expansion era, behind Hank Aaron (33 years, 127 days) and Robin Yount (33 years, 289 days)...among active players, only teammate Derek Jeter (1,999G) collected his 2,500th hit in fewer games than him (2,141G).
- Was ejected for the fifth time in 9/13 win vs. Baltimore in the middle of the fifth by Marty Foster for arguing balls and strikes.
- Homered twice in the sixth inning of the Yankees' regular season finale win at Tampa Bay on 10/4, with a three-run home run and a grand slam...the 7RBI marked the most in a single inning by an American Leaguer...became the second player in the modern era (since 1900) to drive in seven-or-more runs in an inning (also Fernando Tatis—8RBI on 4/23/99 vs. Los Angeles-NL)...became just the third player in the last 55 years (since 1955) to collect at least 7RBI in a season finale, joining Philadelphia's Dick Allen (7RBI in 1968) and Minnesota's Kirby Puckett (7RBI in 1994 on the day before the strike took effect)...became the 10th player since 1900 to hit two home runs in one inning, one of which was a grand slam...was the second time in his career he has homered twice in the same inning (also 9/5/07 vs. Seattle), marking the sixth time a Yankee has homered twice in the same frame and becoming the first Yankee to accomplish the feat twice in pinstripes.
- Hit .365 (19-for-52) with 15R, 5 doubles, 6HR and 18RBI in the postseason, leading the team in average, runs, home runs, RBI and tying for tops in doubles...hit three game-tying HR in the seventh inning or later in the 2009 postseason, the most such HR ever for a player in their postseason career (credit: Elias)...hit ninth-inning, two-run home run (off Joe Nathan) to tie game in Game 2 win of ALDS vs. Minnesota and solo HR (off Carl Pavano) to tie game in seventh inning of Game 3 ALDS clincher at Minnesota...tied the game with a solo HR (off Brian Fuentes) in the 11th inning of ALCS Game 2 win vs. Los Angeles-AL...matched Bernie Williams (6HR in 1996) for the most HR in a single postseason in franchise history, and was 1HR shy of tying the AL record (7-ANA Troy Glaus-2002 and TB B.J. Upton-2008)...his solo HR on 10/31/09 in Game 4 of World Series at Philadelphia became the first playoff homer to be reviewed by video replay.
- Drove in a run in 11 games and set a franchise record with 18RBI, falling one RBI shy of the all-time postseason record shared by Sandy Alomar, Jr. (1997, CLE), Scott Spiezio (2002, ANA) and David Ortiz (2004, BOS)...eight of his RBI tied the game or put the Yankees ahead...drove in at least one run in eight straight playoff games from 10/8/07 (ALDS Game 4)-10/20/09 (ALCS Game 4), matching the all-time record, (also Lou Gehrig and Ryan Howard)...joined Boston's David Ortiz (2004) as the only two players to record three game-tying or go-ahead RBI hits in the ninth inning or later in a single postseason.
- Collected 11 extra-base hits in the 2009 playoffs, tying six others – including teammate Hideki Matsui (2004) – for most in a single postseason (credit: Elias)...was hit by a pitch three times in the World Series, tying Pittsburgh's Max Carey (1925) and teammate Mark Teixeira (2009) for the all-time record.
- Won the Babe Ruth Award from the New York Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America as the postseason MVP.

Triple Your Pleasure

The Yankees turned a triple play in the sixth inning of their April 22, 2010 loss at Oakland (5-4-3 – Alex Rodriguez to Robinson Cano to Nick Johnson on a ground ball hit by Kurt Suzuki), marking the team's first since June 3, 1968 vs. Minnesota, when the Twins' Johnny Roseboro hit into a 1-5-3 (Dooley Womack to Bobby Cox to Mickey Mantle). The Yankees had gone 6,632 regular season games between turning triple plays, during which every other Major League team had made at least one triple play and the Yankees themselves had hit into nine triple plays.

CAREER NOTES

- Since his debut in 2001, has a 157-88 (.641) record, marking the most wins in the Majors…is second in shutouts (11), third in complete games (30) and IP (2127.0), and fourth in strikeouts (1,787) and starts (322) over the span…owns the fifth-highest winning percentage among active pitchers.
- Has gone 88-43 (.672) over the last five seasons (2006-10), leading the Majors in strikeouts, ranking second in wins, innings pitched (1154.1) and shutouts (9), and tying for fourth in starts (165) over the stretch.
- Among active Major League lefthanders (min 1,000.0IP), ranks second in ERA (3.57) and winning percentage (.641), third in wins (157), fourth in strikeouts (1,787), and sixth in IP (2127.0) and starts (322).
- Recorded 40 wins from 2009-10, marking the most by a Yankee over a two-season stretch since Tommy John's 43 wins in 1979 (21-9) and 1980 (22-9)…also became the first Yankee with at least 230.0IP in two consecutive seasons since John (1979-276.1IP and 1980-265.1IP)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is one of three Yankees since 1923 to win at least 19 games in each of his first two seasons with the club, joining Tommy John (1979-80) and Herb Pennock (19-6 in 1923 and 21-9 in 1924).
- Became the first pitcher to win least 17 games in four consecutive years (2010: 21-7 w/ NYY; 2009: 19-8 w/ NYY; 2008: 17-10 w/ Cleveland and Milwaukee; and 2007: 19-7 w/ Cleveland), since Randy Johnson accomplished the feat in six straight seasons from 1997-2002 (credit: Elias)…Elias also notes he is the first pitcher to start at least 34 games in four consecutive years (2007-10) since San Francisco's Barry Zito accomplished the feat over a six-season stretch from 2001-06.
- Has recorded at least 11 wins in each of his first 10 seasons to begin his Major League career, marking the longest such current streak among active pitchers.
- His .641 career winning percentage is ninth-best all time among lefthanders (min: 150 decisions).
- Leads all active Major League pitchers under the age of 31 in career wins (157), strikeouts (1,787) and innings pitched (2127.0)…the last Major Leaguer to compile as many wins prior to his 31st birthday was Greg Maddux, who won 166 games before turning 31.
- Has participated in the postseason in each of the last four seasons with three different clubs (2009 and '10 w/ the Yankees, 2008 w/ Milwaukee and 2007 w/ Cleveland).
- Named to Sporting News' 2010 list of the 50 greatest players in baseball today (No. 13), as selected by a panel of 125 Hall of Famers, major award winners and other baseball experts.

- Became the 34th different Yankee to record a 20-win season, marking the 59th 20-win season in franchise history...became the ninth Yankees lefthander all time to collect at least 20 wins in a season...marked the most single-season wins by an African-American pitcher in Yankees franchise history...was the Majors' first African-American 20-game winner since Florida's Dontrelle Willis in 2005 (22-10) and the AL's first since Oakland's Dave Stewart in 1990 (21-12).
- Became the 26th different Yankee to record a 21-win season (eighth lefty), marking the 43rd 21-win season in franchise history.
- Went 11-2 with a 3.00 ERA (111.0IP, 37ER) at Yankee Stadium, beginning the season 11-0 at home...became the first Yankee to win his first 11 home decisions to begin a season since David Cone and David Wells in 1998 (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Compiled 22 starts in which he held his opponent to 3ER or less and threw at least 7.0IP, the third-highest total in the Majors behind Felix Hernandez (25) and Roy Halladay (23)...went at least 8.0IP in 10 starts.
- Did not allow a HR over a career-long 80.2IP stretch between Luke Scott's HR on 6/3 vs. Baltimore and Victor Martinez's second-inning HR on 8/7 vs. Boston.
- In his final 22 starts of the season (beginning on 6/3), went 17-4 with a 2.76 ERA (166.1IP, 144H, 51ER, 51BB, 143K), leading the Majors in wins over the stretch.
- Was named to his fourth career All-Star team in 2010 (also 2003-04, '07 w/ Cleveland) and was in uniform for the contest in Anaheim, Calif...was not allowed to participate in the game due to the MLB rule barring starting pitchers who pitched on the Sunday prior to the ASG from participating.

- Made his seventh career Opening Day start, second with the Yankees, on 4/4 at Boston, recording a no-decision in the 9-7 Red Sox victory (5.1IP, 6H, 5ER, 2BB, 4K)...became the 22nd pitcher in franchise history to make multiple Opening Day starts, first since Randy Johnson in 2005 and 2006.
- Carried a no-hitter through two outs in the eighth inning of a 10-0 win on 4/10 at Tampa Bay until Kelly Shoppach singled to left field (7.2IP, 1H, 2BB, 5K, 111/69)...was removed immediately following the single...was the furthest he had ever gone in a game without allowing a hit...was the deepest a Yankee had taken a no-hitter since Mike Mussina took a perfect game 8.2IP on 9/2/01 at Boston (Carl Everett single).
- Recorded complete games in two straight starts, despite not throwing 9.0 innings in either start (6.0IP win on 4/16 vs. Texas and 8.0IP loss on 4/22 at Oakland)...became the first Yankee credited with back-to-back complete games since David Wells in September 1998.
- Struck out six straight batters on 4/16 vs. Texas in a rain-shortened complete-game win...marked the most consecutive K's in a game by a Yankee since 8/8/99 when David Cone fanned six in-a-row at Seattle–credit: Elias.
- Won a career-high eight consecutive starts from 6/3-7/11, compiling a 1.81 ERA (59.2IP, 43H, 12ER, 18BB, 50K, 2HR)...became the first Yankee to win eight straight starts since Roger Clemens won eight in-a-row from 5/26-7/4/01.
- Made his 300th career start on 6/3 vs. Baltimore, recording the win in a 6-3 Yankees victory...allowed a seventh-inning HR to Luke Scott, the only regular season HR he has surrendered to a left-handed batter at the current Yankee Stadium...snapped a streak of 37 consecutive home starts without allowing a HR to a lefty, dating back to 4/5/08.
- Became the youngest pitcher at the time of his 300th start since Dwight Gooden (age 29 yrs, 205 days on 6/9/94) and the youngest lefty since Fernando Valenzuela (age 29 yrs, 226 days on 6/15/90)–credit: Elias...became the eighth pitcher to make his 300th career start with the Yankees since 1955, just the second such pitcher to win (also Jimmy Key in 1994)–credit: Elias...his career .627 (141-84) winning pct. was the third-highest among active pitchers through their first 300 career starts behind Tim Hudson (.655, 144-76) and teammate Andy Pettitte (.642, 156-87).
- Allowed 1ER or less in a career-high five straight starts from 6/20-7/11...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it marked the longest such stretch by a Yankee since David Cone in 1999.

ADDITIONAL YANKEES 20-WIN NOTES

* Sabathia is the Yankees first 20-game winner since Mike Mussina (20-9 in 2008).
* 34 different Yankees have had a total of 59 20-win seasons since the franchise was established in New York in 1903.
* Red Ruffing, Lefty Gomez and Bob Shawkey have had the most 20-win seasons by a Yankee (four each).
* The Yanks' first 20-win season was 1903, when Jack Chesboro set the still-standing, modern era (since 1900) single-season win mark, going 41-12.

- Made his 50th start as a Yankee on 6/25 at Los Angeles-NL, recording the win to improve his record to 28-11 with 286K as a Yankee...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two other pitchers posted as many wins and Ks over their first 50 starts with the Yankees: Ron Guidry (31-10, 347K) and David Cone (28-10, 374K).
- Surpassed 2,000.0 career IP in 7/1 win vs. Seattle, becoming the youngest pitcher to reach the mark since Greg Maddux in 1995 and the youngest lefthander since Fernando Valenzuela in 1990.
- Reached the All-Star break with a 12-3 record and a 3.09 ERA, recording the most pre-All-Star break wins by a Yankee since Mike Mussina went 12-3 in the first half of 2002...matched his most wins prior to the All-Star Break (also 12-3 pre-ASG in 2007).
- Was undefeated in 11 starts from 5/29-7/22, going 9-0 with two no-decisions and a 2.62 ERA (79.0IP, 69H, 23ER, 28BB, 70K, 2HR).
- Recorded his 150th career victory on 8/7 vs. Boston...reached the plateau with just 86 losses (a .636 winning pct.)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only three active pitchers at the time reached the plateau with fewer losses (Roy Halladay was 150-76, Tim Hudson was 150-79, and Andy Pettitte was 150-79).

- Suffered the loss on 9/7 vs. Baltimore, his first loss at Yankee Stadium since 7/2/09, snapping a 21-start undefeated streak at home...over the stretch, went 16-0 with a 2.05 ERA (149.0IP, 34ER) as the Yankees went 19-2 in those starts...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the streak tied Whitey Ford (8/8/64-8/18/65 at the original Yankee Stadium) for the longest undefeated streak of starts by a Yankee at any Stadium (home or away)...it was the longest undefeated streak of starts by any pitcher at any stadium since Johan Santana's 24-start undefeated streak at the Metrodome from 8/6/05-4/2/07...Elias also notes that Sabathia's 16-game home winning streak matched Johnny Allen (1932-33) and Ron Guidry (1985-86) for the longest in franchise history.
- Recorded his 20th win on 9/18 at Baltimore in an 11-3 Yankees victory (7.0IP, 7H, 3ER, 1BB, 4K, 1HR)...won his 21st game on 9/28 at Toronto, limiting the Jays to 3H and 1ER in 8.1IP (2BB, 8K, 1HR).
- Went 2-0 with a 5.63 ERA in three postseason starts...started ADS Game 1 and ALCS Game 1 - his sixth and seventh career Game 1 starts, putting him in a four-way tie for the fourth-most all time, trailing only Greg Maddux (11), Whitey Ford (8) and Roger Clemens (8).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Sporting News* AL Rookie Pitcher of the Year
- 2003

A.L. All-Star Team
- 2010

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees as a free agent to a three-year contract on January 18, 2011…contract extends through the 2013 season.

CAREER

- Has limited opponents to a .185 batting average in his career as a reliever, the second-lowest mark among all active Major League relievers with at least 200.0IP behind only Carlos Marmol (.158).
- Has held right-handed batters to a .162 (124-for-767) batting average in his career, marking the lowest such average among all active pitchers (min. 500 batters faced).
- Over the last two seasons (in which he served primarily as a closer), has allowed the seventh-lowest opponents batting average (.180), the seventh-fewest baserunners/9.0IP (8.61) and struck out the ninth-most batters (159) among all Major League relievers.
- Was a perfect 22-for-22 in save opportunities at home in 2010 and has converted 38 consecutive saves at home dating back to 2007 (last blown save came 7/22/07 w/ Atlanta vs. St. Louis), the longest such active streak and sixth-longest all time.
- Began his career as an outfielder in the Mariners organization, before converting to pitcher prior to the 1999 season…in eight career Major League starts, is 0-3 with a 5.10 ERA (42.1IP, 24ER)…in 334 career relief appearances, has gone 11-17 with 88 saves and a 2.45 ERA (352.2IP, 96ER).

- Went 3-2 with an American League-leading 45 saves (in 48 opportunities) and a 1.73 ERA in 64 relief appearances in his lone season with the Rays, setting a club record and a career high in saves…struck out 57 batters in 62.1IP with only 14BB…appeared in consecutive games 11 times, three straight three times and a season-high four in-a-row three times (4/30-5/4, 7/3-6 and 9/12-15).
- Held opponents to a .163 (36-for-221, 4HR) batting average; RH (.196, 21-for-107, 2HR), LH .132 (15-for-114, 2HR)…marked the lowest batting average against RHH in the Majors (min. 100 BF)…first batters hit just .115 (7-for-61) against him.
- Became only the fourth pitcher in Major League history to reach his totals for saves, ERA and opponents average in a single season, joining Oakland's Dennis Eckersley in 1990, Los Angeles-NL's Eric Gagne in 2003 and Florida's Armando Benitez in 2004.
- Converted 45-of-48 save opportunities (93.8%), leading the AL and ranking second in the Majors behind San Diego's Heath Bell (94.0%, 47-for-50)…ranked third in the Majors in saves behind San Francisco's Brian Wilson (48) and Bell (47)…among AL relievers, ranked second in opponents average and third in ERA.
- Earned his first career All-Star appearance, replacing the injured Mariano Rivera on the AL roster…threw a perfect eighth inning on only eight pitches, retiring San Diego's Adrian Gonzalez, and Cincinnati's Joey Votto and Scott Rolen on three fly balls…named to the Sporting News AL All-Star team as the league's top reliever, and won the 2010 Rolaids Relief Man of the Year Award in the AL.

- Named "DHL Delivery Man of the Month" for May, July and August...since the award was founded in 2005, no pitcher had won it twice in the same season...also received consideration for the AL Cy Young Award, placing eighth in the voting–the highest finish by a reliever in 2010 AL balloting.
- Converted each of his first 16 save chances to begin the season, suffering his first blown save in 6/19 win vs. Florida in his only appearance of the season in which he entered the game prior to the ninth inning.
- Held opponents scoreless in 19 of his final 22 appearances of the season beginning 8/1, converting 16-of-17 save chances and holding opponents to a .125 batting average (9-for-72).
- Struck out the side on nine pitches in 8/23 win at Los Angeles-AL, the only pitcher to do so in 2010 and the first to accomplish the feat while recording a save since Chicago-NL's LaTroy Hawkins on 9/11/04 vs. Florida.
- Recorded his 40th save in 9/1 win vs. Toronto, joining the Angels' Francisco Rodriguez (62 saves) in 2008 as the only AL pitchers to collect at least 40 saves by September 1.
- Appeared in three Division Series games with the Rays, allowing 3ER in 3.0IP and converting his only save chance.

- 2010

STATUS

- Acquired by the Yankees along with RHP Kanekoa Texeira from the Chicago White Sox on November 13, 2008, in exchange for INF Wilson Betemit and RHPs Jeff Marquez and Jhonny Nunez...signed a five-year contract with a one-year club option on May 11, 2007 (w/ Oakland)...contract extends through the 2011 season, with a one-year club option for 2012.

CAREER NOTES

- Is one of four American Leaguers to hit at least 20HR in each of the last six seasons (2005-10), joining Paul Konerko, David Ortiz and teammate Alex Rodriguez.
- His 139HR since 2006 are the third-most among Major League switch-hitters over the last five seasons, trailing only Mark Teixeira (168) and Lance Berkman (147).
- Has homered from both sides of the plate 10 times in his career...according to SABR's David Vincent, the 10 career switch-hit homers are tied with teammate Mark Teixeira for the most among active players and tied with Teixeira, Ken Caminiti, Tony Clark and Mickey Mantle for the second-most all-time behind Chili Davis and Eddie Murray (11 each).
- Was the only player to hit 15 or more home runs with three different franchises from 2007-09 (22 w/ Oakland in 2007, 24 w/ Chicago-AL in 2008 and 29 w/ the Yankees in 2009)...according to Elias, the only other player to cap such a three-year streak with the Yankees was Reggie Jackson (36HR for the 1975 Athletics, 27HR for the 1976 Orioles and 32 for the 1977 Yankees).

- Hit .288 (163-for-566) with 91R, 33 doubles, 3 triples, 29HR and 89RBI in 150 games (131 starts in RF, 11 at DH) with the Yankees, setting career highs in batting average, at-bats, hits and triples...made his sixth career Opening Day roster, second as a Yankee...hit .286 (110-for-384) with 25HR as a lefthanded batter and .291 (53-for-182) with 4HR from the right side...17 of his 29 homers tied the game or gave the Yankees the lead.
- Among Major League switch-hitters, ranked second in runs scored (91), home runs (29) and RBI (89), trailing only teammate Mark Teixeira in each of the three categories (113R, 33HR and 108RBI)...ranked third in batting average (.288).
- Hit .345 (88-for-255) with 15 doubles, 3 triples, 13HR, 73RBI and 29BB with runners on base, marking the fourth-best average in the AL.
- Batted in seven different spots in the starting lineup (two through eight), homering in five of those spots (two, four, five, six and eight).
- Had at least three hits in a game 14 times, the most such games in any season in his career (previous was 10 in 2007)...only Robinson Cano (19) had more three-hit games among Yankees in 2010.
- Collected 10 outfield assists, eight more than his total from 2009 (two) and surpassing his previous career high (six in 2005 w/ Oakland).

- Won the 2010 All-Star Final Vote, earning the final spot on the AL's All-Star roster...pinch hit for Ty Wigginton in the seventh (0-for-1)...with his dad, Steve, a 1976 NL All-Star for the Chicago Cubs, the Swishers became the 12th family to have both a father and son named to an MLB All-Star team.
- Hit safely in each of his first six games of the season with an official at-bat for the second time in his career (first nine games in 2009).
- Batted .374 (34-for-91) with 7HR and 17RBI in May, marking his most hits in any calendar month of his career (previous best was 32H in May 2007 and May 2006)...hit three home runs in a four-game stretch from 5/5-9 and five HR in an eight-game span from 5/1-9.
- Missed four games with a sore left biceps (5/13 and 5/17-19)...underwent an MRI at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital on 5/14 and was diagnosed with a slight strain of the left biceps.
- Recorded two outfield assists in 6/23 win at Arizona, both coming in the first inning (Johnson at home, Montero at third)...marked his first career multi-assist game as an outfielder.
- Recorded his 15th career multi-HR game in 6/29 loss vs. Seattle, homering twice off LHP Cliff Lee...was his first multi-HR game since 9/8/09 vs. Tampa Bay...marked the second time in his career he hit 2HR off left-handed pitching in the same game (also 5/11/06 w/ Oakland at Toronto – both off Ted Lilly).
- Was 4-for-4 with 1R, 2 doubles and 1BB, reaching base five times in 7/8 win at Seattle...tied his career high in hits (also 9/8/06 w/ Oakland at Tampa Bay).
- Scored at least one run in 10 consecutive starts from 7/10-26, tying a career high (also 9/5-15/07) and marking the longest such streak in the AL in 2010.

- Hit ninth-inning "walk-off" RBI single and was 3-for-5 with 1R, 1HR and 3RBI in 7/16 win vs. Tampa Bay...was his third career "walk-off" hit, second with the Yankees.
- Collected his 16th career multi-HR game and second of 2010 (also 6/29 vs. Seattle) in 8/2 loss vs. Toronto, going 2-for-5 with a two-run HR and solo HR...moved to CF at the start of the ninth inning, playing the position for the first time since 9/1/08 w/ Chicago-AL at Cleveland.
- Fouled a ball off his left knee in 8/24 win at Toronto and was removed from the game with a 2-2 count in the seventh...missed the next game on 8/25 at Toronto with soreness in the knee...also missed two games (9/3-4) with left knee stiffness.
- Hit ninth-inning, two-run "walk-off" HR and was 2-for-4 in 9/8 win vs. Baltimore...was his fourth career "walk-off" hit and third such HR...came one year to the day after his last "walk-off" homer (9/8/09 vs. Tampa Bay off Dan Wheeler)...became the fourth player in Baseball history ever to hit "walk-off" home runs exactly a year apart and first since the Giants' Jack Clark on 9/4/81 and 9/4/82—credit: Elias.
- Started all nine Yankees postseason games, batting .176 (6-for-34) with 6R, 3 doubles and 2HR...the Yankees were 4-0 when he scored a run.

- Hit .249 (124-for-498) with 84R, 35 doubles, 29HR and 82RBI in 150 games (126 starts in RF, 10 at 1B, four in LF, one at DH) in his first season with the Yankees...batted .250 (84-for-336, 20HR) as a left-handed batter and .247 (40-for-162, 9HR) as a right-handed batter.
- Ranked third among Major League switch-hitters in home runs, tied for third with 97BB and ranked sixth in RBI...ranked second overall in the AL in walks, marking the most free passes by a Yankees switch-hitter since Jorge Posada in 2000 (107)...ranked second in the AL and seventh in the Majors with 4.26 pitches seen per plate appearance...led the AL with a .585 slugging percentage on the road.
- Homered from both sides of the plate three times (4/29 at Detroit, 7/27 at Tampa Bay and 9/8 vs. Tampa Bay)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, his three sets of switch-hit homers tied his high for any season (also 2007) and tied the AL single-season mark, also shared by Tony Clark (1998 with Detroit) and teammate Mark Teixeira, who joined Swisher in accomplishing the feat in 2009.
- Homered from seven different spots in the batting order (two through eight), becoming the first player to accomplish the feat in one season for the Yankees since Dan Pasqua in 1987—credit: Elias...became the first player in franchise history to hit 21 of his first 24HR of the season on the road.
- He and teammate Mark Teixeira became the third set of Yankees teammates over the last 50 years to each hit at least 25HR in their first full season in pinstripes (also Alex Rodriguez/Gary Sheffield in 2004 and Jason Giambi/Robin Ventura in 2002).

- Made his Yankees debut in Opening Day loss at Baltimore on 4/6, going 1-for-1 with a pinch-hit double...was his fifth career Opening Day roster.
- Started his first game of the season on 4/9 at Baltimore in the Yankees first win of the season, going 3-for-5 with 2R, 1 double, 1HR and a career-high-tying 5RBI...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player to drive in four-or-more runs in his first career start with the Yankees since Roger Maris on 4/19/60 at Boston, when he went 4-for-5 with 2HR and 4RBI...Elias also noted that Swisher became just the second Yankee in franchise history (since RBI became an official statistic in 1920) to record five-or-more RBI in a single game within his first three contests with the club (also Bob Tillman on 8/13/67 at Cleveland, third game w/ NYY, 2-for-5, 1HR, 6RBI).
- Recorded a hit in each of his first nine games with an official at-bat, the longest hitting streak to begin a season of his career...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, set a franchise record with nine extra-base hits (4 doubles, 1 triple, 4HR) in his first eight games with the Yankees, surpassing Roger Maris, who had seven in 1960...Elias also notes his 11RBI tied the franchise record for most RBI in a player's first eight games with the club, matching Maris in 1960 and Robin Ventura in 2002.
- Reached base safely in each of his first 17 games, becoming the first Yankee to accomplish the feat since Matty Alou reached in his first 19 games in 1973 (credit: Elias).
- Pitched a scoreless eighth inning (1.0IP, 1H, 1BB, 1K) in 4/13 loss at Tampa Bay, becoming the Yankees' first position player to pitch in a game since Wade Boggs on 8/19/97 at Anaheim...went 1-for-3 with a solo HR, becoming the first Yankee to homer and strike out a batter in the same game since Lindy McDaniel on 9/28/72 at Detroit.
- Led the team with 7HR and 19RBI in April, becoming the first offseason acquisition to lead the Yankees in March/April RBI in his first year with the club since Dave Winfield tied Bucky Dent for the team lead with nine April RBI in 1981...also became the first to hold the outright lead in both categories since Bobby Bonds in 1975 (4HR, 15RBI).
- Hit each of his first 8HR on the road...according to Elias, became the first Yankee to hit each of his first 8HR of a season on the road since Bernie Williams in 2003 (first 9HR on the road).
- Reached base safely in 30 consecutive games from 7/17-8/22, the longest such streak by a Yankee in 2009 and the second-longest streak of his career (36 games in 2006 w/ Oakland).
- Hit solo-HR in the second and "walk-off" solo-HR in the ninth and was 2-for-3 with 1BB in 9/8 win vs. Tampa Bay...was his second career "walk-off" hit and home run...was his third multi-HR game in 2009 and 14th of his career...marked the eighth time in Baseball history a player homered from both sides of the plate in the same game with one of those home runs being a "walk-off" (also Yankees Mickey Mantle in 1956, Roy White in 1976 and Melky Cabrera on 4/22/09, and Donnie Scott in 1985, Kevin Bass in 1987 and 1989 and Carlos Guillen in 2006)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Appeared in 14 of the Yankees' 15 postseason games in 2009, batting .128 (6-for-47) with 5R, 2 doubles, 1HR, 2RBI and 7BB...hit his first career postseason homer in Game 3 of the World Series at Philadelphia.

- Hit .219 (109-for-497) with 21 doubles, 24HR and 69RBI in 153 games in his only season with the White Sox (69 starts in CF, 47 at 1B, 16 in LF and 11 in RF)...was his fourth consecutive season with 20-or-more home runs.
- Led all AL switch-hitters in home runs and finished second in RBI to Texas' Milton Bradley...batted .227 (83-for-365) with 18HR as a left-handed batter and .197 (26-for-132) with 6HR from the right side...hit in eight different spots in the lineup.
- Led the AL with 4.51 pitches seen per plate appearance and tied for eighth with 82BB...owned the third-lowest batting average among AL qualifiers, ahead of only Oakland's Daric Barton (.214) and Jack Hannahan (.216)...hit .247 (64-for-259) with 19HR at U.S. Cellular Field, while batting .189 (45-for-238) with 5HR on the road...batted .385 (5-for-13) with 2HR and 19RBI with the bases loaded.
- Made just two errors in 481 chances at 1B (.996 fielding pct.), while making 5E in 202TC as an outfielder (.975).
- Made his fourth career Opening Day roster and start in 3/31 loss at Cleveland, going 2-for-4 with 2R.
- Walked in six consecutive plate appearances from 4/4-5 at Detroit, becoming the first player to walk six straight times since Ivan Rodriguez in 2003 and the first White Sox player to do so since Chet Lemon in 1980.
- Hit his first career leadoff home run off Justin Verlander on 4/6 at Detroit...hit his first career "walk-off" home run on 8/5 vs. Detroit, a 14th-inning, three-run shot off Joel Zumaya...homered in a career-high four straight games from 8/18-21...included was his 100th career home run on 8/20 vs. Seattle.
- Snapped a career-high 0-for-19 stretch with an eighth-inning double on 9/2 at Cleveland.
- Went 1-for-4 (.250) with 1R and 2BB in three ALDS games vs. Tampa Bay.
- Was traded to Chicago-AL from Oakland on 1/3/08 in exchange for RHP Fautino De Los Santos, LHP Giovany Gonzalez and OF Ryan Sweeney.

- Hit .262 (141-for-539) with 36 doubles, 22HR, 78RBI and 100BB in 150 games with Oakland (57 starts in CF, 46 in RF, 39 at 1B, and five at DH)...set career highs in average, doubles, walks and on-base percentage (.381).
- Ranked sixth in the American League in walks, seventh in pitches per plate appearance (4.25) and 10th in strikeouts (131)...also ranked among the AL leaders in sacrifice flies (tied for fourth, nine), intentional walks (tied for fifth, 12) and percent of pitches taken (seventh, 62.8).

- His 22HR ranked second among AL switch-hitters behind Cleveland's Victor Martinez (25) and tied for the third-highest total in Athletics history for a switch-hitter...of his 22 homers, 15 were solo shots and 10 either tied the game or gave the A's the lead...had three multi-HR games, homering from both sides of the plate each time (4/23 at Baltimore, 7/26 at Seattle and 9/9 at Texas).
- Became the third player in Oakland history to start at least 30 games at three different positions, joining Jay Payton (2006) and Jason Giambi (1996)...had a .993 fielding percentage at 1B (3E), .986 in CF (2E) and 1.000 in RF (0E).
- Hit .291 (44-for-151) with 6HR, 22RBI and a .458 on-base percentage vs. left-handed pitchers and .250 (97-for-388) with 16HR, 56RBI and a .348OBP vs. righties.
- Established a career high with 5RBI on 5/21 at Chicago-AL, becoming the eighth player in Oakland history to drive in five runs without a home run.
- Committed his first error of the season on 8/2 vs. Los Angeles-AL in his 98th game...also snapped a career-high 103-game errorless stretch dating back to 9/24/06.
- Scored a run in 10 consecutive games from 9/5-15 (15R overall).
- Served a three-game suspension from 9/18-21 after being ejected on 9/16 vs. Texas for charging the mound when he was hit by a Vicente Padilla pitch in his first at-bat...marked his third straight game of being hit by a pitch (also 9/14 and 9/15 vs. Texas)...also homered in each of those games.

- Hit .291 (41-for-141) with 8HR vs. left-handed pitchers and .241 (100-for-415) with 27HR vs. right-handers...hit .412 (7-for-17) with 2HR and 20RBI with the bases loaded.
- Became the first player in Oakland history to start at least 70 games at two different positions and was the first to do so in the Majors since Cleveland's Carlos Baerga in 1991...started 63-of-88 games in LF before the All-Star break and 59-of-74 at 1B after the break.
- Reached base safely in 36 consecutive games from 4/7-5/19, going 41-for-131 (.313) with 12HR, 33RBI and 35R...hit his first career grand slam on 4/22 vs. Los Angeles-AL off Jeff Weaver.
- Compiled a career-high 11-game hitting streak from 4/30-5/11, batting .341 (14-for-41) with 12R, 6 doubles, 3HR, 10RBI and 8BB during the stretch.
- Started all seven postseason games at 1B for the Athletics (three vs. Minnesota-ALDS and four vs. Detroit-ALCS), batting .200 (4-for-20) with 1RBI and 7BB.

- Hit .236 (109-for-462) with 32 doubles, 21HR and 74RBI in 131 games with Oakland (115 starts in RF, 13 at 1B)...ranked fourth among AL switch hitters in RBI and tied for fourth in home runs...ranked eighth in the AL with an average of 4.13 pitches per plate appearance.
- Finished sixth in the AL "Rookie of the Year" balloting after leading all Major League rookies in walks (55) and extra-base hits (62)...among American League rookies, led in RBI, tied for the lead in home runs, ranked third in doubles and total bases (206), fourth in runs (66) and slugging percentage (.446), fifth in multi-hit games (26) and sixth in hits.
- Batted .203 (25-for-123) with 3HR vs. left-handed pitchers and .248 (84-for-339) with 18HR vs. right-handers.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/2 with a right AC joint sprain after running into the wall on a Jeremy Reed fly ball on 5/1 vs. Seattle...was reinstated from the D.L. on 5/25...missed 19 team games.
- Had a 34-game, 119AB homerless stretch from 4/13-6/16, the longest such streaks of his career.
- Homered from both sides of the plate for the first time in his career on 6/26 vs. San Francisco, becoming the second player in Oakland history—and third in Athletics history—to accomplish the feat.
- Drew a bases-loaded, "walk-off" walk on 9/7 vs. Seattle—the fifth run scored in the inning by the A's—capping the largest ninth-inning comeback in Oakland history.

- Hit .250 (15-for-60) with 11R, 4 doubles, 2HR and 8RBI in 20 games with Oakland (11 starts in LF, three in RF, two at 1B and two at DH).
- Was recalled by the Athletics from Triple-A Sacramento on 9/3, making his Major League debut that day at Toronto and going 1-for-3 with 2R, 1 double and 2BB...walked in his first plate appearance and doubled off Ted Lilly in the fourth inning for his first Major League hit...hit his first career home run on 9/5 at Toronto off Sean Douglass...started 13 of the A's first 14 games after his recall, replacing an injured Jermaine Dye.

- Began the season with Sacramento, batting .269 (119-for-443) with 109R, 29HR, 92RBI and 103BB in 125 games...led all minor leaguers in walks and tied for fourth in runs scored...topped the Pacific Coast League in walks and runs and ranked eighth in on-base percentage (.406)...tied Dan Johnson for the most homers among A's farmhands...reached base safely in 26 straight games from 6/11-7/7...recorded 2HR and 6RBI on 7/24 at Las Vegas...hit 20HR in his last 69 games after homering just nine times in his first 56 contests.

- Split the season between Single-A Modesto and Double-A Midland, combining to hit .256 (122-for-476) with 15HR and 86RBI in 127 games...his 11SF tied for fifth in the minors.
- Began the season at Modesto, batting .296 (56-for-189) with 10HR and 43RBI in 51 games...was named California League "Player of the Week" for the period from 4/28-5/4...reached base safely in 31 consecutive games from 4/17-5/24 and 47 of his 51 games overall...was promoted to Midland on 6/8 where he hit .230 (66-for-287) with 36R, 24 doubles and 43RBI in 76 games.

- Combined to hit .242 (55-for-227) with 6HR and 35RBI in 62 games with Single-A Vancouver and Single-A Visalia...began his career at Vancouver, but was promoted to Visalia after just 13 games.

CAREER NOTES

- Is one of only three Major Leaguers to reach 30HR and 100RBI in each of the last seven seasons (2004-10), joining Albert Pujols and teammate Alex Rodriguez…according to Elias, is one of three first basemen all time to surpass 30HR and 100RBI in seven straight years by age 30 (also Jimmie Foxx and Pujols).
- Is one of just three Yankees first basemen in franchise history to record at least 100R, 30HR and 100RBI in multiple seasons with the club, joining Lou Gehrig (10 times, 1927 and '29-37) and Don Mattingly (twice, 1985-86)…is the only player to accomplish the feat in his first two seasons with the club.
- Is the sixth Yankee all time to hit at least 30HR in each of his first two seasons with the club (also Babe Ruth, Roger Maris, Jason Giambi, Alex Rodriguez and Gary Sheffield).
- Has reached the 25HR plateau in each of his first eight Major League seasons…according to Elias, became just the fourth player in Baseball history to accomplish the feat, joining Eddie Mathews (11 seasons), Albert Pujols (10) and Darryl Strawberry (nine).
- Is one of 13 players all-time to hit at least 250 home runs within the first eight years of their Major League career and one of just four active players to accomplish the feat, joining Albert Pujols (319 from 2001-08), Adam Dunn (278 from 2001-08) and Todd Helton (251 from 1997-2004)…his 275 career home runs are the most ever by a switch-hitter in his first eight seasons.
- Has homered from both sides of the plate in the same game 10 times in his career (tied with teammate Nick Swisher for most among actives)…is tied with Swisher, Ken Caminiti, Tony Clark and Mickey Mantle for the second-most such games all-time behind Chili Davis and Eddie Murray (11 each).
- Since returning to the AL on 7/29/08 when he was acquired by Los Angeles-AL from Atlanta, ranks second in RBI (273) and home runs (85) among American Leaguers.
- Leads all active first basemen with a .99643 career fielding percentage at 1B.

- Made 138 starts at 1B, four in RF and two as DH...led AL first basemen in assists (98) and ranked second in total chances...had just one error in his final 35 games (311 chances) in the field.
- Named AL "Player of the Month" and Rangers "Player of the Month" for July, batting .300 (30-for-100) with 27R, 13HR and 30RBI and becoming the first Texas player other than Alex Rodriguez to win the monthly award since 1999...tied for the Major League lead in homers, RBI and runs scored for the month...was the fourth-highest home run total in club history for a single month...homered 12 times in a span of 18 games from 6/28-7/19, including home runs in five consecutive games from 7/11-19 (5HR) to match a club record...also matched the second-longest home run streak ever by a switch-hitter.
- Homered from both sides of the plate for the first time in his career in 7/4 win at Houston, including a grand slam...named AL "Player of the Week" for the period ending 7/4...also connected for a grand slam in 7/18 win at Toronto.
- Recorded his first career four-hit game in 8/17 win vs. Cleveland, hitting for the cycle (third-inning double, fourth-inning homer, fifth-inning triple, seventh-inning single)...became the second player in Rangers history to hit for the cycle in a game, joining Oddibe McDowell who accomplished the feat on 7/23/85 vs. Cleveland...recorded 7RBI in the game, the most in a cycle game since Boston's Rich Gedman on 9/18/85...at the time, became the 14th switch-hitter to hit for the cycle, and first since Jose Valentin on 4/27/00...was the sixth switch-hitter with a cycle in AL history...recorded two hits from each side of the plate in the cycle, becoming just the third known switch-hitter to accomplish the feat (also Mickey Mantle and Wes Parker).

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

On August 17, 2004 vs. Cleveland, Teixeira became the second Rangers player in franchise history to hit for the cycle, joining Oddibe McDowell (July 23, 1985 vs. Cleveland). Was the 245th cycle in Baseball history, 223rd since 1900 and 110th in the American League. Teixeira became the 14th switch-hitter to hit for the cycle and just the sixth American League switch-hitter to accomplish the feat. Was the fifth player to hit for the cycle in 2004 and the first switch-hitter, since 1970, to complete the cycle with a single. Became the first player to hit for the cycle in Rangers Ballpark (formerly Ameriquest Field) and the third player to do it in the city of Arlington, joining McDowell and Baltimore's Cal Ripken, Jr. (May 6, 1984) who both accomplished the feat at Arlington Stadium.

- In his first Major League season, hit .259 (137-for-529) with 29 doubles, 5 triples, 26HR and 84RBI in 146 games with Texas...led all rookies in homers and extra base hits (60), ranked second in RBI and walks (44), third in slugging percentage (.480), fourth in hits, total bases (254) and triples, and fifth in runs (66) and doubles...were the second-most homers ever for a Texas first-year player behind Pete Incaviglia (30) in 1986...the total also tied for the third-most ever by a rookie switch-hitter.
- Selected as the first baseman on the Baseball Digest and Topps Major League All-Star Rookie teams...named Rangers "Rookie of the Year" by local BBWAA chapter.
- Started 104 games at 1B and was also in the starting lineup at 3B (11), LF (10), RF (8) and DH (5)...had never played 1B prior to the 2003 season...ranked fifth among AL first basemen with a .996 fielding percentage (4E, 1006TC)...did not commit an error in his final 36 games at 1B beginning 8/20.
- Made his first Opening Day roster having played in just 86 professional games, the fewest for a Ranger since Incaviglia went directly from college to the Majors in 1986.
- Started at DH in his Major League debut on 4/1 at Anaheim, going 1-for-3 with 1BB...went hitless in his first 16AB before doubling off Mark Mulder on 4/9 vs. Oakland...connected for his first homer off Ted Lilly the next day vs. Oakland...hit his first grand slam off Baltimore's Rick Helling on 5/25, marking the first slam for a Texas rookie since Mike Stanley on 7/3/87 at the Yankees.
- Set a Texas club record for spring training homers (8).

- Combined to bat .318 (102-for-321) with 19HR and 69RBI in 86 games at Single-A Charlotte and Double-A Tulsa in his first professional season...despite missing the first two months of the season, was selected as the third baseman on the Baseball America overall Minor League All-Star team as well as the Rangers' "Minor League Player of the Year."

- Opened season on the D.L. after rupturing a tendon in his left elbow and forearm while attempting to catch a foul pop in March...activated on 6/1 and hit safely in his first 12 games at a .354 (17-for-48) clip...named the Topps Florida State League "Player of the Month" for June.
- Promoted to Tulsa on 7/12 and hit .316 with 10HR and 28RBI in 47 starts at third base and one as the DH...had a .243 (9-for-37) average with 1HR and 4RBI in 10 Texas League playoff games.
- Selected as the top prospect in the both the Texas League and Florida State League by Baseball America...played for Peoria in Arizona Fall League, batting .333 (33-for-99) with 7HR and 23RBI in 27 games...ranked among the league leaders in slugging (second, .616), homers (tied for third), RBI (tied for fourth) and average (fifth) despite missing the last two weeks of the season with a strained abdominal muscle.

- Was the fifth overall pick by the Rangers in the 2001 First-Year Player Draft, Texas' highest selection since 1989...signed a four-year contract through 2006 on 8/22 and participated in the Rangers' Florida Instructional League program, batting .246 with a team-high 13RBI in 20 games.

2010 REVIEW

3B ALEX RODRIGUEZ became the seventh player – and youngest – all time to reach the 600-homer plateau on August 4, 2010.

2010 Postseason Summary

ALDS RECAP

New York Yankees 3
Minnesota Twins 0

The Yankees swept the Minnesota Twins (three-games-to-none) for the second straight year in the 2010 ALDS, marking their fourth ALDS sweep all time (also 1998 and '99 vs. Texas), fifth "best-of-five" series sweep all time (also 1981 ALCS vs. Oakland) and 13th postseason series sweep overall…marked the first time the Yankees won an ALDS series after making the postseason as a "Wild Card" entry (losses in 1995 vs. Seattle, and 1997 and 2007 vs. Cleveland)…outscored the Twins 17-7 in the three-game series…Yankees relievers combined to allow just 1ER in 7.0IP (1.29 ERA).

GAME 1 – October 6 at Target Field

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	-	R	H	E
MIN	0	2	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	-	4	8	0

WP: CC Sabathia LP: Jesse Crain SV: Mariano Rivera
HR: NYY, M. Teixeira (inning: 7, 1 out, 1 on) off J. Crain; MIN, M. Cuddyer (inning: 2, 0 out, 1 on) off C. Sabathia

In the first-ever postseason contest at Target Field, the Yankees defeated Minnesota in Game 1, 6-4…the Yankees came back from a 3-0 deficit, scoring four runs in the sixth inning, capped by a go-ahead two-run triple from CF Curtis Granderson…LHP CC Sabathia (6.0IP, 5H, 4R, 3ER, 3BB, 5K, 1HR) earned his fourth career Game 1 win…1B Mark Teixeira (2-for-5) hit a game-winning two-run HR in the seventh, the third straight postseason game vs. the Twins in which the Yankees hit a go-ahead HR in the seventh inning or later.

GAME 2 – October 7 at Target Field

NYY	0	0	0	1	1	0	2	0	1	-	5	12	0

WP: Andy Pettitte LP: Carl Pavano SV: Mariano Rivera
HR: NYY, L. Berkman (inning: 5, 1 out, 0 on) off C. Pavano; MIN, O. Hudson (inning: 6, 1 out, 0 on) off A. Pettitte

The Yankees defeated the Twins, 5-2, in Game 2…was the eighth straight postseason game vs. Minnesota in which the Yankees came from behind, the longest such winning streak in postseason history (credit: Elias)…LHP Andy Pettitte (7.0IP, 5H, 2ER, 1BB, 4K, 1HR) extended his all-time record with his 19th career postseason win…retired 15 of his final 17 batters faced…DH Lance Berkman homered in the fifth and doubled home the go-ahead run in the seventh…became the ninth player since 1981 to collect a home run as his first postseason hit as a Yankee, first since Melky Cabrera in 2007 (credit: Elias)…RHP Mariano Rivera (1.0IP, 1H) collected his 600th career save (regular and postseason combined) and his 11th postseason save of an Andy Pettitte win.

GAME 3 – October 9 at Yankee Stadium

NYY	0	1	1	3	0	0	1	0	x	-	6	12	0

WP: Phil Hughes LP: Brian Duensing SV: ---
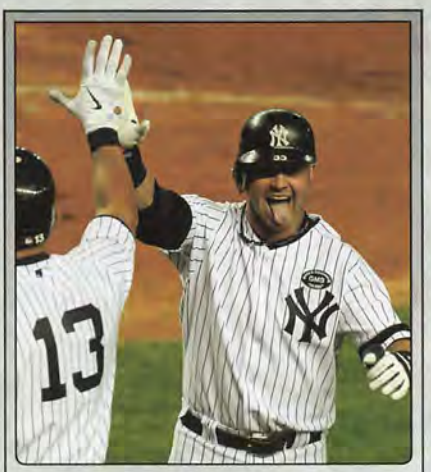
HR: NYY, M. Thames (inning: 4, 0 out, 1 on) off B. Duensing; N.Swisher (inning: 7, 0 out, 0 on) off S. Baker

The Yankees completed the series sweep with a 6-1 win at Yankee Stadium…RHP Phil Hughes made his first career postseason start, holding the Twins to 4H in 7.0 scoreless innings (1BB, 6K)…was perfect his first time through the order and retired 12 of his first 13 batters faced…became the first Yankee under the age of 25 since Dave Righetti in 1981 to win a postseason start…was just the third Yankee ever to throw at least 7.0 scoreless innings in his first career postseason start, joining Orlando Hernandez (1998 ALCS Game 4 at Cleveland – 7.0IP, 3H, 0R) and Waite Hoyt (1921 WS Game 2 vs. N.Y. Giants – 9.0IP, 2H, 0R)…DH Marcus Thames hit his first career postseason home run…RHP Mariano Rivera tossed 1.0 scoreless IP and recorded the final out of the series…the sellout attendance of 50,840 was the largest for a baseball game in Yankee Stadium history (including regular season and postseason games).



MINNY STREAK

The Yankees have won nine straight postseason games against Minnesota, dating to Game 2 of the 2004 ALDS on 10/6/04, marking the fourth-longest winning streak by one team over one opponent in postseason history.

ALCS RECAP

Texas Rangers 4
New York Yankees 2

The Yankees were defeated by the Texas Rangers in six games, losing the series four-games-to-two…was just their third ALCS defeat in 14 trips…marked their first-ever postseason series loss to the Rangers after winning three-games-to-one in the '96 ALDS and sweeping them in the 1998 and '99 ALDS…the Yankees were outscored 38-19 in the series, and outhit 63-38.

GAME 1 – October 15 at Rangers Ballpark

HR: NYY, R. Cano (inning: 7, 0 out, 0 on) off C. Wilson; TEX, J. Hamilton (inning: 1, 0 out, 2 on) off C. Sabathia

The Yankees opened the 2010 ALCS with a 6-5 win at Rangers Ballpark…trailed 5-0 after six innings…scored five runs in the eighth (all with nobody out) when sending 10 men to the plate…RHP Dustin Moseley tossed 2.0 scoreless innings of relief for the win in his Yankees postseason debut…Yankees relievers allowed just 1H over 5.0 combined IP…2B Robinson Cano scored the Yankees' first run with a seventh-inning HR…SS Derek Jeter doubled twice and scored his 100th career postseason run, becoming the first player ever to reach the mark…LHP CC Sabathia (4.0IP, 6H, 5ER, 4BB, 3K, 1HR, 1WP, 1BK) did not record a decision, allowing three first-inning runs in his shortest outing of 2010.

GAME 2 – October 16 at Rangers Ballpark

WP: Colby Lewis LP: Phil Hughes SV: ---
HR: NYY, R. Cano (inning: 6, 1 out, 0 on) off C. Lewis; TEX, D. Murphy (inning: 2, 1 out, 0 on) off P. Hughes

The Yankees suffered their first postseason defeat in 2010, losing, 7-2, at Rangers Ballpark…snapped their 10-game playoff winning streak vs. Texas…was their first-ever postseason loss at Rangers Ballpark…allowed 12H, seven of which went for extra bases…SS Derek Jeter singled to reached base safely (via hit or walk) in his 21st consecutive postseason game (since 2007 ALDS Game 4 vs. Cleveland)…2B Robinson Cano scored both Yankees runs and recorded the Yankees' only multi-hit game with a double and his second HR in as many games…RHP Phil Hughes started and suffered the loss, allowing 7ER on 10H in 4.0IP (3BB, 3K, 1HR, 1WP)…tied for the third-most runs ever allowed by a Yankees starter in a postseason game.

TEXAS 10-STEP

The Yankees won 10 straight postseason games against Texas from 1996 ALDS Game 2 (10/2/96) through 2010 ALDS Game 1 (10/15/10), tying for the second-longest winning streak by one team over one opponent in postseason history (Boston defeated Los Angeles-AL: 11 straight games from 10/12/86-10/3/08; and Oakland defeated Boston: 10 straight games from 10/5/88-10/2/03).

GAME 3 – October 18 at Yankee Stadium

WP: Cliff Lee LP: Andy Pettitte SV: ---
HR: TEX, J. Hamilton (inning: 2, 1 out, 1 on) off A. Pettitte

The Yankees suffered their worst ever postseason shutout loss all time, falling 8-0, vs. Texas…Yankees batters recorded just 2H and struck out 15 times…marked the third time the Yankees were held to two or fewer hits in the playoffs (also 1958 WS Game 4 loss vs. Milwaukee and 2001 ALDS Game 3 win at Oakland)…matched the Yankees' most strikeouts in a nine-inning postseason game (also 10/2/63 in Game 1 of the WS vs. the Dodgers)…LHP Andy Pettitte suffered the loss, allowing 2ER in 7.0IP (5H, 0BB, 5K, 1HR)…snapped his stretch of nine straight undefeated postseason starts…both of his runs allowed came on a Josh Hamilton first-inning homer…retired 20 of his final 23 batters after the HR…C Jorge Posada and LF Brett Gardner accounted for both Yankees hits…1B Mark Teixeira (0-for-3) walked in the fourth, marking the Yankees' only other baserunner.

GAME 4 – October 19 at Yankee Stadium

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	-	R	H	E
TEX	0	0	2	0	0	3	2	0	3	-	10	13	0

WP: Derek Holland LP: A.J. Burnett SV: Darren Oliver
HR: NYY, R. Cano (inning: 2, 1 out, 0 on) off T. Hunter; TEX, B. Molina (inning: 6, 2 out, 2 on) off A. Burnett, J. Hamilton (inning: 7, 2 out, 0 on) off B. Logan, J. Hamilton (inning: 9, 0 out, 0 on) off S. Mitre, N. Cruz (inning: 9, 0 out, 1 on) off S. Mitre

The Yankees lost their third straight game, falling 10-3 vs. Texas…allowed 4HR, matching their most ever surrendered in a postseason game (seventh time, fourth time at home)…RHP A.J. Burnett recorded the loss in his only postseason start of 2010, allowing 5ER on 6H in 6.0IP (3BB, 4K, 1HR, 1WP, 1HP)…allowed just 2H (both singles) through his first 16 batters faced…2B Robinson Cano collected his fourth multi-hit game of the 2010 playoffs and homered for the third time in the series…SS Derek Jeter (2-for-5) doubled and tripled for the Yankees' only other extra-base hits in the game.

GAME 5 – October 20 at Yankee Stadium

NYY	0	3	2	0	1	0	0	1	x	-	7	9	0

WP: CC Sabathia LP: C.J. Wilson SV: ---
HR: NYY, N. Swisher (inning: 3, 0 out, 0 on) off C. Wilson, R. Cano (inning: 3, 0 out, 0 on) off C. Wilson, C. Granderson (inning: 8, 1 out, 0 on) off A. Ogando; TEX, M. Treanor (inning: 5, 0 out, 0 on) off C. Sabathia

The Yankees snapped their three-game losing streak with a 7-2 win vs. Texas at Yankee Stadium…LHP CC Sabathia (6.0IP, 11H, 2ER, 0BB, 7K, 1HR) became the sixth starting pitcher all time in postseason play to allow at least 11H and surrender two or fewer runs, the first since Boston's Bruce Hurst in Game 2 of the 1986 ALCS vs. the Angels…six different Yankees scored at least one run…the Yankees hit 3HR, matching their total from the first four games of the series…CF Curtis Granderson (3-for-4) doubled and homered…C Jorge Posada (2-for-4) had a second-inning RBI, marking the 42nd of his postseason career to tie Jim Edmonds for eighth all time.

GAME 6 – October 22 at Rangers Ballpark

TEX	1	0	0	0	4	0	1	0	x	-	6	7	0

HR: TEX, N. Cruz (inning: 5, 2 out, 1 on) off D. Robertson

The Yankees were eliminated from postseason play with a 6-1 loss at Rangers Ballpark…the Yankees did not record a hit until the fifth inning (Rodriguez double) and were held to just 3H overall…RHP Phil Hughes started and recorded his second loss of the ALCS, allowing 4ER in 4.2IP (4H, 4BB, 3K)…RHP Mariano Rivera (1.0IP) had his sixth scoreless outing of the 2010 postseason.

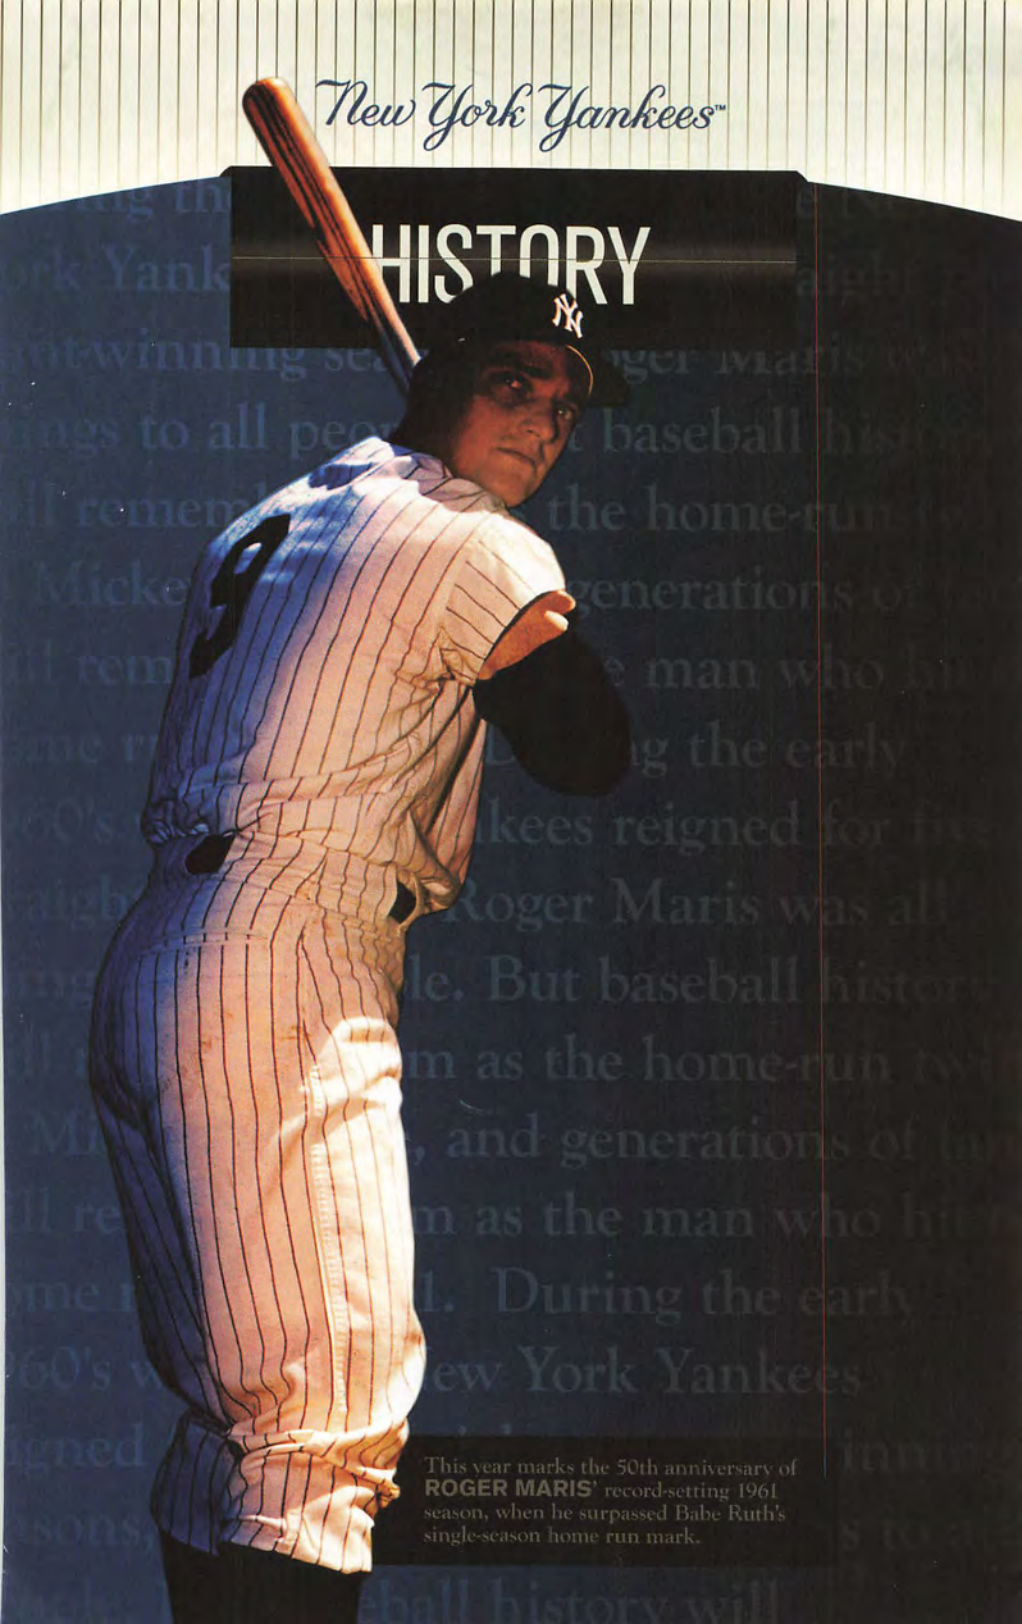
New York Yankees™

HISTORY



This year marks the 50th anniversary of ROGER MARIS' record-setting 1961 season, when he surpassed Babe Ruth's single-season home run mark.

History of the New York Yankees

The Yankees are Baseball's most storied franchise. With 27 World Championships and 40 American League pennants to its name, the Yankees stand alone in both categories.

The team's glorious history has surprisingly humble origins at the start of the previous century, when the upstart American League declared itself a Major League following the 1900 season. At that time, the league sought to place a team in New York for the 1901 campaign. But due to the political strength of the National League's New York Giants, the American League instead put a team in Baltimore, calling it the Orioles, with the intent to move it to New York as soon as possible.

Managed by John McGraw, the 1901 Orioles finished 68-65 and failed to draw substantial crowds. The following season, McGraw, fearing the team would relocate to New York without him in 1903, precipitated a midseason release from his contract. He immediately teamed with Giants owner Andrew Freedman and Cincinnati Reds owner John T. Brush, helping them acquire a majority interest in the Orioles. With control of Baltimore's players, the pair of owners decimated the squad, divvying up the players between them. On July 17, 1902, the Baltimore Orioles were left with five players on their roster and were forced to forfeit their game against the St. Louis Browns. The American League quickly stepped in and lent Baltimore players from other teams so they could finish the season.

Prior to the 1903 campaign, the two leagues reached a truce, part of which involved the National League agreeing to allow an American League team in New York City. Racehorse owner Frank Farrell and ex-New York chief of police Bill Devery purchased the remnants of the Baltimore franchise for $18,000 and reestablished it in upper Manhattan.

The New York Americans, as they were formally named, were New York City's third Major League team, joining the Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League. They played home games at American League Park, a hastily constructed all-wooden structure at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site was one of the highest spots in Manhattan, the team was commonly called the "Hilltoppers" or "Highlanders" and their home field "Hilltop Park." The club played its inaugural game on April 22, 1903, at Washington, losing 3-1 to the Senators. The next day, they defeated the Senators, 7-2, recording the very first win in franchise history.

Led by future Hall of Famers Jack Chesboro, Clark Griffith and Wee Willie Keeler, the Highlanders finished with a 72-62 record, 17.0 games out of first place. They nearly captured the American League pennant in 1904—finishing 1.5 games behind the Boston Pilgrims—as Chesboro went 41-12 with a 1.82 ERA in 454.2 innings pitched, setting a modern-era (since 1900) record with his win total. That season marked the first of three second-place finishes for the club between 1904 and 1910.

After a spectacular fire severely damaged the Polo Grounds in 1911, the Highlanders' owners invited the Giants to share Hilltop Park until their home could be rebuilt. Two years later, the Giants returned the favor and allowed the Highlanders to become tenants in their rebuilt and vastly superior facility. With the move in 1913, the Highlanders officially changed their name to "Yankees," by which they had actually been known for most of their history.

The 1927 Yankees were known as "Murderers' Row."

From 1911 to 1919, the Yankees won as many as 80 games in a season only twice. But three key moves—the January 11, 1915, purchase of the ballclub by Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston, the 1918 hiring of Manager Miller Huggins by Ruppert (without Huston's blessing) and the 1919 midseason trade for right-handed pitcher Carl Mays (26 wins in 1920 and 27 wins in 1921)—set the stage for the most course-altering transaction in baseball history.

On January 3, 1920, the Yankees purchased the contract of George Herman "Babe" Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $125,000 and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

Ruth's impact was immediate. The Yankees won 95 games in 1920, their highest victory total up to that point, then captured their first American League pennant a year later. With the Babe hitting 54 home runs in 1920—more than any other team in the American League—Yankees attendance at the Polo Grounds doubled to 1,289,422. In 1921, the Giants, being outdrawn in their own park, asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. Now bitter rivals, the two teams squared off in the World Series in 1921 and 1922 with the Giants winning on both occasions.

Though he came up on the wrong end in both Series, Yankees pitcher—and 1969 Hall of Fame inductee—Waite Hoyt allowed just one earned run over 35.0 combined innings over the two Fall Classics. Remarkably, he went 2-2 in his five appearances (four starts), including a 1-0, Series-clinching loss (on an unearned run) in Game 8 of the 1921 best-of-nine championship.

With their departure from the Polo Grounds inevitable, the Yankees' owners set out to build a ballpark of their own. Designed to be baseball's first triple-decked structure with an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first baseball facility to be labeled a "stadium."

Construction began on May 5, 1922, and in only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox. An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium for a glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Appropriately, Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees won, 4-1.

Playing in their new stadium, the Yankees won the American League by 16.0 games in 1923, using just eight pitchers all season. Each of their five starters—Bob Shawkey, Joe Bush, Waite Hoyt, Sam Jones and Herb Pennock—won at least 16 games. Yet it was Ruth's tremendous power that people were coming to see, and Yankee Stadium quickly became known as "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series at the structure, and the Yankees won their first World Championship over their former landlord, the Giants.

On June 1, 1925, in a 5-3 loss vs. Washington, Huggins inserted a 21-year-old rookie first baseman as a pinch-hitter for light-hitting shortstop Paul "Pee Wee" Wanninger. No one could have imagined at the time that this appearance would be the first of 2,130 consecutive games played by Lou Gehrig, who, with Ruth and later Joe DiMaggio, anchored some of the greatest ballclubs of all time.

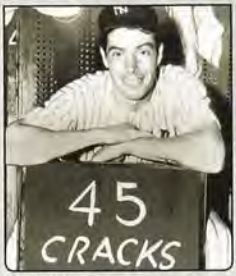
After a tough loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1926 World Series, the Yankees rolled to World Championships in both 1927 and 1928, sweeping Pittsburgh and St. Louis, respectively. The 1927 club, the second Yankees team to be labeled "Murderers' Row" (the first was the 1919 squad), is often the yardstick by which team greatness is measured. During that season, Ruth broke his own single-season home run record (previously 59 in 1921) with his 60th on September 30, 1927, off Washington's Tom Zachary. Gehrig also added 47 homers and 175 RBI.

In his 15 seasons in pinstripes, Ruth helped build a winning tradition with seven American League pennants and four World Championships (also 1932). He finished his unparalleled career with 714 home runs (including 49 with the Red Sox from 1914-19 and six with the Boston Braves in 1935), 12 American League home run titles and six RBI crowns, including five seasons with more than 150 RBI. A charter member of Baseball's Hall of Fame, he remains widely regarded as the greatest player of all time.

Throughout Ruth's time in pinstripes, he often overshadowed the soft-spoken, Manhattan-born Gehrig. Yet the "Iron Horse" posted incredible numbers in his own right. From 1926 through 1938, Gehrig drove in at least 112 runs each season. A member of six World Championship clubs (1927-28, 1932, 1936-38), he finished with a .340 lifetime batting average and 493 career home runs in just 8,001 at-bats. He was the AL's starting first baseman in each of the first five Major League Baseball All-Star Games, and in 1934, he became the first of two Yankees in franchise history (also Mickey Mantle in 1956) to win the Triple Crown, hitting .363 with a career-best 49 homers and 165 RBI. He also still holds the American League record for RBI in a single season with 184 in 1931.

Lou Gehrig

After the 1934 season, Ruth's last in New York, the Yankees purchased the contract of a budding star named Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League. Two years later, DiMaggio made his debut in pinstripes and helped the Yankees to an incredible string of four consecutive World Championships under Manager Joe McCarthy from 1936 through 1939. The 1930s also produced one of the game's greatest lefty-righty pitching combinations in future Hall of Famers Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing. A four-time 20-game winner—including 24-7 in 1932 and 26-5 in 1934—Gomez posted a 6-0 record over five World Series. Ruffing, who was acquired in May 1930 from the Boston Red Sox for outfielder Cedric Durst and $50,000, had been 39-96 with the Red Sox since his 1924 rookie season. After coming to the Yankees, however, he forged a legacy worthy of Cooperstown, going 231-124 in pinstripes while posting 20, 20, 21 and 21 wins on the four World Championship clubs from 1936 through 1939. He was also an exceptionally good hitter for a pitcher, totaling 36 career home runs and a .269 lifetime batting average.



Joe DiMaggio

From 1931 through part of the 1946 season, the Yankees were led by McCarthy, who compiled a Yankees-record 1,460 wins in his time at the helm. Having also spent time leading the Chicago Cubs (1926-1930) and the Boston Red Sox (1948-50), he stands at eighth place on the all-time managerial wins list with 2,125 victories. With the Yankees, he reached eight World Series (1932, 1936-39, 1941-43), winning a World Championship in all but one—the 1942 Fall Classic against St. Louis.

Sadly, in 1939, Gehrig was diagnosed with a crippling disease, eventually determined to be amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), and his streak of playing in 2,130 consecutive games came to an end on May 2, when he took himself out of the lineup prior to the Yankees' 22-2 win at Detroit. He never played in a Major League game again.

On July 4 of the same season, the Yankees honored their captain with an emotional Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day at Yankee Stadium, and his uniform No. 4 became the first in Baseball to be retired. He died on June 2, 1941.

With Gehrig's retirement, DiMaggio became the pillar of the next generation of Yankees champions. In his 13 seasons in pinstripes (1936-42 and '46-51), DiMaggio made the AL All-Star team every year, and his club played in the World Series in all but three years (1940, '46, '48), winning nine World Series titles. Along the way, he tallied three AL MVP Awards (1939, '41, '47) and batted .324 over his career, marking the third-highest average in franchise history. The legendary "Yankee Clipper" compiled one of the game's most remarkable—and perhaps unbreakable—records in 1941, when he hit safely in an all-time-best 56 consecutive games.

DiMaggio's retirement after the 1951 season at the age of 37 was made easier by the emergence of Mickey Mantle, who played side-by-side with DiMaggio in the outfield in the Yankee Clipper's final campaign. With contributions from future Hall of Famers Yogi Berra, Whitey Ford and Phil Rizzuto, the Yankees were nearly unstoppable from the late 1940s through the early 1960s. Manager Casey Stengel sublimely handled the Yankees juggernaut following his surprising appointment prior to the 1949 season as the club marched to an all-time record five consecutive World Series titles from 1949 through 1953.

His emphasis on platooning players (often to their chagrin) allowed him to exploit matchups in a way not emphasized in his era. Nicknamed "The Old Perfessor," with a vernacular called "Stengelese," he remains one of the most colorful personalities in the game's history. In 12 seasons as manager of the Yankees, he brought his club to the World Series 10 times, winning on seven occasions (also 1956 and 1958).

Lefty Gomez

Mantle would achieve greatness despite suffering from osteomyelitis (a painful inflammatory bone disease) and numerous other injuries. The powerful switch-hitter belted 536 home runs, collected 2,415 hits and batted .300 or higher 10 times in an 18-year career. In his first 14 seasons in pinstripes (1951-64), the Yankees missed the World Series only twice (1954 and 1959) and won the Fall Classic seven times. With his .353 batting average, 52 homers and 130 RBI in 1956, he remains the last Yankees player to win the Triple Crown.

Ford, who played his whole career in pinstripes, is the Yankees' all-time wins leader. His lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the second-best career winning percentage (.690) of any modern-era (since 1900) pitcher with 100 or more decisions, trailing only career-Yankee Spud Chandler (.717, 109-43). Ford paced the American League in victories three times and in ERA and shutouts twice. He still holds many World Series records, including those for wins (10), consecutive scoreless innings (33.0) and strikeouts (94).

The heart of the Yankees for 18 seasons, Berra played on an incredible 14 pennant winners and 10 World Championship teams—a record number for any individual player in Baseball history. He is one of only 10 players in Major League history to win three MVP Awards, and he was selected to the All-Star team in every season from 1948 through 1962.

Mickey Mantle [L] and Roger Maris

Rizzuto played on 10 pennant winners and eight World Series championship teams from 1941 through 1956, capturing the league's MVP award in 1950, batting .324 with 200 hits and 125 runs scored. Eventually elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1994, he gave one of the most memorable induction speeches in the history of the ceremony.

Not every notable Yankee was a future Hall of Famer. In Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium, right-hander Don Larsen authored one of the game's greatest pitching performances when he retired all 27 Dodger batters for the only perfect game in World Series history.

The Yankees opened the 1960s winning pennants in the first five seasons (1960-64) and World Series titles in 1961 and 1962. Incredibly, in the 29 seasons from 1936 to 1964, the Yankees won 22 pennants and 16 World Championships. The 1961 club is still regarded as one of the best teams in Baseball history. With Mantle and Roger Maris embroiled in a season-long race to break Ruth's single-season home run record, the Yankees rolled to 109 wins en route to a World Championship. Maris broke Ruth's record when he belted his 61st home run on October 1 off Boston's Tracy Stallard at Yankee Stadium in the last game of the season.

Age finally caught up with the ballclub after a seven-game Series loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1964. The Yankees would finish above fourth place just once in the next nine seasons and actually fell to last place in 1966 for the first time in 53 years.

The team's fall from grace ended on January 2, 1973, when it was sold by CBS to a group headed by George M. Steinbrenner III. With the addition of Catfish Hunter, Baseball's first marquee free agent, shrewd trades that brought Ed Figueroa, Mickey Rivers, Chris Chambliss and Willie Randolph to the club, and a strong nucleus that included Thurman Munson, Graig Nettles, Roy White and Sparky Lyle, the Yankees returned to the postseason in 1976, ending an 11-year drought (1965-1975) by winning their first American League East title. Then on October 14, 1976, in the deciding Game 5 of the AL Championship Series vs. Kansas City, Chambliss launched a ninth-inning, pennant-winning home run to put the Yankees back in the World Series.

This newfound success took place in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. The 1974 and '75 Yankees played in Shea Stadium for two years while vast improvements were made to the original Yankee Stadium (for more details, see "History of Original Yankee Stadium").

After a disheartening four-game sweep by the Cincinnati Reds in the 1976 World Series, the Yankees introduced Reggie Jackson—the most prolific slugger of his era—as the club's newest free-agent acquisition. Jackson capped an exciting 1977 season with one of baseball's greatest individual performances. In the Game 6 World Series-clinching win vs. Los Angeles at Yankee Stadium, "Mr. October" belted three home runs on three swings of the bat to join Babe Ruth as the only players to hit three home runs in a single World Series game.

In 1978, the Yankees overcame a 14.0-game deficit in the American League East to force a one-game playoff with the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park to decide the American League pennant. Shortstop Bucky Dent erased a 2-0, seventh-inning Red Sox lead with a dramatic three-run homer, and the Yankees went on to a 5-4 win en route to a second straight World Championship over the Dodgers.

The 1978 season also saw the emergence of Ron Guidry as one the franchise's greatest pitchers. A four-time American League All-Star, Guidry compiled one of the most dominating seasons in baseball history while becoming known as "Louisiana Lightning." He went 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA in leading the Yankees to their dramatic comeback, compiling a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the AL Cy Young Award recipient. On June 17, 1978 vs. the California Angels at Yankee Stadium, Guidry set a club record by striking out 18 batters. A five-time Gold Glove Award winner, Guidry also racked up 20-win seasons in 1983 (21-9) and 1985 (22-6).

The 1970s ended with tragedy. Thurman Munson, the Yankees' first captain since Gehrig, was killed when his private jet crashed on August 2, 1979. Only 32 years old at the time of his death, Munson was the undisputed leader of the clubs that won three consecutive pennants and two World Championships. After the captain's death, the Yankees would make only one more World Series appearance (1981) in the next 17 years despite compiling the best record in the Major Leagues during the 1980s.

During this period, Don Mattingly became one of the most popular players in franchise history, batting .307 in a 14-year career (1982-95) played entirely in pinstripes. He compiled an incredible six-year stretch from 1984 through 1989, in which he batted .327 and topped 100 RBI five times, including a career-high 145 in 1985, when he captured the AL MVP Award. A year earlier, he outdueled teammate Dave Winfield for the 1984 AL batting crown (.343 to .340), going 4-for-5 on the final day of the season. His performance and loyalty were recognized when he was named the 10th captain in Yankees history from 1991-95.

Thurman Munson, Goose Gossage

Winfield, who came to the Yankees as the game's most sought-after free agent in 1981, compiled Hall of Fame credentials in his eight-plus seasons in pinstripes (1981-90). With the Yankees, he belted 205 home runs with 818 RBI and won five Gold Glove Awards.

After a 13-year absence (1982-94), the Yankees returned to postseason play in 1995 as the American League's first-ever "Wild Card" entry. A heart-wrenching five-game loss to the Seattle Mariners in the Division Series marked the start of a 13-year run of consecutive postseason appearances (1995-2007), a record topped only by the Atlanta Braves' 14-season streak (1991-93, 1995-2005).

In 1996 under new skipper Joe Torre, the Yankees returned to the World Series against Atlanta, coming back from an 0-2 deficit to win four straight games, including Games 3, 4 and 5 in Atlanta. Following a Division Series exit in 1997, the Yankees won three straight World titles from 1998 through 2000, giving them four championships in five years. Their 114 victories in 1998 shattered the 44-year-old American League mark of 111 wins set by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (since broken by Seattle in 2001) and their 125 total victories, including 11 postseason wins, remains the highest single-season total in baseball history.

Rudy Giuliani, George Steinbrenner and Joe Torre

In the last two decades since the signing of non-drafted free agent Bernie Williams in 1991, the Yankees farm system has produced All-Stars Robinson Cano, Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Phil Hughes, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera. In addition, trades and free-agent acquisitions have brought such All-Stars as Wade Boggs, Scott Brosius, David Cone, Jimmy Key, Tino Martinez, Hideki Matsui and Mike Mussina to the Bronx. Another of those players, Paul O'Neill, acquired in a November 3, 1992, trade with Cincinnati, became adored by Yankees fans for his intense and gritty approach. Winner of the 1994 batting title (.359) and often described as a "warrior," he is typically thought of as the heart and soul of the club's turn-of-the-century success.

In 2001, the Yankees fell just shy of becoming the second team in history to win four consecutive World Series titles, but they nevertheless captured the hearts of the nation in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of September 11. The Yankees dropped the first two games of the Series at the Arizona Diamondbacks' Bank One Ballpark but rallied to win the next three at Yankee Stadium behind dramatic ninth-inning comebacks in both Games 4 and 5. On consecutive nights, Martinez and Brosius erased two-run, ninth-inning Diamondbacks leads with home runs, and the Yankees won both games in extra innings. It was in Game 4 that Jeter earned his "Mr. November" nickname with a 10th-inning "walk-off" home run. The victories marked the first time in World Series history that a team won two games in the same Series when trailing by at least two runs in the ninth inning.

Scott Brosius hits a two-run, ninth-inning, game-tying homer in Game 5 of the 2001 World Series vs. Arizona.

No one personifies the Yankees' success since 1996 more than Jeter, who was a rookie on that squad. Heading into the 2011 season, his 2,926 hits make him Baseball's active hit leader, and his personal career winning percentage of .601 (1,379-914-2) is the best among active Major League players who have played in a minimum of 1,000 games. In 2009, he further cemented his legacy by becoming the Yankees' all-time hits leader (2,747), passing Lou Gehrig (2,721), who had held the mark since 1937. Jeter has also recorded seven 200-hit seasons and is one of two players in franchise history along with Gehrig (eight) with as many as four. In fact, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, no other player has had as many as four 200-hit seasons while playing at least 100 games at shortstop per year.

Posada and Rivera have crafted special places for themselves in the annals of the franchise. Posada, a 24th-round selection in the 1990 First-Year Player Draft, is one of six catchers in Major League history to hit at least 20 home runs in eight seasons while playing a minimum of 50 percent of his games behind the plate. Known for his toughness and durability, the Puerto Rico-born backstop started at least 120 games in eight consecutive seasons from 2000-07. Rivera, with 559 career saves going into 2011, ranks second on Baseball's all-time list behind only Trevor Hoffman (601). His reputation has been cemented by postseason excellence, which includes an 8-1 record and 0.71 ERA in 94 career postseason games (139.2 innings pitched). His Major League-leading 42 career postseason saves is almost as many as the totals of the second, third and fourth place pitchers on the list combined (44). Additionally, his 2.23 career ERA is the second-lowest all time among pitchers with at least 1.000.0IP since ERA was made an official statistic in 1912 in NL and 1913 in AL (Eddie Cicotte 2.20).

In 2004, the organization acquired Alex Rodriguez in a trade from the Texas Rangers. Since his arrival in the Bronx, the now 13-time All-Star transitioned to a new position at third base and was voted the AL MVP in 2005 and 2007, while becoming the seventh—and youngest—player in baseball history reach the 600-home run plateau in 2007.

Former Yankees catcher Joe Girardi was named the 32nd manager in franchise history on October 30, 2007, heading into the final year of the original Yankee Stadium. The 2008 season was full of nostalgia, and notable events included the third Papal Mass in Stadium history on April 20 and a 15-inning, 4-3 American League victory in the All-Star Game on July 15. Though the Yankees played their last-ever home game in the original Stadium on September 21, defeating the Baltimore Orioles, 7-3, the drama of the season didn't end until its final day as Mike Mussina earned a win in the first game of a doubleheader over Boston at Fenway Park to become the oldest first-time 20-game winner in baseball history.

The 2009 season proved nothing short of storybook material as the club finished the inaugural season in the newly-constructed Yankee Stadium with the best regular season record in the Majors (103-59) and a six-game World Series win over the Phillies. The 2009 season featured 15 "walk-off" wins along with an all-time Major League-record 18-consecutive errorless games from May 14 through June 1. Free-agent acquisitions CC Sabathia (19 wins), A.J. Burnett (13 wins) and Mark Teixeira (second in AL MVP voting, 39 homers, 122 RBI) each played major roles in the club's success.

The most recent season, 2010, will be sadly remembered for the passings of Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III and longtime public address announcer Bob Sheppard.

On the field, the season marked the 15th time in the last 16 years (since 1995) that the Yankees had made the postseason. Looking forward, the Yankees will continue to concentrate on procuring and nurturing young talent. Pitcher Phil Hughes and second baseman Robinson Cano are illustrative of the team's commitment to youth and international scouting. With the 2011 season at hand, the Yankees will strive toward the singular goal of bringing a 28th championship back to the Bronx.

History of the Yankees Uniform

When the Yankees (then "Highlanders") first took the field for their inaugural season in 1903, their uniforms did not resemble the iconic style for which they are known today. A large ornate "N" decorated one breast and a large ornate "Y" the other. Two years later for the 1905 season, the "N" and "Y" were merged side by side into a monogram on the left breast, creating a forerunner of the now legendary emblem.

It wasn't until 1909 that the most recognizable insignia in sports—the interlocking "NY"—made its first appearance on the caps and left sleeves of Highlanders uniforms. The design was created in 1877 by Tiffany & Co. for a medal to be given by the New York City Police Department to Officer John McDowell, the first NYC policeman shot in the line of duty. Perhaps because one of the club's owners, Bill Devery, was a former NYC police chief, the design was adopted by the organization. The familiar "NY" eventually migrated from the left sleeve to the left breast of home uniforms from 1912-16, albeit in a larger version than is currently worn today.

In 1912, their final season at Hilltop Park, the Yankees (as they were commonly known by then) made a fashionable debut at their April 11 home opener by wearing pinstripes for the first time in their history. The club was not the first team to wear pinstripes (eight of Baseball's other 15 teams had already worn them at some point), and they would actually abandon the look in the following two seasons (1913-14). By 1915, though, home pinstripes were back for good.

Jack Chesbro models the franchise's earliest "NY" design in 1903.

In 1917, the Yankees removed the "NY" monogram from the jersey and went with a plain, pinstripes-only look. The "NY" remained off the uniform—except for the cap—for the next 20 years until it was reinstated in 1936. Babe Ruth, whose Yankees career spanned 1920-1934, played his entire Yankees career without ever wearing the club's now-legendary insignia on his jersey.

The Yankees utilized numerous cap designs from 1903 until 1921—including pinstripes in 1915, '16, '19 and '21—until they finally settled on a solid navy cap with the interlocking "NY" insignia in 1922.

The club's road uniforms have remained relatively unchanged since 1918—solid grey with "NEW YORK" in block letters across the chest. The notable exception was from 1927-30, when "NEW YORK" was replaced by "YANKEES." In 1973, with the introduction of more breathable double-knit uniforms, Yankees road jerseys added navy-and-white banded trim to the cuffs of the sleeves as well as white shadowing behind the jersey lettering.

Babe Ruth sports the pinstriped-cap look of 1921.

The home uniform remains the Yankees' signature look. With the exception of minor alterations—including bolder pinstripes in the 1940s—it has remained mostly unchanged for more than 70 years.

For the 2008 season, the Yankees wore an All-Star Game patch on their left sleeve and a Yankee Stadium Final Season tribute patch on their right sleeve. In 2009, the club wore a patch on their left sleeve and one on the back of their cap, each to commemorate the inaugural season of Yankee Stadium. And most recently, in 2010, the club wore a "GMS" patch above the NY logo on their jersey front to honor the passing of Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III, as well as a patch on their left sleeve as a tribute to the passing of Bob Sheppard. They also wore a black armband on the left sleeve to remember the passing of Ralph Houk.

Origin of Numbered Uniforms

Numbers first appeared on Major League uniforms on June 26, 1916, when the Cleveland Indians wore large numerals on their left sleeves in an experiment that lasted just a few weeks. Another brief trial by Cleveland the next season and a similar sleeve trial by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1923 both proved temporary. It wasn't until the 1929 season that another attempt was made, as both Cleveland and the New York Yankees began their seasons with numbers as a permanent part of their respective uniforms. Though the Yankees are typically credited as being the team with the longest-standing such policy, it should be noted that the Indians began their season two days earlier than the Bombers, as the Yankees' April 16 Opening Day contest was rained out.

The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees roster was made according to the player's position in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1, Mark Koenig No. 2, Babe Ruth No. 3, Lou Gehrig No. 4, Bob Meusel No. 5, Tony Lazzeri No. 6, Leo Durocher No. 7, Johnny Grabowski No. 8, Benny Bengough No. 9 and Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties). By the mid-1930s, other teams adopted the idea, and uniform numbers became the standard for all teams.

Important Dates in Yankees History

Hilltop Park, first home of the Yankees

Jan. 9, 1903 - Frank Farrell and Bill Devery purchase the defunct Baltimore franchise of the American League for $18,000, then move the team to Manhattan.

March 12, 1903 - The New York franchise is approved as a member of the American League. The team will play in a hastily constructed, wooden ballpark at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site is one of the highest spots in Manhattan, their home field is referred to as "Hilltop Park."

April 22, 1903 - The Highlanders (as the Yankees were commonly known then) play their first game, a 3-1 loss at Washington.

April 23, 1903 - Pitcher Harry Howell records the first victory in franchise history, a 7-2 win at Washington.

April 30, 1903 - The Highlanders notch a 6-2 win vs. Washington in their inaugural home opener at Hilltop Park.

April 11, 1912 - Pinstripes first appear on Highlanders uniforms, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports.

April 1913 - The Highlanders are officially renamed "Yankees" after moving to the Polo Grounds, home of the National League's New York Giants.

Jan. 11, 1915 - Col. Jacob Ruppert and Col. Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston purchase the Yankees for $465,000.

April 24, 1917 - George Mogridge becomes the first Yankee to throw a no-hitter in a 2-1 win at Fenway Park.

Jan. 3, 1920 - The Yankees purchase the contract of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $125,000 and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

Oct. 5, 1921 - The Yankees play the first postseason game in franchise history, as Carl Mays tosses a complete game shutout to defeat the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds in Game 1 of the World Series.

May 5, 1922 - Construction begins on Yankee Stadium.

May 21, 1922 - Col. Ruppert buys out Col. Huston for $1.5 million.

April 18, 1923 - Yankee Stadium opens with a 4-1 win over the Boston Red Sox before an announced crowd of 74,200. Babe Ruth hits the Stadium's first home run.

Oct. 15, 1923 - The Yankees defeat the New York Giants, 6-4, at the Polo Grounds in Game 6 of the World Series, clinching the first World Championship in franchise history.

June 1, 1925 - Lou Gehrig begins his record streak of 2,130 consecutive games played, pinch-hitting for "Pee Wee" Wanniger in a 5-3 loss to Washington at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 6, 1926 - Babe Ruth becomes the first player to hit three home runs in a single World Series game in Game 4 at St. Louis.

June 23, 1927 - In an 11-4 Yankees win at Fenway Park, Lou Gehrig become the first (of two) players in franchise history to hit 3HR in a single game against the Red Sox (also see May 8, 2010).

Sept. 30, 1927 - Babe Ruth breaks his own single-season Major League record by hitting his 60th home run (off Tom Zachary) in a 4-2 win over Washington at Yankee Stadium.

April 20, 1928 - Yankee Stadium's left field stands are enlarged to three decks.

Oct. 9, 1928 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. the Cardinals at St. Louis' Sportsman's Park, Babe Ruth hits three home runs, marking his second three-homer World Series game.

April 18, 1929 - The Yankees wear numbered uniforms for the first time in their history, two days after the Cleveland Indians permanently adopt them as well (Numbers would become standard for all teams by 1932).

Sept. 24, 1929 - The Yankees celebrate Babe Ruth Day at Fenway Park by winning, 5-3, over Boston. Ruth goes 2-for-3 with a double and Tom Zachary (pitching for the Yankees) records his final decision of the season, improving to 12-0, still a Major League record for most wins in a season without a loss.

Origin of the Names "Highlanders" and "Yankees"

When the American League moved the Baltimore Orioles to New York for the 1903 season, the club made its home at 168th Street and Broadway, one of the highest spots in Manhattan. As a result, the team became known as the "Hilltoppers" and their field "Hilltop Park," even though their formal team name was "New York Americans" and formal ballpark name "American League Park."

The name "Highlanders," as the team of that era is most-popularly remembered today, also started in the club's formative years. It originated not only as a nod to their elevated Manhattan perch, but also as a reference to club president Joseph W. Gordon, whose last name conjured up thoughts of the famous British army unit, the Gordon Highlanders.

Other nicknames for the team were "Porch Climbers," "Burglars," and "Invaders"—all three usually reserved for writers sympathetic to the New York Giants, who held lingering animosity at having American League competition in such close proximity.

As early as 1904, however, the name "Yankees" became common in the press. The earliest known use was in an April 7, 1904, article in the New York Evening Journal that bore the headline "YANKEES WILL START HOME FROM SOUTH TODAY," which was published following a successful spring training spent in the Southern U.S. A week later, the same newspaper's coverage of Opening Day was headlined "YANKEES BEAT BOSTON," and the term also appeared in the article's lead sentence.

"Yankees" was a natural fit given the club's formal name, but likely owes its success to newspaper typesetters and editors grateful for a team name with fewer letters than "Highlanders" or "Hilltoppers." When the franchise moved from Hilltop Park to the Polo Grounds in 1913, it officially changed its name to "New York Yankees."

Sept. 25, 1929 - Manager Miller Huggins, who guided the Yankees to their first six AL pennants and three World Championships, dies of blood poisoning.

June 3, 1932 - Lou Gehrig becomes the first player to hit four home runs in a single game in the Yankees' 20-13 win at Philadelphia. The news is overshadowed by the retirement announcement of New York Giants Manager John McGraw. Gehrig remains the only Yankee to hit four home runs in one game.

Aug. 13, 1932 - Red Ruffing throws a complete game shutout and hits a 10th-inning solo home run off Washington Senators pitcher Al Thomas, giving the Yankees a 1-0 victory at Griffith Stadium. Though not the first to do so, no Major League pitcher has since thrown a complete game shutout and hit a home run in a 1-0 game.

Oct. 1, 1932 - In the fifth inning of the Yankees' 7-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field in Game 3 of the World Series, Babe Ruth gestures toward the bleachers before hitting his second home run of the game. Though Lou Gehrig also hits two homers that day, the game will be remembered for Ruth's much-debated "called shot."

June 6, 1934 - Myril Hoag goes 6-for-6 in a 15-3, nine-inning win in Game 1 of a doubleheader at Boston, becoming the first of only two Yankees to go 6-for-6 in a single game (see June 7, 2008 - Johnny Damon).

Joe DiMaggio

Nov. 21, 1934 - The Yankees purchase Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League for $50,000.

May 24, 1936 - Tony Lazzeri hits three home runs (including two grand slams) and a triple, setting a still-standing AL record with 11 RBI in a single game in a 25-2 win at Philadelphia.

April 20, 1937 - The Yankees' 15th season at Yankee Stadium opens with the right-field stands enlarged to three decks. Wooden bleachers are replaced by a concrete structure, and the distance to center field drops from 490 feet to 461 feet.

May 30, 1938 - A franchise-record crowd of 81,841 attends a doubleheader sweep of the Boston Red Sox at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 27, 1938 - Monte Pearson authors the first Yankee Stadium no-hitter by a Yankee, defeating Cleveland, 13-0, in Game 2 of a doubleheader.

May 2, 1939 - Lou Gehrig's playing streak of 2,130 consecutive games ends when he does not make an appearance in a 22-2 Yankees win at Detroit. Babe Dahlgren plays first base for the Yankees and contributes a double and a home run.

July 4, 1939 - "Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day" is held at Yankee Stadium in between games of a doubleheader vs. Washington. His uniform No. 4 is the first to be retired in Major League Baseball. Gehrig makes his famous "luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech.

May 15, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak begins with a single off Edgar Smith in a 13-1 loss vs. Chicago at Yankee Stadium.

June 2, 1941 - Lou Gehrig dies of Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis at the age of 37 in the Riverdale section of the Bronx.

July 17, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's consecutive-game hitting streak ends at 56 when he goes 0-for-3 in a 4-3 Yankees win at Cleveland. Indians third baseman Ken Keltner twice robs DiMaggio of hits with great fielding plays. DiMaggio hits safely in his next 16 games, giving him hits in 72 of 73 games.

Jan. 25, 1945 - Dan Topping, Del Webb and Larry MacPhail purchase the Yankees for $2.8 million from the estate of the late Col. Jacob Ruppert. MacPhail replaces Ed Barrow as President and General Manager.

May 28, 1946 - The first night game is played at Yankee Stadium, a 2-1 loss vs. Washington before 49,917 fans.

April 27, 1947 - "Babe Ruth Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and throughout Major League Baseball.

June 13, 1948 - Babe Ruth's uniform No. 3 is retired at Yankee Stadium's 25th Anniversary celebration. The visit marks the Babe's final Stadium appearance.

Aug. 16, 1948 - Babe Ruth dies of throat cancer in New York at age 53.

Oct. 12, 1948 - The Yankees announce that Casey Stengel will replace Bucky Harris as manager.

Oct. 1-2, 1949 - The Yankees come back from a one-game deficit with two games to play, defeating the Boston Red Sox in the final two games of the season at Yankee Stadium, 5-4 and 5-3, respectively, marking the first of five consecutive American League pennants.

Oct. 5, 1949 - In Game 1 of the World Series vs. Brooklyn at Yankee Stadium, Tommy Henrich breaks up a scoreless pitchers' duel between the Yankees' Allie Reynolds and the Dodgers' Don Newcombe, hitting a game-winning solo home run in the bottom of the ninth.

April 17, 1951 - Mickey Mantle makes his Major League debut, going 1-for-4 in a 5-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. The game also marks Bob Sheppard's first as Yankees public-address announcer. Boston's Dom DiMaggio is the first hitter announced.

Sept. 28, 1951 - In an 8-0 Game 1 win in a doubleheader vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Allie Reynolds becomes the second of four players in Baseball history to toss two no-hitters in the same season (also Johnny Vander Meer in 1938, Virgil Trucks in 1952 and Nolan Ryan in 1973). Reynolds had previously no-hit the Indians at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium on July 12 in a 1-0 win.

Dec. 12, 1951 - Joe DiMaggio officially announces his retirement.

April 17, 1953 - Exactly two years after his Yankees debut, Mickey Mantle hits what is recognized as the game's first "tape-measure" home run, a 565-foot shot off the Senators' Chuck Stobbs at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

Oct. 5, 1953 - Billy Martin singles home the winning run in the ninth inning of a 4-3, Game 6 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. The win clinches the Yankees' fifth-consecutive World Championship.

Oct. 4, 1955 - Brooklyn's Johnny Podres outduels Yankees starter Tommy Byrne and two relievers, 2-0, clinching the Dodgers' first World Series Championship. The World Series loss snaps the Yankees' string of seven consecutive team appearances in the Fall Classic without losing a Series (1943, '47, '49-53). It also marks the Yankees' first World Series loss to Brooklyn after wins in 1941, '47, '49, '52 and '53.

May 30, 1956 - Batting against Pedro Ramos in Game 1 of a doubleheader vs. Washington, Mickey Mantle nearly hits a home run out of Yankee Stadium, with the ball striking the upper deck frieze in right field.

Oct. 8, 1956 - Don Larsen hurls the only perfect game in World Series history, a 2-0 win over Brooklyn in Game 5 at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 10, 1956 - Johnny Kucks pitches a complete game shutout, defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field, 9-0, to win Game 7 of the World Series.

April 22, 1959 - Whitey Ford pitches a 1-0, 14-inning complete game shutout at Washington, allowing just seven hits and striking out 15.

Oct. 8, 1960 - Second baseman Bobby Richardson sets an all-time World Series record (since tied by Hideki Matsui on 11/4/09 in Game 6 vs. Philadelphia) with 6RBI in Game 3 of the World Series vs. Pittsburgh, hitting a grand slam in the first inning and two-run single in the fourth inning of a 10-0 Yankees win.

Oct. 1, 1961 - Roger Maris hits his 61st home run in the season's final game, establishing a then-Major League record and still-standing AL record.

June 24, 1962 - Jack Reed's two-run, 22nd-inning home run ends the longest game in Yankees history, a 9-7 win at Detroit.

Oct. 16, 1962 - In Game 7 of the World Series, superb fielding from outfielder Roger Maris holds Matty Alou at third base after a two-out, ninth-inning Willie Mays double. Bobby Richardson then snares a screaming line drive off the bat of Willie McCovey for the game's final out, securing a 1-0, Series-clinching victory over the San Francisco Giants at Candlestick Park. New York scores the game's only run when Tony Kubek grounds into a fifth-inning double play. It would be the last championship for the Yankees for 15 seasons.

May 22, 1963 - In an 8-7, 11-inning win vs. the Kansas City A's, Mickey Mantle hits the upper deck frieze in right field for the second time in his career, this time off righthander Bill Fischer.

Nov. 2, 1964 - CBS purchases 80 percent of the Yankees for $11.2 million. The network later buys the remaining 20 percent.

May 14, 1967 – Mickey Mantle becomes only the sixth player—and second Yankee—to reach the 500 home run plateau, when he connects off Baltimore's Stu Miller at Yankee Stadium.

June 8, 1969 - "Mickey Mantle Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and his uniform No. 7 is retired.

June 24, 1970 - Bobby Murcer hits home runs in four consecutive at-bats over two games of a doubleheader vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 8, 1972 - The Yankees sign a 30-year lease to play in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. Completion is scheduled for 1976.

Jan. 3, 1973 - A limited partnership, headed by George M. Steinbrenner III as its managing general partner, purchases the Yankees for a net price of $8.7 million from CBS.

April 6, 1974 - The Yankees begin the first of two seasons at Shea Stadium as Yankee Stadium is remodeled. The Yankees will go 90-69 at Shea over the two seasons (1974-75).

Dec. 31, 1974 - Free agent Catfish Hunter signs a then-record five-year contract.

Aug. 1, 1975 - Billy Martin replaces Bill Virdon for his first of five stints as manager.

April 15, 1976 - Remodeled Yankee Stadium opens with an 11-4 win over the Minnesota Twins. The Twins' Dan Ford hits the first home run.

Jim "Catfish" Hunter

April 17, 1976 - Thurman Munson hits the first homer by a Yankee in remodeled Yankee Stadium in a 10-0 win vs. the Minnesota Twins (off Jim Hughes).

Oct. 14, 1976 - Chris Chambliss' ninth-inning home run off Mark Littell in Game 5 of the ALCS vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium gives the Yankees their 30th AL pennant and first trip to the World Series since 1964.

Nov. 29, 1976 - Free agent Reggie Jackson signs a five-year contract.

Oct. 9, 1977 – The Yankees rally for one run in the eighth inning and three runs in the ninth for a 5-3, series-clinching win in the decisive Game 5 of the 1977 ALCS at Kansas City. Sparky Lyle earns the win for the second consecutive night, finishing the game with 1.1 scoreless innings on no rest following his scoreless 5.1-inning relief appearance at Kauffman Stadium in Game 4.

Sparky Lyle

Oct. 18, 1977 - Reggie Jackson hits three home runs (on three consecutive pitches) in Game 6 of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. He joins Babe Ruth as the only players to hit three home runs in a single World Series game.

June 17, 1978 - Ron Guidry establishes a franchise record by striking out 18 batters in the Yankees' 4-0 win vs. California.

July 24, 1978 - Billy Martin resigns as manager.

July 25, 1978 - Bob Lemon is named manager, replacing Billy Martin.

July 29, 1978 - On Old-Timers' Day, the Yankees announce that Billy Martin will return as Yankees manager in 1980 and Bob Lemon will become General Manager (also see June 18, 1979).

Oct. 2, 1978 - The Yankees, 14.0 games behind Boston as late as July 19, defeat the Red Sox, 5-4, at Fenway Park in only the second one-game playoff in AL history. Bucky Dent's three-run, seventh-inning home run becomes one of the most memorable in Baseball history.

June 18, 1979 - Billy Martin is rehired as Yankees manager, replacing Bob Lemon.

Aug. 2, 1979 - Yankees Captain Thurman Munson dies in a plane crash in Canton, Ohio, at age 32. His No. 15 is immediately retired.

Aug. 6, 1979 - After delivering a eulogy at Thurman Munson's funeral earlier that morning in Canton, Ohio, Bobby Murcer hits a three-run seventh inning homer and a two-run ninth-inning single, accounting for all five of the Yankees' runs in an emotional 5-4 comeback win vs. Baltimore at Yankee Stadium.

Dec. 15, 1980 - Free agent Dave Winfield signs a then-record 10-year contract.

Sept. 6, 1981 - Bob Lemon is named manager for a second time, replacing Gene Michael.

April 26, 1982 - Gene Michael becomes manager for a second time, replacing Bob Lemon.

Aug. 3, 1982 - Clyde King is named Yankees manager, replacing Gene Michael.

July 4, 1983 - Dave Righetti pitches the sixth regular season no-hitter in franchise history and the first since 1951 in a 4-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. Righetti strikes out Wade Boggs for the final out.

July 24, 1983 - The Yankees and Kansas City play the infamous "Pine Tar" game at Yankee Stadium. George Brett hits a two-out, ninth-inning home run off Goose Gossage to give the Royals an apparent 5-4 lead. Manager Billy Martin points out that the pine tar on Brett's bat is above the allowable 18 inches and Brett is subsequently called out for using an illegal bat. The Yankees (temporarily) win 4-3 (see Aug. 18, 1983).

"The Pine Tar Game"

Aug. 18, 1983 - Kansas City's protest is upheld and play is resumed at Yankee Stadium from the point immediately after Brett's home run. Yankees pitcher Ron Guidry plays center field while lefthanded first baseman Don Mattingly plays second base. Royals' reliever Dan Quisenberry retires the Yankees in order in the bottom of the ninth for a 5-4 Royals win.

April 28, 1985 - Billy Martin is named manager for the fourth time, replacing Yogi Berra.

Aug. 4, 1985 - The Yankees celebrate "Phil Rizzuto Day" at Yankee Stadium, dedicating a plaque in his honor and retiring his No. 10. The Yankees lose their scheduled game to the Chicago White Sox, 4-1, as Tom Seaver wins his 300th career game.

Oct. 6, 1985 - Phil Niekro tosses a four-hit complete game shutout in an 8-0 victory at Toronto's Exhibition Stadium for his 300th career win.

Oct. 17, 1985 - Lou Piniella is named manager, replacing Billy Martin.

July 18, 1987 - Don Mattingly homers off Texas' Jose Guzman to tie Dale Long's Major League record of hitting a home run in eight consecutive games (Mattingly hits 10 HR during the streak).

Sept. 29, 1987 - Don Mattingly hits a grand slam off Boston's Bruce Hurst, setting a Major League record (tied by Travis Hafner in 2008) with six grand slams in a season.

June 23, 1988 - Billy Martin is replaced as manager of the Yankees for the fifth and final time. Lou Piniella is named manager for the second time.

Dec. 9, 1988 - The Yankees sign a 12-year television contract with the Madison Square Garden Network.

Dec. 25, 1989 - Billy Martin dies in an automobile accident near Binghamton, N.Y. at age 61.

Sept. 4, 1993 - Jim Abbott tosses a 4-0, no-hit win vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 13, 1995 - Mickey Mantle dies of cancer at age 63 in Dallas, Tex.

Sept. 6, 1995 - Lou Gehrig's Major League record of 2,130 consecutive games played is broken when Baltimore's Cal Ripken, Jr. plays in his 2,131st.

Oct. 4, 1995 - The Yankees play the longest postseason game in their history, a 15-inning, 7-5 win over Seattle at Yankee Stadium, giving them a 2-0 series lead. The contest was the final Yankee Stadium game for Don Mattingly.

Nov. 2, 1995 - Joe Torre is named the Yankees' 31st manager.

Mar. 1, 1996 - The Yankees defeat the Cleveland Indians, 5-2, in the first ever game at Legends Field (renamed George M. Steinbrenner Field in 2008), the club's new spring training home.

May 14, 1996 - Dwight Gooden hurls the eighth regular season no-hitter in Yankees history, a 2-0 blanking of the Seattle Mariners at Yankee Stadium.

June 16, 1996 - Mel Allen, the legendary "Voice of the Yankees" from 1939-64, dies at age 83 in Greenwich, Connecticut.

Aug. 25, 1996 - A monument in honor of Mickey Mantle is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park.

Oct. 23, 1996 - In Game 4 of the World Series at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, Jim Leyritz hits a three-run eighth inning homer off the Braves' Mark Wohlers, knotting the game at 6-6. The Yankees went on to win, 8-6, in 10 innings.

Oct 24, 1996 - The Yankees' Andy Pettitte (8.1IP) outduels Atlanta's John Smoltz (8.0IP), 1-0, in Game 5 in Atlanta, giving the Yankees a 3-games-to-2 World Series lead.

Oct. 26, 1996 - In Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium, John Wetteland closes out a 3-2 win vs. Atlanta, giving the Yankees their first World Championship in 18 years.

May 17, 1998 - David Wells tosses the first regular-season perfect game by a Yankee, the 14th in Baseball history.

David Wells' perfect game

Sept. 25, 1998 - The Yankees establish an American League record with their 112th win of the season (a 6-1 win vs. Tampa Bay at Yankee Stadium), breaking the mark of 111 by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (they complete the season with a then AL-record 114th victory on September 27 vs. Tampa Bay).

Oct. 21, 1998 - The Yankees complete an incredible season with a four-game World Series sweep of the San Diego Padres to capture the franchise's 24th World Championship. The 3-0 win gives the club a 125-50 record over the entire season (114-48 in the regular season, 11-2 in postseason).

March 8, 1999 - Joe DiMaggio dies at age 84 in Hollywood, Fla.

April 25, 1999 - A monument in honor of Joe DiMaggio is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park in front of a sold out Stadium and many of DiMaggio's former teammates. Paul Simon sings "Mrs. Robinson" while standing in center field.

July 18, 1999 - On "Yogi Berra Day," David Cone tosses the 15th regular season perfect game in Baseball history, one season after David Wells accomplishes the feat. Amazingly, Don Larsen—who tossed a perfect game in the 1956 World Series—throws out the ceremonial first pitch.

Oct. 27, 1999 - The Yankees play Baseball's last game of the century and complete a four-game sweep of the Atlanta Braves, capturing their 25th World Championship.

July 8, 2000 - The Yankees and Mets play their first-ever dual stadium day/night doubleheader; Game 1 is a 4-2 Yankees win at Shea Stadium and Game 2 is another 4-2 Yankees win at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 21, 2000 - The Yankees' World Series Game 1 win vs. the Mets at Yankee Stadium marks their 13th consecutive victory in World Series play, breaking the 12-game record of the 1927, 1928 and 1932 Yankees.

Oct. 26, 2000 - The Yankees win World Series Game 5 over the Mets at Shea Stadium, clinching their third consecutive World Championship in the first "Subway Series" since 1956. It marks the first time a club has won three consecutive World Series titles since the 1972-74 Oakland Athletics.

Oct. 13, 2001 - With a 1-0 lead and two-out in the bottom of the seventh of Game 3 of the ALDS in Oakland, Derek Jeter picks up Shane Spencer's errant throw from the outfield and "flips" the ball in a backhand motion to Jorge Posada, who tags Jeremy Giambi for the final out of the inning. The Yankees go on to win the game, 1-0, and the series 3 games to 2. The play will be known as the "Flip Play."

Oct. 30, 2001 - President George W. Bush throws out the first pitch prior to the Yankees' 2-1 World Series Game 3 win vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 31, 2001 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, Tino Martinez's two-out, bottom-of-the ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings. Shortly after the stroke of midnight, Derek Jeter wins the game with a "walk-off" solo home run in the 10th, earning him the nickname "Mr. November."

Nov. 1, 2001 - In the late innings of Game 5 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, fans serenade Paul O'Neill, who is playing in his last game at Yankee Stadium. Scott Brosius' two-out, bottom-of-the ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings, and Alfonso Soriano singles in the winning run in the 12th.

May 17, 2002 - Jason Giambi becomes only the 21st player—and second Yankee—to hit a "walk-off" grand slam with his team trailing by three runs (Babe Ruth did it on 9/24/25). His 14th-inning slam off Minnesota's Mike Trombley erases a 12-9 Twins lead, giving the Yankees a 13-12 win.

June 13, 2003 - In a 5-2 win vs. the St. Louis Cardinals at Yankee Stadium, Roger Clemens records both his 300th career win and 4,000 career strikeout (Edgar Renteria).

Oct. 16, 2003 – In Game 7 of the ALCS vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Aaron Boone becomes only the fifth player—and second Yankee—to end a postseason series with a "walk-off" home run (also Chris Chambliss, 1976 ALCS vs. Kansas City), when his 11th-inning leadoff solo shot off Tim Wakefield clinches the Yankees' 39th pennant.

July 1, 2004 - Derek Jeter makes his most famous catch, diving into Yankee Stadium's third base stands to nab a 12th-inning popup off the bat of Boston's Trot Nixon. John Flaherty wins the game with a 13th-inning RBI single.

April 26, 2005 - Alex Rodriguez hits three home runs (all off Bartolo Colon) and becomes just the second Yankee in franchise history to record at least 10 RBI in a game (also Tony Lazzeri, 11 on 5/24/36) in a 12-4 win vs. the Angels at Yankee Stadium.

June 15, 2005 – The Yankees announce plans for a new Yankee Stadium to be constructed in Macombs Dam and John Mullaly Parks, which are located on the north side of 161st Street (adjacent to the original Stadium's longtime site).

Sept. 25, 2005 – The Yankees conclude their 81-game home schedule at Yankee Stadium with a season attendance of 4,090,696, establishing a single-season American League record. They become only the third franchise in sports history to reach the 4 million mark, joining the Toronto Blue Jays (1991-93) and Colorado Rockies (1993). The Yankees will subsequently break their home attendance mark in each of the next three seasons (2006-08).

May 16, 2006 - The Yankees tie a franchise record by overcoming a nine-run deficit vs. Texas to win, 14-13, in nine innings. Jorge Posada hits a two-run "walk-off" home run off Akinori Otsuka.

Aug. 16, 2006 – The Yankees break ground for a new Yankee Stadium, scheduled to be ready for Opening Day 2009.

Groundbreaking ceremony for the current Yankee Stadium

Aug. 4, 2007 - Alex Rodriguez becomes the 22nd and youngest (32 years, 8 days) player in Baseball history to reach the 500-home run mark in a 16-8 win vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium. He is the third player to hit his 500th career homer as a Yankee, joining Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle.

Sept. 5, 2007 - Bob Sheppard works his final game as Yankees Public Address Announcer, a 3-2 win over Seattle.

Oct. 30, 2007 - Joe Girardi is named the 32nd manager in Yankees franchise history.

March 27, 2008 - Prior to the Yankees' final home exhibition game of spring training, Legends Field is renamed George M. Steinbrenner Field.

June 7, 2008 - Johnny Damon goes 6-for-6 in the Yankees' 12-11 win vs. Kansas City, matching the franchise record for hits in a nine-inning game (see June 6, 1934 - Myril Hoag) and becoming the only Yankee in original Yankee Stadium history to record six hits in a game of any length. His final hit is a "walk-off" single.

Sept. 16, 2008 - Derek Jeter singles off Chicago's Gavin Floyd in the first inning for his 1,270th career hit at Yankee Stadium, surpassing Lou Gehrig for the most all-time hits at the ballpark. Jeter finishes the game 2-for-3 in the 6-2 loss.

Sept. 21, 2008 - The Yankees play their last ever game in the original Yankee Stadium. Julia Ruth Stevens, daughter of Babe Ruth, throws out the ceremonial first pitch, and Jose Molina hits the park's final home run in the fourth inning. Following the Yankees' 7-3 win over Baltimore, Derek Jeter thanks the fans over the Stadium public address system.

Sept. 28, 2008 - On the final day of the season in the first game of a doubleheader at Boston's Fenway Park, Mike Mussina records his 20th win of the year, becoming the oldest pitcher in Major League history to win 20 games for the first time.

Nov. 8, 2008 - Local Bronx high school youth groups are joined by Scott Brosius, David Cone, Jeff Nelson and Paul O'Neill of the Yankees' 1998 World Championship team and Yankees General Partner and Vice Chairperson Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal in removing home plate, the pitcher's rubber and pails of dirt from the original Yankee Stadium, then installing them in the current Yankee Stadium.

April 3-4, 2009 – The Yankees play their first exhibition games in Yankee Stadium, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4 and 10-1, respectively. Chien-Ming Wang tosses the first pitch in the April 3 contest.

April 16, 2009 – The Yankees play the first regular season game in Yankee Stadium history, falling to Cleveland, 10-2. CC Sabathia tosses the Stadium's first official pitch, Johnny Damon records the first hit (first-inning single off Cliff Lee) and Jorge Posada hits the first home run (fifth-inning off Lee).

May 14 – June 1, 2009 – The Yankees set an all-time Major League mark with 18 consecutive errorless games, safely handling 660 chances over the stretch.

Sept. 11, 2009 – Derek Jeter breaks Lou Gehrig's all-time franchise mark of 2,721 hits with a single off Baltimore's Chris Tillman at Yankee Stadium. Gehrig had held the mark since 9/6/37.

Oct. 4, 2009 – Alex Rodriguez hits a three-run home run and a grand slam in the sixth-inning of the season finale at Tampa Bay in a 10-2 Yankees victory, setting an all-time AL mark with 7RBI in an inning.

Nov. 4, 2009 – The Yankees win their 27th World Championship, defeating Philadelphia in Game 6 of the World Series, 7-3. Hideki Matsui ties Bobby Richardson's all-time World Series mark (1960 Game 3 vs. Pittsburgh) with 6RBI. Andy Pettitte records the win, becoming the first pitcher to start and record the win in the clinching game in all three rounds of a single postseason. Manager Joe Girardi joins Billy Martin and Ralph Houk as the only individuals in franchise history to win a World Series with the Yankees as a player and as a manger.

2009 World Champions

May 8, 2010 – Mark Teixeira becomes the second Yankee in franchise history to hit 3HR in a single game against the Red Sox (also see June 23, 1927), homering in the fifth, seventh and ninth innings of a 14-3 Yankees win at Fenway Park.

June 12-13, 2010 – Jorge Posada becomes the first Yankee since Bill Dickey (June 3, Game 2 - June 4, 1937) to hit grand slams in back-to-back games as he accomplishes the feat in 9-3 and 9-5 wins vs. Houston.

July 11, 2010 – Longtime Yankees Public Address Announcer Bob Sheppard passes away at his home in Baldwin, Long Island, at age 99.

July 13, 2010 – Yankees Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III passes away in Tampa, Fla. at age 80.

Aug. 4, 2010 – Alex Rodriguez becomes the seventh (and youngest) player in Major League history to hit his 600th HR, accomplishing the feat at 35 years, 8 days old in a 5-1 win vs. Toronto off pitcher Shaun Marcum.

Sept. 20, 2010 - The Yankees dedicate a monument to Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III in Monument Park.

George M. Steinbrenner III (1930-2010)

From 1973 until his passing on July 13, 2010, George M. Steinbrenner III created a legacy of winning unmatched by his peers. His foresight, drive and commitment permanently transformed not only the Yankees organization, but the game of Baseball.

On January 3, 1973, a group of businessmen formed and led by Mr. Steinbrenner purchased the New York Yankees from CBS for a net price of $8.7 million. It took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the organization back into World Champions. In his time as Principal Owner of the club, the Yankees won more pennants (11) and World Series (7) than any other team in baseball, while posting a Major League-best .566 winning percentage (3,364-2,583-3 record) over the stretch.

In addition to the team's on-field success under the direction of Mr. Steinbrenner, the New York Yankees consistently shattered franchise and league attendance records at home and on the road. In 2009, they drew 3,719,358 fans in their first season of play in the current Yankee Stadium, topping the American League in attendance for the seventh straight season (2003-09). The Yankees remain the only franchise in Baseball history to draw more than 4 million fans at home in four consecutive seasons (2005-08).

Most recently, Mr. Steinbrenner's foresight into both sports and business continued to build the value and prominence of the franchise, positioning it for the future. In 2002, Sporting News named him the No. 1 "Most Powerful Man in Sports," and Forbes magazine has continued to list the Yankees as the most valuable franchise in all of Baseball.

Mr. Steinbrenner's vision led to the creation of YankeeNets, which owned the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and ultimately led to the launch of the YES Network, a trailblazing enterprise that has been the nation's most watched regional sports network since 2003. Additionally, Mr. Steinbrenner teamed with long-time friend and Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones, creating Legends Hospitality, LLC, a new concession and merchandising company which currently operates at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums.

In 2006, his participation in the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Yankee Stadium underscored his role as the principal impetus in moving the much-anticipated facility towards its opening in 2009.

Mr. Steinbrenner's tenure of over 37 years exceeded that of any other New York Yankees owner by 13 years (Colonel Jacob Ruppert purchased the Yankees with Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston in January 1915, bought out Huston in 1922, and maintained sole ownership in the club until his death in January 1939—a total of 24 years). During Mr. Steinbrenner's time as the sole Principal Owner of the Yankees, the other 29 Major League clubs had over 100 owners or ownership groups.

Mr. Steinbrenner's success in the sports world began at an early age. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy (where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame) and at Williams College. He began his successful coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten universities, Northwestern and Purdue. Then he assembled championship basketball teams in the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues. In 2002, he was honored with the prestigious Gold Medal Award from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame for a lifetime of "outstanding commitment, dedication and dynamic leadership in his business, as well as his personal life."

Mr. Steinbrenner devoted as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC) as he did to his many other sporting endeavors. He was on the U.S. Olympic Foundation Board from 1986-2002 and served as Chairman over the last six years of his tenure. He also was Chairman of the 1989 Olympic Overview Commission, which was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the U.S. Olympic program, and served as Vice President of the USOC from 1989 to 1992. As a result of his distinguished service, he was presented with the General Douglas MacArthur USOC Foremost Award and the F. Don Miller United States Olympic Award. In 2005, the U.S. Olympic Foundation created the George M. Steinbrenner Sports Leadership Award in his honor, which celebrates a member of the U.S. Olympic family who has made outstanding contributions to sport.

Additionally, Mr. Steinbrenner was a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors and served on the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees beginning in 1990.

Most of Mr. Steinbrenner's philanthropic endeavors were performed without fanfare. However, he was repeatedly recognized by the communities in which he immersed himself. In 1993, he earned the Tampa Civitan Club's "Outstanding Citizen" Award, and in 1998, Tampa Law Enforcement named him "Citizen of the Year" for founding a scholarship fund for the children of slain law enforcement officers. Mr. Steinbrenner was also honored as an "Outstanding New Yorker" by the New York Society of Association Executives in 1997 and credited in 2009 by the Museum of the City of New York as one of the "New York City 400," recognizing "people who have helped create the world's greatest city since its founding in 1609."

In February 2008, the Tampa City Council and the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioner's Office both passed resolutions endorsing the renaming of Legends Field in Tampa after Mr. Steinbrenner to pay tribute to his numerous contributions to the area. On March 27, 2008, Mr. Steinbrenner—joined by his family—pulled down a curtain draped above the outfield scoreboard to unveil the new name for the Yankees' spring training home: George M. Steinbrenner Field.

On September 20, 2010, prior to the team's game vs. Tampa Bay, the Yankees unveiled a monument in Mr. Steinbrenner's honor in Monument Park, reflecting the special connection, appreciation and responsibility that he felt toward Yankees fans.

GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III

JULY 4, 1930 – JULY 13, 2010

New York Yankees Principal Owner
"The Boss"
1973 - 2010

Purchased the New York Yankees on January 3, 1973.
A true visionary who changed the game of baseball forever, he was considered the most influential owner in all of sports.
In his 37 years as Principal Owner, the Yankees posted a Major League-best .566 winning percentage, while winning 11 American League pennants and seven World Series titles, becoming the most recognizable sports brand in the world.
A devoted sportsman, he was Vice President of the United States Olympic Committee, a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees.
A great philanthropist whose charitable efforts were mostly performed without fanfare, he followed a personal motto of the greatest form of charity is anonymity.

Dedicated by the New York Yankees
September 20, 2010

In the fall of 2009, George M. Steinbrenner High School opened in Lutz, Fla. The school was named after Mr. Steinbrenner by the Hillsborough County School Board in recognition of his philanthropic involvement in the community, particularly with the school system.

Mr. Steinbrenner was dually honored in January 2011, winning the Joan Payson Community Service Award from the New York chapter of the BBWAA and having his legacy of charitable work recognized at the 22nd annual Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.) Dinner.

He is survived by his wife, Joan; sisters Susan Norpell and Judy Kamm, children, Hank, Hal, Jennifer and Jessica; and his grandchildren.

Chronology of Yankees Ownership

November 2, 1964:	CBS purchases 80 percent of the Yankees for $11,200,000, later buys the remaining 20 percent.
January 3, 1973:	A limited partnership, headed by George M. Steinbrenner as its Managing General Partner, purchases the Yankees from CBS for a net price of $8.7 million.

Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day - July 4, 1939

Prior to the Yankees' May 2, 1939, game at Detroit's Briggs Stadium, captain Lou Gehrig gave the umpires his team's lineup card—which did not have his name on it. He watched the entire game from the bench, marking the end of his 2,130-consecutive-games-played streak. "The Iron Horse" was suffering the effects of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), a disease known since as Lou Gehrig's Disease. He would never play again.

Just over two months later, on July 4, 1939, Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day was held in front of approximately 62,000 fans in Yankee Stadium. Ceremonies took place between games of a doubleheader against the Washington Senators. Gehrig and his teammates were joined by members of the 1927 Yankees. After speeches by Mayor Fiorello La Guardia and Postmaster James A. Farley, Manager Joe McCarthy said his public goodbye to Gehrig: "Lou, what can I say except that it was a sad day in the life of everybody who knew you when you came to my hotel room that day in Detroit and told me you were quitting as a ballplayer because you felt yourself a hindrance to the team. My God, man, you were never that."

Various gifts were presented to Gehrig from club employees and the rival New York Giants. His teammates gave him a trophy, which was inscribed with a poem by New York Times writer John Kiernan. As the crowd chanted, "We want Lou; We want Lou...," Gehrig stepped to the microphone to deliver one of the most oft-quoted speeches in American history.

"Fans, for the past two weeks you have been reading about the bad break I got. Yet today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the Earth. I have been in ballparks for 17 years and have never received anything but kindness and encouragement from you fans.

"Look at these grand men. Which of you wouldn't consider it the highlight of his career just to associate with them for even one day? Sure, I'm lucky. Who wouldn't consider it an honor to have known Jacob Ruppert? Also, the builder of baseball's greatest empire, Ed Barrow? To have spent six years with that wonderful little fellow, Miller Huggins? Then to have spent the next nine years with that outstanding leader, that smart student of psychology, the best manager in baseball today, Joe McCarthy? Sure, I'm lucky.

"When the New York Giants, a team you would give your right arm to beat, and vice versa, sends you a gift—that's something. When everybody down to the groundskeepers and those boys in white coats remember you with trophies—that's something. When you have a wonderful mother-in-law who takes sides with you in squabbles with her own daughter—that's something. When you have a father and a mother who work all their lives so you can have an education and build your body—it's a blessing. When you have a wife who has been a tower of strength and shown more courage than you dreamed existed—that's the finest I know.

"So I close in saying that I might have been given a bad break, but I've got an awful lot to live for."

During the ceremony, Gehrig had his No. 4 retired by the Yankees, becoming the first person in sports to be given such an honor. To this day he remains the only Yankee ever to wear the number.

Gehrig died on June 2, 1941, at his home in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. He was 37.

Babe Ruth Day - April 27, 1947

On April 27, 1947, Babe Ruth Day was celebrated throughout Major League Baseball, as the Babe said goodbye in an on-field ceremony at Yankee Stadium. Dressed in a topcoat and hat, Ruth, weakened by throat cancer, made the following remarks:

"Thank you very much, ladies and gentlemen. You know how bad my voice sounds—well it feels just as bad.

"You know this baseball game of ours comes up from the youth. That means the boys. And after you're a boy and grow up to know how to play ball, then you come to the boys you see representing themselves today in your national pastime. The only real game—I think—in the world is baseball.

"As a rule, some people think if you give them a football, or a baseball, or something like that—naturally they're athletes right away. But you can't do that in baseball. You've gotta start from way down [at] the bottom, when you're 6 or 7 years of age. You can't wait until you're 15 or 16. You gotta let it grow up with you. And if you're successful, and you try hard enough, you're bound to come out on top—just like these boys have come to the top now.

"There has been so many lovely things said about me, and I'm glad that I've had the opportunity to thank everybody. Thank you."

Ruth returned to Yankee Stadium once more, on June 13, 1948, to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Yankee Stadium and have his uniform No. 3 retired.

He died on Aug. 16, 1948, at Memorial Hospital in New York at age 53. His body lay in state at the entrance of Yankee Stadium on Aug. 17 and 18, before his funeral on Aug. 19 at New York's St. Patrick's Cathedral.

The 1961 Yankees and Roger Maris' 61-Home Run Season

50TH ANNIVERSARY

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the historic 1961 season that saw Roger Maris break Babe Ruth's all-time single-season home run mark and the Yankees power their way to a World Series championship, cementing their reputation as one of the best teams of all time.

The Yankees finished the regular season with a 109-53 (.673) record, eight games ahead of the 101-61 (.623) Detroit Tigers. The clubs were just 1.5 games apart in the standings heading into the final full month of the season before the Yankees reeled off a 13-game winning streak from Sept. 1-12 to vault an insurmountable 11.5 games in front. Their massive win total was fueled by a 65-16 mark at Yankee Stadium, the best single-season home record in Major League history.

The club, assembled by General Manager George Weiss, had sluggers up and down the lineup, including Moose Skowron (28 HR), Yogi Berra (22 HR), Elston Howard (21 HR) and "Super-sub" Johnny Blanchard, who hit 21 homers in just 243 at-bats. Of the 240 home runs the Yankees hit, 10 were pinch-hit homers, setting a still-standing single-season franchise mark.

The pitching staff was paced by Whitey Ford, who had a career year, going 25-4 with a 3.21 ERA. Under first-year manager Ralph Houk, Ford took the ball every fourth day for the first time in his career and set career highs in wins, winning percentage (.862), starts (39) and innings pitched (283.0), earning the Cy Young Award as the best pitcher in both leagues. Bill Stafford (14-9, 2.68 ERA), Ralph Terry (16-3, 3.15 ERA) and Rollie Sheldon (11-5, 3.60 ERA) were the Yankees' other top starters, and Luis Arroyo picked up 15 wins in relief, the highest total by a reliever in franchise history.

In the World Series, the Yankees triumphed over Cincinnati, 4-games-to-1, as Ford tossed 14.0 combined scoreless innings, earning wins in Game 1 and 4. With the Series knotted at one game apiece, Game 3 proved pivotal. Down, 2-1, heading into the eighth, Blanchard tied the game with a solo homer before Maris hit a game-winning solo shot in the ninth. The Yankees then outscored the Reds 20-5 over the final two contests to win the first of two consecutive World Series titles.

Roger Maris hits his 61st home run of the season on Oct. 1, 1961 at Yankee Stadium.

Much of the season's drama centered on the chase by the M&M Boys – Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle – to break Ruth's seemingly untouchable single-season record of 60 home runs, which he set with the 1927 Murderers' Row Yankees. Maris, the American League MVP in 1960 and 1961, was joined in his pursuit by Mantle, who topped out at 54 home runs after sitting out seven of the club's final 10 games with an abscess in his right hip.

Maris tied Ruth's mark on Sept. 26 at Yankee Stadium with a home run off Baltimore's Jack Fisher in the team's 159th game of the season. Needing one homer to break the record with four games to go (the Yankees had played a tie earlier in the year), Maris was given a full game off prior to going homerless in the first two games of a three-game series against Boston at Yankee Stadium.

In the season's final game on Oct. 1, Maris connected in the fourth inning off Tracy Stallard, hitting a line-drive into the right-field stands for his 61st home run, which turned out to be the only run in a 1-0 Yankees victory. The quiet and humble Maris had to be pushed back onto the field by his teammates for his curtain call.

The chase was not without controversy as writers and fans loyal to Ruth clamored that the record should receive a special notation given that the American League was playing a 162-game schedule in 1961 due to the addition of two expansion teams. With the exceptions of 1901-03 and 1918-19, the AL had always played a 154-game format.

Ford Frick, a former sportswriter and New York City sportscaster who had previously ghostwritten Ruth's 1928 autobiography Babe Ruth's Own Book of Baseball, was the commissioner of baseball at the time. In the middle of the season, he issued the directive that baseball's official record book, The Little Red Book of Major League Baseball, compiled by the Elias Sports Bureau, should show two records — one for a 154-game schedule and another for a 162-game schedule. Contrary to popular lore, an asterisk was never used for the notation, and separate designations remained in the official record book until 1991, when Major League Baseball finally rescinded the distinction.

Maris' 61 in '61 remains the highest single-season home run total in American League history and the seventh-highest single-season total all time, behind those of Barry Bonds (73), Mark McGwire (70, 65) and Sammy Sosa (66, 64 and 63).

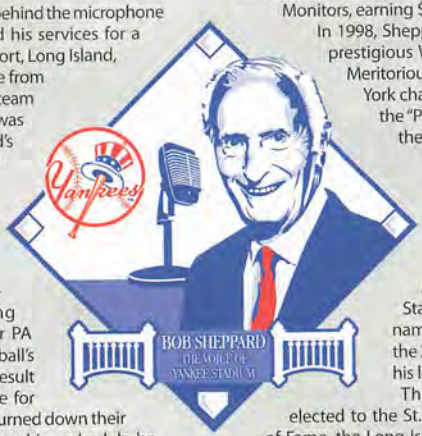
Bob Sheppard "The Voice of Yankee Stadium"

Bob Sheppard will forever be the "The Voice of Yankee Stadium." With his instantly recognizable elocution — in which each syllable was given meticulous attention — Sheppard provided a soundtrack of irreproachable dignity to Yankee Stadium for 57 years.

Sadly, he passed away on July 11, 2010, at his home in Baldwin, N.Y., with his wife, Mary, by his side. He was 99 years old.

Born in Ridgewood, Queens, Sheppard began his tenure as Yankees public address announcer on April 17, 1951—Opening Day of Joe DiMaggio's final season and the day of Mickey Mantle's Major League debut. Among the approximately 4,500 baseball games he worked over his tenure with the Yankees were 121 consecutive postseason contests from 1951 to 2006, including 62 games in 22 World Series.

Sheppard's incredible career behind the microphone started when he volunteered his services for a charity football game in Freeport, Long Island, in the late 1940s. An executive from the Brooklyn Dodgers football team of the All-America Conference was at the game. He liked Sheppard's style ("clear, concise and correct") and hired him. The football Dodgers folded after just one season at Ebbets Field (1948), but one of their opponents—the New York football Yankees—heard Sheppard's booming voice and offered him their PA job at Yankee Stadium. Baseball's Yankees discovered him as a result and offered him their PA role for the 1950 season. Though he turned down their offer due to conflicts with his teaching schedule, he changed his mind the following year.



In addition to his baseball duties, Sheppard was the public address voice for the New York football Giants for 50 seasons—from their move to Yankee Stadium in 1956 until his retirement after the 2005 season. Sheppard also served the New York Titans of the American Football League at the Polo Grounds, the New York Stars of the World Football League at Downing Stadium, the New York Cosmos soccer team, and St. John's University's basketball and football teams. Sheppard also handled PA duties for five Army-Navy football games in Philadelphia.

Some of the events he listed as the most memorable of his incredible career were: Don Larsen's perfect game in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series on October 8, 1956; Roger Maris' 61st home run on October 1, 1961; Reggie Jackson's three home runs in Game 6 of the World Series on October 18, 1977; and the Giants-Colts overtime NFL Championship Game on December 28, 1958.

Sheppard attended St. John's College, which eventually became St. John's University. Always a talented athlete, he received a full athletic scholarship to the school, playing quarterback on the football team all four years. He later enrolled at Columbia University, where he received his master's degree in speech and worked his way up from teacher-in-training to substitute teacher to permanent teacher to department chairman. In order to supplement his teaching salary, Sheppard played semiprofessional football on Sundays in Long Island with the Valley Stream Red Riders and the Hempstead Monitors, earning $25 a game.

In 1998, Sheppard was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum "Long and Meritorious Service" Award by the New York chapter of the BBWAA as well as the "Pride of the Yankees" award by the ballclub.

On May 7, 2000, a plaque was dedicated to Sheppard in Monument Park of the original Yankee Stadium to commemorate his 50th anniversary season. Additionally, the Yankee Stadium media dining room was named "Sheppard's Place" prior to the 2009 season to commemorate his legacy.

The native New Yorker was elected to the St. John's University Sports Hall of Fame, the Long Island Sports Hall of Fame and the New York Sports Hall of Fame. He was awarded honorary doctorates from St. John's University (Pedagogy) and Fordham University (Rhetoric), and in 2007, received St. John's' Medal of Honor, the highest award that the university can confer on a graduate.

Sheppard also made cameo appearances in numerous motion pictures and television shows, including *61, It's My Turn, It Could Happen to You, Anger Management, Seinfeld and Mad About You.

Sheppard announced his final game at Yankee Stadium on September 5, 2007, a 3-2 Yankees victory over the Seattle Mariners.

On September 21, 2008, Sheppard provided a valedictory in the bottom of the seventh inning of the final game at the original Yankee Stadium. Unable to say goodbye in person as he continued to recover from an illness that had kept him away from the Stadium since the final weeks of the 2007 season, Sheppard gave his tribute through a taped segment played on the video board. He recited, "Farewell, old Yankee Stadium, farewell / What a wonderful story you can tell / DiMaggio, Mantle, Gehrig and Ruth / A baseball cathedral in truth."

Voices Before Sheppard

Hard to believe, but Bob Sheppard was not the only Public Address Announcer in the original Yankee Stadium's fabled history. But no one—not even Sheppard himself—could remember who immediately preceded the current Stadium P.A. announcer behind the microphone. After all, the last game by this mystery man would likely have been the fourth and final game of the 1950 World Series between the Yankees and Philadelphia's "Whiz Kids" Phillies.

But, after years of search and research, the answer may have turned up in the transcript of an interview conducted in 1991 by writer Paul Doherty with Don Carney, the producer-director of Yankees telecasts for more than three decades.

Extolling Sheppard's longevity, Carney told Doherty that "Bob's been around forever. He followed Red Patterson, who was the club's Public Relations Director and also did the P.A."

Red Patterson: The man who preceded Sheppard

Carney's words give not only the answer but may also explain the mystery. Sheppard's predecessor was widely but anonymously quoted in the newspapers for an infamous gaffe he made during a Yankees-Philadelphia Athletics game on May 31, 1946. "Will the spectators in the front row please remove their clothing..." he began, with the rest of his announcement: "from the front railing," drowned out by the crowd's laughter.

The story got into the papers, but the identity of the speaker did not. Of course, it didn't. The writers didn't want to embarrass their main conduit for information about the club!

Additional research shows that Yankee Stadium was the last ballpark in the Majors to install a public-address system. It debuted in Game 3 of the 1936 World Series and was manned by Jack Lenz and George Levy, two veterans of the time when information was still relayed to the crowd by megaphone.

The careers of Lenz and Levy began in 1915 when the Yankees and Giants shared the Polo Grounds. When the Yankees hopped across the Harlem River in 1923, Levy stayed with the Giants while Lenz took the Yankee post. "I grabbed the offer," Lenz said. "Who wouldn't, with the old Bambino holding forth at the Stadium?"

To do his job, Lenz sat in a box alongside the Yankees dugout (then on the third-base side of Yankee Stadium) and shouted the batting orders and batteries (each team's pitcher and catcher) as well as the changes throughout the game. Unlike today, players were not announced each time they came to bat and Lenz was called upon only when a change was made.

Jack Lenz: "The little man with the big voice."

According to a feature article which appeared in the New York Evening News in the early 1930s to celebrate a career of more than 2,000 consecutive games, Lenz—the "mild-mannered megaphone man"—would receive the lineups and batting orders from both managers approximately 15 minutes before the start of the game (3:15 p.m. in those days). After telephoning the press box with the "necessary dope," Lenz would pick up his megaphone and shout the batting orders and batteries. He directed his voice first toward the bleachers, then to the upper tiers of the grandstand and again to the lower stands.

Due to the vast size of their new ballpark, the Yankees actually began the 1927 season with two public address announcers to service Yankee Stadium. After the idea proved successful before a crowd of more than 65,000 on Opening Day, the "two-ply announcer system" of Lenz and Levy was used again for the second game when the crowd was only about 7,000. The experiment was likely short lived.

Yankees in Cooperstown

There are 47 members of the Baseball Hall of Fame who have played, managed, coached, owned or been a general manager for the New York Yankees at one time or another. The Yankees' first inductee was Babe Ruth, who entered the Hall in its inaugural 1936 class along with Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson and Honus Wagner. The Yankees' most recent inductees are Joe Gordon and Rickey Henderson, who were formally enshrined in Cooperstown on July 26, 2009.

In addition to the 47 individuals below, at least three Hall of Famers worked for the Yankees in other capacities, including Joe Kelley (HOF in 1971 / Yankees Scout from 1915-25), Dick Williams (HOF in 2008 / NYY adviser from 1995-2001) and Pat Gillick (HOF in 2011 / NYY scouting director from 1974-76).

Currently, the choice of which insignia appears on the cap of each Hall of Famer's plaque belongs to the Hall of Fame itself. The decision is based on the "historical accomplishments" of the player and "where that player makes his most indelible mark" (though the wishes of the inductee are always considered). It is important to remember that caps have not always had insignias and some players' images are cast as profiles without visible insignias.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

Beginning with Lou Gehrig's No. 4 in 1939, the Yankees have retired 15 uniform numbers to honor 16 players and managers.

1 Billy Martin (Number retired in 1986)

Born: May 16, 1928 in Berkeley, Calif. • Died: Dec. 25, 1989 in Binghamton, N.Y.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: R/R

Had as much "Yankee Pride" as any player or manager to wear pinstripes, and he implanted his own fierce desire to win in his teams. Played an integral part in four World Series in the 1950s as a player, and added another ring managing the Yankees in 1977. His .333 lifetime series batting average is sixth with at least 75 AB on the all-time series list. Combative and daring, Martin was a brilliant baseball strategist and a legend in Yankees history.

3 Babe Ruth (Number retired in 1948)

Born: Feb. 6, 1895 in Baltimore, Md. • Died: Aug. 16, 1948 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 6-2 • Weight: 215 • B/T: L/L

Baseball's greatest slugger and the most colorful figure in the game's history. Debuted as a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, winning 89 games over six seasons before being converted to the outfield because of his tremendous power. Was sold to the Yankees in 1920 and his 54 home runs that year were more than any other American League team. En route to 714 career home runs, won 12 home run titles, hitting 60 in 1927. Added 15 home runs in World Series competition as he led the Yankees to seven Series appearances and four World Championships. A member of the inaugural class of Hall of Fame inductees in 1936.

4 Lou Gehrig (Number retired in 1939)

Born: June 19, 1903 in New York, N.Y. • Died: June 2, 1941 in Riverdale, N.Y.
Height: 6-1 • Weight: 212 • B/T: L/L

Durable, powerhitting first baseman who played in an amazing 2,130 consecutive games between 1925 and 1939. Drove in at least 100 runs for 13 straight seasons (1926-38) and established an American League record with 184 RBI in 1931. Compiled a .340 lifetime batting average and belted 493 home runs in a career shortened by terminal illness. Was honored at Yankee Stadium on July 4, 1939, and made memorable, "Today, I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech. Life was immortalized in classic 1942 motion picture, The Pride of the Yankees, starring Gary Cooper. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1939.

5 Joe DiMaggio (Number retired in 1952)

Height: 6-2 • Weight: 193 • B/T: R/R

The "Yankee Clipper" is considered by many experts as the best all-around baseball player in history. Was a sensational hitter for average and power, and a splendid, graceful, ball-hawking center fielder. Owned a powerful and accurate arm, and was a daring and alert baserunner. Compiled a .325 lifetime batting average from 1936 to 1951. A two-time batting champion and three-time MVP, he powered the Yankees to the first of four consecutive World Championships in his 1936 rookie season. Many rate his 56-consecutive-game batting streak in 1941 as the top baseball feat of all time. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1955.

7 Mickey Mantle (Number retired in 1969)

Height: 6-0 • Weight: 201 • B/T: S/R

"The Mick" was the most feared hitter on some of the most successful teams in history. Could run like the wind and hit tape measure homers, like his famous 565-footer in Washington in 1953. In the 14 seasons between 1951 and 1964, he led the Yanks to 12 Fall Classics and seven World Championships. He still owns records for most homers, RBI, runs and walks in World Series play. In 1956, Mantle had one of the greatest seasons ever at the plate, hitting 52 homers with 130 RBI and a .353 average to win the Triple Crown. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

8 Yogi Berra (Number retired in 1972)

Height: 5-8 • Weight: 191 • B/T: L/R

A mainstay behind the plate for some of the most dominating teams in history from the end of World War II until the early 1960s. Although he never led the league in a single major offensive category, he was just the third man to win three Most Valuable Player Awards. Was selected to play in the All-Star Game in 15 successive seasons (1948-62). Played on 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions, more than anyone in history. Led the Yankees to the 1964 pennant as manager. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1972.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

Born: June 6, 1907 in Bastrop, La. • Died: Nov. 12, 1993 in Little Rock, Ark.
Height: 6-1 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/R

Regarded as one of the greatest catchers of all-time. A durable and tireless worker, he caught more than 100 games in 13 consecutive seasons (1929-41), an American League record. In 1931, he did not allow a single passed ball in 125 games behind the plate, another AL record. Dickey also excelled at the plate, batting over .300 in 10 of his first 11 full seasons, while hitting 202 homers during his career. He handled Yankees pitching staffs on eight World Series teams, winning seven championships.

9 Roger Maris (Number retired in 1984)

Height: 6-0 • Weight: 197 • B/T: L/R

In one of the most dramatic assaults on a baseball record, Maris caught, then surpassed Babe Ruth's famous home run record of 60. Maris hit 61 home runs in 1961, a Major League record which stood until 1998 and is still the American League mark. The two-time American League MVP (1960-61) is also considered one of the best-fielding right fielders in Yankees history.

10 Phil Rizzuto (Number retired in 1985)

Height: 5-6 • Weight: 150 • B/T: R/R

Playing 13 years for the Yankees, "Scooter" went to nine World Series. That stat may best explain why the diminutive shortstop is regarded as a true Yankees legend. He was durable, a skilled bunter and an enthusiastic baserunner with a solid .273 career batting average. In 1950, Rizzuto earned the AL MVP Award, batting .324 with 200 hits, 92 walks and 125 runs scored. He batted .320 in the 1951 World Series and was named Series MVP. He also spent 40 years as a Yankees broadcaster (1957-96) and was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1994.

15 Thurman Munson (Number retired in 1979)

Born: June 7, 1947 in Akron, Ohio • Died: Aug. 2, 1979 in Canton, Ohio
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 190 • B/T: R/R

Was the undisputed leader and most respected man on Yankees teams that won three consecutive AL pennants (1976-78) and two World Championships. Munson was a tremendous defensive catcher, winning the Gold Glove Award in three consecutive seasons (1973-75). From 1975-77, Thurman drove in more than 100 runs and hit better than .300 in each season. He hit the first Yankees home run in remodeled Yankee Stadium. There is no more tragic date in Yankees history than August 2, 1979, when Munson passed away in a plane crash at age 32.

16 Whitey Ford (Number retired in 1974)

Born: Oct. 21, 1928 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 5-10 • Weight: 181 • B/T: L/L

"The Chairman of the Board" was the ace pitcher on great Yankees teams of the 1950s and early '60s. The wily southpaw's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best winning percentage (.690) of any left-handed pitcher in the 20th century with 100 or more wins. He paced the American League in victories three times, and in ERA and shutouts twice. The 1961 Cy Young Award winner still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

23 Don Mattingly (Number retired in 1997)

Born: April 20, 1961 in Evansville, Ill.
Height: 6-0 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/L

"Donnie Baseball" was only the 10th captain to be named by the Yankees in their storied history. The premier first baseman of his era, Mattingly was a nine-time Gold Glove winner. The 1985 American League MVP set records for most grand slams in a season (6–since tied) and most home runs in seven consecutive games (9) and eight consecutive games (10). A humble man of grace and dignity, Mattingly carried on the legacy of the pinstripe tradition and dedicated his career to the pursuit of excellence.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

32 Elston Howard (Number retired in 1984)

Born: Feb. 23, 1929 in St. Louis, Mo. • Died: Dec. 14, 1980 in New York, N.Y.
Height: 6-2 • Weight: 196 • B/T: R/R

Became the first black player in Yankees history when he made the club in the spring of 1955. The versatile two-time Gold Glove catcher was an important member of AL pennant-winning Yankees teams in nine of his first 10 seasons with the club. The 1963 American League MVP, Howard was a clubhouse leader who was respected as both a player and a man. Howard's dignified manner off the field and competitive spirit on the field set a powerful example for his teammates.

37 Casey Stengel (Number retired in 1970)

Born: July 30, 1890 in Kansas City, Mo. • Died: Sept. 29, 1975 in Glendale, Calif.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 175 • B/T: L/L

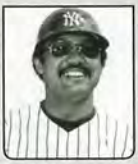
In a distinguished 54-year professional career, "The Old Perfessor" emerged as one of the game's greatest managers. His feat of guiding the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world titles in a 12-year span ranks as one of the top managerial accomplishments of all time. Simply put, Casey Stengel was one of the best things to ever happen to the game of Baseball. He was an authentic baseball ambassador, making the game fun for millions of Americans. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1966.



44 Reggie Jackson (Number retired in 1993)

Height: 5-10 • Weight: 181 • B/T: L/L

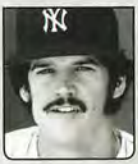
One of the game's premier power hitters, "Mr. October" blasted 563 career home runs, good for 13th place on Baseball's all-time list. In Game 6 of the 1977 World Series, Jackson hit three home runs, all on the first pitch, as the Yankees beat the Dodgers to wrap up the club's first World Championship since 1962. Jackson was an exciting clutch player and an intimidating clean-up hitter with a .490 career slugging percentage. The 1973 American League MVP once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character." He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1993.



49 Ron Guidry (Number retired in 2003)

Born: Aug. 28, 1950 in Lafayette, La.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: L/L

Known as "Louisiana Lightning," Ron Guidry was a four-time American League All-Star and three-time 20-game winner. He compiled one of the most dominating seasons in Baseball history in 1978, going 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA. He led the Yankees to a dramatic comeback from 14.0 games behind the Boston Red Sox to capture their second straight World Championship. That season, he also compiled a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the American League's Cy Young Award winner. On June 17, 1978 vs. California at Yankee Stadium, Guidry struck out 18 Angels, breaking the club's single-game record. With Willie Randolph, he served as the Yankees' co-captain from 1986 through his retirement in 1989. He remains in the Top 10 on the Yankees' all-time list in games pitched (368), innings pitched (2392.0), wins (170), winning percentage (.651), strikeouts (1778) and shutouts (26).

Yankees by the Numbers

In 1929, the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians became the first teams to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform. Other teams quickly adopted the idea and, by 1932, uniform numbers became standard for all teams. The Yankees' initial distribution of numbers was made according to the player's spot in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1; Mark Koenig No. 2; Babe Ruth No. 3; Lou Gehrig No. 4; Bob Meusel No. 5; Tony Lazzeri No. 6; Leo Durocher No. 7; Johnny Grabowski No. 8; Benny Bengough No. 9; and Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared catching duties). After some exhaustive research, the Yankees' Media Relations staff compiled the following list of Yankees uniform numbers. The list represents uniform numbers worn by coaches (c), managers (m) and players who officially appeared in a regular season game. Yankees retired numbers are denoted in boldface text.

Yogi Berra (No. 8) congratulates Roger Maris on hitting his 61st home run on Oct. 1, 1961.

OPENING DAY HOME RUNS

The Yankees have hit 96 Opening Day home runs in franchise history by 58 different players. In 2010 at Boston, Jorge Posada and Curtis Granderson hit back-to-back homers, marking the first Yankees to go back-to-back on Opening Day since Dave Winfield and Steve Kemp in 1983 at Seattle. Joe Pepitone (pictured) was the last Yankee to homer twice on Opening Day.

1921 American League Champion Yankees - The first pennant-winning team in franchise history

It wasn't until the 19th season in franchise history (after moving to New York from Baltimore prior to the 1903 season) that the Yankees won their first American League pennant, finishing 98-55, 4.5 games ahead of Cleveland. The club was led by Babe Ruth, who batted .378 (204-for-540) with 59 home runs and a career-high 171 RBI. Carl Mays (27-5), Waite Hoyt (19-13) and Bob Shawkey (18-12) fronted a pitching staff that allowed the fewest earned runs in the American League (579). In the World Series, the last of Baseball's three-year experiment with a nine-game format, the Yankees were defeated 5-games-to-3 by the Giants, with whom they shared the Polo Grounds. Hoyt, who lost Game 8, 1-0, on an unearned run in the first inning, went 2-1 (27.0IP) in three complete games. Injuries suffered by Ruth in Game 2 (cut arm while sliding, which later became infected) and Game 5 (wrenched knee) limited him to just one pinch-hitting plate appearance in the final three games of the Series.

Switch-Hit HR by Teammates, One Game
Bernie Williams and JORGE POSADA each hit home runs from both sides of the plate on 4/23/00 in a 10-7 win at Toronto, the only time in Major League history that two teammates have hit switch-hit home runs in the same game.

Most Switch-hit HR by Teammates, One Season
According to Elias, the 2009 season marked the first time in Baseball history a team had three different players homer from both sides of the plate in a single game within the same season (Cabrera-1x, SWISHER-3x and TEIXEIRA-3x).

Most Switch-hit HR, One Player in a Season
According to the Elias Sports Bureau, three AL players have hit three sets of switch-hit homers in a single season: MARK TEIXEIRA (2009 w/ NYY), NICK SWISHER (2009 w/ NYY and 2007 w/ Oakland) and Tony Clark (1998 w/ Detroit).

 Lefthanded pitcher + Perfect Game

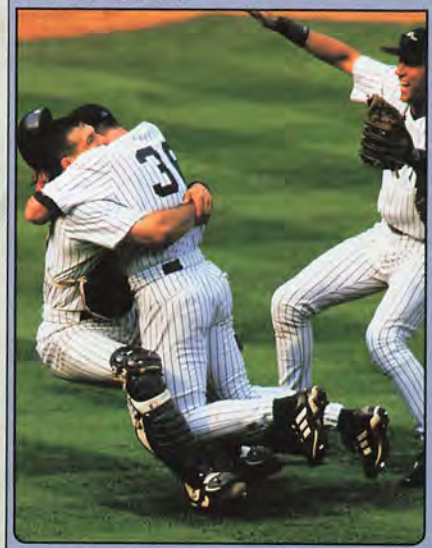
Don Larsen and Yogi Berra

David Cone's Perfect Game

On July 18, 1999, David Cone tossed the 15th perfect game in Baseball history (since 1901) on a day Don Larsen was on hand to throw out the game's ceremonial first pitch. It came only one season after David Wells accomplished the feat and gave the Yankees a record three perfect games in their history, including Don Larsen in the 1956 World Series. Prior to Wells' and Cone's feats, perfect games had only been pitched in consecutive seasons once (by Jim Bunning of the Phillies in 1964 and the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax in 1965) and never by pitchers from the same team. The original Yankee Stadium also became the only park to host as many as three perfect games (Dodger Stadium was the site of perfect games by Koufax in 1965 and Montreal's Dennis Martinez in 1991).



David Cone celebrates with Joe Girardi.

One-Hit Games

Mike Mussina

The most-recent Yankee to have a one-hit complete game was Ted Lilly on 4/27/02 in a 1-0 defeat at Seattle, becoming the first Yankee in franchise history to lose a one-hit CG in the regular season (allowed a walk, WP and RBI-single in 7th).

The Yankees' last one-hit complete-game win was by Mike Mussina on 9/2/01 at Boston in a 1-0 Yankees victory…he retired 26 consecutive batters before Carl Everett singled with two outs in the ninth…it was the first complete-game one-hit victory by a Yankee since Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California.

The Yankees have had two postseason one-hit complete games…Roger Clemens still holds the all-time record for fewest hits allowed in an AL or NL Championship Series complete game with his one-hit, 15K performance in the Yankees' 5-0 ALCS Game 4 win at Seattle on 10/14/00…Bill Bevens famously lost his one-hit CG in Game 4 of the 1947 World Series vs. Brooklyn…he was one out from a no-hitter when pinch-hitter Cookie Lavagetto doubled in two runs to give the Dodgers a 3-2 victory…Bevens walked 10 batters and had one wild pitch on the day…the World Series marked the last games Bevens and Lavagetto ever played in the Majors.

Yankees with multiple complete-game one hitters are Whitey Ford (3), Bob Turley (3), Lefty Gomez (2), Rip Collins (2) and Vic Raschi (2), while Bill Bevens (see above paragraph) also threw a one-hit CG in the regular season.

One hitters by opponents against the Yankees: The Yankees were last held to 1H on 6/30/07 at Yankee Stadium by Oakland's Chad Gaudin and Rich Harden…the last starter to throw a one-hitter against the Yankees was Mike Maroth on 7/16/04 at Detroit…Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton and Nolan Ryan are the only pitchers with a pair of one-hitters against the Yankees, with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913…Hoyt Wilhelm, who no-hit the Yankees in 1958, also tossed a one-hitter against them in 1959.

Grand Slams

Grand slam notes from 2010: The Yankees hit 10 grand slams in 2010, tying the franchise record set in 1987…Jorge Posada hit grand slams in consecutive games on 6/12 and 6/13/10 vs. Houston, becoming the first Yankee to hit a grand slam in back-to-back games since Bill Dickey in 1937…Alex Rodriguez was one of three Major Leaguers to hit three grand slams in 2010.

Pinch-Hit Home Runs

2010 Notes: The Yankees hit two pinch-hit home runs in 2010 – one by Jorge Posada and one by Colin Curtis…Curtis' homer on 7/21 vs. Los Angeles-AL came after he entered the game with an 0-2 count when Brett Gardner was ejected…Curtis became the first Yankee to hit his first career home run as a pinch-hitter since Andy Phillips on 9/26/04 at Boston.

Other Pinch-hit HR Notes: In 1998, the Yankees hit two pinch-hit home runs, both ninth-inning grand slams by Darryl Strawberry (on 5/2 at Kansas City and 8/4 at Oakland, G2)…the Yankees franchise has 255 pinch-hit home runs, including 21 pinch-hit grand slams.

Previous Yankee Stadium All-Star Games

The Yankees have hosted four All-Star Games, including the 2008 Midsummer Classic in Yankee Stadium's final season. The Stadium also hosted the All-Star Game in 1977 (48th), 1960 (29th) and 1939 (seventh). Only Cleveland's old Municipal Stadium hosted as many All-Star Games as Yankee Stadium. Overall, New York City has hosted eight MLB All-Star Games, the highest total in Major League history, with the Polo Grounds (1934 and 1942), Ebbets Field (1949) and Shea Stadium (1964) also serving as host sites. The 2008 game marked the first time the Midsummer Classic was held in the host team's final season at its ballpark.

Since the game originated in 1933, the Yankees have had the most All-Star players (116) and the highest total All-Star selections (364) of any Major League Baseball franchise. Mickey Mantle owns the most All-Star selections in club history, having been named to 20 All-Star teams (fourth-most all-time). Yankees pitcher Lefty Gomez is the only pitcher in All-Star Game history to earn three wins, having made five career All-Star starts. Joe DiMaggio (13-time All-Star) and Tom Tresh (three-time All-Star), own the distinction as the only Yankees rookies to start for the American League (1936 and 1962, respectively). Of the 80 All-Star Games, a Yankees Manager has skippered the American League team 29 times. Among Yankees on the roster as of Feb. 1, 2011, third baseman Alex Rodriguez leads the team with 13 career trips to the Midsummer Classic, followed by shortstop Derek Jeter and closer Mariano Rivera with 11 All-Star appearances apiece. Jeter holds the distinction as the only All-Star MVP in club history, taking home the honor in 2000 after going 3-for-3 with 1 double and 2RBI in the AL's 6-3 win at Atlanta's Turner Field. He became just the fourth shortstop to earn the award. Rodriguez led the Majors in All-Star balloting in 2007 and 2008.

Seventh All-Star Game

July 11, 1939, Yankee Stadium

Yankee Stadium was chosen to host the 1939 All-Star Game due to the World's Fair which was being held at Flushing-Meadows in Queens during the 1939 season. The Cubs' Gabby Hartnett managed the National League squad while Yankees skipper Joe McCarthy led the American League team, which featured 10 Yankees All-Stars, six of whom were starters. Yankees centerfielder Joe DiMaggio was 1-for-4 in the game, hitting a solo home run. Lou Gehrig, who announced his retirement in May of 1939, was an honorary member of the AL squad.

48th All-Star Game

July 19, 1977, Yankee Stadium

Showcasing its renovation, Yankee Stadium hosted the All-Star Game on July 19, 1977, in a game dedicated to Jackie Robinson. With the Yankees defending their 1976 pennant, Billy Martin managed the AL team on his home field. The National League won its sixth consecutive All-Star Game, part of the Senior Circuit's 11-game win streak. Joe Morgan opened the game with a home run off Jim Palmer as the NL squad scored four first-inning runs. Yankees outfielder Reggie Jackson and second baseman Willie Randolph were AL starters. National League Manager Sparky Anderson described the game's final score by saying, "the only reason we're here is to kick the living hell out of those guys."

29th All-Star Game

July 13, 1960 (Game #2), Yankee Stadium

Yankee Stadium was the host site for baseball's second All-Star Game in three days in 1960. The National League completed the All-Star sweep with a 6-0 win, having won Game 1 on July 11 in Kansas City, marking the only year that both All-Star games were won by the same team. Yankees hurler Whitey Ford was the starting pitcher for the AL squad, while fellow Yankees Yogi Berra (catcher), Mickey Mantle (left field), Roger Maris (centerfield) and Bill Skowron (first base) all appeared in the starting lineup. The National League used six different pitchers to combine on the shutout effort and hit an All-Star record-tying four home runs, including one by Willie Mays. The 38,000 fans who attended the game witnessed Ted Williams in his final All-Star appearance.

79th All-Star Game

July 15, 2008, Yankee Stadium

In the final Midsummer Classic at the original Yankee Stadium, the American League emerged with a 4-3 win in 15 innings as Texas' Michael Young brought home Minnesota's Justin Morneau with a "walk-off" sacrifice fly. The 4-hour, 50-minute contest was the longest All-Star Game time-wise and tied for the longest ASG in innings (also 1967 at Anaheim, 2-1 NL win). It was the AL's 12th straight All-Star Game victory and ensured American League homefield advantage in the World Series. SS Derek Jeter started and recorded the game's first hit in the first inning. RHP Mariano Rivera pitched 1.2 scoreless innings. Yankees Manager Joe Girardi joined the AL coaching staff as did Yankees Head Athletic Trainer Gene Monahan, who made his fourth All-Star Game appearance (also 1977, '86 and '92). Pregame ceremonies included 49 Hall of Famers, marking one of the largest gatherings of living baseball HOFers ever. The festivities were highlighted by Yankees Principal Owner/Chairperson George Steinbrenner, who delivered baseballs to the ceremonial first pitch participants (Reggie Jackson, Whitey Ford, Yogi Berra and Goose Gossage).

Yankees Postseason Summaries

1921 WORLD SERIES

Marked the Yankees' first ever World Series appearance in Baseball's last nine-game Fall Classic…Waite Hoyt went 2-1 despite not allowing an earned run in 27.0IP (18H, 11BB) over three starts…is tied with Christy Mathewson (1905) for the most IP without allowing an ER in a single World Series…lost, 1-0, in the Game 8 clincher, tossing a complete game and allowing an unearned run in the first inning…Carl Mays went 1-2 with a 1.73 ERA (26.0IP, 5ER) in his three starts, setting a still-standing record for most innings pitched in a single postseason without allowing a walk…Babe Ruth hit the first of his 15 career World Series home runs in a losing effort in Game 4.

New York Yankees (AL)	3
New York Giants (NL)	5

Babe Ruth hit the first of his 15 career World Series home runs in Game 4 of the 1921 World Series.

1922 WORLD SERIES

The Yankees went 0-4-1 against the Giants, marking just one of three times in 40 World Series appearances that the Yankees have been held without a win (were swept in 1963 vs. Los Angeles and 1976 vs. Cincinnati)…hit just .203 as a team…Game 2 marked the Yankees' only tie in 225 overall World Series games (134-90-1).

New York Yankees (AL)	0

1923 WORLD SERIES

Won the first World Series in franchise history in the inaugural season of the original Yankee Stadium…their Game 2 win snapped a nine-game World Series winless streak dating to 1921 (0-8-1)…scored five runs in the eighth inning of the Game 6 clincher to win, 6-4…Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel led the Yankees in HR (3) and RBI (8), respectively.

New York Giants (NL)	2

1926 WORLD SERIES

The Series is most remembered for Game 7, which featured Pete Alexander's bases-loaded, seventh-inning strikeout of Tony Lazzeri, and Babe Ruth making the final out of the series attempting to steal second base with the Yankees down, 3-2, in the ninth…Ruth became the first player to hit 3HR in a single World Series game (Game 4 at St. Louis) and the first to hit 4HR over an entire World Series.

St. Louis Cardinals (NL)	4
New York Yankees (AL)	3

1927 WORLD SERIES

The Murderers' Row Yankees became the first AL team to sweep a World Series…Babe Ruth had a Series-high 7RBI and his 2HR were the only homers of the Series…Herb Pennock was perfect through his first 22 batters of Game 3 before a Pie Traynor single…Yankees completed the sweep on a ninth-inning wild pitch from Pirates pitcher Johnny Miljus in Game 4…marked the first of eight consecutive winning World Series appearances for the franchise (1927-28, 32,'36-39,'41).

Yankee STADIUM

The New York Yankees began a new chapter in their storied history with the opening of Yankee Stadium in 2009. Located directly across the street from the site of the original, the new Stadium's architecture is a celebration of the spirit and tradition of the franchise. While firmly rooted in the past, the Stadium has a vision toward the future, incorporating the best in technology and state-of-the-art guest services.

All of the Stadium's modern amenities exist within the framework of classic elements of the original, most notably the instantly recognizable frieze that again circles the grandstand. Among the countless fan-friendly elements, massive video boards give Yankees fans more information than ever before, and concessions have been placed on concourses that allow for continuous viewing of the game.

Yankee Stadium, as a living museum, has been designed to set the standard—much like the team has done with its 27 World Championships.

The current Yankee Stadium [L] and the original Yankee Stadium in 2008.

THE STADIUM SITE

The Yankees are proud to play in the Bronx, which is home to approximately 1.4 million residents and is one of the five boroughs that make up New York City.

The Stadium sits on former parkland from Macombs Dam Park and Mullaly Park, with the Stadium grounds bounded by Jerome Avenue to the west, River Avenue to the east, and 161st Street to the south. The northern edge of the site is located between 162nd Street and 164th Street. In a nod to tradition, the footprint of the original Stadium has been replicated in the new Stadium.

Yankee Stadium is the fourth permanent home of the New York Yankees, following Hilltop Park (1903-12), the Polo Grounds (1913-22), and the original Yankee Stadium (1923-73, '76-2008). The Yankees also played two full seasons at Shea Stadium (1974-75) in Queens when the original Stadium underwent remodeling.

Gate 4 at Yankee Stadium

HOMAGE TO THE ORIGINAL STADIUM

The current Yankee Stadium evokes the spirit of the original, while restoring many of the lost treasures from before the renovations of 1974-75.

The signature frieze once again outlines the top of the Stadium bowl. As in the past, it is attached to a roof that extends into the Stadium, covering the top rows of the Grandstand.

Monument Park has been relocated to its original position in center field, albeit behind the fence, unlike before the renovation when the monuments were on the playing field. All plaques, monuments and tribute displays for the 16 Yankees who have had their numbers retired are on display for fans, who may visit Monument Park prior to all home games.

On the Main Level, near Gate 6, the Yankees Museum presented by Bank of America—a museum within a museum—tells the story of baseball and the Yankees franchise through various displays of artifacts and memorabilia. Items include a "Ball Wall" with hundreds of signed baseballs from Yankees greats, Thurman Munson's locker from the original Yankee Stadium and a replica of a locker from the Yankees clubhouse in the current Stadium. On game days, fans are welcome in the museum from the time the gates open until one hour after the game ends. On non-game days, visitors can enjoy the museum as part of Yankee Stadium tours.

Babe Ruth Plaza, located on the south side of the Stadium in between Gates 4 and 6, honors the man proverbially credited with building the original House that Ruth Built. Through a series of storyboards displayed on light posts, the Babe's life story is recounted throughout the plaza.

INNOVATIVE ARCHITECTURE AND MODERN AMENITIES

One of the goals in building Yankee Stadium was to bring fans closer to the action in a facility more attuned to modern needs and expectations. The new building is 63 percent larger than the original Stadium with about 500,000 square feet of additional space.

Improved sight lines, wider concourses and the installation of nearly 1,400 high-definition video monitors throughout the Stadium all ensure guests won't miss a minute of on-field action while in their seats or at concession stands.

In addition to the live game broadcast, these centrally controlled Internet protocol monitors can also provide up-to-the-moment news, scores, weather, traffic information and safety updates.

The Great Hall is a 31,000-square-foot space located between the Stadium's exterior wall and the interior of the Stadium. Spanning from Gate 4 to Gate 6, it is covered overhead but has massive open-air archways, which help support the Yankees' "green initiative." It is home to large banners bearing the images of past Yankees greats from Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig to more modern stars such as Don Mattingly and Paul O'Neill. A 24-foot-high-by-36-foot-wide 10mm true high-definition video board and a 5-foot-by-383-foot LED ribbon board immediately greet guests who enter through this portion of the Stadium.

The audio/visual experience at Yankee Stadium is highlighted by a 59-foot-high-by-101-foot-long 16mm true high-definition centerfield video board, which is flanked by two smaller video boards that display day-of-game lineups and out-of-town scores. Additionally, the entire length of the Terrace Level is spanned by a 3-foot-high, 1,279-foot long full-color LED ribbon board. A distributed sound system optimizes speaker placement for audio quality vastly superior to that in the original Stadium. The entire Stadium is built with a future-proof infrastructure designed by Cisco Systems that is easily adaptable to new technologies.

A 7,000-square-foot state-of-the-art banquet and conference center is designed to meet the needs of guests who wish to host business functions in the ballpark.

The Great Hall stretches from Gate 4 to Gate 6.

URBAN PLANNING

Babe Ruth Plaza facilitates pedestrian movement outside Yankee Stadium

The site for Yankee Stadium was in part selected for its proximity to mass transit. Like the original Stadium, it is served at the 161st Street/Yankee Stadium subway stop by the No. 4, B and D trains.

Metro-North offers train service to Yankee Stadium from anywhere in its service territory. For more information, call the MTA at (212) 532-4900 or visit www.mta.info.

As in previous years, Yankee Stadium is accessible by ferry service (800-53-FERRY) and New York City Transit bus lines (718-330-1234).

Pedestrian access points are located at Yankee Stadium's four gates: Gate 2 on Jerome Avenue and 164th Street; Gate 4 at Jerome Avenue and 161st Street; Gate 6 at River Avenue and 161st Street and Gate 8 at River Avenue, south of 164th Street.

RETAIL & FOOD OPTIONS

Traditional baseball fare at Yankee Stadium

There are three distinct retail stores in Yankee Stadium—the 5,825-square-foot Home Plate Team Store in the Great Hall near Gate 4, which houses the largest selection of Yankees merchandise and memorabilia; the New Era Team Store on the Main Level, which sells caps and other Yankees merchandise; and the Great Hall Team Store at Gate 6, which sells various items and is open year-round.

Yankee Stadium is home to two premier dining establishments. The iconic Hard Rock Cafe is open year-round and houses music memorabilia and Yankees-related pieces in a 7,000 square-foot restaurant at Gate 6, and NYY Steak, located above the Hard Rock Cafe, offers an upscale dining experience.

More casual fare can be found at a New York-themed food court located on the third-base side of the Field Level concourse.

DISABLED SERVICES

Yankee Stadium strives to provide an accessible environment for all of its guests. Wheelchair accessible and aisle transfer seats are available at various price points and locations, and include the Yankees' Premium Offerings seat locations.

There are two dedicated open-captioning video boards for guests who are deaf or have hearing impairments: one in left field, just below Section 233B, and one in right field, just below Section 206. Captioning is also provided on the right-center field televisions, the high-definition video board in the Great Hall, high-definition video monitors throughout Yankee Stadium and on the video board in the New York Yankees Museum presented by Bank of America.

The Yankees extend their appreciation to those who participated in periodic outreach meetings led by United Spinal Association, which helped build a Stadium that Acting U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York Lev Dassin called, "a model of accessibility to people with disabilities."

BRONX INCENTIVES

Yankee Stadium is one of the premier building projects to take place in the Bronx in the last 50 years. The hard work and dedication of engineers, architects and construction professionals in building and designing the Stadium makes the facility one of the most impressive and fan-friendly venues in Major League Baseball. Equally important was the project's dedication to support local community groups, institutions and residents as the Yankees remain devoted to the long-term development of the Bronx.

Building a new state-of-the-art facility required an army of talented and experienced professionals. As part of the Yankees' commitment to ensure that the Stadium project creates economic opportunities in the Bronx, the Yankees made a concerted effort to recruit a wide range of vendors and employees from the local community. Of the 190 contracts awarded, 63 were allotted to Bronx-based businesses (accounting for over 33 percent of the contracts and resulting in $133 million in contracts to Bronx-based businesses). The Yankees also stayed committed to hiring at least 25 percent of the total workforce from Bronx residents, again providing incentive to the surrounding community.

YANKEE STADIUM TIMELINE

JUNE 15, 2005 – The Yankees announce plans for a new Yankee Stadium to be constructed on parkland north of 161st Street – adjacent to the original Stadium's longtime site.

AUGUST 16, 2006 – The Yankees break ground for Yankee Stadium at a ceremony featuring George M. Steinbrenner, New York Governor George Pataki, New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg, Bronx Borough President Adolfo Carrion and Commissioner Bud Selig.

OCTOBER 2006 – The first concrete is poured.

DECEMBER 2007 – The first piece of frieze is put in place.

DECEMBER 2007 – The Stadium is considered 50 percent completed.

JANUARY 14-15, 2008 – Limestone Panels containing "YANKEE STADIUM" gold lettering are installed above Gate 4.

MARCH 29, 2008 – Eagle medallions inspired by those on the 1923 Stadium are lifted into place above Gate 4.

APRIL 2008 – Frieze installation is completed.

MAY 1, 2008 – A "topping off" ceremony is held to commemorate the completion of Yankee Stadium's steel structure.

MAY 2008 – The foul poles are installed, along with the first seats.

JUNE 18, 2008 – The Yankees hold their first press conference at the new Yankee Stadium, announcing a long-term agreement with Seminole Hard Rock Entertainment to open a Hard Rock Cafe near Gate 6. In addition, the Yankees introduce the newly-branded NYY Steak, a prime steakhouse to be located in Yankee Stadium.

SEPTEMBER 19, 2008 – The massive, blue, backlit "YANKEE STADIUM" lettering above Gate 4 is hoisted and installed.

OCTOBER 15, 2008 – The first sections of sod are laid.

OCTOBER 2008 – Lighting in the interior bowl is tested for the first time.

NOVEMBER 8, 2008 – Yankees executives and former players, including Scott Brosius, David Cone, Paul O' Neill and Jeff Nelson, along with 60 local Bronx high school youth groups remove home plate, the pitcher's rubber and pails of dirt from the original Stadium and install them in the new Yankee Stadium. The participating Bronx youth groups—Youth Force 2020, led by Turner Construction Company, and the ACE Mentor Program at Yankee Stadium, guided by Tishman Speyer—took part in Yankees-sponsored after-school programs relating to the construction and engineering of the new Yankee Stadium.

JANUARY 23, 2009 – The front office moves in, bringing World Series trophies from 1977 and 2000 to the new building.

FEBRUARY 2009 – Plaques and monuments are placed in the new Monument Park.

APRIL 3-4, 2009 – The first exhibition games are played vs. the Chicago Cubs.

APRIL 16, 2009 – The home opener is played vs. the Cleveland Indians.

Other Events at the Current Yankee Stadium

College Football

Notre Dame-27, Army-3 11/20/10

The first football game at the current Yankee Stadium marked the 50th all-time meeting between the two teams. Pregame festivities included a parachute jump from the Army's Black Daggers, followed by the national anthem sung by actor Patrick Wilson. Heisman Trophy winners Johnny Lujack of Notre Dame and Pete Dawkins of Army served as honorary captains, joining Yankees Managing General Partner Hal Steinbrenner for the coin toss. The crowd of 54,251 was the largest ever at the current Yankee Stadium.

New Era Pinstripe Bowl 12/30/10
Syracuse-36, Kansas State-34

The inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl marked the second-ever college football bowl game in the Bronx (also Gotham Bowl in 1962). Following an exciting week of events throughout New York City during the week leading up the game, Syracuse and Kansas State played an instant classic that was decided by one play – a failed two-point conversion by the Wildcats with just over one minute left in regulation.

The inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl was played Dec. 30, 2010.

Concerts

JAY-Z/Eminem Concerts 9/13-14/10

Yankee Stadium played host to its first-ever concerts, featuring Grammy Award winners JAY-Z and Eminem in a two-night affair. The sold-out shows featured crowds of 45,434 and 46,272, respectively. The concerts marked the second half of a home-and-home series of shows for New York City-native JAY-Z and Eminem, who was raised in the Detroit metropolitan area, as the pair also performed at Detroit's Comerica Park on September 2-3, 2010. Guest performers over the two nights at Yankee Stadium included Beyoncé, Mary J. Blige, Dr. Dre, 50 Cent, Kanye West and Coldplay lead singer Chris Martin.

Boxing

Press Conference to Announce 9/10/09
Manny Pacquiao-Miguel Cotto Fight

Yankee Stadium played host to a press conference to announce the boxing match between Miguel Cotto and Manny Pacquiao, which took place on November 14, 2009, at the MGM Grand Garden in Las Vegas. The free event took place on the field just beyond first base.

As the main event in Yankee Stadium's first boxing card, Miguel Cotto fought Yuri Foreman on June 5, 2010.

Miguel Cotto TKO (9th Rd.) Yuri Foreman 6/5/10

Boxing returned to the Bronx for the first time in 34 years with "Stadium Slugfest," as Miguel Cotto and Yuri Foreman squared off in the Yankee Stadium outfield on June 5, 2010 in the main event. In front of a crowd of 20,272, Cotto recorded a ninth-round technical knockout after landing a left-hand hook to the body to win the WBA Super Welterweight title. Foreman slipped in the seventh round and appeared to twist his knee. In a bizarre turn, the fight was temporarily halted in the eighth, when a towel was thrown in the ring from Foreman's corner. But referee Arthur Mercante felt Foreman was fit enough to fight through it and allowed the bout to continue.

Other Performers and Events

Joel and Victoria Osteen – "A Night of Hope" 4/25/09

In the first non-baseball event at the current Yankee Stadium, 34,195 people were on hand for a celebration of faith.

NYU Graduation 5/13/09

Commencement address was given by Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton.

Victoria Secret Model Search 10/3/09

Yankee Stadium was the home for an open casting call to select Runway Angels to walk in the 2009 Victoria's Secret Fashion Show. Five finalists were selected from the nearly 3,000 entrants that tried out at Yankee Stadium.

Damon Runyon 5K Charity Run/Walk 11/15/09

More than 2,500 participants including cancer patients and survivors, family, friends, supporters and Damon Runyon scientists ran or walked the Yankee Stadium concourses, warning track and playing field. Proceeds went to support young scientists funded by the Damon Runyon Cancer Research Foundation.

PepsiCo Global Investor Relations Meeting 3/22-23/10

PepsiCo, the second-largest food and beverage company in the world, hosted 300 senior executives and investors at the two-day event, which included discussions regarding the company's long-term vision and strategies.

NYU Graduation 5/12/10

Commencement address was given by award-winning actor and NYU alumnus Alec Baldwin.

CBS Radio Expo 6/26/10

An all-day expo featuring radio personalities and celebrities as well as live entertainment in the Yankee Stadium Great Hall.

PSAL Football Championship 12/7/10

Ft. Hamilton H.S.-8, Abraham Lincoln H.S.-6

Winter Wonderland 12/17/10

Yankee Stadium transformed into the North Pole for the 2010 Bronx Winter Wonderland event. Approximately 5,000 children from the Bronx were treated to a holiday extravaganza in Yankee Stadium's Great Hall, complete with Christmas decorations, festive holiday music and complimentary food and beverages. Santa set up his workshop in the Great Hall, handing out a toy to each child in attendance. The Yankees purchased $25,000 in toys, and Mattel donated 2,000 toys.

History of Original Yankee Stadium

One year after changing the course of Baseball history with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another acquisition that would forever alter the way the game was watched.

On February 5, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release announcing the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Manhattan-situated Polo Grounds, which the Yankees had been unhappily sharing with their landlord, the New York Giants of the National League, since 1913.

The relationship between the clubs crumbled after the 1920 season when the Yankees' attendance—boosted by their new slugging sensation—doubled to almost 1.3 million, approximately 25 percent more than that of the Giants. In 1921, the Giants asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. With their departure from the Polo Grounds now inevitable, Yankees co-owners Jacob Ruppert and Tillinghast l'Hommedieu Huston set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own, Baseball's first triple-decked structure. With an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first to be labeled a "stadium."

Original plans by the architect—the Osborn Engineering Company of Cleveland, Ohio—had the Stadium triple-decked and roofed all the way around. An early press release, in fact, described the Yankees' new home as a field enclosed with towering embattlements rendering the events inside "impenetrable to all human eyes, save those of aviators." But the initial grand design was quickly scaled back with the triple-decked grandstand not reaching either foul pole. Contrary to the owners' wishes, the action would be visible from the elevated trains that passed by the outfield, as well as from the buildings that would spring up across River Avenue. Fortunately, a purely decorative element survived the project's early downsizing and would become the park's most recognizable feature. A 15-foot-high copper frieze would adorn the front of the roof, which covered much of the Stadium's third deck. It would give Yankee Stadium a stately dignity that no park has possessed—either before or since.

The new stadium would favor left-handed power with the right-field foul pole only 295 feet from home plate (though the right-field fence would shoot out to 429 feet in right-center). The left-field pole measured only 281 feet from the plate, but right-handed hitters would be neutralized by a 395-foot left field and a whopping 460 feet to left-center. The new stadium would also be patron-friendly, boasting an unheard of "eight toilet rooms for men and as many for women scattered throughout the stands and bleachers." (After the Stadium was remodeled 50 years later, it included more than 50 restrooms.) The club's executive offices would be moved from Midtown Manhattan and relocated between the main and mezzanine decks with an electric elevator connecting them with the main entrance.

The construction contract was awarded to New York's White Construction Company on May 5, 1922, with the edict that the job be completed "at a definite price" of $2.5 million by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, it was. In only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium while thousands more milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Before the game began, John Philip Sousa and the Seventh Regiment Band led both clubs to the flagpole in deep center field, where the American flag and the Yankees' 1922 pennant were raised. Appropriately, Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win over the Boston Red Sox.

Yankee Stadium in the 1920s

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, New York Evening Telegram sportswriter Fred Lieb dubbed it "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series, as the Yankees won their first World Championship, defeating their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the original Stadium became the stage for a staggering 26 world titles, it would also become known as "The Home of Champions."

In its early years, when wooden bleachers surrounded the outfield, a grass slope rose toward the outfield walls from foul pole to foul pole. Outfielders, especially Ruth in right, routinely backed up the small hill to pull down fly balls. Advertising signs lined the tops of the bleachers except in right-center, where a lone manually operated wooden scoreboard was large enough to record 12 innings for games played by every club in the two major leagues. Over the years, the board would be replaced by more modern models. The Yankees, in fact, would unveil Baseball's first electronic message board in 1959.

By 1928, the Stadium was ready for its first major face-lift. The triple-decked grandstand in left field was extended beyond the foul pole and several rows of box seats were removed in order to extend the left-field foul pole distance to 301 feet. The right-field grandstand was extended in 1937, allowing for "upper-deck" home runs in both directions. With the grandstand expansion, the remaining wooden bleachers were replaced with a concrete structure, and the distance to center field dropped from 490 feet to a still-distant 461 feet.

The original manual scoreboard

In 1932, the Yankees began their tradition of commemorating their heroes with monuments and plaques when they dedicated a monument to Manager Miller Huggins, who had died suddenly during the 1929 season. Five more monuments were added (one each for Lou Gehrig, Ruth, Mickey Mantle and Joe DiMaggio and one to honor the victims and heroes of the terrorists attacks of September 11, 2001) along with numerous plaques. For years, existing monuments were in the field of play in deep center field, and outfielders occasionally had to work around them to retrieve baseballs hit to that part of the park.

Except for the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium remained relatively the same until the winter of 1966-67. Then, under the direction of the Yankees' new owner, CBS, the 44-year-old facility received a $1.5 million modernization, most of which was spent on 90 tons of paint. The brown concrete exterior was painted white as was the timeworn greenish copper frieze. Also, all of the grandstand seats went from green to blue, a color scheme that would be retained when the Stadium was completely remodeled after the 1973 season.

On August 8, 1972, after years of debate about the future of the aging ballpark, the Yankees signed a 30-year lease with the City of New York, which called for Yankee Stadium to be completely modernized in time for the 1976 season. After completing the Stadium's 50th-anniversary in 1973, the Yankees moved to Shea Stadium for two seasons while the majority of Yankee Stadium was torn down and rebuilt.

The most striking change of the modernization was the removal of the numerous obstructive steel columns that supported the second and third decks, as well as the roof. By "cantilevering" the upper decks and lowering the playing field while increasing the slope of the lower stands, sight lines for fans were dramatically improved. Capacity was reduced from 65,010 in 1973 to 54,028 upon reopening as wider plastic seats replaced wooden seats.

Of course, with the removal of the original roof, the Stadium almost lost its most-recognizable feature: the copper frieze. However, an innovative design concept included an exact replica of the frieze atop the new 560-foot-long scoreboard wall, which stretched across the rear of the bleachers. The board also included Baseball's first "telescreen," which could provide instant replays of the action by employing a then-incredible "nine shades of gray."

Yankee Stadium's exterior changed dramatically, as three escalator towers were added, one at each of the Stadium's three entrances. With seven additional rows of seats added to the upper deck, the already grand Stadium received an even more majestic look. A 138-foot Louisville Slugger-shaped smokestack, commonly called "The Bat," was added outside the Stadium near the home-plate entrance.

The renovated Stadium also saw the mammoth fence distances in left and center field greatly reduced as "Death Valley" in left-center was brought in from 457 feet to 430 feet, and straightaway center field was slimmed from 463 feet to 417 feet. Subsequent alterations prior to the 1985 and 1988 seasons brought fences in to the configuration that is now replicated in the current Yankee Stadium.

The remodeled original Yankee Stadium reopened on April 15, 1976—with the Yankees topping Minnesota, 11-4. Like its predecessor and successor, it hosted the World Series in its inaugural season. In fact, the remodeled Stadium hosted the Fall Classic in its first three seasons, as the Yankees followed their 1976 Series loss to Cincinnati by winning back-to-back World Series titles in 1977 and 1978 over the Dodgers.

As one of the world's most prestigious addresses, the original Yankee Stadium was also the home for scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events. While the Yankees were on the road or in the offseason, the Stadium opened its gates to college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, religious conventions, concerts and even the circus.

Boxing immediately found a home at Yankee Stadium with Benny Leonard winning a 15-round decision over Lou Tendler for the lightweight title just three months after the gates opened on July 23, 1923. When Muhammad Ali stopped Ken Norton on September 28, 1976, it marked the 30th championship fight at the Stadium. All previous title bouts had taken place between 1923 and 1959–perhaps none more memorable than the June 22, 1938, heavyweight championship match between Joe Louis and Germany's Max Schmeling. After suffering a knockout loss in the initial non-title encounter at the Stadium two years earlier, Louis—now the heavyweight champ—avenged his defeat with a stunning first-round KO in the rematch.

Football also became an immediate fixture at Yankee Stadium with the 1923 Army-Navy game inaugurating a rich history of collegiate and professional football matchups. On November 12, 1928, with Notre Dame and Army locked in a scoreless game at halftime, the legendary Knute Rockne made his famous "Win One for the Gipper" pep talk, and the Fighting Irish went on to defeat the Cadets, 12-6.

The New York football Giants also called Yankee Stadium home from 1956 through 1973 and on December 28, 1958, played in what is widely recognized as "The Greatest Game Ever Played." With the NFL championship at stake, a crowd of 64,185 watched the Baltimore Colts tie the game, 17-17, on a Steve Myrha field goal with seven seconds left. Eight minutes into professional football's first-ever "sudden-death" overtime period, the Colts' Alan Ameche crashed into the end zone from the 1-yard line, ending a contest that would help establish pro football as a major sport.

The Stadium was also an important stop for religious conventions, especially those of the Jehovah's Witnesses. In 1950, the group began holding conventions at the Stadium, including one that drew 123,707 people on August 8, 1958—the largest single-day event in Stadium history. On October 4, 1965—with the Yankees out of the World Series for only the third time in 17 years—the Stadium held the first-ever Papal Mass in the United States as Pope Paul VI celebrated Mass before a crowd in excess of 80,000. Pope John Paul II also celebrated Mass at the original Yankee Stadium on October 2, 1979, during his tour of the United States.

On August 16, 2006, a groundbreaking ceremony was held for a new Yankee Stadium to be ready for the 2009 season. The location chosen for the new building was the north side of 161st Street and River Avenue in the Bronx, directly across the street from the site of the original.

As part of its final season in 2008, Yankee Stadium hosted a third papal visit on April 20 from Pope Benedict XVI, NYU's commencement ceremony on May 14 (believed to be the first ever college commencement in Stadium history) and a 15-inning 4-3 AL victory in the 2008 All-Star Game on July 15 (the fourth at Yankee Stadium, joining Midsummer Classics in 1939, 1960-Game 2, and 1977).

The building took its final bow on September 21, when the Yankees played the last game in Stadium history. Gates opened at 1:00 p.m., allowing approximately 13,000 fans the opportunity to visit Monument Park and walk around the warning track. With a national Sunday night audience watching on television, all-time Yankees greats, along with the evening's starting lineup, took their positions in the field before Julia Ruth Stevens, daughter of Babe Ruth, tossed out the ceremonial first pitch. Fittingly, the game ended in a Yankees victory, this one over the Baltimore Orioles, 7-3. After the final out, the club assembled by the pitcher's mound at the side of captain Derek Jeter. Over the PA, he thanked the crowd for their years of support, while reminding everyone of the new memories soon to be made.

In the bottom of the seventh inning of the Yankees' final home game on September 21, 2008, a taped valedictory was given on the Yankee Stadium video board by longtime public address announcer Bob Sheppard, who was unable to say goodbye in person as he continued to recover at home from an illness that had kept him away from the Stadium for the entire season. His appearance on screen brought a reverential hush to the crowd as everyone recognized they were about to hear the most perfect of all couplings perhaps for the last time—Bob Sheppard's voice reverberating in the original Yankee Stadium. He said the following:

"Farewell, old Yankee Stadium, farewell.
What a wonderful story you can tell.
DiMaggio, Mantle, Gehrig and Ruth,
A baseball cathedral in truth."

Negro Leagues at Original Yankee Stadium

Satchel Paige warming up at Yankee Stadium on August 2, 1942

For almost 20 years in the 1930s and '40s, Yankee Stadium was a regular home to Negro Leagues baseball. During that time the greatest black stars of the day drew thousands of fans to watch players prohibited from playing in the Major Leagues at the time. Almost every Negro Leagues player of note over that two-decade stretch played at Yankee Stadium, including Hall of Famers Leroy "Satchel" Paige, John Henry "Pop" Lloyd, "Cool Papa" Bell, Oscar Charleston, Buck Leonard, Hilton Smith and Josh Gibson, who hit some of the longest home runs in the Stadium's history.

Yankee Stadium opened to black baseball on July 5, 1930, when Yankees owner Jacob Ruppert donated the free use of the facility to the New York Lincoln Giants and Baltimore Black Sox for a benefit doubleheader to raise money for the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, one of America's most prominent black unions. The games raised approximately $3,500 and included the appearance of Bill "Bojangles" Robinson who entertained the crowd along with the 369th Hell Fighters marching band.

Black baseball games at Yankee Stadium usually took place on Sundays when the Yankees played on the road. Sometimes a pair of teams would play a doubleheader, while at other times four-team doubleheaders were scheduled in order to maximize attendance and profits. Bands often performed and celebrities such as Joe Louis and New York City Mayor Fiorello La Guardia were common. Track races and other pregame contests also delighted fans.

In 1931, Lloyd organized an All-Star team of black players named the "Harlem Stars," which played several games at Yankee Stadium. Eventually, that team became the New York Black Yankees of the Negro National League. The club went on to use Yankee Stadium for a portion of their home schedule between 1936 and 1947, often wearing the used uniforms of the Major League Yankees. In the spring of 1941, Paige, black baseball's greatest pitcher, briefly joined the Black Yankees, pitching and winning his only game in a New York uniform at Yankee Stadium.

Dressed in their Homewood Grays uniforms, Hall of Famers Josh Gibson [L] and Buck Leonard [R] join Sam Bankhead [C] at Yankee Stadium in 1939.

Yankee Stadium also served as the venue for black baseball All-Star games and championship contests. One of the most memorable Negro Leagues All-Star games took place on August 27, 1939, when the Negro National League defeated the Negro American League, 10-2, with the help of Gibson's bases-clearing triple.

Ruppert's death in 1939 did not put a stop to black baseball at the Stadium. In fact, the Yankees sponsored a Jacob Ruppert Memorial Cup tournament among Negro National League teams. Ten doubleheaders were held at Yankee Stadium that summer to determine a winner, and on September 24, 1939, the Baltimore Elite Giants were crowned champs in Ruppert's name.

In October 1946, Yankee Stadium was home to two noteworthy exhibition games between an African-American All-Star team managed by Paige and an American League All-Star team led by future Hall of Famer Bob Feller. Cleveland Indians pitcher Bob Lemon hit a home run to win the first game for the AL but Paige out-pitched Feller in the second game to earn a split.

When Jackie Robinson finally broke the color barrier with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947, it was a watershed moment in the history of civil rights in the United States. But it did precipitate the decline and eventual extinction of the Negro Leagues.

Black baseball's relationship with the New York Yankees came to a close on August 20, 1961, as stars of the Negro American League gathered for its All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium. Paige, reportedly 55 years old at the time, pitched three scoreless innings and claimed the game's Most Valuable Player honors.

Previous Homes of the Yankees

Hilltop Park

American League Park (commonly known as Hilltop Park) was the Yankees' first home. Hastily constructed in just six weeks on one of the highest points in Upper Manhattan, the all-wooden ballpark sat on a block bounded by Broadway,165th Street, Fort Washington Avenue and 168th Street, in close proximity to the New York Giants' 155th Street home, the Polo Grounds. The first game at Hilltop Park was played on April 30, 1903—a 6-2 win over Washington, started by Hall of Famer Jack Chesbro.

The ballpark had a covered grandstand ringing the infield from first base to third base and uncovered bleachers running up the foul lines. There was seating for approximately 15,000 people, but as was the case in many ballparks of that time, it could accommodate overflow crowds both in the outfield and along foul ground in the infield, occasionally bringing capacity up toward 25,000.

When a fire ravaged the Polo Grounds on April 14, 1911, the Yankees allowed the Giants to play their home games at Hilltop Park until the Polo Grounds could be rebuilt. From April 15 through May 30, the Giants put together a 20-8 record at their temporary home.

The Yankees were successful in their 10 years at Hilltop Park, compiling a 398-342 all-time record there. The club's final game at the structure came on October 5, 1912—an 8-6 win vs. Washington. After the Yankees' lease at Hilltop Park expired at the end of the season, they decided to leave the rickety ballpark to become renters at the Polo Grounds, where the Giants became their landlords. The move, unthinkable years earlier, was facilitated by the Yankees' post-fire hospitality.

In 1914, Hilltop Park was torn down. Currently, its former location is the site of Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

Hilltop Park (above/below) served as the Yankees' first home. It was built in just six weeks and was located near Broadway and 168th Street in Upper Manhattan.

Polo Grounds

The Yankees called the Polo Grounds home from 1913 through 1922, sharing the park with the New York Giants. Located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, the Polo Grounds was overlooked by a promontory called Coogan's Bluff to the west. To the east was the Harlem River—on the other side of which Yankee Stadium was built in 1923.

The Polo Grounds was constructed with straight sides, and the outfield fences by the foul poles ran parallel to each other and away from home plate. The foul poles in left and right were approximately 277 and 258 feet away from the plate, respectively, while left-center, center and right fields were all in the range of 445-483 feet away from home.

The Yankees compiled a 416-338 all-time regular season record at the uniquely-shaped facility, winning the first two pennants in franchise history while tenants in 1921 and 1922. The club lost both of those World Series to the NL Champion Giants—5 games to 3 in 1921 and 4 games to none with one tie in 1922—in Fall Classics played entirely at the Polo Grounds.

The Polo Grounds, located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, served as the home of the Yankees from 1913-22.

The American Leaguers were welcome tenants as long as they remained less popular than the Giants. But with Babe Ruth's arrival in 1920 and the team's subsequent success, the dynamic quickly changed. After the Yankees started outdrawing the Giants in their own park in 1920 and 1921, the National Leaguers asked the Pinstripers to vacate to a new facility as soon as possible. The 1922 season marked their final season in Manhattan before their April 18, 1923, Yankee Stadium debut in the Bronx.

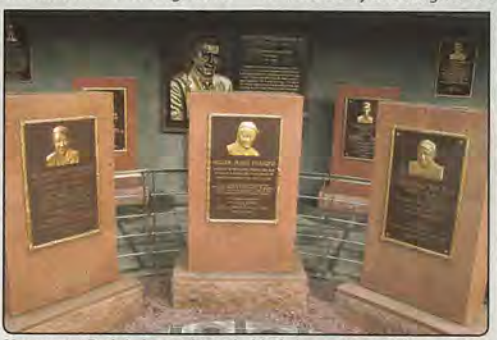
The Polo Grounds remained home to the Giants until they moved to San Francisco in 1958. It stood empty until 1962 when the Mets arrived to play two seasons there before moving into Shea Stadium. In 1964, the Polo Grounds was demolished. Apartment buildings called the Polo Grounds Towers occupy the site today.

Monument Park

Since 1932, the New York Yankees have honored their all-time greats with the dedication of monuments and plaques in Yankee Stadium. The tradition continues in the current Stadium in Monument Park, located behind the outfield fence in centerfield.

The first monument was dedicated on May 30, 1932, to the memory of Miller Huggins, who died suddenly in 1929. The diminutive manager guided the Yankees to six American League pennants and three World Championships in his 11-plus seasons.

The first plaque was placed on the center-field wall in April 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.



Monument Park is located just behind the centerfield fence and is accessible to all fans.

Two additional monuments followed: in 1941 for Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for Babe Ruth. Later plaques were placed in center field for General Manager Ed Barrow (1954) and two great Yankees center fielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle (1969). After his death, Mantle's plaque was removed and replaced by a fourth monument on August 25, 1996. On April 25, 1999, DiMaggio—who passed away less than two months earlier—was honored with the Stadium's fifth monument. (The two plaques which previously honored DiMaggio and Mantle were donated by the Yankees to the Yogi Berra Museum and Learning Center in Montclair, N.J.).

Originally, the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and Stadium flagpole were located in straight-away center field on the warning track approximately 10 feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go behind the monuments to retrieve the baseball.

One tradition of Yankee Stadium before it was remodeled was to allow fans to exit through the center-field gates via the warning track, where they could pause and reflect on the achievements of these honored legends. After Yankee Stadium was remodeled in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to an area off the field between the Yankees' and visitors' bullpens.

In 1976, two more plaques were added to memorialize managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel. In the 1980s, plaques were dedicated to Yankees greats Thurman Munson (1980), Elston Howard and Roger Maris (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Whitey Ford and Lefty Gomez (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989). The Yankee also dedicated two plaques to non-uniformed Yankees legends: the "Voice of the Yankees," Mel Allen (1998); and the "Voice of Yankee Stadium," public-address announcer Bob Sheppard (2000). Yankees greats Don Mattingly (1997), Reggie Jackson (2002), Ron Guidry (2003) and Red Ruffing (2004) are the most recent Bombers to be honored with plaques in Monument Park.

Plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope John Paul II in 1979 were dedicated by the Knights of Columbus, and a plaque commemorating the New York Yankees' interlocking "NY" insignia was added to the park in 2001. The most recent plaque was dedicated in 2008 following the visit of Pope Benedict XVI.

In 1985, after the left-center-field fence of the original Stadium was moved in, the Yankees were able to open Monument Park for up-close fan viewing. By 1988, long lines and increased fan interest caused the Yankees to move the fence in further and expand the area. A special walkway was added with an exhibit honoring those Yankees who have had their uniform numbers retired.

In a pregame ceremony on Sept. 11, 2002, the Yankees dedicated a monument in remembrance of the victims and heroes of the 9/11 tragedy. It was the sixth monument dedicated in Yankee Stadium and the first to non-Yankees personnel.

During the 2010 season, a monument was erected in honor of Yankees Principal Owner George M Steinbrenner, III , who passed away on July 13, 2010. During a special pregame ceremony on Sept. 20, 2010, the entire Yankees team joined the Steinbrenner family and Yankees alumni in unveiling the monument.

In all, there are seven monuments (for four Yankees players, one manager, one owner and one to commemorate the tragedy of 9/11) and 24 plaques (for 14 players, two managers, one owner, one executive, one PA announcer, one broadcaster, three Papal visit commemorations and one noting the history of the NY logo).

We Remember
On September 11, 2001, despicable acts of terrorism were perpetrated on our country.

In tribute to the eternal spirit of the innocent victims of these crimes and to the selfless courage shown by both public servants and private citizens, we dedicate this plaque.

These valiant souls, with unfettered resolve, exemplify the true character of this great nation. Their unity and resilience during this time of distress defined American heroism for future generations.

A true visionary who changed the game of baseball forever, he was considered the most influential owner in all of sports.
In his 37 years as Principal Owner, the Yankees posted a Major League-best .566 winning percentage, while winning 11 American League pennants and seven World Series titles, becoming the most recognizable sports brand in the world.
A devoted sportsman, he was Vice President of the United States Olympic Committee, a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees.
A great philanthropist whose charitable efforts were mostly performed without fanfare, he followed a personal motto of the greatest form of charity is anonymity.

Our team approach to healing hearts is saving lives.

Our cardiologists understand heart disease and the importance of finding it early. They're using technology that's ahead of the curve—including cardiac PET/CT stress testing and CT angiography that can capture detailed images of your heart in just five seconds. And if a blockage is diagnosed, they can remove it at a moment's notice in our state-of-the-art catheterization lab. When your heart is at risk, trust the team who can heal it.

To make an appointment with a Holy Name cardiologist, call 877-Holy-Name (465-9626).

Know the signs of a heart attack

Chest discomfort—Pain commonly occurs in the center of the chest and lasts more than a few minutes, or goes away and comes back. It can feel like an uncomfortable pressure, squeezing, fullness or pain.

Discomfort in other areas of the upper body—Symptoms can include pain or discomfort in one or both arms, the back, neck, jaw or stomach.

Shortness of breath with or without chest discomfort.

Other signs—Breaking out in a cold sweat, nausea or lightheadedness may also be signs of a heart attack.

Gender matters—As with men, women's most common heart attack symptom is chest pain or discomfort. But women are somewhat more likely than men to experience some of the other common symptoms, particularly shortness of breath, nausea/vomiting, and back or jaw pain.

Know the signs of a stroke

Act F.A.S.T.

Face—Ask the person to smile. Does one side of the face droop?

Arms—Ask the person to raise both arms. Does one arm drift downward?

Speech—Ask the person to repeat a simple sentence. Are the words slurred? Can he/she repeat the sentence correctly?

Time—If the person shows any of these symptoms, time is important. Call 911 or get to the hospital fast. Brain cells are dying.

Yankees Around the Globe

As the game of Baseball continues to grow on a global scale, "America's Pastime" has become infused with talent from all four corners of the world.

The New York Yankees, as one of the most recognized brands in the world, are dedicated to making meaningful and lasting footprints throughout the international Baseball community.

Just under 28 percent of players on Major League rosters on Opening Day 2010 were born outside the United States. For the Yankees, the total was 36.0 percent, with nine of the Yankees' 25 players on the team's Opening Day roster having been born in a foreign country. Among American League clubs, only the Rangers and Angels (10 each) had more foreign-born players on their Opening Day roster. The Yankees' 2010 Major League Opening Day roster was composed of players from six different nations outside the United States (Dominican Republic, South Korea, Mexico, Panama, Puerto Rico and Venezuela), tying for the second-most among all Major League clubs.

The Yankees' brand transcends international borders as fans show their pride around the globe.

Signing and developing exceptional talent from around the globe has become a trademark of the Yankees organization. Some of the club's acquisitions include the American League's all-time saves leader and Panama native Mariano Rivera, five-time All-Star Jorge Posada of Puerto Rico, two-time All-Star Hideki Matsui from Japan, 2006 Cy Young Award runner-up Chien-Ming Wang from Taiwan and All-Star Robinson Cano of the Dominican Republic.

At the minor league level, the organization has signed two Chinese minor leaguers, two players from the Israel Baseball League, and procured top minor league talent from Australia, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Mexico, Nicaragua and Taiwan. In addition, the Yankees field two Dominican Summer League teams and operate a state-of-the-art Latin Baseball Academy in the Dominican Republic.

The Latin Béisbol Academy

For the vast majority of the Yankees' Latin American prospects, the Latin Béisbol Academy is the starting point for their professional careers.

Constructed in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, the Yankees built their academy from scratch, allowing player development personnel to manage every detail of the project, from the trainer's room to the clubhouses to the classrooms. The end result is a four-building, four-field complex with the capacity to house up to 110 players. There is also a small apartment building for coaches and instructors. The academy, which officially opened in June 2005 and was completed in the spring of 2006, has a campus feel to it that is not lost on the ballplayers, many of whom are spending time away from their families for the first time.

Previously, the Yankees had leased a variety of facilities in Latin America for scouting and player development use, but it became apparent that it was necessary to find and develop their own facility.

"We've never had as many fields or batting cages," said Mark Newman, Yankees Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations, at the time the academy opened. "We've never had this level of control over player nutrition or this kind of strength and conditioning facility. All of these things enhance our player development efforts. Already, we've seen the physical, mental, emotional and fundamental maturation of players at a more rapid rate, and we should see it to a greater degree in the future."

As a dedicated investor in Latin American talent, the Yankees make every effort to enhance the instruction the players receive off the field. The complex is staffed with educators who teach American customs and provide one-on-one tutoring sessions. To further these goals, the Yankees created a partnership with Iberoamerican University (UNIBE) in Santo Domingo, a private institution that brings a group of 12 college professors to the academy. The professors teach everything from basic Spanish to three different levels of English, in addition to leading lectures on subjects such as conflict resolution and financial literacy.

The Yankees also arrange for past and present Major League stars, such as Mariano Rivera, Robinson Cano and Reggie Jackson, to be guest lecturers for the prospects. In November 2007, Yankees Manager Joe Girardi visited the Béisbol Academy and spoke to the coaching staff and 55 Latin players, including eight players from the 2006 and 2007 drafts. He also dined with the Yankees' senior Latin staff and watched a Dominican Instructional League game.

> "The Latin Béisbol Academy was built to instruct, enhance and further develop the inherent skills in young, aspiring baseball players from all parts of Central and South America."
> ~ Yankees Chief International Officer, Executive Vice President Felix Lopez

The players and staff are also active in local community events as well, hosting annual instructional clinics in the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela. In addition, the Yankees' Latin complex has hosted several R.B.I. (Reviving Baseball in the Inner City) tournament games and joined the Yankees organization in the 2007 donation of $65,000 in food and cash to hurricane damaged areas in the D.R. and Nicaragua. The Yankees have also adopted an orphanage in the Dominican town of La Romana, supplying it with food, money and clothing. In July 2010, Dominican Summer League players delivered gifts to ailing children at a local hospital in Santo Domingo. The Latin Beisbol Academy also played host to a fundraiser game against the Dominican National Police Department to raise money for local charities throughout the D.R.

The Yankees field two Dominican Summer League teams and have reached the playoffs in four of the last six years (2005-07, '09), taking home back-to-back titles in 2005 and 2006. With the hard work and dedication of the Yankees Player Development staff, the organization looks forward to the future, when these young players can be a part of a World Championship in the Bronx.

Partners in Japan

During the 2002 season, the Yankees entered into a working agreement with the Yomiuri Giants, winners of 21 Japan Series Championships. Pursuant to the agreement, the teams consented to share baseball information, ideas and strategies. Also in 2002, the Yankees pursued and signed three-time Central League MVP Hideki Matsui. A nine-time Japanese League All-Star and three-time home run champion, Matsui became the first bonafide power hitter to make the transition from Japan to the Major Leagues.

In 2004, the Yankees traveled to Tokyo to open the regular season against the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. The historic trip marked the 70th anniversary of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig's 1934 All-Star tour of Japan. It also recognized the anniversary of the founding of the Yomiuri Giants franchise, Japan's oldest professional baseball team. The two-game series was just the second-ever Major League season opener to take place in Japan. At the time, the two games were the highest-rated televised Major League games in Japan's history.

Korean Baseball Commissioner Young Koo You threw out the ceremonial first pitch prior to the Yankees-Blue Jays game on July 2, 2010.

Yankees Teach in Taiwan

In January 2009, the Yankees joined the Chinese Taipei Baseball Association under the auspices of Major League Baseball in holding a clinic for high school pitchers, catchers and coaches at the National Taiwan Sport University's Taoyuan Campus in Taipei, Taiwan. It marked the Yankees' first-ever large-scale outreach in Taiwan and represented the club's initiative in cultivating baseball talent and increasing brand recognition in Asia and the greater international community. The five-day clinic focused on pitching and catching fundamentals and philosophy.

Yankees and Chinese Baseball Association Reach Memorandum of Understanding

The New York Yankees and the Chinese Baseball Association (CBA) held a press conference in Beijing, China, on January 29, 2007, to announce a Memorandum of Understanding that for the first time formalized a strategic alliance between a Major League Baseball club and the Chinese Baseball Association. During the Yankees' 2009 World Series trophy tour, club officials met with the CBA in Beijing to further the cooperation agreement between the two entities.

The agreement, subject to Major League Baseball's rules, regulations and agreements pertaining to the People's Republic of China, states that the Yankees will provide the CBA with guidance in training baseball players, including sending coaches, player development staff, scouting and training personnel to China to assist the CBA. The partnership also allows the CBA to send staff to the Yankees' facilities in the United States in furtherance of those goals.

Yankees Team President Randy Levine and General Manager Brian Cashman established a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association on Jan. 29, 2007.

During their 2007 trip, the Yankees were represented in Beijing by team President Randy Levine, Senior Vice President and General Manager Brian Cashman, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Jean Afterman, and Vice President of Corporate Sales and Sponsorship Michael Tusiani. Beijing Womei Advertising Company Limited and Sportscorp China, headed by President and Managing Director Marc Ganis and Managing Director Kenneth Huang, coordinated the meetings and were instrumental in the Yankees' involvement in China.

"This agreement marks another milestone in Baseball's international evolution," Levine said. "We are excited to begin working alongside our friends in the Chinese Baseball Association, and they will receive our full support throughout this exciting process. The Yankees brand is recognized around the world, and this unprecedented opportunity allows us to further integrate the Yankees name and our proud history of success into Baseball's global landscape."

"It is a great honor to be a part of this unique and exciting opportunity," Cashman said. "Throughout China's history it's easy to see their passion for sports and their determination to excel in all athletic fields. With that belief in excellence, we are proud to begin work with the Chinese Baseball Association, and we will provide all of our available tools and resources to help develop and cultivate their baseball program from the ground up."

The CBA was represented by Chairman Hu Jianguo, Secretary General Shen Wei and Deputy Secretary General Tian Yuan.

On June 16, 2007, the Yankees announced the signings of C Zhenwang Zhang and LHP Kai Liu to minor league contracts, marking the first-ever acquisition by a Major League organization of Chinese baseball players. Both players were members of the Chinese National team that competed in the 2008 Olympics in Beijing.

Yankees Championship Trophy Tour of the Dominican Republic, Japan and China

Following their 2009 championship season, the Yankees embarked on a world tour with their 2009 World Series Trophy, traveling to the Dominican Republic and Asia.

The Yankees' 2009 championship trophy (left) visited the MLB Café in Tokyo, Japan, on Feb. 1, 2010. It was displayed alongside the Yomiuri Giants' 2009 Championship trophy (right) in the first-ever instance of the two titles being side-by-side.

Led by Chief International Officer and Executive Vice President Felix M. Lopez, Jr., a Yankees contingent took the championship trophy to the Dominican Republic for a three-day tour from Jan. 7-9, 2010. On the first night, the Yankees and the trophy went to the National Palace for a ceremony with Dominican Republic President Dr. Leonel Fernández. Lopez was joined by bench coach Tony Pena, and players Robinson Cano, Damaso Marte, Francisco Cervelli and Edwar Ramirez as well as by several Yankees minor leaguers. The next day, the Yankees visited the U.S. Embassy and the National Police Headquarters. That evening prior to the Dominican Winter League playoff game between the Licey Tigers and Escogido Lions at Quisqueya Stadium in Santo Domingo, Lopez threw out the ceremonial first pitch, and the Yankees displayed the trophy for fans in attendance. In their final day in the D.R., the Yankees placed the trophy on display for residents of the town of Casa de Campo. In the evening, Lopez tossed the ceremonial first pitch at a game between La Romano and Escogido, and the Yankees again displayed the trophy for fans.

Three weeks later, a Yankees delegation including Team President Randy Levine, Senior Vice President and General Manager Brian Cashman, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Jean Afterman and Senior Vice President of Corporate Sales and Sponsorships Michael Tusiani, took the trophy on a six-day tour to Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong from Jan. 31 through Feb. 5, 2010.

The contingent was met by fans and media at Tokyo's Narita Airport, marking this first-ever occasion of a Yankees World Series trophy being brought to Asia. The next day, another historic moment took place at the MLB Café in Tokyo as the trophy was displayed alongside the Yomiuri Giants' 2009 Japan Series championship trophy in the first-ever instance of the two titles being side-by-side. Following a press event, the trophies then remained on display throughout the evening.

Chinese youth players were on hand to see the trophy during a press conference with the Chinese Baseball Association on Feb. 3, 2010.

From there, the trophy traveled to China, where fans in Beijing and Hong Kong had their first opportunity to gaze at Major League Baseball's grandest prize. The trophy tour in China was organized by QSL Sports, which has been active in the promotion of Baseball in the People's Republic of China (PRC) and operates the China Youth Baseball League together with the Chinese Baseball Association. The events in China were hosted by QSL Sports, New World Department Stores (one of the largest owners and operators of department stores in China), and K11, the "World's First Art Mall," which integrates elements of art, culture and nature, while elevating the shopping experience.

On Feb. 3, 2010, Yankees officials met with the CBA in Beijing to further the cooperation agreement between the two entities, after which the groups held a joint press conference at the Kunlun Hotel. Later that evening, the championship trophy made its first public appearance in China at the New World Department Store, which included traditional Chinese performances and ceremonies. Joining the Yankees delegation were CBA officials, New World representatives and the Beijing Yankees youth baseball team, which is part of MLB's "Play Ball" youth baseball program in China.

Hong Kong marked the final stop on the Asian tour., with a Feb. 5, 2010, event at the Hyatt Regency hotel adjacent to the recently-opened K11 Mall. The next morning, the trophy was introduced to players and fans during the opening ceremony for Phoenix Cup 2010, Hong Kong's International Women's Baseball Tournament.

The Yankees thank their partner Delta Air Lines for ensuring the safe transportation of the World Series trophy and appreciate the efforts of Sportscorp China, led by president Marc Ganis.

The Yankees received a warm greeting from their Hong Kong fans on Feb. 4, 2010, when they became the first Major League team to step foot in the Chinese city.

From January 19-28, 2011, Yankees OF Curtis Granderson toured New Zealand as part of Major League Baseball's Ambassador program. While in the country, he held clinics and was on hand for the BCO Under-16 tournament, which determines which nation will represent the Oceania region at the Under-16 International Baseball Federation World Championships. The trip marked Granderson's fourth journey abroad as an MLB Ambassador, including stops in Europe, South Africa and China.

Media Services for Yankees Games

The New York Yankees Media Relations staff welcomes you to Yankee Stadium. Please see below for helpful information and guidelines for the 2011 season. Contact us with any questions or concerns you may have. We look forward to working with you.

ADMISSION TO STADIUM/CREDENTIAL PICK-UP: All media must enter Yankee Stadium via the Press Gate, adjacent to Gate 4. The Press Gate opens five hours prior to game time. BBWAA cards, MLB-issued passes or credentials issued by the New York Yankees are necessary for admittance. NO OTHER CREDENTIAL WILL BE HONORED. All bags are subject to search upon entry. Photo ID will be required.

ADMISSION TO FIELD AND DUGOUTS: On game days, the field and dugouts can be accessed from the Service Level (000) via the Field Access Tunnel (located on the outfield side of the Visitors Clubhouse) or through either team's clubhouse when open to the media during regular clubhouse hours. Take the press elevator or stairs from the Press Gate or Main Press Box down to the Service Level and follow the interior concourse to the right for the Yankees Clubhouse or to the left for the Field Access Tunnel and Visitors Clubhouse. Please note that the field is closed to media at the conclusion of the visiting team's batting practice.

CLUBHOUSES: The Yankees Clubhouse is open to those with BBWAA cards, MLB-issued passes or applicable credentials issued by the New York Yankees. NO OTHER CREDENTIAL WILL BE HONORED. The Clubhouse is open from three and a half hours prior to the game until one hour before game time. At times, certain additional restrictions may be imposed. Private corridors inside the clubhouse, including the trainer's room, player's lounge, weight room, etc. are CLOSED TO MEDIA AT ALL TIMES. Visiting clubhouse is governed by the visiting club.

CREDENTIAL QUESTIONS: Please direct questions to Alexandra Trochanowski in the Yankees Media Relations office at credentials@yankees.com or (718) 579-4460.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: All requests for 2011 single-game regular season media credentials for games played at Yankee Stadium may be made online at https://credentials.mlb.com. The online application is the only acceptable method for requesting single-game regular season media credentials for games played at Yankee Stadium. Yankees Broadcasters

Michael Kay

Now in his 10th season as the play-by-play announcer for the YES Network and WWOR-TV, Michael Kay immerses himself in all things New York in order to provide his listeners and viewers with original opinions and the most exclusive, up-to-the-minute Yankees information. Additionally, Kay is the host of YES' CenterStage series, hosts his own radio talk show on ESPN 1050 AM in New York and is a frequest contributor to ESPN's Emmy Award-winning Sports Reporters. In 2008, he handled play-by-play duties for ESPN Radio Network's coverage of the AL Division Series.

A 21-time Emmy Award nominee and three-time Emmy winner, Kay signed a multi-year extension with the YES Network in 2008 to remain as the club's lead play-by-play voice as well as host on a variety of YES Network programs.

Before joining the YES Network, Kay worked at the MSG Network from 1989-2001 as a Yankees reporter. In 1992, he added the assignment of Knicks locker room reporter to his responsibilities and continued in that role through the 1998-99 season.

In addition to his television work, Kay also worked as a Yankees analyst on WABC Radio from 1992-2002. Kay was a winner with Bob Goldscholl (WBBR) for "Best Sports Reporter" at the 2000 New York Metro Achievement in Radio Awards. After the Yankees' World Series victories in 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2009, Kay and John Sterling were asked by New York City's Mayor to host the post-parade victory celebration at City Hall.

In 1998, Kay also began co-hosting Sports Talk with John Sterling and Michael Kay, an MSG-produced nightly sports radio call-in show which aired on WABC Radio during the winter months. During the baseball season, Kay and Sterling hosted Yankee Talk which aired 90 minutes prior to all weekend Yankees games.

Shortly after graduating from Fordham University in 1982 with a B.A. in Communications, the Bronx, N.Y., native became one of the hot sports reporters in New York City with a style that combined great reporting skills with quality writing. While at Fordham, he honed his skills working for the school newspaper and radio station, working at Sports Phone and as the public address announcer for the New York Pro Summer Basketball League. In 1982, Kay landed a job as a general assignment writer for the New York Post. Two years later he began covering college basketball (1984-85) and then the New Jersey Nets, whom he covered for two seasons before becoming the newspaper's general basketball writer. In 1987, he moved to baseball where he served as his paper's Yankees beat reporter. While he was in that position, he got his first television job with MSG Network as host of the "Hot Stove League" segment of MSG's Sports Night. Kay moved from the Post to the New York Daily News in 1989, where he covered the Yankees until 1992, when he made the jump to radio. With the move, he became the first newspaper reporter in any sport to make the jump into the broadcast booth full-time, performing both play-by-play and analysis.

Kay was given the Dick Young Award for Excellence in Sports Media by the New York Pro Baseball Scouts in 1995. He was also a part of the Yankees/MSG Production team that was nominated for New York Emmy Awards for six consecutive years. In 1998, he was on the MSG team that won for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage–Series". In 1996 and '97, he was a member of the MSG team that won New York Emmys for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage–Single Program" for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter and "The Battle for New York: Yankees vs. Mets".

Kay resides in Hartsdale, N.Y., and is active with the Alzheimer's Association in memory of his mother, Rose, who passed away from the disease in 2006. For the past three years, Kay has joined Joe Girardi for the "Remember When, Remember Now" banquet at the Grand Central Oyster Bar to benefit Girardi's Catch 25 Foundation and Alzheimer's research. He and his wife, Jodi, were married in February.

Ken Singleton

Former Major Leaguer Ken Singleton enters his 10th season as a game analyst and announcer for YES Network broadcasts of the New York Yankees. Known on the diamond as a consistent power hitter, Singleton has proven to be equally as reliable since joining the radio and television broadcast booths.

Prior to joining YES, Singleton divided his time calling play-by-play and providing commentary at the MSG Network. In 1998, he was part of MSG's production team that won four New York Emmys for its Yankees coverage.

Singleton joined the MSG Network in 1997 from The Sports Network (TSN), where he served as analyst for the Montreal Expos from 1985-96. From 1991-96, he also called play-by-play and served as analyst for CIQ Radio, the Expos' flagship radio network. In 1996 and '97, he was named by FOX Sports as a lead analyst for Saturday afternoon baseball broadcasts. In 1997 and '98, he worked as an analyst for Major League Baseball International.

Singleton enjoyed a 15-year Major League career with the New York Mets, Montreal Expos and Baltimore Orioles, batting .282 with 317 doubles and 246HR. He is one of only 10 players in Baseball history to hit 35 or more home runs in a season as a switch-hitter. He also ranks among the all-time leaders in most Baltimore offensive categories, including homers, RBI and total bases. During his career, Singleton was named to the American League All-Star team in 1977, '79, and '81. He was named Most Valuable Oriole in 1975, '77, and '79 and was a member of the Orioles' 1983 World Championship team. In1982, he was the recipient of Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Award, honoring him for his contributions both on and off the field.

A native New Yorker, Singleton played both baseball and basketball in high school, and also played baseball in the Bronx Federation League at Macombs Dam Park on the current site of Yankee Stadium. After getting a basketball scholarship to Hofstra University and playing baseball as well for one year, Singleton was drafted by the Mets in 1967.

He enjoys golf and reading historical novels and lives with his wife Suzanne in Sparks, Md. He also has three sons and a daughter.

Jack Curry

Jack Curry joined the YES Network in 2010 as studio analyst, reporter and program contributor, following a 20-year career covering the Yankees for the New York Times. In addition, he contributes as a columnist on YESNetwork.com

During his career with the Times, Curry authored more than 4,500 articles, covering 18 World Series, 11 All-Star Games and two World Baseball Classics. The New Jersey native also was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize in 1999, and won multiple Times Publisher Awards.

Curry's television experience extends back to 1991, when he began contributing to Madison Square Garden Network's Yankees pre-game show and weekly baseball magazine show. He also co-wrote a book with Derek Jeter entitled Life You Imagine: Life Lessons for Achieving Your Dreams, which was a New York Times best-seller.

A 1986 graduate of Fordham University, Curry resides with his wife, Pamela, in New Jersey.

John Flaherty

Former Yankees catcher John Flaherty enters his sixth season as a field reporter, studio analyst and game analyst for YES Network telecasts in 2011.

Drafted by Boston in 1988, Flaherty progressed through the Red Sox farm system before joining their Major League squad in 1992. He played 14 seasons in the Majors with Boston (1992-93), Detroit (1994-96), San Diego (1996-97), Tampa Bay (1998-2002) and the Yankees (2003-05), compiling a .252 average with 80 HR in 1,047 games.

Flaherty brought his knowledge of the game and his veteran style of leadership to the Yankees clubhouse when he signed as a free agent in 2003. He played in 134 games with the Yankees across three seasons, and will be long remembered for his dramatic pinch-hit, "walk-off" single that defeated the Boston Red Sox in the 13th inning of a 5-4 victory on June 1, 2004, in the contest that featured Derek Jeter's famous dive in the third base stands.

Flaherty is a New York City native and a graduate of George Washington University. On May 15, 2009, he was awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from St. Thomas Aquinas College in Sparkill, N.Y.

Kimberly Jones

Kimberly Jones returns for her seventh season as a Yankees pregame and postgame clubhouse reporter. She is also a contributor to YES Network's This Week in Football and Yankees Hot Stove shows, as well as occasionally hosting talk shows on WFAN-AM 660 in New York.

Jones previously spent four-and-a-half years at the Star-Ledger (Newark, N.J.), where she covered the New York Giants for three seasons and was the NFL columnist for one. For the 2005 NFL season, she continued to contribute as the Star-Ledger's Sunday NFL notes columnist and also appeared as an NFL contributor on Out of Bounds on CN8, The Comcast Network.

Prior to moving to New Jersey, Jones worked at the Central Daily Times (State College, Pa.), where she was the beat writer for Penn State football and men's basketball.

A native of Dallastown, Pa., Jones graduated from Penn State with a B.A. in Journalism and an M.S. in Exercise and Sport Science. Following graduation, she completed an internship in the communications department of the Big Ten Conference in suburban Chicago.

Al Leiter

Entering his sixth year with the YES Network, former Yankees pitcher Al Leiter serves as color commentator, providing viewers with insight gained from his 19 years as a player in the Major Leagues. Prior to signing with YES, Leiter had worked as a postseason game analyst for FOX Sports and ESPN.

Originally drafted by the Yankees in 1984, Leiter played parts of 19 professional seasons with the Yankees (1987-89, 2005), Toronto Blue Jays (1989-95), Florida Marlins (1996-97, 2005) and New York Mets (1998-2004). A two-time All-Star (1996, 2000), he was a part of two world championship teams (Toronto in 1993 and Florida in 1997) and became the first pitcher in history to record a victory against all 30 Major League teams. On May 11, 1996, Leiter tossed the first no-hitter in Marlins history in an 11-0 win vs. Colorado.

A native of Bayville, N.J., Leiter has been nearly as busy off the field as he was on it. Since 1996, he has donated more than $1.5 million to various charities in the New York area and South Florida. In 2000, he was honored by Major League Baseball with the Roberto Clemente Award for his contributions to the community and in 2002, he was appointed to the board of directors of the Twin Towers Fund in New York City. He was named the March of Dimes "Sportsman of the Year" in 2003 and the John V. Mara "Sportsman of the Year" in 2004 by the Catholic Youth Organization. With his wife, Lori, he created "Leiter's Landing," a charitable organization committed to the betterment of youth through education, health care and social and community service. Leiter has also been the recipient of numerous other awards and honors as a result of his charity work, including the 2008 "Breakthrough Spirit Award" at the Children's Cancer and Blood Foundation gala in New York City.

Paul O'Neill

Paul O'Neill returns for his 10th consecutive season in broadcast television in 2011, serving as a game analyst for the YES Network.

The five-time All-Star outfielder played 17 years in the Majors, spending his final nine seasons in pinstripes. He appeared in six World Series, winning five titles, including four with the Yankees (1996, '98-2000).

Affectionately known as a "warrior" to most Yankees followers, O'Neill began his Major League career in 1985 with the Cincinnati Reds and earned the first of his five World Series championships in 1990. He joined the Yankees in 1993 after eight seasons with the Reds, and in 1994 claimed the American League batting title with a .359 average. From July 1995 to May 1997, he played in 235 consecutive games in right field without making an error. In 2001, at the age of 38, O'Neill became the oldest player in Major League history to steal 20 bases and hit 20 home runs in the same season.

He lives in his native Cincinnati with his wife, Nevalee, and their three children: Andrew, Aaron and Alexandra. He was named the "Father of the Year" in June 2008 by the National Father's Day Council at its 67th Annual Father of the Year dinner in New York.

Yankees Broadcasters

John Sterling

"Yankees win! Theeeeeee Yankees win!"

If anything has become synonymous with the Yankees' run of success over recent years, it is John Sterling's memorable conclusion to so many Yankees victories. As the radio voice to 162 games a year, plus preseason and postseason, he has called 3,647 games (3,495 regular season/152 postseason) over the last 22 seasons, without missing even one, making him one of the most recognized—and imitated voices—in all of New York sports.

Sterling joined the Yankees broadcast team in 1989 from Atlanta's TBS and WSB Radio, where he called Hawks basketball (1981-89) and Braves games (1982-87). It marked a return to the town where he first achieved fame, hosting a talk show on WMCA from 1971-78, and calling the Nets (1975-80, and as a fill-in, in 1997) and Islanders (1975-78) for WMCA ,WVNJ, WWOR-TV and SportsChannel.

Sterling also previously broadcasted Morgan State Football (eight years) and Washington Bullets basketball in 1981. In addition to his seven years at WMCA and a year at WSB in Atlanta, he has also hosted talk shows on WFAN and WABC in New York. He has not missed a broadcast since the fall of 1981.

As the host of the YES Network's acclaimed Yankeeography series, Sterling has won a total of nine Emmy Awards since 2003. He has also been honored by the New Jersey Sportswriters Association with its Radio-TV Excellence Award (1999), and was the winner of the 2001 Whitney Radio Jimmy Cannon Award. In addition, his call of a Jason Giambi home run on WCBS radio in 2002 was voted the "Best Baseball Call" of the year in a poll conducted by MLB.com. In 2002, Sterling was also honored by the NY Air Awards for being a part of the best play-by-play team on radio.

When he's not in the booth, Sterling serves as a master of on-field ceremonies for major Yankees events, and is well known for his emcee work at City Hall (with his former radio partner Michael Kay) at "Key to the City" ceremonies following Yankees World Series victories.

Sterling enjoys attending Broadway shows and boasts an extensive knowledge of the lyrics to many American pop standards. In 2007, he embarked on his own Broadway venture in a cabaret show titled "Baseball and Broadway" in which he both served as emcee and sang alongside broadway talent.

For the past 18 years, he has been a spokesman for the Leukemia Society of America. He enjoys reading, movies and swimming. He lives in Bergen County, N.J., and is the proud father of four children: daughter Abigail and triplets, Veronica, Bradford and Derek.

Suzyn Waldman

Award-winning journalist Suzyn Waldman begins her 25th season either covering or broadcasting the New York Yankees. She joined John Sterling in the radio booth in 2005 as the Yankees' color commentator on WCBS-AM radio, becoming the first woman to hold a full-time position as a Major League broadcaster.

Waldman has spent more than two decades overcoming all the obstacles that go along with being a female sports broadcaster and has risen to the top of her profession. In 2006, she became a permanent part of the "Women in Baseball" exhibit at the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, and in 2009, her World Series Game 6 scorecard was added to the Hall of Fame's collection, commemorating her being the first female broadcaster to call game action in the World Series.

In 1987, Waldman became the first female voice heard on WFAN-AM in New York, the first all-sports radio station in the country. She was a mainstay on that station for almost 15 years, creating the job of the radio beat reporter, covering both the New York Yankees and New York Knicks. Her news-breaking reports, exclusive interviews and always original and controversial opinions won her countless journalism awards. Her accolades include the "International Radio Award" for her live and emotional reporting from the upper deck of Candlestick Park during the 1989 San Francisco earthquake, the 1996 "NY Sportscaster of the Year" Award from the National Sportscasters & Sportswriters and the 1999 "Star Award" for radio from the American Women in Radio and TV. Waldman became a popular talk show host at WFAN and co-hosted the coveted midday slot until leaving WFAN in 2002 to join the YES Network.

The word "first" invariably precedes the name of Suzyn Waldman in every facet of her television and radio career. The first woman to work on a nationally-televised baseball broadcast, Waldman added another first, being the first woman to provide play-by-play for a Major League team, when she started broadcasting New York Yankees games for WPIX, MSG Network and WNYW/FOX5 in the mid 1990s. The first woman ever to host an NBA pre-and post-game show, Suzyn worked in that capacity for the New York Knicks on WFAN, provided play-by-play for the WNBA on Lifetime TV and was an analyst on St. John's basketball games for MSG and WFAN.

She has been honored by countless organizations, including the Thurman Munson Foundation, the March of Dimes, B'nai B'rith, the Jimmy Fund of Boston and the US Federal Women's Program. In 2006, she received the first Women's Global Health Award from the Albert Einstein College of Medicine at the United Nations. She is a tireless motivational speaker at schools and cancer centers around the country, encouraging young women to pursue their dreams despite any pitfalls they may encounter.

Waldman's life and accomplishments have been the subject of hundreds of magazine and newspaper articles, and chapters in children's and motivational books. She has been profiled on the Today Show, CBS Evening News with Dan Rather, ABC's 20/20 and NBC's Dateline.

A native Bostonian with a degree in Economics from Boston's prestigious Simmons College, Suzyn spent 15 years on the Broadway Musical Stage and performed in countless night clubs around the world. She is proudest of her two years starring opposite Richard Kiley in Man of La Mancha. She lives in Westchester with her German Shepherds, Gatsby and A.J.

Carlos Silva

Carlos Silva, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, enters his sixth season producing and engineering Yankees games for WCBS Radio 880 AM (Spanish and English). The 2011 season will mark his 11th year working on Yankees radio broadcasts and his 22nd overall season in baseball. Silva has also worked for ESPN Radio, Phillies Spanish radio as well the NBA's Orlando Magic and New Jersey Nets. He is also responsible for the translations and recording of Spanish broadcast spots throughout the season.

In the offseason, he resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife, Teresa, and his children Leslie , Kimberly and Matthew .

Yankees en Español

For the 15th consecutive season, the Yankees – in conjunction with WCBS radio – will provide Spanish radio and SAP (second audio programming) for game broadcasts.

Beto Villa

Beto Villa, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, has been broadcasting the Yankees since the beginning of the club's Spanish radio network in 1997, becoming one of the most recognized voices in baseball. The 2011 season will mark Villa's 15th as the "Spanish voice of the New York Yankees." His famous home run call: "¡La bola va atrás, se va, se va, se va, se vaaaaaaaaaa…se fue de cuadrangular…jonrón de…!" has made him very popular in the tri-state area and around the world.

Beto provides Spanish listeners with thorough and thoughtful Yankees coverage. He treasures his pages and pages of statistics of Latin American ballplayers, which he uses during his radiocasts. After beginning his career in 1981, he has had the opportunity to broadcast both the Major League World Series and the Caribbean World Series. He is currently a Senior Editor of Latinobaseball.com, a Web site covering Latin American players in the Majors and Winter Leagues. Beto has a daughter, Margarita.

Francisco Rivera

Since 1995, Francisco Rivera has been involved in baseball as a color commentator and play-by-play announcer, including six years in the Yankees' broadcast booth. A native of Morovis, Puerto Rico, he covered the Philadelphia Phillies for "Radio Tropical" from 1995 to 1998 and worked the American League Championship Series in 2003 and 2004 for ESPN. Rivera received his Bachelors Degree in Spanish Literature from Rutgers University and graduated from the Cambridge University-affiliated Miguel Angel Torres School of Communications in Manhattan in 1978. He was one of the pioneers of the talk show WADO Deportivo where he worked until 2003, and began his communications career covering NBA basketball for WADO.

Felix DeJesus

Felix DeJesus, a native New Yorker, enters his sixth season as a back-up commentator for the New York Yankees. He also serves as a Yankees correspondent for WCBS, writes for Listin Diario and is one of the co-hosts of El Mundo de Las Grandes Ligas, an internet show on MLB Radio.

DeJesus has been involved with the Hispanic market since 1993 when he became the color commentator for the NHL's Florida Panthers. He has worked in all areas of broadcasting, television, radio and the Internet. From 1998 to 2004, he covered Major League Baseball on television for XTRA Innings in New York. He covered the Caribbean World Series in 2002 for New York's Radio Unica 1660 AM and served as one of the play-by-play voices for the international broadcast of the 2007 Caribbean Series. He has also worked for FOX Sports, ESPN International and CNN. In 1999, he became the first announcer to broadcast in SAP for NBC News. DeJesus has also served the last five years as the Spanish language translator for Showtime Championship Boxing.

DeJesus graduated from Fordham University in 1988 with a degree in Economics and currently resides in the tri-state area. He and his wife, Melissa, have three children, Christopher, Brendan and Giselle.

George M. Steinbrenner Field

This year marks the 16th season the Yankees will play their spring training games at George M. Steinbrenner Field in Tampa, Fla. The complex has also served as the home of the Single-A Tampa Yankees of the Florida State League since it opened in 1996. The field's dimensions are an exact replica of Yankee Stadium in the Bronx, measuring 318 feet down the left line, 408 feet to center field and 314 feet down the right field line. In 2008, the addition of the Tampa Tribune Deck in right field expanded the Stadium's capacity to 11,076, making it the largest spring training facility in the Grapefruit League.

Fans will also notice another link to the Bronx with replicas of the Yankees' retired numbers placards from Yankee Stadium greeting them as they enter the complex.

Originally opened in 1996 as Legends Field, the complex was renamed in honor of the late Yankees' Principal Owner and Chairman prior to the Yankees' March 27, 2008, spring training game against the Pittsburgh Pirates. On February 14, 2008, Hal and Hank Steinbrenner announced that the New York Yankees would rename the facility George M. Steinbrenner Field. The name change followed two unanimous resolutions recommending and supporting the change from the Hillsborough County Commission and the Tampa City Council.

"I am humbled and flattered to have this outstanding and totally unexpected honor conferred on me," said George M. Steinbrenner at the time the resolution was passed. "I extend my thanks to the Tampa City Council and to the Hillsborough County Commissioners for passing resolutions suggesting and recommending the change. I also thank my family for supporting the renaming of the stadium and for everything they have done for so many years that helped bring about this great day."

The resolution passed by the Tampa City Council on February 7, 2008, cited Mr. Steinbrenner's many charitable donations on behalf of youth activities, hospitals and the arts. The resolution passed by the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioners on February 6, 2008, recognized Mr. Steinbrenner's numerous extraordinary contributions to the area.

ALL GAMES ARE EASTERN TIME

FOR YANKEES TICKET INFORMATION, PLEASE VISIT YANKEES.COM OR CALL (212) YANKEES

Game times listed as TBA are subject to determination by Major League Baseball and its television partners.

All seat locations are subject to availability.

Time, opponent, date and team rosters and lineups, including the Yankees' roster and lineup, are subject to change.

Tickets may not be used by the ticket holder/licensee or anyone else other than the Yankees for advertising, promotion or other commercial purposes, including, without limitation, contests, auctions, sweepstakes and giveaways.

NOTICE: All persons specifically consent to and are subject to metal detector and physical pat-down inspections prior to entry. Any person or property that could affect the safety of Yankee Stadium occupants/property shall be denied entry.

WARNING: During all batting practices, fielding practices, warm-ups and the course of the game and postseason game experience, hard hit baseballs and bats and fragments thereof may be thrown or hit into the stands, concourses and concessions areas. For everyone's safety, please stay alert and be aware of your surroundings. Any guest who is concerned with his or her seat location should contact any guest services representative for an alternate seat location.

Be advised that the Yankees reserve the right to take appropriate action against individuals who fraudulently obtain wheelchair accessible and companion seats, including, without limitation, ejection and legal action.
